

THE YAKIMA HERALD.

VOL. VII.

NORTH YAKIMA, WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1895.

NO. 45.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

YAKIMA GOLD CURE INSTITUTE.

(Established for the cure of the drink disease.) Office and Institute, cor. W. Walnut and 5th sts. Our proposition: No cure, no pay. Investigate. DR. W. W. McCORMICK, D. E. SMITH, Manager. Physician in charge.

REAVIS & ENGLEHART, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

Rooms 7 and 8, Second floor, First National Bank building.

S. C. HENTON, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

Practices in Federal and all State Courts. Office over Yakima National Bank.

W. H. HARE, DENTIST.

Office over Postoffice, Yakima avenue, North Yakima.

H. J. SNIVELY, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

Office over Yakima National Bank, North Yakima. Will practice in all the courts of the state and U. S. land offices.

JONES & NEWMAN, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

Over First National Bank, North Yakima, Wash.

P. FRANK, M. D., PHYSICIAN & SURGEON.

Late Surgeon Washington State Soldiers' Home. Office over First National Bank, North Yakima, Wash.

ELMER E. HEG, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

Office over Chapman's Drug Store. Residence—Telephone 20. All night telephone connection with Chapman's Drug Store.

SAMUEL STORROW, CIVIL ENGINEER, U. S. DEPUTY MINERAL SURVEYOR.

Office, Dr. Gunn building, Second street.

WHITSON & PARKER, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

Office in First National Bank Building.

C. G. FLETCHER, M. D., HOMOEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

Office in Schlotfeldt block. Residence, corner West 3 and 5th sts. Office hours, 10 to 12 a. m., 2 to 4 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK of North Yakima.

Capital, $100,000. Surplus, $27,000.

J. R. Lewis, President. Charles Carpenter, Vice President. W. L. Steiner, Cashier. Henry Teal, Assistant Cashier.

DOES A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS. Buys and Sells Exchange at Reasonable Rates. PAYS INTEREST ON TIME DEPOSITS.

YAKIMA National Bank,

NORTH YAKIMA, WASH.

W. L. LINCE, President. FLEAS, BOUNDS, Vice President. J. D. CORNETT, Cashier. FRANK BARTHOLET, Asst. Cashier.

CAPITAL, $50,000. Surplus, Undiv. Profits, $25,000.

Transacts a general banking business. Foreign and domestic exchange.

THE WASHINGTON RESTAURANT,

Kay, Fay & Yung, Proprietors.

The best 25 and 50 cent meals to be found in the city. The markets constantly searched to supply the tables.

OTSTERS, FISH AND GAME IN SEASON. Open all Hours, Day and Night.

WASHINGTON RESTAURANT,

Yakima Avenue, next to Dooley's Saloon.

No Threshing Outfit is Complete without an

Automatic Stacker

Write us for Catalogue and Prices of Engines, Threshers, Stackers, Horse Powers and Saw Mills

The Massillon Engine & Thresher Co. PORTLAND, OREGON.

THE ALFALFA

SALOON BILLIARD HALL

THOMAS LUND PROPRIETOR NORTH YAKIMA

Advertisers will find the columns of

The Herald!

The most profitable medium through which to reach the trading public.

EVERYBODY READS IT!

THE ADVERTISERS For 1896.

MORNING, SUNDAY AND COMMERCIAL-EVENING EDITIONS.

Aggressive Republican Newspapers of the Highest Class.

Commercial Advertiser. Established 1897. Published every evening. New York's oldest and best evening newspaper. 12 pages. Subscription price, $6 a year.

Morning Advertiser. Published every morning. 8 pages. The foremost to newspaper in the United States. Clean and fearless. Subscription price, $3 a year.

Sunday Advertiser. New York's most popular and original Sunday newspaper. The only 16 Sunday news paper in the United States. All the news and special features of surpassing interest and that will appeal to every phase of human nature. It is the equal of the high-priced Sunday papers in every respect. Subscription price, 50c per copy. For six months, $2.50; for three months, $1.50.

The subscription price of THE MORNING and SUNDAY ADVERTISER together is $3.50 a year, $1.50 for six months, and 90c. for three months.

As Advertising Mediums The ADVERTISERS have no superiors.

Samples free. Agents wanted everywhere. Liberal commissions.

Address THE ADVERTISER, 29 Park Row, New York.

NOTICE—SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

The Solicitors' Loan & Trust Company, (a Corporation), Plaintiff, vs. Lydia Hanson, C. V. Fowler, and Frank H. Fowler, Defendants.

