

LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAK.

A Scheme to Print Advertisements on the Back of All Postage Stamps.

W. J. Arkell, proprietor of the Judge, has on foot a rather unique scheme for advertising. He thinks he could afford to pay the government of the United States $100,000 a year for the privilege of using the backs of postage stamps for advertising purposes.

Arkell's idea is to print some one advertisement of a reputable house on a certain part of the stamps for a certain time or on all during a limited period, and to follow this up by printing another advertisement for another period.

Making the Sun Work.

One of the most notable inventions displayed at the Paris Exhibition is an apparatus for transforming the heat of the sun into motive power for pumping water and other mechanical uses. It is the device of a French inventor named Charles Teller.

Real Jokes.

Servant—Please, sir, there is a collector at the door with a bill. Mr. Short—Tell him I'm in and to step right up and I'll pay him. Smith—I met Brown yesterday. You remember him. He once did you an important service, I believe. Jones—He did. S.—Did you ever show any acknowledgment of it? J.—I never did. S.—He is not much of a man, I think. J.—You're mistaken. He's a splendid fellow, and I'll always maintain it.

A Rose Bush.

The Jacqueminot rose—for gentlemen. The Blush rose—for brides. The White rose—for young ladies. The Pink rose—for young matrons. The Tea rose—for old maids. The Rose of Sharon—for heirs to an estate. The Cabbage rose—for tailors. The Golden Yellow rose—for the rich. The Wild rose—for men about town. The Moss rose—for married ladies. The Thorn rose—for scolds. The Hedge rose—for the poor. The Marchal Niel rose—for soldiers. The Dog rose—for dudes. The Martha Washington rose—for presidents. The Button rose—for bachelors. The Prairie rose—for settlers. The Damask rose—for a masked ball. The Banksia rose—for bankers.—New York World.

Portable Iron Bridge.

Edouard Eiffel, son of the man whose towering ambition is conspicuously illustrated at the French Exposition, stated in Cincinnati a few days ago that his father's latest triumph is a portable iron bridge 120 feet long, for the transportation of troops over wide streams. He says it can readily be carried with an army and put up in the worst kind of country in fifty-two hours. The day when soldiers burned the bridges behind them have gone. They will now carry their bridges with them.

It Ended Their Friendship.

"I ain't never gwine ter hab nuffin' mo' ter do wid Pete Willis, boss. He sung my bran new Sunday suit out de winder t'oder day." "It didn't hurt your suit much, did it?" "No, sah; but it hurt me. I happened ter be in it at de time."—Time. —Whooping cough, croup, sore throat, sudden colds, and the lung troubles peculiar to children are easily controlled by promptly administering Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This remedy is safe to take, certain in its action and adapted to all constitutions.

Resolutions of Respect.

The following resolutions were adopted by Yakima lodge No. 22 I. O. O. F., of North Yakima: WHEREAS, It has pleased the Great Ruler of the Universe to take from our midst the respected wife of Bro. D. R. Fish and place her in that higher and better sphere, and

WHEREAS, Recognizing that the family has lost a kind and affectionate wife and mother and the community a respected member by her removal to that better and more peaceful land; therefore be it Resolved, That in her death Yakima Lodge No. 22, individually and collectively, extend their fraternal and sincere sympathy to the bereaved husband and children in their great and irreparable loss. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased and to the newspapers of the city for publication.

WILL CARE FOR THE ORPHANS. WHEREAS, Mrs. Millican, widow of Jas. Millican, P. G., deceased, a well-beloved brother and formerly an active member of this lodge, Yakima No. 22, I. O. O. F., departed this life leaving a family of orphan children to miss and mourn a fond mother's love and care; therefore, be it Resolved, That this lodge will ever have a paternal care and regard for their future welfare and prosperity. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the bereaved family.

Electric Bitters. This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise: A purer medicine does not exist, and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the liver and kidneys; will remove pimples, boils, salt rheum and other affections caused by impure blood; will drive malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all malarial fevers. For cure of headache, constipation and indigestion, try Electric Bitters. Entire satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Price 50 cents and $1 per bottle at Janek's Pharmacy.

Is Consumption Incurable? Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with abscess of lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Greecian headbands, which were fashionable five and twenty years ago, have been revived in gold, silver, amber and tortoise shell. If mothers studied their best interests they would find that Dr. Henley's Dan-gerous Tonic is the best household remedy. Many of the ills peculiar to females could be avoided by its use. It is as pleasant to take as a glass of wine. Sold by Allen & Chapman.

New dinner gowns are not a symphony in shades of one color this fall, but a harmony showing a combination of bouquet colors in contrasting but complementary tints.

Independence, Ore., Dec. 13. Both myself and wife have been for some years afflicted with disease of the kidneys, and had tried many remedies without obtaining any permanent relief. About three months ago we were induced to try Oregon Kidney Tea, which has apparently entirely cured both of us, as since taking it two weeks we have felt no symptoms of the disease. We can heartily recommend it to others similarly afflicted as we believe it will do all that is claimed for it. M. W. Wurts. Sold by Allen & Chapman.

Paris brown, blue or black felt hats, that turn up in the back and run out in front like a meat-chopper, and have a pompon on top, are said to be "most fashionable."

—Do you feel dragging sensations in the back and loins, are you troubled with wakefulness, faintness at the pit of the stomach? Are you nervous or irritable? If so we would advise you to try Oregon Kidney Tea (purely vegetable). It never fails to effect a permanent cure of kidney and urinary complaint. Sold by Allen & Chapman.

A Scheme for Making Money.

Someone estimates that getting born costs the people of the United States $225,000,000 annually; getting married, $300,000,000; getting buried, $750,000,000. From this calculation it will be seen that the people of the United States can save millions of money annually by stopping getting born and buried, and choosing the cheaper of two evils—getting married.—Northtown Herald.

—The Spanish have a proverb: "Woman loves with her ear, but man with his eye." Persuasive wooing captures a woman's heart, while an attractive appearance conquers the man. To retain man's affection and secure enduring happiness, a woman should be as charming in married life as in the days of bewitching maidenhood. Her captivating weapons are a fair and blooming complexion, soft and spotless hands, freedom from skin and scalp impurities, pimples, chapping and the possession of the delicate bloom of perfect health. Cole's Carbolic, the perfect medicinal toilet, bath and nursery soap is her salvation. Price 25 cents. Sold by all druggists.

—When the blood is impure, thick and sluggish, or thin and impoverished there can be no health. With these conditions all the functions of the body are impaired and the result is a variety of dangerous complications. The best remedy is Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
