

THE STRANGE STORY OF DICK SEE.—The story of the arrest of Richard See, who was recently taken from Ellensburg to California, on a requisition charging him with murder, is an interesting one. Seventeen years ago See's father and William Duncan were playing cards in a saloon in Los Angeles. A dispute arose and Duncan struck See in the face, Dick See, who was then a young man, was present and was greatly incensed. He left the saloon, went home, saddled his father's best horse, took his gun, carefully loaded it with buckshot, and went back to the saloon. When he arrived there the quarrel had been settled and the elder See and Duncan were in the act of drinking together at the bar. Young See deliberately pointed his gun and fired and Duncan dropped dead. The murderer fled to Winnemucca where for sixteen years his identity was lost under the name of Bennett Jackson. A year ago he moved to Cle-Elum and resumed the name of See for the purpose of getting his share of an estate left by his grandmother. While in Cle-Elum he committed robbery and during his trial at Ellensburg a stranger dropped into the court room. This stranger proved to have been one of those who were present in the Los Angeles saloon at the time of the shooting, and he recognized See as the murderer. He notified the California authorities, extradition papers were gotten out and when See's sentence for robbery expired Detective W. H. Russell, of Los Angeles, was promptly on hand and took the prisoner in charge. This is only another verification of the old adage that "Murder will out."

SULLIVAN KNOCKED OUT.—The city had a legal tussle last Saturday with Dan Sullivan. Sullivan is not the noted pugilist but he claims some skill in that line and had just been released from jail where he had been incarcerated for playfully seeing how far he could knock a Chinaman. The last charge was for disturbing the peace, and, in addition to being tapped over the head with a policeman's "billy," he was fined $25 and costs. The prosecution was conducted by Reavis and Milroy and the defense by Chancellor Boyle. The court room was crowded and the defense had an opportunity to air itself in great style. It went over the history of the late municipal election and showed how the guardians of the peace, emboldened by their success at the polls were endeavoring to trample on the liberties of good men like Sullivan; and how the principal attorney for the prosecution embittered by his recent defeat as delegate to the constitutional convention was like an Ishmalite with hand raised against Sullivan. Boyle's flights of eloquence were loudly applauded but failed to save his client. An appeal has been taken to the district court and the defendant is out on bail.

WATER FROM THE NATCHEEZ.—A local company is being organized for the purpose of taking water from the Natchez river and irrigating the bench land south to Wide Hollow. Upwards of $7,000 has already been subscribed to the stock, and the farmers as yet have not been approached. This ditch would be of immense benefit to the country, and, in addition to reclaiming thousands of acres of productive land, would do away with the litigation which has for some time past seemed imminent. Every property-holder on the bench, in Wide Hollow, and along the Athabian can afford to subscribe liberally to the enterprise.

JUSTICE COURT.—George W. Thayer and a Mr. Lampton of Goldendale were arrested last week on a charge of throwing rocks from the bluffs of Union gap down upon the public highway. Thayer and Lampton are shepherds and in driving their flocks along the bluff rocks would be started down the hill and land in the road. This is counted a misdemeanor unless the rocks are immediately removed. Lampton claims he cleared the road, after his band had passed, and will have a hearing to-morrow. Thayer was fined $20 and costs. A warrant is out for a third party on the same charge.

MAKING TARGETS OF INDIANS.—Some bad whites have been in the habit of raiding the Indians' fish trap on the reservation below the gap. They made another raid last Sunday and not finding any fish insisted that the Indians should get them some. The latter disclaimed having any and the whites, after threatening, finally pulled their revolvers and commenced shooting. It is claimed fifteen shots were fired, one of which took effect in the fleshy part of an Indian's arm. All of the shooting was done by the whites. Warrants are out for the arrest of the shooters.

