ENCAMPMENT DATES CHANGED--MAY 27-8-9

Conflicts With Commencement and Other Attractions Cause Dates for Gathering of Old Soldiers to Be Advanced One Week

The dates for the nineteenth annual encampment of the Veterans Association of Whitman and Latah counties have been changed from June 3, 4 and 5 to May 27, 28 and 29, the new dates having been adopted because of numerous commencement activities, the Garfield picnic and other events, as well as the fact that the State College cadet corps will leave June 3 for San Francisco on the annual encampment. Charles Timblin, assistant general manager for the Western Union Life Insurance company of Spokane, and a lifelong friend and champion of the old soldier, has accepted an invitation to address the visitors on the evening of the second day, Friday, May 28, and will have a message of interest to every man who wore a uniform during the Civil war, whether the blue or the gray.

Leo L. Totten, chairman of the program committee, has already outlined a schedule of events that promises to eclipse any previous program, and is ably assisted in his work by members of the Women's Relief Corps, Mrs. E. W. Downen and Mrs. William Porter being members of his committee.

The old soldiers will arrive in Pullman on Thursday, May 27, and that afternoon will be guests at the baseball game between the National Fats and the International Leans. At six o'clock that evening refreshments will be served on the grounds, followed by a reception to the visiting veterans. The address of welcome will be delivered by Mayor Jackson, with other addresses by local Veterans and Sons of Veterans.

Friday morning the visitors will be taken on automobile sight-seeing trips through the college grounds, and to other points of interest. At 1:30 Friday afternoon will occur the big feature event of the encampment, a patriotic declamation contest, open to pupils of the schools of the Pullman neighborhood, in which handsome medals will be given for the best patriotic readings or recitations. This phase of the program is in charge of Mrs. E. W. Downen of the W. R. C., and the competition is open to each school, community, church or Sabbath school of the district, although only one contestant will be permitted from each organization. Anyone wishing to compete is requested to report to Mrs. Downen of the W. R. C.

Friday evening at six o'clock will be held the big bean bake and campfire, a feature which proved one of the greatest successes of the encampment last year. Baked beans in profusion, with coffee and other necessary appurtenances, will be served to all-comers, and as many servings as the leanest stomach desires. Stories, toasts and roasts will be the order of events, and nobody will be barred from taking part in the impromptu program. All the boy scouts are especially requested to attend this part of the program to receive first hand instruction from the old veterans in preparing "eats" under difficulties. At eight o'clock the main oration of the encampment will be delivered by Hon. Charles Timblin of Spokane.

Saturday morning will be devoted to decorating the graves of deceased comrades, in observance of Decoration Day.

All during the encampment martial music will be furnished by the rifle and drum corps of old soldiers from Reno Post of Spokane. The special music for the encampment is in charge of Mrs. William Porter, and all who will assist in that department are asked to report to her.

WILL INSPECT HIGHWAY

Several Pullman people, including E. Maguire, J. N. Scott and Professor L. V. Edwards, will next Saturday auto from Pullman to Spokane over the route of the Scenic highway, and report the condition of the roads to the Washington State Good Roads association. A complete inspection of the western division of the National Park highway will be made on that day.

DIRECTORS MEET

The directors of the Northwest Livestock association met in Pullman last Saturday evening to discuss the place for holding the next show and sale. A committee from the Lewiston Commercial Club, headed by its president, George Erb, waited upon the directors and asked more time to decide whether or not the Lewiston people will raise the $6500 necessary to finance the show at that place. It is probable that a final decision will be reached before June 1. The delay in deciding upon the location of the show is causing considerable inconvenience and the directors hope for an early settlement of the question.

HISTORICAL CLUB

The Historical club met at the home of Mrs. Ira D. Cardiff Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Hayward read a paper, "Civic Beauty a Feature of Patriotism," and Mrs. G. Elmer Brown of Spokane, chairman of the Arts and Crafts committee of the State Federation, gave an interesting talk about the aims and accomplishments of that committee and showed a charming exhibit of jewelry made by students in the Spokane high schools. Mrs. Brown exhibited over 300 pieces at VanDoren hall, most of them the work of women and children.

