

EWARTSVILLE

The Grange meetings will be resumed now, since the business of harvest is over. At the first meeting, next Monday night, a class will be instructed in the first and second degrees.

J. T. LaFollette spent a couple of days this week in Spokane with his father, W. L. LaFollette, and his grandmother, who is very ill.

A thoroughbred Shropshire ram has been donated by Max Hinrichs to be sold at the M. Farley sale, October 11, for the benefit of the Red Cross and the Y. M. C. A.

The registration books will close on October 15. All those who did not vote at the general election two years ago, or who did not register before the primary election, should register before the date of closing.

Mr. and Mrs. Sari Driscoll, who have been employed on the Will Ryan farm, and Mr. Ed Brown and son, who have been employed on the Frank Murray farm, expect to leave the last of this week for Seattle in their Ford car.

Mrs. George Bader of Pullman is assisting Mrs. A. E. Olson with her housework.

Mrs. Nat Bryant and Mrs. W. H. Kincaid of Pullman spent Tuesday afternoon at the J. S. Klemgard farm.

A large crowd attended the John Hall sale last Thursday.

Harold Brannon left last week for Spokane to enlist in the Marines. He was unable to pass the examination and will undergo an operation to make himself physically fit. He went on to Camp Lewis to visit his brother, Fred, who has been there for some time. He was accompanied as far as Spokane by his cousin, Roy Brannon, who enlisted in the Marines.

Miss Verne Nelson returned to her home at Garfield on Monday of this week after spending several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Alec McPherson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young and children of Pullman, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Young's mother, Mrs. M. E. Rucker.

Mr. and Mrs. Klees were Sunday guests at the Max Hinrichs home. They expect soon to move onto the farm owned by Mr. Hinrichs, known as the Carl Brewink place.

Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Higgins and Mrs. J. M. Klemgard were Moscow visitors last Friday.

Word was received here Saturday evening of the death of William Rucker at a sanitarium in Walla Walla that afternoon. Mr. Rucker was an uncle of Claude and Lee Roy Rucker of this neighborhood, and was well known here, having resided on the George Ford ranch some time before going to Walla Walla. He was a Civil war veteran and his death was caused by an illness contracted while he was serving his country.

J. M. Klemgard was a Garfield visitor on Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davis of Reno, Wash., are guests this week at the Sherman Brannon home.

Mrs. W. H. Pritchard and little son, John Robert, with Mr. and Mrs. Chris Naffziger of Pullman, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Naffziger's sister, Mrs. Katie Stevick, near Onecho.

George Clark came down last week from Alberta to visit his daughters, Mrs. Ed Hogan and Mrs. Will Ryan.

Mr. and Mrs. Mose Peacock, who have been employed on the H. J. Young farm this summer, are spending a few days with friends and relatives in Pullman, before going to Spokane for the winter.

The Snyder-Rucker combine finished a long run on Saturday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Klemgard, Miss Patsy Klemgard and Master Hudson, spent Sunday with Miss Mildred Klemgard at the St. Scholastica's academy at Colton.

C. O. Kellogg returned home last week from his farm in Montana, where he spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vollmer had as their guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sanborn of Pullman, and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Klemgard.

Miss Lora Whitten is expecting to enter the business college of W. S. C. in a few days.

V. L. Higgins, J. S. and J. M. Klemgard were in attendance at a sale near Steptoe last Wednesday.

"CAD" DURHAM WRITES FROM "OVER THERE"

Comrades of Lieut. Boyd Maynard Speak in High Terms of His Bravery When Wounded

The editor of The Herald has received the following letter from C. R. (Cad) Durham, written on August 10:

Have heard so little of Pullman and the "College on the Hill" that I must appeal to you for information—lots of it.

Most of the fellows from Washington State are in the army or navy and the pleasure of meeting one of the "gang" over here has been denied me so far. Met Carl Dietz at Quantico and the chances are good that we may meet again. Some of the men at the hospital were with Lieut. Boyd Maynard when he was fatally wounded. Their high praise of him was expected by me, but there are so many gallant men go "down" unnoticed that these particular words meant more than you can really tell. Such gallant men help to keep the Marine spirit and reputation at its high pinnacle of fame.

At present I am behind the lines in a rest camp. But it is a short jump when the word comes, so you can never tell when you will be in action. And that word "action" means something more than a Webster version when it is interpreted by the Marines. Rather the same hidden force of the old "Give 'em hell" yell that was discarded by the non-combatants at Washington State.

Never saw or heard the arguments when the old yell was put aside, but I didn't like it. That old spirit is the one we carry with us "over here" and the one we are going to bring back. It carries a whole lot of force, overcomes many obstacles—but it may be all wrong. The Huns think so, I imagine.

Had a rather exciting trip on the way over. Had to abandon ship in a heavy sea and be picked up by another ship, and I can tell you it is far more exciting than trying to steal Idaho's horn before the big game. No accidents or loss of life, however, and it was a fine experience (after it was all over).

Wonder how the folks back on the Pacific coast interpret this drive against the Hun? The real effect will not be known for a long time and we are not too over-confident, but it does show that the Prussian has a worthy foe in the field. Sooner or later the inevitable must come.

We hear so many wonderful stories of the Marine drive in Chateau Thierry; of so many heroic deeds, that a person has to have an almost miraculous tale to even get the privilege to tell his experience. The "Everybody's Doin' It" spirit seems to get into everybody's system. But let a man miss his morning meal and he will talk about it for a week.

C. R. DURHAM,
U. S. N.

NOTICE OF HEARING

In the Superior Court of the State of Washington, in and for the County of Whitman.

In the Matter of the Estate of Grover C. Whiteley, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given that Ella Whiteley has petitioned the court for an order setting aside to her the residue of the property belonging to said deceased, which is less than $3000 in value, and that the court has fixed Friday, the 1st day of November, 1918, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon at the court house in Colfax, Washington, for a hearing on said petition.

Now, therefore, all persons interested are hereby notified to be and appear on the 1st day of November, 1918, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon at the court house in Colfax, Washington, and show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted.

Given under my hand this 1st day of October, 1918.

(Seal) M. P. BELLINGER, Clerk.

By R. L. Wilkenson, Deputy Clerk.

DOES YOUR PIANO NEED TUNING?

V. H. Brown, the veteran piano tuner of Spokane, will make his 62d semi-annual visit to Pullman about September 29, remaining six days. Besides tuning the pianos at the college, he will give attention to all orders for tuning left at the Palace hotel, but will not make any canvass for work. Any persons desiring to have their instruments tuned by a thoroughly reliable and skillful man should place their orders early, as Mr. Brown's time is limited and he always has plenty of engagements.

The sacrifice of the American home, added to the efforts of the American farmer, have removed fear from the minds of our allies, for this year, at least.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To users of Electric Water Heaters:

The water coil in your furnace raises your fuel bill from two to three dollars per month.

Tests made by our customers prove this conclusively.

And you have hot water ONLY when the furnace is going.

Your Electric Heater supplies hot water ALL the time as no greater cost.