MEDICAL COLLEGE FOR NORTH YAKIMA.—The Washington Biochemic Medical college was incorporated at North Yakima May 22d, by Dr. Wm. Chapman, of Columbus, Frank L. Teppan, of Seattle, E. A. Grover, of Colfax, and G. W. Carey, C. L. Gano, J. B. Chapman, J. W. Beck, A. V. Gano and G. W. Goodwin, of North Yakima. The object of the organization is to teach the principles of biochemistry and confer the degree of doctor of medicine on students who may become qualified.

THE HORSE HEAVEN ARTISAN WELL.—Thomas Corbett, who was awarded the contract for boring the artesian well in the Horse Heaven country, has replied to a letter from District Attorney Salvaty to the effect that ill-luck in boring at Vancouver has caused the delay, but the difficulty is now overcome and he will shortly start work on the Yakima well. Mr. Corbett thinks he will still be able to complete the work within the time required by his contract.

BORN.—At North Yakima, May 26, to the wife of Chas. Campbell, a son.

BORN.—Wenas Valley, Yakima county, Friday, May 24th, to the wife of E. E. Butler, a daughter.

—Read Carpenter Bros. & Atherton's announcement which is presented in the HERALD, and then call and examine the goods.

—Mrs. Bethena Splawn, aged 85 years, died on Saturday last from the effects of a fall in which her thigh bone was fractured.

—Fred R. Reed has contracted for the building of a dwelling to cost $1000 in the Capital addition. The plans were drawn by C. W. Henry.

—George William Westbrook, who formerly conducted a barber shop in Yakima, has left Spokane Falls and a whole parcel of mourning creditors.

—The Royce & Lansing troupe gave a most excellent entertainment Saturday evening. The general verdict was that Ray Royce was a show in himself.

—Attention is called to the new advertisement of Vance & Mulford, proprietors of the New York store and dealers in clothing, gents' furnishings, hats and caps, which appears in this issue of the HERALD.

—The Wallula Herald is indignant at the lack of support the paper is receiving from that town, and the editor plaintively remarks: "We can live on gopher-tail soup and wind pudding for awhile, but not for always."

—Mrs. Martin, mother of Mrs. H. J. Snively, suddenly became dizzy while attending to her household duties, last Friday, and fell, striking her head against the sharp edge of a piece of furniture and receiving a serious scalp wound.

—Probably the largest watermelon patch in the territory is located near Yakima, and is cultivated by S. J. Lowe and Henry Kampeter. It contains twenty-two acres, and is planted to the most approved varieties of this succulent fruit.

—The man Hanson, who was arrested at Ellensburg, for the attempted rape of a little girl of the same name, was discharged, the evidence not substantiating the charge. He was drunk at the time and claimed to have been in a playful mood.

—J. W. Shearer's horses became frightened at a passing locomotive, last Saturday, and upset the buggy on top of that gentleman, who, not relishing that situation, finally crawled out only the worse for the accident by a few slight cuts and bruises.

—A cabinet is to be placed in the U. S. land office, and the request is made that specimens of minerals and other products of this region be contributed, with a view to forming a permanent collection for the benefit of settlers and those who propose to become such.

—An Ellensburg darkey, who could boast of but one leg, attempted to commit suicide the other day by stretching his arm across the railroad track. He was arrested after a struggle and is confined in the Kittitas county jail, but the authorities now don't know what to do with this son of Ham unless they make sandwiches of him.

—The Okanogan and Concomly country is being kept back this year by an outbreak of smallpox. The greatest development is being made on Allen C. Mason's mine, the Lone Star, on which 1000 feet of work has been done and $20,000 expended. Fifteen to twenty-five men are constantly employed and the monthly pay roll runs from $15,000 to $25,000.

—The annual picnic of the Northern Pacific railroad employees will be held at Media on June 22. The following gentlemen have been elected a committee of management: E. Reardon, A. Shaltos, L. M. Hamilton, C. Eagan, F. Bodelfelt, J. S. Moss, M. McCarthy, S. Stewart, Hugh Vansycle, with Charles A. McKee chairman, Fred Weymouth treasurer and T. N. Morris secretary.

