Gilbert Stairer went to Spokane yesterday on business.

FALL WHEAT LOOKS GOOD
Fall wheat never looked better at this season of the year, is the opinion of Pullman farmers who have watched many crops mature in this district. The wheat came through the winter unharmed and during the past few days has made a remarkable growth. This week has witnessed the disappearance of a large percentage of the snow which covered the hills and the south slopes are bare, although considerable snow remains on the north slopes.

The soil is full of moisture and with anything like an average growing season Pullman should produce

FAMILY GATHERING AT J. B. GLOVER HOME

A family reunion was held last Sunday at the home of J. B. Glover on Dexter street. OLD TIME PULLMANITE DIED AT KENDRICK

Barney Riley, aged 77 years and an early day resident of this section, died at his home in Kendrick, Idaho, last Friday, death being caused by influenza and tuberculosis. Funeral services were held at Kendrick Saturday and were attended by Mr. and Mrs. George Grant of this city, old friends of the family. Mr. Riley homesteaded near Whelan in the early days and for several years was one of the prominent farmers of that district. In 1900 he sold his place to George Grant and removed to Kendrick, where he resided until his death. He is survived by his widow and 10 children, the youngest a baby less than two years old.

PULLMAN SAVES ON STREET, WATER SALARY

That Pullman is exceptionally fortunate in having, in C. M. Hooper, a man who can handle the duties of both street and water superintendent in an efficient manner and at a cost far below the cost in other towns of the Palouse country is indicated by figures secured this week on wages paid for employees in the two departments in other towns. In Moscow, for instance, they pay $600 per month for practically the same work done here by Mr. Hooper for $130 per month, and six men figure in the work. In Colfax the cost for the work done here by Mr. Hooper is set at $310 per month, with four

PURELY SOCIAL

"Hello! How are you? Doesn't it seem good to have a chance to rest a little and not have to dress up for a party every afternoon or evening. I certainly am enjoying this lull in the social whirl but, believe me, after Lent is over and the entertaining begins again, I shall be ready to go to everything. What's that? Oh, you like the material for my new dress. I am so glad. I think it will make a stunning gown for evening parties. Are you sewing, too? I'm darned all my husband's socks and mending all our clothes so as to be ready for the after-Easter social rush. Well, good-bye, I'm going to take a nap—have to get a little beauty sleep, you know, while there's a chance."

Mrs. M. J. Beistel entertained at a delightful 1:00 o'clock luncheon at her home on Grand street Friday afternoon. Pink was the prevailing color and the decorations were carried out with bouquets of sweet peas and carnations. The guests were seated at five tables and following the luncheon enjoyed playing rummy. PULLMAN SHOULD RESPOND TO SALVATION ARMY CALL Pullman's drive for funds to assist in carrying on the work of the Salvation Army is being completed and an effort will be made to raise the full quota within the next few days. D. F. Staley, chairman of the local committee, has made arrangements with both banks to accept donations to the fund and persons who desire to subscribe to the work are urged to make their subscriptions as early as possible. In 1920 the total county quota was $4000, practically all of which was expended outside the county. In 1921 the quota was raised to $4600, of which at least $2500 will go toward carrying on the work in this county alone, through the corps which maintains headquarters at Colfax. In 1920 the people of Pullman oversubscribed the city's $1000 quota by $200, and are expected to do equally as well in the present campaign. Either bank will take your subscription, and committees will canvass the city Tuesday, April 4, to make up any deficit.

CITY WAGE SCALE HITS NIGHT POLICE

Salary Reduced $20 Monthly—Chief of Police Salary Remains the Same—Day Laborers Reduced

Twenty dollars per month was lopped off the salary of the assistant policeman and nightwatchman in a new wage schedule adopted by the city council Tuesday night upon recommendation of a committee including Councilmen Lawler and Yeo. Under the new schedule, which becomes effective April 1, the salary of the chief of police, who is also chief of the fire department, will remain as at present, $130 per month.

The assistant police and nightwatchman will suffer a reduction from $120 to $100 and the street and water commissioner will receive $130 monthly, as at present. The pay for all extra police and nightwatchmen is reduced from 50 cents to 45 cents per hour. Three regular day laborers, including the street sweeper, will receive $3.60 per day after April 1, as against $4 at present, while the man and team will be paid $6.00 per day instead of the present scale of $6.75. All extra day labor will hereafter draw 40 cents per hour, the present rate being 50 cents, and extra men with teams will be paid at the rate of $5.00 per day, a reduction of $1.75.

PYTHIAN DANCE MONDAY

The first of a series of dances to be given by Evening Star Lodge No. 26, Knights of Pythias, as a benefit for the Pythian home to be constructed at Vancouver, Wash., will be held Monday evening in the K. of P. hall. Tickets for a single dance will be sold at $1.00, or a coupon ticket good for the entire series of three dances at $2.00.

MODERN WOODMEN

Pullman Camp No. 6441, Modern Woodmen of America, will hold a social session in the K. of P. hall on Tuesday evening, March 28. All members of the order, as well as all Royal Neighbors, with their families, are invited to be present. Entertainment in the nature of cards, dancing and refreshments will be furnished by the members of the local camp.

LEGIONAIRES CHANGE THEIR MEETING PLACE

Henceforth Meetings Will Be Held in Masonic Hall at 7:30 Monday Evenings—Programs Scheduled

Maynard-Price post, American Legion, has secured the Masonic hall for a meeting place and after April 1 will hold weekly meetings on Monday evenings at 7:30. The luncheons will be discontinued for the time being at least, but on one meeting night each month the time will be given over largely to a social session. At the meeting of the post held last night George H. Gannon spoke on the history of the American Legion. Other educational talks scheduled for future meetings are as follows:

HARNESS AND UNDERWEAR MIX AT SALES MEETING

Harness and fancy underwear constituted the stock in trade of the budding business men and business women of the city of Pullman at the fortnightly session of the salesmanship class in Emerson hall, Tuesday evening. Fortunately, Miss Elma Chamberlin, clerk at the Greenwald-Folger company, was selected to "sell" the "fancy nether garments," while L. B. Christian of Christian Bros. harness shop was assigned the task of making somebody believe he needed a new set of work harness. Had the assignments been reversed the probable result is a matter of conjecture. At any rate, Miss Chamberlin proved her ability as a saleslady when she "sold" her wares to Mrs. George Schroder despite many obstacles placed in her way. W. L. Greenwald was so convinced of the value of Christian Bros. harness by Mr. Christian's sales arguments that he "bought" the harness himself. The sales classes continue to hold the interest of the men and women enrolled and great good is being accomplished in the way of better salesmanship and greater cordiality and deference for the customers.

DISHWASHER ADMITS STEALING FROM GIRL

Myron D. Hoag, alias Thomas Moore, was arrested the first of the week at Pullman, where he was employed as dishwasher at the Palace hotel. He was charged with grand larceny, it being alleged that he had stolen $75 from the room of a girl employed at the hotel. It was reported that he had purchased traveler's checks and was about to leave Pullman when he was arrested. He pleaded guilty in justice court and was bound over to the superior court.

Sheriff Cole's record shows that Hoag had served time in the state reformatory at Monroe and in the Ohio state penitentiary.

When arraigned in superior court Hoag pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the state penitentiary at Walla Walla for from 1 to 15 years. He turned over $75 to the sheriff to reimburse Nellie Bachman, the girl from whom he stole the money.—Colfax Gazette.
