

COMMITTEES READY FOR TERM'S WORK

Standing Committees Named for Chamber of Commerce—Will Report All Activities at Close of Term

The committee chairmen named by the trustees of the chamber of commerce have selected their standing committees for the work of the chamber during the next six months, and programs will be mapped out for the various committees before the next meeting of the organization. An innovation that augurs for greater activity by the standing committees during the coming term is the report to be made by the chairman at the close of the term giving a detailed account of all the work done by his committee. The various committees, with the chairman appearing first in each case, are as follows:

- Legislative—F. E. Sanger, D. C. Dow, M. S. Jamar, O. L. Waller, D. C. Downen.
- New Industries—F. F. Nalder, Karl Allen, H. Folger, F. C. Forrest, E. O. Schafer.
- City improvement and sanitation—F. C. Densow, A. F. Lukins, D. F. Staley, J. L. Gilleland, W. M. Ellsworth.
- Publicity—A. R. Metz, Thos. Neill, J. N. Emerson, H. Kimbrough, Karl Allen.
- Roads and parks—J. S. Klemgard, J. B. Sanborn, W. L. Greenawalt, H. F. Phelps, Thos. Neill.
- Entertainment—Lee Allen, E. E. Wegner, John Gerding, F. E. Sanger, Robert Neill.
- Agriculture—C. A. Isaacs, E. C. Johnson, F. M. Slagle, James Emert, H. Folger.
- Railroads and immigration—B. H. Douglass, M. S. Jamar, William Laird, O. L. Waller, J. N. Emerson.
- Membership—Geo. T. McMahon, Robert Neill, E. E. Wegner, Herbert Kimbrough, George Gannon.

OPEN FORUM TO RESUME MEETINGS

The weekly open forum meetings will be resumed Sunday evening at the Grand theatre, and will be continued thereafter, some pertinent subject to be discussed every Sunday evening. On next Sunday evening the speaker will be Dean E. C. Johnson of the college of agriculture of the State College, who will take as his subject "The Farmers Organized." This will be the first of a series of talks on questions of interest to the farmers of the community to be given within the next few weeks.

REED AGAIN COMMISSIONED POSTMASTER

G. W. Reed, postmaster for the past five years, has been commissioned for another four-year term, according to advices from Washington, D. C., this week. Mr. Reed's first term expired last spring, but his reappointment has been delayed, owing to stress of other business at the national capital, until this time. The reappointment of Postmaster Reed was expected and meets with the approval of the patrons of the office. The second term will date from December 1 last.

STATE COLLEGE OF WASHINGTON, PULLMAN, WASHINGTON, NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Bids opened 2:00 p. m. Thursday, January 22, 1920.
Sealed bids will be received by the Board of Regents of the State College of Washington, Pullman, Wash., for the erection of a Dairy Building at the State College of Washington, Pullman, Washington, according to plans and specifications prepared by Julius A. Zittel, architect, Jamieson Building, Spokane, Washington.
Plans and specifications may be obtained by writing Julius A. Zittel, architect, Jamieson Building, Spokane, Washington, and enclosing check for ten ($10.00) dollars to secure return of plans.
Each bidder will be required to deposit a certified check made payable to Board of Regents, State College of Washington, to the amount of 5 per cent of his bid.
Bids will be opened at 2:00 p. m. Thursday, January 22, 1920, by the Board of Regents at the office of the president, State College of Washington, Pullman, Washington.
The Board of Regents reserves the right to reject any and all bids.
E. O. HOLLAND,
Secy. Board of Regents.
dec26-Jan2

INSURANCE? Talk with Downen.

LOHESSE CLUB ENTERTAINS FOR ALUMNI

Last Saturday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Guthrie, south of Pullman, was the scene of a very enjoyable party when the Lohesse club entertained in honor of its alumni members. The evening was spent with games and a movie drama was staged. Delicious refreshments were served and toward midnight the guests departed, declaring the hospitality of the Guthrie home would long be pleasantly remembered by the members of the club. On the homeward journey the crowd gave evidence of its joy by singing and giving the college yells, thereby letting the residents en route know that the Lohesse club was out for a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hungate returned Tuesday from Spokane, where they accompanied their daughter, Mrs. C. V. Piper, on the way to her home at Washington, D. C.