By virtue of a writ of execution, order of sale and decree of foreclosure issued out of the Superior Court in the above entitled action on the 8th day of Nov., 1895, in favor of said plaintiff and against the said defendants, Lydia Hanson, C. V. Fowler and Frank H. Fowler, for the principal sum of Six Hundred Ninety-six and No. 100 dollars, with interest thereon from said date until paid at the rate of Twelve per cent. per annum; and costs of suit amounting to Twenty-seven and 85/100 Dollars, and increased costs, and commanding me to levy upon and make sale thereof, and whereas, the said judgment is a foreclosure of a real estate mortgage given by the said defendants, Lydia Hanson, C. V. Fowler and Frank H. Fowler, to the Solicitors' Loan and Trust Company, (a corporation), plaintiff herein, upon the following described real estate situated in Yakima county, state of Washington, to-wit: The southwest quarter, s.w. 1/4, of Section thirty-three, 33, Township fifteen, N., Range eighteen, E., east of Willamette Meridian, containing 32 acres, together with all water rights and privileges.

Notice is hereby given that in obedience to said command, I have levied upon and will on Saturday, the 21st day of December, 1895, between the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m., to-wit: at the hour of two o'clock p. m. of said day, at the front door of the court house, in the city of North Yakima, Yakima county, Washington, sell at public auction to the highest and best bidder for cash, all of the above described real estate, or a sufficient amount thereof to satisfy said judgment, interest, attorney's fees, costs and increased costs, and that by the terms of said decree the plaintiff may become the purchaser at said sale. Dated this 8th day of November, 1895.

A. L. DILLEY, Sheriff of Yakima County, Wash. Bogie, Richardson & Riggs, Attorneys for Plaintiff. 44-5

Happy Chickens. Wheat only 40 cents a bushel. Sold at Flour Mill.

Easy to Take

And Perfect in Their Action.

AYER'S PILLS

Never fail to relieve Dyspepsia, Constipation, and Headache.

"I have proved the value of Ayer's Pills in relieving dyspepsia and headache, with which complaints I was so long troubled that neither the doctor nor myself supposed I should ever be well again. Through the use of the above medicine I am better than I have been for years."—A. GASKILL, Versailles, Ill.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for 15 years as a cathartic in liver complaint, and always with extremely beneficial effect, never having had need of other medicine. I also give Ayer's Pills to my children, when they require an aperient, and the result is always most satisfactory."—A. A. EATON, Centre Conway, N. H.

"Having been severely afflicted with costiveness, I was induced to try Ayer's Pills. Their use has effected a complete cure, and I can confidently recommend them to all similarly afflicted."—C. A. WHITMAN, Nipomo, Cal.

AYER'S PILLS

Received Highest Awards AT THE WORLD'S FAIR

HEADQUARTERS FOR All the Daily Papers

Leading Periodicals.

CHAPMAN'S News Depot!

The largest stock of Blank Books, Stationery and Stationer's Novelties in the city.

Chapman News & Stationery Co., Cor. Yakima Ave. & 2nd Streets.

What is Castoria

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrup, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children.

Do not be imposed upon, but insist upon having Castoria, and see that the fac simile signature of is on the wrapper. It will protect ourselves and the public at all hazards. THE CASTORIA COMPANY, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

The Richelieu Restaurant

This popular Restaurant is handsomely equipped and is in the hands of experienced caterers.

Private Boxes for Ladies and Family Parties.

MEALS, 25 AND 50 CENTS.

All the delicacies of the season on hand. Call and see us.

THE RICHELIEU RESTAURANT.

THE LOCAL SKETCH-BOOK

Entertaining Bits of Information Which Were Found Within.

PEN PICTURES OF YAKIMA LIFE

All Sorts of Paragraphs Gathered in the Metropolis of Central Washington and from the Great and Fertile Country Surrounding It.

Register Snelling returned on Monday from a trip to Walla Walla and Dayton.

C. T. Uhlman made a short business trip to Tacoma and Seattle last week, returning home on Friday.

Rev. M. L. Rose will deliver a lecture at Ellensburg, Dec. 7th, under the caption of "As We View It."

Architect Arnold has completed the plans for a five-room cottage to be erected by Mr. Henry Lombard on west Yakima avenue.

H. Blackwood, who has, for a number of years, been associated with Nelson Bennett as private secretary, was a Yakima visitor on Thursday and Friday last.