—An Ellensburg real estate firm recently cut some farming property up into lots, under the name of the Capital Park addition, and by trading these lots off at various papers throughout the territory have been getting some very cheap advertising. If any of the territorial newspaper men want their eye teeth cut all they have to do is to come in contact with an Ellensburg dealer in realty.

—The people of Ellensburg are very much interested in a horse tamer named Keen. We copy the following from the Localiter: "Keen the horse educator is drawing large crowds of horsemen and farmers every afternoon and evening at his tent. He has a large number of scholars and they are all well satisfied and say his system is the best they have ever seen and worth a great deal to stockmen."

—Go to Redfield's and examine those steel glasses with gold nose-piece—a new patent. They never rust nor wear out.

J. T. McDonald, of Ellensburg, the democratic delegate-elect to the constitutional convention from the 10th district was in the city last Friday. He reports that he has sold his saloon property known as the "Old Corner."

T. B. Lawhead and B. A. Staggs, of Frankfort, Ohio, who arrived in Yakima a few months ago, returned home Friday. During their stay here they invested in considerable property, and like all others who pursued this course they filled their pockets with golden shekels. They made more money in the short time they were here than they could in years in Ohio. Messrs. Lawhead and Staggs will remain in Ohio long enough to close out their interests there and then return to remain.

Capt. P. B. Johnson and wife, of Walla Walla, spent several days in Yakima, this week looking over town and country. Captain Johnson is editor of the Walla Walla Union and his first visit to this country was in 1867. He was then an officer in the U. S. army and with a detachment of men passed through Yakima under the guidance of Abe Lincoln, an Indian, bound for the Sound. He speaks of meeting at that time the Splawns, Thorpe, Nelsons and some others.

AN ERRONEOUS REPORT CORRECTED.—A report has been in circulation that no brick could be had here unless by the letting of the contract for building to Messrs. Renfro, Kremer & Co. This is erroneous and undoubtedly grew out of the admission of L. K. Arnold into this firm. Mr. Renfro informs the HERALD that Mr. Arnold was taken into the copartnership in order to secure the services of a good architect, contractor and carpenter and thus be able to figure closer on work of all kinds. Renfro, Kremer & Co. have now 400,000 bricks on hand and are ready to sell to any one. As an evidence of this they have just disposed of 100,000 bricks to T. R. Vining for his new building adjoining the Hotel Yakima.

SEE FOR YOURSELF.—Yakima is favored in having a first class furniture and carpet house. Messrs. A. H. Reynolds & Co., opposite the opera house, carry a superior line of goods. They have handsome parlor sets, fine lounges, easy chairs, bed room sets of all grades, carpets of attractive patterns and serviceable weaves, and in fact everything that is found in stock in the leading furniture houses of the larger cities.

A GOOD AND CHEAP FENCE.—J. M. Stout has his economical fence making machine on daily working exhibition on the lot adjoining Keeling's blacksmith shop on Front street. Parties from town or country who propose to build a good fence and at the same time expend the least money should examine this fence and enquire into the cost.

—Go to Redfield's and examine those steel glasses with gold nose-piece—a new patent. They never rust nor wear out.

MEMORIAL DAY.—This is memorial day, and the decorations, the closing of business houses, and the general observance of the occasion denotes that it is of national import. The HERALD goes to press too early for a report of the exercises, but an excellent program has been arranged, with Hon. Thad Huston, of Tacoma, as orator.

OPENING LINE QUARRIES.—The Wenatche limestone lands are to be developed by eastern capitalists, who have invested $10,000 in a plant and expect to turn out 20,000 barrels of lime per week. Steel cable and ore cars have been ordered for a gravity road, and the latest patent draw kilns will be used. The lime will be shipped down the Columbia.