COLLEGE LIBRARIAN DIES SUDDENLY

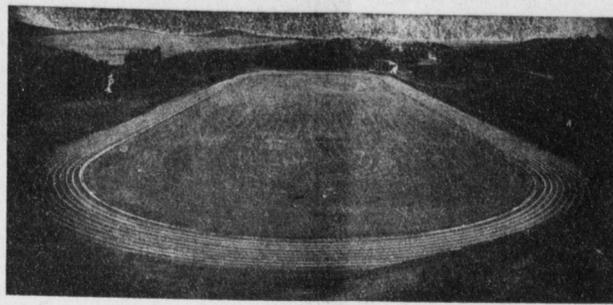

Albert Sherwood Wilson Passes Away at College Hospital Early Sunday Morning—Body Shipped to Canada

Albert Sherwood Wilson, for the past three years librarian at the State College, died at the College hospital early Sunday morning, death being caused by pulmonary infarct, an obstructed artery in the left lung. Mr. Wilson was operated on just a week before his death for appendicitis, and his death was probably hastened by his weakened condition following the operation, although he was fast recovering when suddenly stricken with the malady which claimed his life. Deceased was born at Merrittton, Alberta, Canada, in 1878, being 37 years, one month and 28 days of age at the time of death. Appropriate services were held during the chapel hour last Wednesday, and Wednesday afternoon the body was shipped to his boyhood home, Merrittton, Canada, accompanied by the widow. The body will arrive at its destination Sunday, and funeral services will be conducted there Monday. Mrs. Wilson will not return to Pullman.

Mr. Wilson became very much interested in the work which the Federated (Baptist and Congregational) churches were doing, and entered most heartily in the work. He became affiliated with the Baptist church in January of this year, and was constant in his efforts there. During the past few months he has been directing the work of the Brotherhood of the Federated Churches, and was one of those who was most active in the movement in the interest of establishing a social center in Pullman.

Mr. Wilson was a graduate of the U. of Toronto, and later a graduate student and fellow at the U. of Chicago. From 1904 to 1906 he was librarian of the Haskell Libraries at the U. of Chicago, and in 1906-7 held a similar position at the Colorado State Normal School. In 1907 he went to the U. of Illinois as assistant director of the Library School and assistant professor of library economy, which positions he filled until his coming to W. S. C. in 1912.

President Bryan paid a high tribute to Mr. Wilson in a few words spoken in chapel Monday morning, telling of the serious loss to the College which his death entails. Mr. Wilson's administration of the library he characterized as admirably efficient, his annual report having always been one of the most adequate turned in by any head of a department. Mr. Wilson's premature death cut off a career of great usefulness to the community.

If more than one half of the above records remain intact tonight, all the predictions of the dopsters will be shattered, as 135 of the premier high school athletes of Eastern Washington will strive to lower them this afternoon on Rogers Field. Twenty-two schools are entered in the big meet, each bringing to Pullman the best athletic timber it possesses, and the records already made by some of these sprinters, marathons, jumpers and weight men evidence the fact that many of the records are doomed to fall. Two events which are adding unusual interest to the meet this afternoon are the special 220-yard and 100-yard dashes for the interscholastic championship of the entire Northwest. The best sprinters from each section of the Northwest will come together in these races and thrilling finishes in record time are predicted. A special train will come down from Spokane bringing the two big 14-man teams from North Central and Lewis and Clark high schools, accompanied

Many Former Schoolmates Gather on Lawn

Mrs. Dan C. Downen Entertains at Beautifully Appointed Lawn Party in Honor of Visitors

In honor of Mrs. Pearl Black Williams of Portland; Mrs. Jessie E. Knowles of Oregon City, and Miss Blanche Layman of Moscow, all former residents of Pullman, Mrs. Daniel C. Downen last Saturday afternoon entertained at a beautifully appointed lawn party on the spacious Downen green on State street. The guests were all former by a large contingent of rooters, and other delegations of fans will come from nearly every town in the Inland Empire.

Pullman fans will take more than the ordinary interest in the meet because of the fact that the local school will have entered the best team that ever represented Pullman high. Melcher is certain to raise the record in the pole vault and has a good chance to win the event, and Price and other stellar performers are expected to make the speedy visiting athletes go the limit to win.

The Pullman team will be composed of Clark, Holroyd, Knous, Martini, Melcher, Miller, Norman, Price, Shirk, Sifkes, Squires, L. Walters and K. Walters.