A number of her friends gave a surprise party to Miss Iras Troy last Saturday evening.

Rev. G. W. Laidlaw went to Spokane to eat his Christmas dinner at the home of Bishop Page.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Ham returned last Saturday from Portland, Ore., where they spent a week. They had intended to go to California, but could not secure reservations on the train without waiting for two or three days.

Lloyd Emert entertained a number of his school mates and friends Wednesday evening. Games and refreshments made the dying hours of the old year pass quickly and the young folks gave the dawn of 1920 an enthusiastic reception.

Stanton Hall and family returned Monday from Spokane, where they spent Christmas.

JOHN LEITER IS DEAD

John H. Leiter, a former resident of Pullman, died at the soldiers' home at Retsil, Wash., December 19, and was buried in the K. of P. cemetery at Port Orchard, Wash., December 22. Mr. Leiter was 84 years of age and a veteran of the Civil war. He was a member of Colfax lodge, No. 4, Knights of Pythias. One daughter, Mrs. Ruth Leiter Bowers, a former State College girl, lives at Yakima.

PULLMAN MAN WEDDED

George E. Sharp of this city and Miss Crystal Heise of Garfield were married in Garfield New Years day. The young couple left for a short honeymoon trip, after which they will make their home in Pullman, the groom being employed in Hamilton's Hardware. Both the young people are well known in their communities and highly respected. The bride is a former service man.

BAKER OVERCOME BY GAS FUMES

A. B. Baker, of the Baker Motor company, was overcome by gas fumes at the garage Wednesday afternoon and was found unconscious on the floor of his office. He was rushed to his home and physicians summoned, but he soon recovered consciousness and will likely suffer no ill effects from his experience. Ed Houck, an employe of the garage, was also "gassed" but not so seriously as Mr. Baker. A number of new automobiles were being "warmed up" in the garage and the gas fumes from these machines were responsible for the trouble.

MARRIED AT COLFAX

Bert L. Mansfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mansfield, prominent farmers of the Pullman neighborhood, and Miss Alberta Marshall, daughter of Mrs. Nina Marshall, also of Pullman, were married at the Methodist parsonage in Colfax on Wednesday, December 31, by the Rev. A. A. Callender. After a wedding trip to Portland and other cities the bride and groom will be at home at the home of the groom at the Hill Crest ranch.—Gazette.

MOTHERS CLUB

The Mothers club will meet next Monday, January 5, at the high school building at 3:15 p. m. Talks will be given by Mrs. J. G. Law and Mrs. W. G. Beach. The hostess will be Mrs. David Rouse.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our gratitude to our many friends and the Masonic order for the kindnesses and many beautiful floral offerings given at the recent death of our beloved father.

- Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jenner.
- Mr. and Mrs. J. O. McKinney.
- Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lycan.
- Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Martin.
- Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cooper.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS

Miss Chrystal Heise, whose marriage to George Sharp of Pullman will be an event of the near future, was tendered a surprise shower by the ladies of the south hill last Friday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. W. L. Rich—Garfield Enterprise.

Dale Jinnett left Monday for Portland, where he will take treatment at St. Vincent's hospital. He was accompanied by his brother, Arthur, who came from Oakland, Calif., to spend the holidays with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Kilham Jr. arrived Tuesday from Plummer, Idaho, to spend New Years with the families of S. E. Kilham Sr. and Dr. J. J. Kayler.

Mrs. C. D. Wilson was in Pullman from Walla Walla this week looking after business interests.

P. M. Long, who formerly farmed near Pullman, was in the city the first of the week, having just come down from his farm near Huxley, Alberta. The family will spend the winter in Palouse. Mr. Long stated that he completed his threshing in the northern province December 13, the thermometer on that date registering 40 degrees below zero. Many farmers had not finished at that time.

John Koenig of Albion is the owner of a new Oakland touring car, purchased through the T. C. Martin agency.