THE S. S. CONVENTION.—The Sunday school convention met on Tuesday and was in session during the following day. A large number of delegates were present from abroad and an interesting and profitable discussion of the work was held. The visiting delegates expressed themselves as highly pleased with Yakima and their entertainment here.

WILL TEMPORARILY DELAY WORK.—It was the intention to start work at once on the new brick church to be built by the Methodists, but the plans, received from the east, cover four feet more ground than is possessed by the church organization, and they have been returned for modification. Work, however, will be commenced on the parsonage Monday.

SAMPLES OF CORN FOR DISTRIBUTION.—The HERALD is in receipt of a package of sweet corn, with the request that it be distributed among reliable farmers who will report the results to W. P. Mowell, San Francisco. Mr. Mowell represents an eastern house that is desirous of establishing a plant for the canning of this corn here if the growing results will warrant. Farmers should call and get samples.

MORE STORE ROOM WANTED.—The demand for business houses far exceeds the supply. There is not a vacant store room in the city and there are many applications for the lease of every business block under construction or that is proposed. In a number of instances leases have been closed before work on the foundation was commenced. Mr. Vining states that he has had fifteen applications for the lease of one of the store rooms in his new building and that three of the applicants were hardware dealers who wanted to start in business here.

FIRST CIRCUS OF THE SEASON.—Farini & McMahon's united circuses, which are advertised to appear in this city, Saturday afternoon and evening, have travelled extensively throughout the country and from all the HERALD can glean from press comments have given general satisfaction wherever exhibited. The performance includes many new feats presented in no other circus and as the proprietors have devoted their entire attention to the ring and engaged only the best artists, the entertainment will no doubt be all that is claimed for it.

LOOK OUT FOR FAKERS.—A couple of medicine fakirs were on the street, for several days this week, drawing a crowd with villainously bad songs and impersonations, and raking in the dollars of the gudgeon by the sale of some worthless compound. Suckers never fail to bite when these itinerants come along, and notwithstanding all that has been said, and the experience of many, the usual harvest will probably be reaped by the circus hangers-on this coming Saturday. The HERALD has no sympathy for those who run up against "a dead sure same" after being properly warned.

SENSITIVE CHINESE.—There are three rape cases for the coming term of the district court at Ellensburg. Two of them are against a prominent farmer named Gerretson and his son, for the outraging of two sisters, both of whom are said to be under 16 years, the legal age of consent. The third case is against George H. Jennings charged with assaulting Mrs. L. W. Nestelle. The circumstances of this case as told to the HERALD representative are most revolting. Jennings who was a real estate dealer and man of property, was boarding with Mrs. Nestelle, whose husband was on a visit to California. At this time Jennings was suffering from a loathsome disease, which had affected one of his eyes and partially made him blind. Mrs. Nestelle occasionally dressed the eye for him and performed other little services. One day last spring Jennings asked her to address a letter for him. She went to her room to get writing materials and he followed, locking the bedroom door after him, and in spite of her struggles and outcries, administered chloroform and accomplished his purpose. He shortly after left for Tacoma. When Mr. Nestelle returned home his wife unboomed her wrongs to him. He followed Jennings to the City of Destiny, enlisted the services of the police and Jennings was arrested, only to make his escape to New York, leaving behind him, his baggage and other effects. In his valise was found a bottle of chloroform, corroborative of Mrs. Nestelle's story. Telegrams were sent to the police in all directions, and recently Jennings was arrested in New York by Inspector Byrnes. A requisition has gone forward, and it is expected that Jennings will soon be brought back to face the charge.

A Bargain.—I have two desirable lots on the southeast corner of block 25, facing Second street which I will offer for one week for $700. Second street property is increasing in value more rapidly than that of any other section and these two lots are a bargain. E. M. REED, May 26, 1899. "Herald" Office.

Savages expect to imitate bravery by drinking the blood of their brave enemies. A more enlightened method of vitalizing the blood is by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It braces up the nerves and gives strength and fortitude to endure the trials of life.