Gold, silver, and bronze medals of beautiful design will go to the winners of the first three places in each event. The McCroskey cup will be presented to the winning team, but must be won three successive years to become the permanent property of any school. To the best team of six men or less will go the W. S. C. Co-operative Store cup, and the Western Union Life Insurance cup will be presented to the winning relay team. A gold medal will be presented to the individual high point winner by the Pullman Steam Laundry.

The schools which have entered teams are: Davenport, Walla Walla, Lewis and Clark, Colfax, Harrington, Wenatchee, Fairfield, North Central, Garfield, Colville, Pullman, Kettle Falls, Ephrata, Palouse, Tekoa, Newport, Endicott, Republic, St. John, Chelan, Johnson and Waitsburg.

The men to run the special 100- and 220-yard dashes have been selected and this race will bring together the cream of the prep school sprinters of the Northwest. Both events will be taken in record time, as every man entered has an enviable record as a track man. The men who will be matched in these events are: "Speed" Coulter of Lincoln high school, Portland; Raymond of Lapwai, the winner of the sprints of the Idaho Interscholastic last week; Daley of Everett, the champion of the west side; and Comkey of La Grande, Oregon, the winner of the Eastern Oregon meet at La Grande last week; and the winner of the meet here at Pullman.

The meet will start this afternoon at 1:15 o'clock and will be run off promptly, each race and heat having a set time when it will be started, even though only one of the men entered be ready to run. There will be three heats, and the final in each of the dashes and hurdle events, and the preliminary events will be run off first.

classmates of the three young ladies, and the afternoon was most pleasantly spent in recounting the innumerable pleasures and the lesser trials and tribulations of the happy school days. A dainty lunch was spread on the lawn, and the joyful party posed for a group picture.

Those present at the party were Pearl Black Williams, Jessie E. Knowles, Blanche Layman, Mrs. D. C. Downen, Lulu Pendry, Elizabeth Dow, Irene Thompson, Julia Buckley, Lottie Hall, Verna Anderson, Ada Wilson, Claudia Gass, Blanche Gerding, Sadie Vaughn, Beth Bolsinger, and Martha Walters.

LANEY CASE HEARD

The divorce case of Mary A. Laney versus Albert Laney was heard in the superior court Tuesday. Several Pullman witnesses were called. The complaint charges habitual drunkenness and inhuman treatment. The case was taken under advisement. The case of Albert Laney versus D. M. Haynes, in which the former sues for $25,000, charging alienation of the affections of Mrs. Laney, will probably be heard during the June term of court. At the former trial of the case the jury disagreed.

SHOWER FOR MISS PALMERTON

A bundle shower in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Nell Palmerton was held yesterday afternoon at the home of the parents of the bride-elect, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Palmerton, the guests being members of the Neighboring Neighbors of Sunnyside hill. For several years Miss Palmerton has been head of the stationery department of the Loman-Hanford company at Seattle, and in June will become the bride of a Seattle man.

Several Pullman men were drawn for jury service at the June term of the superior court. The local jurymen are N. Bourbonnie, T. M. Pritchard, Herbert Kimbrough, J. H. Moore, James Carter, G. H. Watt, Ed Kitzmiller, M. J. Chapman, P. Ryan and E. A. Kampen.

EXHIBITION OF ARTS AND CRAFTS

Interesting Display Under Auspices of Home Economics Department Attracts Much Attention

Under the auspices of the department of home economics of Washington State College a fine exhibition of arts and crafts in many of its branches is being largely attended and appreciated this week.

Mrs. G. Elmer Brown of Spokane, chairman of the arts and crafts committee of the Washington State Federation of Women's Clubs, who has charge of the exhibition, deserves much credit in bringing to the public such a well chosen exhibit of hand work. The work of the Spokane schools in printed fabrics, sewing, leather, and jewelry deserves special consideration. Such work leads to a finer appreciation of all industrial work and in the coming generation we will find the average home of the average man founded on those selective qualities so neglected in the past. With mature people this work is a wholesome avocation; placed in the schools it becomes a natural expression of their lives.

Much interest is being shown and the following parts of the exhibit are receiving unusual attention:

Jewelry and crafts work—Spokane high schools.

Original painting by Boynton. Etchings by Chapin.

Hand painted tapestry—Mrs. Frank Robbins, Spokane.

Thirty hand-colored "Ruskin" prints.

Spanish cutwork bedspread. Spanish hand embroidered silk shawl.

Spanish real lace parasol, belonging to Mrs. W. G. Stone of Spokane.