Capt. Leitz, one of the new officers of the Yakima Salvation Army corps, is known as the iron-lunged preacher. He was recently in command at Newburg, Oregon.

A divorce was recently granted at Tacoma, to Mrs. Annie S. Ward, wife of C. C. Ward. Mrs. Ward was formerly a resident of this city and the daughter of the late Dr. Monroe.

Mrs. A. C. Campbell, Jr., and infant son, arrived on Saturday night from Puyallup, where the youngster first saw the light of day. As this was the first time the father had seen his son the occasion, of course, was a very happy one.

The word "kiss" was up for parsing in a Walla Walla school the other day and here is the way it was done by a young and buxom girl from Pasco: "Kiss is a noun, though generally used as a conjunction. It is never declined. It is not very singular and generally used in the plural number, and it agrees with me."

Messrs. Ryan, Metzger, Riggs and Chandler returned on Thursday evening last from the Columbia. They report having but little success in killing game but brought enough birds back with them to supply the tables of a few friends. Their trip was an unusually hard one owing to the cold weather and the wind storms prevailing. Mr. Fred Chandler was the most successful sportsman of the party.

A very handsome crayon sketch of deer adorns one of the windows of Moore & Moore's store. It is the work of Miss Miles and is up for raffle at an early date. The artist has shown much ability and the winner of the prize will be enabled to make a Christmas present that will be highly appreciated at a small cost, for the tickets run from one to one hundred and their price corresponds in cents to the number drawn.

Samuel Chappell received the sad information last week that his father, Wm. Chappell, had died at his home in Livingston county, New York, on the 6th inst., after an illness of but two days, aged 83 years. The deceased was a prominent citizen of his locality and it was his proud boast that he had never lost an opportunity of voting in 61 years. Mr. Chappell's grief is intensified on account of not being able to see his father before the final summons came as he anticipated making a visit east at an early date.

Ellensburg Capital: Two hotel men have recently arrived in town and after looking around quickly made up their minds to locate here. One is the son of Frank Fitterer, born on the 6th inst., and the other, born on the 8th, calls Phil Fitterer papa, or will soon. They are bouncing boys and their parents are naturally proud of them. They have rooms at The Horton, of course, and are at home to their friends. It isn't every landlord who can fill his rooms this way when travel is light.

The "kangaroo court," while somewhat arbitrary, is proving a splendid regulator in all prisons and a great assistance to sheriffs and other jailors. The main advantage is that prisoners are obliged to keep themselves and their quarters clean and it is often an assistance in preventing jail breaking. An instance of the former was recently illustrated in the Yakima county jail. McGonigle, who was convicted of murder in the second degree for the killing of his father, is one of the most filthy prisoners who has ever been confined in the Yakima jail. He wouldn't take a bath and his habits in every way brought down the reproaches of his companions. Finally vermin put in an appearance and the other prisoners resolved to stand it no longer. They urged him to wash and he refused. Then sentence was passed, and, after putting water on the stove, they stripped him of his clothes and laying him across a table beataded him with a strap until he pleaded for mercy and promised to correct his ways. Water, insect powder and the fear of a repetition of the punishment did the rest. The sheriff's approval is shown by his silence.

George P. Eaton, late assistant Northern Pacific land agent, has a large ranch in the Sunnyside country and is spending most of his time in Yakima. Lack of water for farm use, when the canal is closed down, is a very annoying feature so Mr. Eaton determined to sink a well. He went down a distance of 195 feet and still the soil at the bottom was about as dry as the top. Almost discouraged he tried a new location and on Thursday last his eyes were gladdened with a very satisfactory flow at a depth of 24 feet. Now it is his intention to drill for artesian water this coming spring in hopes of being able to escape from paying water rent to the irrigation company.

At the last meeting of the Yakima Fire department the members selected the following executive committee to arrange for the masquerade ball to be given on Christmas night: John Reed, chairman; Jas. R. Coe, secretary; J. C. Liggett, J. E. Merwin and F. T. Liggett. Arrangements are being made for a supply of costumes from abroad and prizes will be awarded for 30 different features, including size, character, costumes, dancing and comely looks. The main prize will be $10 in cash to the couple who will enter into the matrimonial bonds at the ball.

Deputy Sheriff Fred Rowe and Constable Craig returned on Friday last from attendance upon court at Walla Walla and assisting the U. S. officers in guarding their prisoners while enroute to McNeil's Island. While in Walla Walla Mr. Rowe visited the penitentiary and saw Weddle and LaVergne. Both were engaged with wheelbarrows in grading. The former, according to the officers, was inclined to "soldier" and had to be reprimanded, but LaVergne was said to be an exemplary prisoner.

