

CHattel Slavery.

How the Law Helps an Infamous Trade in Women.

A richly but badly dressed woman walked into the recorder's office yesterday afternoon.

"She must have bought another slave," remarked a bystander.

The document was a chattel mortgage in favor of the woman. The consideration on her side was $50.

There was one clause in the mortgage mentioned which revealed the true inwardness of it—the words written under the printed word "Schedule."

One trunk and contents, one seal sacque, one plush dress, one sateen dress, three cloth dresses, four flannel dresses, four cashmere dresses, four bonnets, fifteen suits of underwear, one outer muff and collar, five pairs of shoes, stockings, ribbons, trinkets, etc., the above being all my wardrobe, kept and to be kept at — Broadway.

With these articles in someone else's possession, with not a shred of clothing she could call her own, for her to attempt to leave the house without the permission of the mistress of it would be for her to commit felony—to steal another's belongings.

On the county records for every month many of such mortgages are recorded, many of them in the name of one lady, whose eyes are ever open to the chance of making money and keeping it.

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with abscess of lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive."

John Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of lung troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health."

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.

Why people will continue to suffer from day to day, constantly complaining to their friends of pain in the back and loins, and with every symptom of that terrible scourge, Bright's disease, starting them in the face, is certainly a mystery when they might be made strong, healthy and happy by using Oregon Kidney Tea.

Ladies, do not ruin your complexion by the use of poisonous cosmetics and face powders. If your face is red or sunburned; if you are so unfortunate as to have pimples or blotches on the neck and face, Dardard's Specific will not only cover them like a coat of paint, but will most effectively remove all blemishes from the skin and restore it to its natural youthful bloom.

The Washington territory pine forests are estimated to contain 100,000,000,000 feet. This is more than Michigan or Wisconsin ever had.

The Favorite

Medicine for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and, even in advanced stages of that disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pains in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this Cough Medicine to every one afflicted."—Robert Horton, Foreman Zion's Light, Morrilton, Ark.

"I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to improve until entirely recovered."—Joel Bullard, Guilford, Conn.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this medicine cured me."—Mrs. E. Coburn, 19 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throats, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 1237 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

TO THE PUBLIC:

A few Reasons why North Yakima, Washington Territory is being recognized as the most promising city in Central Washington:

First—Because it has eight of the finest, largest and most fertile valleys in Washington territory immediately tributary to it.

Second—The seasons are from four to eight weeks earlier than any other part of the north-west coast.

Third—Because we have the finest and most delightful climate in the Pacific northwest.

Fourth—We are destined to become the great truck garden of the coast, with a cash market for our products on Puget Sound.

Fifth—Being centrally located, we are recognized as the desirable place for the capital of the great state of Washington.

Sixth—Because men who are well known as successful, shrewd and long-headed, are making large investments in North Yakima and Yakima county.

Believing we are located in the most favored portion of Washington Territory for gardening, fruit growing and general agricultural purposes, we invite all those who are looking for homes, business locations and manufacturing opportunities, to call on us at North Yakima, and, by seeing for themselves, be convinced.

Now is the Accepted Time to Invest!

We have now listed for sale, in addition to the Northern Pacific Lands, of which we are the local agents, some of the most desirable real-estate and business lots in North Yakima, together with farm property and garden tracts.

The opening of Spring will herald a sharper advance in the realty of Yakima than has been realized during the corresponding season for two years past; and it is a

Well Known Fact

That while all who have "dabbled in Yakima" have made handsome returns on their investments, those who have availed themselves of the winter months for purchasing have fared the best and coined the most money. Let not the opportunity slip, but get in as once and drill!