Thirty original Hodge cartoons. Filet crocheted bedspread—Mrs. C. V. Wadham.

Knitted shawls, embroidered towels, dresses, waists, underclothing, kimonas, stenciled scarfs and leather work of the Spokane grade and high schools.

Tatted bag of very fine thread—made by Mrs. Mary Tozier, 92 years old.

Thirty watercolors—Spokane club women.

Mrs. Brown is being entertained by Mrs. Solon Shedd, representing the State Federated Club women of Pullman, and appeared before the Historical club Tuesday afternoon.

BUY FORD AUTOMOBILES

The following Pullman people have, during the past few days, become possessed of Ford automobiles, the sales being made through the T. C. Martin agency: Bert Tuttle, Chas. Kellogg, V. L. Higgins, G. F. Johnson, M. L. Baxter and Walter Snyder.

COLLEGE LIVESTOCK REVELATION TO ALL

Mock Sale Saturday Brings Out Classy Bunch of Cattle, Horses, Swine and Sheep

Probably one of the greatest accomplishments of the mock sale of live stock held last Saturday under the auspices of the Saddle and Sirolo club of the State College, and its great value from other standpoints is not overlooked, was bringing to the attention of the citizens of Pullman, farmers from all parts of the county and live stock men from every corner of the Northwest the magnificent thoroughbred animals which stock the college farm. As the parade of the 43 head of live stock which had been groomed for the occasion by students of the animal husbandry and dairy divisions of the department of agriculture moved through Main street just prior to the big sale, hundreds of people voiced their surprise and extreme satisfaction at the wonderful display of the best live stock the Northwest affords. It was an education to every person who witnessed the parade, and the streets were lined with onlookers, and spoke volumes of praise for the great good which Professor William Hislop, new head of the division of animal husbandry, is accomplishing.

The parade was headed by the college band, and each animal, groomed to the minute and clean enough to grace anybody's parlor, was led by the student consignor who for three weeks had spent hours each day in placing the animal in the best possible sale condition. The big sale was held at the corner of Paradise and Pine streets, and the immense crowds overflowed the bleacher seats which had been constructed for the occasion. The sale was conducted by L. H. Linbarger and George Gue, of North Yakima, auctioneers who have cried some of the biggest live stock sales in the Northwest, and every particular of the afternoon moved with the precision of clock-work.

The animals were placed under the hammer and "sold" to the student whose bid was highest. The entire sales totaled $18,080, within $1000 of the inventory of the same stock taken March 31 by Professor Hislop, which proved that the students were conservative bidders. The prize for the best groomed animal, a silver loving cup presented by the Pullman Chamber of Commerce, was won by Miss Louise A. McGavick of Tacoma, a student in the dairy division, and the only young lady in the competition, whose entry was Princess Ena, a beautiful Ayrshire cow. Second prize for best groomed animal, a cup presented by Professor Hislop, was won by Fred L. Russell, with the Hereford bull, Discretion. Another prize will go to the student whose bidding was most consistent, as soon as the tabulations are made by the committee.

Black Prince, the three-year-old Percheron stallion, brought the record price of the sale, $2350; with Ewald, the German Coacher, a close second, at $2075. Discretion, the old Hereford sire, brought the neat sum of $975; while Miss McGavick's consignment, the pretty Ayrshire Princess Ena, brought $500.

The stockmen's banquet held in the evening was a great get-together meeting for students and prominent stockmen of the state.

Prizes for best groomed animal in each class were awarded as follows:

- Hereford, Fred L. Russell, first; Howard Hanblom, second. Short-horn, C. A. Zimmerman, first; C. E. Smith, second. Aberdeen Angus, W. W. Henry, first; W. P. Goldsworthy, second. Galloway, C. J. Broughton, first; A. L. Hildenbrand, second. Ayrshire, Miss Louise A. McGavick, first; Ray Welden, second. Holstein, V. V. Lamreaux, first; S. P. Shafer, second. Jersey, R. L. Taylor, first; A. K. Millay, second. Horses, Victor Morgan, first; E. E. King, second. Sheep, Huston Grover, first; J. I. Stevens, second. Poland China swine, Lynn S. Keyes, first; Guy R. Coe, second. Duroc Jersey, Theodore Cartwright, first; J. E. Huntington, second. Berkshires, A. W. Kienholz, first; Sydney Allen, second. Tamworth, H. H. Whitford, first; R. E. Miller, second.