The annual meeting of the county Bible society was held in the Presbyterian church on Friday last. Rev. Hetzler made the principal address which is spoken of as being able and instructive. The officers elected for the ensuing year are Rev. N. Evans, President; Reverends Rose, Drew and Saylor, vice-presidents; Prof. Heiney, secretary; Dr. Rosser, treasurer; and Messrs. E. B. Greenwalt, A. L. Flint and G. M. McKinney members of the executive committee.

Mr. Court Meyer and sister gave a "house warming" at their new and handsome residence on Natchez avenue on Friday evening of last week. The following guests were present who are glowing in the words of praise regarding the charming manner in which they were entertained: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cornett, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barthelet, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Vance, Miss Smith, Miss Fulkerson, H. Lombard, James Donald, and A. P. Fulkerson.

Mr. Kirk Dexter and wife arrived here on Friday last from North Brookfield, Mass., and are for the present the guests of Col. and Mrs. Howlett. Mr. and Mrs. Dexter were passengers on the Great Northern train that was held up near St. Cloud, Minn. They could hear the robbers fring and proceeded to hide their valuables, on the advice of the Pullman conductor, but the passengers were not called upon to yield.

The school directors of North Yakima district met on Friday last and passed upon various bills and issued warrants for the same and to the school teachers for their October salary. The monthly payroll for the teachers and janitors of this district is $1025. It is considerable money but there are no better schools in the state and so generally recognized by those who are qualified to know.

All that was left of the personal effects of B. B. White was attached this week by the sheriff to satisfy creditors. White is now at Roseland, B. C. engaged in the undertaking business, and claims to be doing well. He has numerous small creditors here who have been forced to content themselves with his cold storage plant consisting of several coffins.

A San Francisco preacher says hell is only eighteen inches below the sidewalks of that city. Since the Emanuel church murder and the exposure of the ruin of young girls by rich and lecherous old men, most people think that the place referred to by the preacher is not below the sidewalks at all.

The Womens' Guild of St. Michael's church are perfecting arrangements to put on sale many very pretty and useful articles in linen, suitable for Christmas presents. It is expected the sale will take place about the middle of December, continuing two afternoons.

The populist sheriff of Kittitas county forgot to fasten the door of the jail a few nights ago, and the two prisoners, Silas Bond and John White, walked out and after spending a few hours with friends and relatives returned to the prison of their own accord.

S. G. Crandall returned on Friday of last week from Roseland, B. C. He speaks highly of the mining camp and says much rich ore is being put on to the "dump."

Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer has restored gray hair to its original color and prevented baldness in thousands of cases. It will do so to you.

Mr. Frank Versoy, wife and child, left on Thursday night of last week for their old home in Connecticut with the intention of remaining.

Born, at Tanglep, Nov. 21, to Mr. and Mrs. Mike Schuller, a son.

YAKIMA PEOPLE ABROAD

Interesting Letters From Rev. Chondle and Major Fred R. Reed.

THE EAST AND THE WEST COMPARED

One Speaks of His New Home in California, While the Other Votes Himself Mainly to the Financial Situation.

A Letter From Rev. Chondle.

