The lecture given by Dr. Fulker in the Methodist church last Saturday evening was well liked and a full house was present to hear what the speaker had to say. It is certainly fine when we have such men as these going over the country telling of the work that is being done on the other side of the earth. It makes us know that we aren't very much different after all, no matter what our color happens to be.

Rev. Harman, who is conducting the revival services at the Christian church, addressed the student body at the high school Friday afternoon. It was an address that was surely helpful to everyone. He said that life is made to hinge around these three ideals: "What is mine is mine, and what is mine is mine if I can get it"; "What is mine is mine, and what is mine is mine," and the last, "What is mine is mine and what is mine is mine." He portrayed these different ideals in such a plain way that one couldn't help but see that it was best to adopt the last.
