RETROSPECTIVE

Pullman Thirty-three Years Ago

(From The Pullman Herald of February 16, 1889)

From the Public School

Our report for the second month of the term is: Number pupils enrolled; males, 31; females, 24; total, 54. Those neither tardy nor absent during the month: Eddie Stewart, Ira Lobaugh, Clyde Young, Harry Farr, Freddie Kayler, Freddie True, Homer Sharp, Eddie Webb, Eddie Sharp, Alice Lobaugh, Mable Taylor, Verne Taylor, Effie Hatter, Frankie McConnell, Audrey Kayler.

We need a blackboard in our room, inside door, some window shades, and another chair or two for visitors. Most of our pupils have contributed toward the purchase of two fine volumes of general information, viz.: "Cobwebs" and "Queer Stories." They have also bought a banner, to be used among the different grades in our room as a reward for regular attendance and good deportment. We extend a cordial invitation to all interested in the school to visit us frequently.

Minnie Whittington, Teacher.

The Staley dramatic troop will place before the public in the near future Lytton's charming play, "The Lady of Lyons."

J. C. Fullerton's trotting horse, "Cyclone," is now dead, and J. C. is now in sackcloth and ashes.

Mrs. Skeels, the well known dressmaker, has leased the store in Nodine's block, formerly occupied by Mason Bros., and will soon open a first class millinery and dressmaking establishment therein.

On the 17th of last month one of John Klemgard's cows gave birth to a fine pair of twins, and on Monday last one of W. H. Kincaid's cows did likewise. The calves are from J. S. Klemgard's prize winning Shorthorn bull, "Colfax."

Last Saturday Edward Henkel made complaint before Judge Lobaugh that one George Hadley of Ontario had made an assault and battery on him, and asked that said Hadley be arrested. The judge complied with the request. The defendant pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $1 and costs.

And now there cometh up yet another petition to worry the lawmakers at the national capital. This time, however, it is a lengthy document signed by a host of Whitman county citizens, protesting against the passage of a bill authorizing the issuing of bonds for building courthouse and jail at Colfax. Senator Dolph (Oregon) presented it last Tuesday.

Miss May McConnell was well never mind how many years old last Monday—and in the evening about 25 young lads and lassies conspired to surprise her. Accordingly, at about 8 o'clock the whole gang made a raid on her home. The evening was pleasantly passed with games and with music furnished by Miss McConnell, Miss Phillips and Mr. M. Kayler. In the early morn the party broke up, well satisfied with the evening's fun.

Michael Schreck, who was confined in the Colfax jail for a time last summer on a warrant to keep the peace, has entered suit against the county for $10,000 damages, claiming that his health was ruined by confinement in a "jail unfit to hold human beings." Isn't this another little scheme to bolster up the proposed bonding of the county for new buildings?

C. B. Hopkins came over from Colfax Thursday on telephone business.

STATE COLLEGE WRESTLERS DEFEAT IDAHO MAT MEN

Washington State's grapplers took Idaho to the mat for a 16-10 victory in the crimson and gray gymnasium last Friday night before a crowd of 400 fans.

The meet was featured by the three bout struggle between Horning of Idaho and White of Washington. White placed successive headlocks on Horning, but the Idaho grappler slipped out of them and pinned his opponent to the mat in the first bout. The second two bouts were gruelling draws.

Guldjord, Cougar middleweight, was ineligible, so Coach Glahe sent Jeff Maughmer in to meet Kinnison. Although outweighed 13 pounds and out-experienced, Maughmer held the big Gem Stater off for seven minutes and lost the decision in the first bout by a narrow margin.

Captain "Shorty" Boggs, the Cougar welterweight, was going at top speed and dealt Robertson of Idaho some mean punishment. Jahlstrom and Ewing also handled their men with speed and dispatch.

Babe Brown, Idaho's extra heavyweight, was unmatched through a misunderstanding and the bout was forfeited to the Vandals.

This week Coach Frank Glahe is putting the Cougar team through a stiff workout in anticipation of the return match at Moscow next Thursday night. Several changes will be made as competition is mighty keen for several of the weights.

The meet by weights: 125-pound: (1) Jahlstrom, W. S. C., threw Osborne, Idaho, in 5 min. 45 sec., with a half nelson and crotch hold; (2) Jahlstrom threw Osborne in 5 min. with a reverse body lock.

135-pound: (1) Ewing, W. S. C., threw Hillman, Idaho, in 5 min. 50 sec. with a body scissors and arm lock; (2) Ewing given decision over Hillman.

145-pound: (1) Boggs, W. S. C., threw Robertson, Idaho, in 5 min. 30 sec., with a head scissors and wrist lock; (2) Boggs threw Robertson in 4 min. 45 sec., with a crotch and bar arm hold.

158-pound: (1) Kinnison, Idaho, given decision over Maughmer, W. S. C., 7 min.; (2) Kinnison threw Maughmer in 3 min. with a reverse body lock.

175-pound: (1) Horning, Idaho, threw White, W. S. C., in 2 min. 30 sec., with a half nelson and body lock; (2) Draw, 9 min. (3) Draw, 7 min.

Extra heavyweight: Brown, Idaho, unmatched. Bout to Idaho.

Score: W. S. C., 16; Idaho, 10. Referee, Cisco Bullivant, S. A. A. C. Time keeper, "Paddy" Zink, W. S. C. Announcer, Eldon Jenne, W. S. C.

LILLIAN OTTO, DIETITIAN IN HUNTINGTON HOSPITAL

Lillian Otto, '21, who was placed in the Cook county hospital by the department of home economics, has finished her student work there and has accepted a position as dietitian of the Hatfield-Kessler hospital in Huntington, West Virginia. The dietitian under whom Miss Otto took her work at the Cook county hospital praised the institutional management work which Miss Otto had taken at W. S. C. and hopes that she may in the future have more women from this school with Miss Otto's ability.

The Livestock Industry

Its promotion and support—is a matter of deepest interest and concern to the officers of this bank. Perhaps you or your boy would like to buy a few hogs or calves for an investment, or a Pure Bred Sire to build up your herd.

Believing that a frank discussion of your plans and requirements is the quickest route to helpfulness, we urge an early visit.

We want to join hands with wide-a-wake stockmen for mutual profit.

HOW OUR REPRESENTATIVES MAKE THE NATION'S LAWS

What happens to the thousands of bills introduced in Congress, and how do those that are finally passed succeed in seeing the light of day?

In our latest booklet of the series on Our Government we tell the story of just how Congress goes about its work, together with some interesting sidelights on the customs which have an important bearing on our legislation.

This booklet is the last of the stories of Our Government. We are contemplating a new series of articles that will be equally interesting and instructive. We shall be glad to put on our list the names of all those in this community who wish to receive them.
