J. B. Ingram returned on Tuesday from Spokane.

Curtis Greene returned on Sunday from the Swank mines.

W. O. VanSnyder, of Portland, is a guest of the Hotel Yakima.

Guy Allen left on Sunday to attend the Lake View school, near Tacoma.

Born, on Tuesday last to Mr. and Mrs. Zenas Bolton, of the Wenas, a daughter.

N. N. Brown and Jas. Mabry are hunting geese and ducks in the lower end of the county.

Mrs. Conrad Dar, of Sumner, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. O. Ewing, having arrived on Friday last.

A marriage license was issued on Saturday last to Grant Burgett of the Wenas, and Miss Grace Lewis of the Cowychee.

Report was brought to THE HERALD the other day that a flock of quail estimated at 200, frequently seen on the south side of the Natchez.

J. B. Ingram, the newly elected principal of the Columbia school, returned from Spokane on Tuesday. The fall term will begin on Monday next.

T. M. Vance and Vestal Snyder addressed a large audience at Parker Tuesday evening, when a Bryan and Rogers club was organized with 24 members.

Senator Watson C. Squire has accepted an invitation to address the Veteran's Bryan club, which now numbers 42 members. The date of the meeting has not yet been set.

Mr. and Mrs. Schindeler left on Tuesday for Ellensburg to attend the golden wedding of Mrs. Schindeler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Detmeyer, which was celebrated yesterday.

Rev. Robert Warner, who was recently appointed presiding elder for this district by Bishop Cranston of the M. E. church, arrived in the city Monday with his family from Ellensburg, and left on Wednesday for his new home at The Dalles.

Attorney Frank Cushman of Tacoma, came over on Monday for a few days duck shooting in the vicinity of Toppenish. Mr. Cushman is one of the republican state campaign orators and expects to speak in this city in about two weeks.

Dr. W. H. Hare, president of the state fair board, returned on Tuesday from Spokane. He found that city crowded with people and business men in good spirits. The doctor billed the town in the interest of the fair and found many people who were calculating on visiting Yakima at that time.

Rev. Salyer, chairman, and Robert Perry, secretary, have issued a call for a county convention of the prohibitionists to meet at the court house on Monday, Sept. 21st at 3 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a legislative ticket and transacting such other business as may be introduced.

E. W. Davara, of New York, arrived in the city Monday on his return from a bicycle trip around the world. He entertained a small audience at the court house in the evening with stories of his experience, the expenses of his trip being paid in this way. Mr. Davara had been out a year and thirteen days and expected to reach New York in 45 days.

A very serious accident was experienced by O. A. Fechter on Monday evening which will result in making him very near helpless for some time to come. While starting to descend from the hay loft of his barn the upper rung of the ladder broke and he fell to the platform below, breaking both arms a short distance above the wrists. Dr. Gunn was summoned and reduced the fractures.

The dwelling house of Fred Sperry, on the west side of the track, near the Schanoditch, was destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning. The house was unoccupied at the time, Mr. and Mrs. Sperry and children being in the hop fields, and the supposition is that the building was fired either by tramps or Indians. The loss is a severe one on Mr. Sperry and a subscription paper is being circulated for his relief.

John Michaels returned last week from his mines near Nelson sidings and brings a glowing account of the development work of that district. The company to whom he bonded one of his mines is working day and night forces on a 400 foot tunnel, 83 feet of which is already completed. So well pleased are they that they have agreed to pay the bond in ten days. The ore is running as high as $53 in gold to the ton.

What has become of Hindoo John, the sheep herder, is still a mystery. A local paper says that his body was found under the eleven hundred head belonging to the Cameron Bros., which through the herder's willful neglect or carelessness piled up in a canyon and were smothered to death. Hindoo John's horse was afterwards found, without hobbles, some five miles from the camp. No one cares to go within a long distance of the camp as the stench from the sheep is overpowering and a stream of grease a quarter of a mile long can be traced down the mountain side. The supposition is that the Hindu neglected the sheep and when he realized the great loss road away from the camp and abandoning his horse made for the coast on foot.

The government has appointed John B. Goodwin of Atlanta, Ga.; Charles G. Hoyt, of Benton, Neb.; and Benjamin F. Barge, of Ellensburg, a commission to treat with the Indians of the following agencies: Northern Cheyenne, Crow, Flathead, Fort Hall and Yakima. This commission is one of great importance to the state and especially to this county. The duties of the commission are to treat with the Indians with a view to the cession of those reservation lands not allotted, so that they may be opened to entry or sale to the settler. Of the Yakima reservation there are about 300,000 acres, susceptible of irrigation and the highest state of cultivation. This condition can only be attained by means of water canals. The government, through Agent Erwin, is now constructing one of these vivifying arteries which is expected to reclaim about 20,000 acres of land. For the amount of money expended more acres will be placed under the fruiting influences of water than has been done by any of the other canals in Central Washington. It is to be hoped that the work of the commission will be satisfactory all around and that a large section of the garden lands of Washington, so long tied up, will be opened to settlement and soon be made to shed the fruits of the soil to the profit of the producer and the benefit of Central Washington in general.