Mrs. Nelile Smith of Walla Walla returned to her home the first of the week after visiting her mother, Mrs. E. R. Jinnett.

J. H. Gooding returned yesterday from St. Luke's hospital at Spokane, where he underwent a serious operation. He is greatly improved in health.

The University club gave a dance in the Episcopal parish hall Wednesday evening and the members and their friends danced the old year out and the new year in.

A special train for the accommodation of students returning to the State College will leave Spokane at 5:00 o'clock p. m. next Sunday, arriving here at about 8:00 o'clock.

Paul Browder left yesterday for Cheney, where he has accepted a position in one of the banks. Mrs. Browder was detained here by the slight illness of her mother, Mrs. J. A. Hungate.

Ramsey Spillman visited friends in Pullman Wednesday on his way to Yakima, where he will engage in the practice of medicine. He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Spillman of Washington, D. C., who formerly resided here.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jinnett returned to their home at Odessa Tuesday after spending Christmas with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Oliver and daughter, Charlotte, were holiday guests of Colfax relatives.

Mrs. Florence Landon and daughter, Miss Imogene, are spending the holidays at the home of Mrs. Landon's brother, Charles L. Chamberlin, in Colfax.

Leah Brock of Wilbur and Roy E. Draper of Pullman were married at the Methodist parsonage Saturday noon, the Rev. A. A. Callender officiating.—Colfax Gazette.

Dr. M. J. Beistel has added the rooms formerly occupied by Neill & Sanger to the offices of the Northwest Sanitarium in the First National Bank building. Neill & Sanger have moved their offices to the suite adjoining their old offices on the west.

Charles Broughton came up from Dayton last Saturday and visited Pullman friends till Tuesday.

President E. O. Holland returns today from a trip to Portland, Ore., and Olympia on official business.

There will be a dance at Seats Grange hall Friday, January 2. Wilson's orchestra will furnish the music.

Mrs. W. H. Harford of Sandpoint, Idaho, spent New Years at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Zimmerman.

M. C. Hanson, who recently sold his farm at Freeman, has come to Pullman to spend the winter. He is a son-in-law of C. J. Randle and both he and his wife were former students at the State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. McMahon went to Spokane yesterday to spend the week-end with relatives.

Miss Florence Waller returned to Seattle last Sunday, after spending a week with her parents, Prof. and Mrs. O. L. Waller.

W. C. Kruegel, accountant at the State College, left last Sunday on a business trip to Portland, Ore.

Dr. T. A. Lukins made a trip to Dusty and La Crosse, Tuesday.

Miss Mirriam Zimmerman gave a delightful Christmas party to 16 of her music pupils last Friday.

Floyd Hamilton is driving a brand new Oakland touring car, with wire wheels and all other modern equipment. It was purchased through the T. C. Martin agency.

D. E. Eddleman, manager of the Liberty theatre, went to Spokane Monday on business connected with the theatre.

Fred Schroder was a week-end visitor in Moscow, where he formerly resided.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Yelle and children were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lindsay in Colfax.

Russell Woodruff, a former student of the State College, came up from Lewiston to take in the Dokie ceremonial Saturday night.

The annual meeting of the Pullman Educational association will be held next Tuesday, January 6, in the chamber of commerce rooms. The meeting will convene at 7:30.

Harold Glenn is the name of an 11-pound boy born Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. McWhinney, 300 Bilke street.

New Years day was ushered in here with the blowing of whistles and the clanging of the city fire bell, there being no demonstration aside from the usual noise-making at the midnight hour. During the day the sun shone brightly and scores of citizens were out in their automobiles. Several dancing parties were held Wednesday evening to celebrate the exit of the old year and the advent of the new.

K. D. Carter, manager of the local branch of the Whitman Implement company, transacted business in Colfax Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Rev. C. N. Curtis was in Colfax Wednesday on business connected with the securing of his final naturalization papers.

Mrs. S. G. Lynch was called to Dayton last week by the death of her brother-in-law, H. N. Brown, a pioneer of that section. Mr. Brown was an uncle of Bertha Horner of this city.