EDITOR HERALD: I promised to write a few things concerning California when we were settled in our new home. We have been much longer getting settled than we anticipated. While we were on the high seas in the throes of mal de mer the good brother at "Ocean View" church San Francisco decided to postpone my resignation and so arranged with his people to remain for a time. The secret being he did not know where to light and so decided not to fly till he knew. The situation was rather embarrassing for Supt. Harrison and myself, but after seeing the place I was not so much disappointed. "Ocean View Church," sounds better at North Yakima than it does at San Francisco. It lies out exposed to the ocean and is a rather bleak, windswept, fog-enveloped place and full of Dagoes. The chief embarrassment of our situation was the difficulty of getting places in California, but having a few warm friends here the way soon opened both north and south, and we chose to go south landing at San Juan, about ninety miles south of Frisco. Here we are somewhat pleasantly situated having a pretty good church and a good parsonage of eight commodious rooms. San Juan is an old Mexican town, started as a Spanish mission in the eighteenth century. The old mission church and tile covered workshops are still standing and a few adobe houses. The old convent was shaken down by an earthquake and has been replaced by a modern building. The adobe building, in which he lodged and on the porch of which Fremont was standing when a courier announced to him the opening of the Mexican war, is still standing just as it was then. The mountain to which he withdrew his men for safety and from which they could watch the arrival of a gunboat in Monterey bay is called Fremont's Peak. Ours is the only Protestant church here and we have a fine body of young people. They have treated us right royally since we came. The surrounding country is beautiful. A beautiful valley and rolling hills rising away to the mountains north and south and covered with grass and liveoak is all very restful and pleasing to the eye. Wheat, hay, fruits, nuts and sugarbeets are the staple products. There is a sugar refinery at Watsonville fifteen miles away. By the way, these bear tops fed to cows make the butter hard as tallow. Alfalfa makes soft greasy butter. If the people in Yakima raised sugarbeets and fed the tops to their cows with alfalfa the combination, for a while in the fall would make some of the finest butter that Yakima ever turned out. Try it. One of the members of our church harvested seven tons of almonds this fall. His orchard, of fruits and nuts contains twenty thousand trees. The climate is very even all the year round, a little frost between showers in winter and cool winds from the ocean in summer. We are fifteen miles from the ocean and cut off by a low mountain ridge so that both the winds and the fogs are in part kept back. The warmest weather is generally in September but this year it has come in November. We are six miles from the railroad but we have a regular stage and mail four times daily. The San Francisco distilleries are handed in to us at noon instead of at breakfast. San Francisco is in many respects a great city. Things are done on a large scale. Modern buildings are large, business is large, crime is large and plenty of it. Then everybody seems to be in a hurry. Market street is a good place to get stepped on, if a fellow leaves himself lying around loose; it is also a good place to get run down by street cars, for they run in droves. The death list from this cause is large. Also a man does not have to remain in Frisco long to find out that expenses are large. A gentleman stopping at the Palace hotel took a little run out in the country without the formality of cancelling the engagement of his rooms and returned two weeks later to face a bill of $750 for rooms and board. And by the way, the Palace is a sure enough "all wool" palace and you don't have to go to Europe to see it. If Frisco gets the Republican National convention probably the next president of the United States will be picked up around the lobbies of the Palace.

Frisco must be the original home of the flea; unless he came from Egypt to Morocco and on the back of a Moore into Spain and rode a Caballero over the Atlantic into Mexico and thence to Frisco. In either case he is decidedly in evidence at the Palace. It does not bar one from the charmed circle of the "400" in Frisco to have fleas. In fact it is rather aristocratic to have fleas, for the church carpets and the finest churches are full of them and the man who can sit through a long sermon without wiggling is a saint and deserves a place in the calendar. The missionary monks who came to San Juan in 1787 must have brought a few fleas with them and their peaky great-great grand children are both numerous and hearty but do not at all compare in numbers with those in Frisco.

But in spite of fleas California is a grand country and the Santa Clara valley lying between here and San Francisco will rival almost anything the world can produce, in beauty of scenery, climate, products and people.

S. H. CHENDLE.

Major Reed's Letter.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21, 1895.

EDITOR HERALD: During the past four months I have covered a good deal of country and talked with hundreds of people regarding the Yakima country and our state. It is a mistaken idea that some of our western people have that folks here in the east have no confidence in the west. That is all wrong. There is here a general confidence in our country, in its resources, its stability and its final commercial solidity. The principal obstacle in our path at present are the facts that we had a boom and the east furnished the cash to build our cities, our electric and cable street railways, loaned vast amounts of money on our real estate, appraised at boom prices. One and all honestly believed we were right, and did business on that basis. Well, the collapse came and we all made the sad discovery that our foundations were sand instead of rock. The people who had furnished the cash as a matter of course held the sack. Default was made on principal and interest and to aggravate matters a great panic began which shook the financial world creating a destruction of confidence in everything movable and immovable. Beginning with the failure of Baring Bros., of England, extending to Australia, South America, and our own country, causing for the past four years endless embarrassments especially in the younger portions of the United States, mainly the west. We are all only too familiar with what has happened to us. Now bed rock has been struck hard. One and all realize that we've got to do business on a sound basis or not at all. I am delighted to hear on every hand expressions of confidence and good will for Washington and the northwest and this means that money follows confidence. That creates prosperity, and on the new basis on which our western business will be done all will be well. The mineral bearing western states will have their mines very closely scrutinized and I feel justified in saying that within two years all the good mines will be capitalized, operated and conducted as legitimate business enterprises. There is bound to be a mining boom west; you can feel it in the air in the east. The only good I can see that will result will be to divide the sheep from the goats. Good mines will remain good mines and fakes and fakers go out of sight, but the public will find out that the west has a mineral richness that is to-day little dreamed of. One thing our western men can depend on, that is this, if they want eastern money with which to develop the west they must give value for it and that's best for all concerned. The following is an editorial from the New York World:

"The revival of speculation in Denver indicates that the west has recovered its bounding confidence in its future. The confidence is fully justified. The future will come and it will be as glorious as the most energetic boomers expect.

