

FAVORITE ENTERTAINERS OF A. E. F.

The same Chicago orchestra which so delighted the boys of the A. E. F. in France in the closing days of the war, is coming to delight Ellison-White Chautauqua audiences this summer. Eight charming girls constitute this splendid organization. They play with dash, life, and yet with real musical accuracy. Their two programs on the third day are of almost endless variety; choruses, orchestral selections, vocal and instrumental solos, duets, quartets, readings, etc. Every member is a musician of real ability, and the unusual ensemble work is the result of years of association and splendid preparation.

MacGregor Singers Open Chautauqua

Splendid Company Headed by Vawter MacGregor Presents Two Concerts First Day

The opening position on the Chautauqua program has been given to the MacGregor Singers because they radiate life and enthusiasm and will give the week just the right sort of a joyful start. Headed by Vawter MacGregor, Scotch baritone and entertainer, this splendid organization has won a distinct place in the ranks of Chautauqua musical companies. First, last, and all the time—they entertain. There is never a dull moment in their programs. The Scotch songs and readings of Vawter MacGregor are notable features of the two concerts.

Protege of Caruso

Voice of Chautauqua Soprano Wins Praise of Musical Critics Everywhere

It takes a voice out of the ordinary to win the approval of a musical authority like Enrico Caruso. But such a voice has Josephine Martino, who will make her first western Chautauqua tour under Ellison-White direction this year. The great tenor has coached Miss Martino in several of the operatic numbers she will use this summer. She appears only on the closing night. Miss Martino has been engaged by the Edison company to make a series of records, and she will be one of their regularly advertised "Recreation Artists" next season. "Musical America" says, "Miss Martino is a young woman for whom a great career is promised."

REMARKABLE PICTURES OF ALASKAN BIG GAME

Doctor Price Comes to Chautauqua With Illustrated Lecture.

A fascinating story of the Far North is brought to Chautauqua audiences on the fourth night, when Charles S. Price presents his splendid illustrated lecture, "Hunting Game in Alaska." It is unquestionably one of the foremost travel lectures of the platform, and it is illustrated with probably the finest set of Alaskan big-game pictures in existence. You will see the great fur-seal herds of the Pribilof Islands, whale-harpooning, and be brought face to face with timber wolves, mammoth Kodiak bears and grizzlies. Throughout the lecture runs a strong vein of humor that will delight you.

Jones Enjoys the Ball Game

HE isn't ashamed to shed his coat. His shirt isn't faded—neither does it look like it had been fitted to him by a boiler explosion. Long ago Jones decided to wear and join the ranks of the cool, comfortable, coatless cusses. At the ball game, on the links or on the thousand and one other occasions when you want to take off your coat you'll do well to guard against any unfavorable comment by wearing a Summit Shirt. They fit right, look right and wear right.
