The VIRGINIA MASON HOSPITAL will admit a limited number of student nurses in January, 1922. Applicants must be in good health. The acceptable age is from 20 to 30 years and the minimum educational requirement is two years in high school (preferably high school graduation). THE GIFTS.

Give me a book to read,
Give me health,
Give me joy in simple things,
Give me an eye for beauty,
A tongue for truth,
A hand for work,
A heart that loves,
A sympathy that understands,
Give me neither malice nor envy,
But a true kindness
And a noble, common sense,
And at the close of each day
Give me work to do,
And a friend with whom
I can be silent.
—Scottie McKensie Fraser.

GOOD THINGS UP TO DATE.

The following dish is a good one; but first get your hare:

Rabbit en Blanquette.

—Cut up the rabbit and cook in two tablespoonfuls of butter until all is brown; cover the saucepan to cook the meat to the center. Remove the cover, season with salt and pepper, add one large onion chopped, a bunch of herbs, using parsley, a bay leaf and a little celery. Sprinkle the pieces with two tablespoonfuls of flour, stir until well browned, add a quart of hot water and as soon as the liquid boils set to simmer on the back part of the stove for thirty minutes. The flour will make the gravy sufficiently thick. Add two or three beaten eggs and stir into the hot mixture with a little milk and serve at once. Do not boil or the eggs will curdle the sauce. Noodles may be added to this dish, which will make it go farther.

Prune Puffs.—Chop fine one cupful of stewed prunes, after removing the stones. Add one-half cupful of sugar to the whites of three well-beaten eggs and a grating of lemon peel. Stir in the prunes, pour into a well-greased baking dish and bake until firm—about half an hour. Serve with cream.

English Monkey.—Soak two cupfuls of bread crumbs fifteen minutes in milk. Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter, add one cupful of cheese and the crumbs, cook until the cheese is softened, add two eggs slightly beaten, season well, cook until the eggs are set and pour over hot toasted crackers. Grapenuts added to a salad or pudding in place of chopped nuts makes a most desirable substitute that will not hurt the children.