COUNTY CONVENTION OF FAIRMEN UNION (Continued from first page)

fore the meeting adjourned 45 old and new members paid their dues for 1920 in advance.

The president and executive committee were authorized to fix the time and place of the next county convention.

FIFTY-FOUR TYROS CROSS HOT SANDS (Continued from first page)

their way across the hot sands.

Automobiles brought 30 Dokies and 15 Tyros from Colfax, while the Spokane team members brought along some Tyros to add to the big class. A number of members of Omar Alkayami Temple, No. 124, of Lewiston, Idaho, were guests of the occasion. The 31 Pullman Pythians who crossed the hot sands were as follows:

- C. J. Reid, Wm. Burt, C. E. Graves, Ralph Cline, D. Ed. Tower, W. A. Yeo, Dave Froding, H. L. Hathaway, J. S. Klemgard, Edward Lybecker, Geo. H. Watt, B. A. Bushey, J. B. Sanborn, W. E. Sparks, F. A. Hodges, Chas. E. Barbee, Louis E. Hall, L. C. Kilham, G. A. Street, Alvin Swisher, B. H. Douglass, Henry L. Baker, Clemens Yelle, D. M. Patterson, Thos. Lukins, R. C. Hamilton, F. C. Forrest, L. G. Kimzey, J. L. Fallquist, Geo. E. Goffin, N. T. Shirley.

GIFT TO VOCATIONAL CLUB

The vocational club has received two dozen silver teaspoons and 10 yards of white oilcloth from Palouse, and the disabled soldiers are very grateful for the kindness of the people of the neighboring town. The teaspoons were the gift of the five Palouse churches, while the chamber of commerce provided the oilcloth. The gifts were secured through the suggestion of Mrs. C. L. Pemberton of Palouse. The people of nearby towns are taking a keen interest in the welfare of the vocational group and are ministering freely to their comfort and convenience.

HOLLAND STATION

W. C. Jarron, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Farrand, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Will Halpin, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Getchell and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Haines attended the Farmers Union at Pullman on Tuesday, the ladies taking chicken pies.

Bessie Newbrough of Pullman visited over Wednesday with Gladys Halpin.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Irwin and daughter were guests at the W. C. Jarron home New Years day.

Miss Nellie Jarron and Olva Irwin attended a party at the L. C. Guthrie home Saturday evening.

Bessie Newbrough of Pullman visited at the Getchell home Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Robt. Thonney arrived home Wednesday after spending two months at her old home in Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Meyers and daughter spent New Years day at the home of Mrs. Meyers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thonney.

Geo. Leonard visited Walter Getchell Wednesday.

Olva Irwin attended an afternoon tea with Miss Louise Stoddard in Pullman Saturday.

Mrs. Scott Getchell entertained New Years evening. Those present were Miss Olva Irwin, Gladys Halpin, Neil Halpin, Bessie Newbrough of Pullman, Vernon and Ethel Yarboe of Moscow, Chester and Mayda Getchell, James, Mildred and Elsie Benson. Dancing and refreshments made the evening a jolly one.

Mr. Medro of Moscow is doing some remodeling at the Will Halpin home.

Mrs. Wm. Irwin visited Mrs. Wm. Swain Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Haines and family were New Years guests at the Frank Young home.

Chester and Mayda Getchell spent Wednesday evening with Olva Irwin.

Mrs. Mary Keyes and daughter, Miss Ellen, have returned from the Yakima valley, where they spent Christmas. Lynn Keyes of Portland, Ore., joined them at Yakima and came home with his mother.

LIBERTY

TWO DAYS
SUN.-MON., JAN. 4-5

D. W. GRIFFITH PRESENTS "TRUE HEART SUSIE"
THE STORY OF A PLAIN GIRL
An ARTCRAFT Picture

THIS IS JUST SUCH A PICTURE AS ONLY GRIFFITH CAN OR DOES MAKE. IT'S THE CLASS OF PICTURE THAT MAKES BETTER BOYS AND GIRLS, BOTH BIG AND LITTLE—IT'S RIGHT.

TRADE MARK
ARTCRAFT PICTURES