It cannot be hurried, however. The town-let speculation which ravaged the country from the Mississippi westward between showers in winter and cool winds from the ocean in summer. We are fifteen miles from the ocean and cut off by a low mountain ridge so that both the winds and the fogs are in part kept back. The warmest weather is generally in September but this year it has come in November. We are six miles from the railroad but we have a regular stage and mail four times daily. The San Francisco distilleries are handed in to us at noon instead of at breakfast. San Francisco is in many respects a great city. Things are done on a large scale. Modern buildings are large, business is large, crime is large and plenty of it. Then everybody seems to be in a hurry. Market street is a good place to get stepped on, if a fellow leaves himself lying around loose; it is also a good place to get run down by street cars, for they run in droves. The death list from this cause is large. Also a man does not have to remain in Frisco long to find out that expenses are large. A gentleman stopping at the Palace hotel took a little run out in the country without the formality of cancelling the engagement of his rooms and returned two weeks later to face a bill of $750 for rooms and board. And by the way, the Palace is a sure enough "all wool" palace and you don't have to go to Europe to see it. If Frisco gets the Republican National convention probably the next president of the United States will be picked up around the lobbies of the Palace.

Frisco must be the original home of the flea; unless he came from Egypt to Morocco and on the back of a Moore into Spain and rode a Caballero over the Atlantic into Mexico and thence to Frisco. In either case he is decidedly in evidence at the Palace. It does not bar one from the charmed circle of the "400" in Frisco to have fleas. In fact it is rather aristocratic to have fleas, for the church carpets and the finest churches are full of them and the man who can sit through a long sermon without wiggling is a saint and deserves a place in the calendar. The missionary monks who came to San Juan in 1787 must have brought a few fleas with them and their peaky great-great grand children are both numerous and hearty but do not at all compare in numbers with those in Frisco.

But in spite of fleas California is a grand country and the Santa Clara valley lying between here and San Francisco will rival almost anything the world can produce, in beauty of scenery, climate, products and people.

S. H. CHENDLE.

Major Reed's Letter.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21, 1895.

EDITOR HERALD: During the past four months I have covered a good deal of country and talked with hundreds of people regarding the Yakima country and our state. It is a mistaken idea that some of our western people have that folks here in the east have no confidence in the west. That is all wrong. There is here a general confidence in our country, in its resources, its stability and its final commercial solidity. The principal obstacle in our path at present are the facts that we had a boom and the east furnished the cash to build our cities, our electric and cable street railways, loaned vast amounts of money on our real estate, appraised at boom prices. One and all honestly believed we were right, and did business on that basis. Well, the collapse came and we all made the sad discovery that our foundations were sand instead of rock. The people who had furnished the cash as a matter of course held the sack. Default was made on principal and interest and to aggravate matters a great panic began which shook the financial world creating a destruction of confidence in everything movable and immovable. Beginning with the failure of Baring Bros., of England, extending to Australia, South America, and our own country, causing for the past four years endless embarrassments especially in the younger portions of the United States, mainly the west. We are all only too familiar with what has happened to us. Now bed rock has been struck hard. One and all realize that we've got to do business on a sound basis or not at all. I am delighted to hear on every hand expressions of confidence and good will for Washington and the northwest and this means that money follows confidence. That creates prosperity, and on the new basis on which our western business will be done all will be well. The mineral bearing western states will have their mines very closely scrutinized and I feel justified in saying that within two years all the good mines will be capitalized, operated and conducted as legitimate business enterprises. There is bound to be a mining boom west; you can feel it in the air in the east. The only good I can see that will result will be to divide the sheep from the goats. Good mines will remain good mines and fakes and fakers go out of sight, but the public will find out that the west has a mineral richness that is to-day little dreamed of. One thing our western men can depend on, that is this, if they want eastern money with which to develop the west they must give value for it and that's best for all concerned. The following is an editorial from the New York World:

"The revival of speculation in Denver indicates that the west has recovered its bounding confidence in its future. The confidence is fully justified. The future will come and it will be as glorious as the most energetic boomers expect.