STATE COLLEGE PLAYERS TO GIVE "LITTLE WOMEN"

"Little Women," Louisa M. Alcott's immortal story of family love and loyalty, is to be presented at the college auditorium tonight and Saturday, January 20 and 21, by students of the department of dramatic arts and expression, under the direction of Professor N. E. Reel.

When this play was first produced in New York by William A. Brady, with Alice Brady playing the lead, the two following comments were made by the New York papers:

"Once in a great many years the stage fulfills its mission and evolves the kind of play that meets all requirements, being clean and wholesome, telling a tale in a simple and yet effective manner, imparting entertainment without offending our sense of propriety and good taste and sending us from the theatre with a higher opinion of humankind than possibly we had when we entered. If a play does that it is certainly fulfilling its greatest mission. 'Little Women' accomplishes all these things and does it with such ease, such delightful naivety, such sweetness and such sane sentimental grace that one cannot but feel like giving the author and the producer a generous vote of sincere thanks."—The New York Times.

"Without doubt 'Little Women' is the most human and delightful story of a family of girls that has ever been written. A classic of childhood's foibles and follies, it naturally touches a responsive chord in the hearts of the younger generation. Yet it is a tale that moves our fathers and mothers quite as deeply, for the story proper may well be characterized as the finest delineation of family love and loyalty that literature can boast of."—The New York World.

The cast includes the following: Floyd Stevenson, Pomeroy; Clara Bair, Yakima; Irmgard King, Alvin Brewer, Waverley Lindsay and Barbara Wirtz, Spokane; Cecile Whitfield, Rosalia; Mildred Love and Ida Louise Anderson, Colfax; Lucille Kent, Puyallup; Jessie Kirkland, Tacoma; Elizabeth Keavy, Spangle; Marie and Maryellen Plasket, Pullman; Irene Stevenson, Reardan; Helen Lemley, Coulee City; Carrie Andrew, Walla Walla; Loyola Fay, Mullan, Ida.; Elsie Smith, Palouse.

Tickets at 50 cents are on sale at Watt's Pharmacy.

PULLMAN DEFEATS COLTON

The Pullman high school basketball team went to Colton last Friday evening and defeated the Colton team by a 32 to 5 score. The hall was small and cold and the Pullman men failed to get to going at their usual pace until the last half, when they scored almost at will.

RESOLUTION No. 405

Be it resolved by the City Council of the City of Pullman, Washington, to-wit:

1. That it is the intention of the City Council, and it hereby declares its intention to improve the following described streets, to-wit: High Street, from Paradise Street to the south city limits; Dexter Street, from High Street to Side Street; Side Street, from Dexter Street to South Street; South Street, from Side Street to Hill Street; Hill Street, from South Street to Jackson Street; Jackson Street, from Hill Street to Spring Street and Spring Street from Jackson Street to Daniel Street; Pioneer Way, from Spring Street to High Street, by planting shade trees and doing such other work as may be necessary in connection with such an improvement.

2. That all persons who may desire to object to this improvement are hereby notified to appear and present such objections at a meeting of the City Council to be held in the City Hall in the City of Pullman, Washington, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., on the 14th day of February, 1922, which time and place is hereby fixed for hearing all matters relating to said improvement, all objections thereto, and, for determining the method of payment for same.

3. That the Park Committee of the City Council and the City Clerk are hereby instructed to submit to the City Council on or before the 14th day of February, 1922, an estimate of the cost and expense of the improvement herein contemplated, together with the statement of the proportionate amount thereof which should be borne by the property within the proposed assessment district, together with the statement of the valuation placed upon it for the purpose of general taxation; also a diagram or print showing the lots or tracts which will be specially benefited by said improvement, together with their estimate of the amount of the cost and expense of said improvement which should be borne by each lot and tract therein.

4. That this resolution shall be published in two consecutive issues of The Pullman Herald, the official newspaper of the City of Pullman, Washington, the first publication to be at least fifteen days before the 14th day of February, 1922.

5. The cost and expense of said improvement shall be borne by and assessed against the property liable therefor as provided by law.

Passed this 17th day of January, 1922.

N. E. J. GENTRY, Mayor.

MATILDA P. GANNON, City Clerk. Jan 20-27

ORGANIZING ROUTINE WORK

Home Management Specialist Minerva Lawrence of the State College of Washington is spending the week of January 9 in Spokane, assisting Mrs. Harry Lycette, urban home demonstration agent of that city, in the organization of the routine work of a children's institution.

The week previous Miss Lawrence had charge of the work in labor saving devices and interior decoration at the extension school conducted at Odessa. Leonard Hegnauer, extension specialist in crops and soils, and G. L. Zundel, crop specialist, were also on the program of the school.

WRANGLERS AT W. S. C.

The Wranglers, the most exclusive faculty club at the State College of Washington, have announced as chief wrangler for 1922 Rudolph Weaver, head of the architecture department, and as scribbler, Professor Edwin G. Schafer, head of the farm, crops department. These are the only officers. The year's program covers discussions of literature, science and art in the papers by the members, most of them heads of departments. Membership is limited to 20, and no one can be elected unless a vacancy is made by the death or resignation from the faculty of some member.

Your Own Home Town

It's the selfish spirit that prompts a man To buy goods at cost if he possibly can; To visit every store for miles around And to even desert his own home town.

We try to make a profit off the other man, If we don't hold him up, it's a mighty good plan, We all asked a good profit the last few years; Now blaming the other fellow is all one hears.

Let's throw our mail order catalogues away, Buy our goods at home and before long we'll say To be loyal to one's town is mighty nice; And the merchants helped out by reducing the price.

Take an interest in the town in which you live; Don't receive its support unless you're willing to give. Teach the students in school that it's downright rotten— The Bolshevik idea of getting something for nothing.

Don't try to beat your merchant down to absolute cost The Nonpartisans tried it—they're hopelessly lost. The theory of commerce is based on profit today; Unless you're willing to give it, you're not paying your way.

Pullman can be a better town than any other If the merchants and the people will work together. Then the town will progress like it ought to do And part of the money you spend will come back to you.