J. D. Medill returned on Saturday last from Illinois, where he formerly resided. This was his first trip back since he left his home about thirteen years ago. He says the silver sentiment is strong in Illinois, and, in the township where he formerly lived, he counted 46 old time republicans who had announced themselves for Bryan. If this was a fair indication of the sentiment throughout the state Illinois would be carried for Bryan by many thousands. In the manufacturing districts, however, according to Mr. Medill, the employers are bringing every power to bear in their "campaign of education," even to an implied threat that the wage-worker who failed to vote for McKinley would lose his job. Mr. Medill says he met a number of these employees who wore the McKinley button but who confidentially stated they intended to vote for Bryan.

The joint judicial convention of the union forces of Kittitas, Yakima and Franklin counties last Saturday, resulted in the nomination of J. B. Davidson of Ellensburg, for superior judge, he receiving 34 2/3 votes to 13 1/6 each for T. M. Vance and C. D. Murane. There was much interest manifested and Ellensburg was represented by a big delegation which included amongst its number Col. E. E. Wager, Dorse Schenley, D. W. Carey, P. H. W. Ross, A. O. Wishard, W. J. Robbins, Dr. B. S. Scott, and Perry Clemons. Mr. Davidson is a silver republican, a man of high character and considerable ability. The nomination gives general satisfaction.

Work was commenced Monday on the second reservation ditch, the intake of which will be at a point five miles west of the headgates of the main canal. It will be eight miles long, two and one-half feet deep, five feet on the bottom and will irrigate about 12,000 acres. These ditches, under the able management of Agent Erwin, will reclaim more land and at less cost per acre than any other irrigation work in the state.

On the authority of chairman Vance of the republican central committee THE HERALD stated last week that Hon. N. T. Caton had joined the gold forces and would stump the state for McKinley. This was a grave error as Judge Caton is on the democratic ticket for elector and is one of the most staunch advocates of Bryan and silver, and his voice is being heard from the rostrum in the cause of the people.

Harry Roberts of Tampico, returned last week from Trail, 7 miles from Rossland, where he has been working at his trade, carpentering. Mr. Roberts built a dwelling house in the new town for renting purposes, but says the number of buildings erected exceeded the demand. Mr. Roberts believes, however, that the influx of people the coming spring will tax the capacity of every house in the district.

J. C. MacCrimmon and W. H. Rowe returned last week from the Colville reservation where they have been spending the summer in prospecting, and working on a very promising claim located about 30 miles from the boundary line. They exhibit some handsome rock taken from the 150 level which is said to be very similar to that taken from the LeRoy.

Miss Hubbard, niece of H. B. Scudder, arrived on Saturday from a trip to San Francisco, Portland and Vancouver bars. The young lady is a daughter of Hon. C. E. Hubbard, of Boston, and will make a short visit here before starting on her return to the east.

The union service will be held at the Christian church next Sunday evening, Rev. Hassell preaching the sermon. The morning theme for same place is "Shifting Sin."

Messrs. Smyth & Clay shipped 12 car loads of sheep to Chicago on Monday and on the following day McDonald & Thornton shipped 18 carloads to the same market.

E. O. Keck has gone to his former home in Rock Rapids, Iowa, to look after his property interests there. He expects to be absent about three weeks.

W. H. Redman has been employed by Agent Erwin to take charge of the engineering work on the reservation ditches, vice Capt. J. T. Kingsbury.

J. G. Boyle is no longer connected with the Argus as the populist politicians failed to put up enough money to keep the machine oiled.

Miss Lina Campbell left Wednesday morning for Manitoba on a lengthy visit with relatives.

Peter Norby won the last two bicycles raffled by Moore & Moore.

The State Fair Gives Every Promise of Being a Big Success.

ENTRIES FOR THE HARNESS RACES

The Indian Races and Dances Will Be an Attractive Feature—Two Wonderful Snake Stories—How a Smart Young Man Was Done Up.

A week from next Monday the state fair will be opened. The commissioners have worked under heavy difficulties but the indications are that the fair will be the greatest kind of a success in every particular. The rates made by the Northern Pacific from Tacoma and Seattle are not as satisfactory as were hoped for but the time limit of the excursionists has been extended so that they will have three days at the fair and the round trip rate of $4.90 should induce a large attendance from those sections. Commissioner S. J. Cameron returned from Walla Walla on Wednesday and says the interest taken there gives promise of a large attendance. Walla Walla will send a creditable exhibit of her products including a car load of fruit which will be side tracked here for several days. An effort is being made with strong probabilities of success to secure a round trip rate of less than $5 from that section. Mr. Cameron will leave on Friday for Seattle to assist Agent Neadeau in working up a big excursion from that city.

A Couple of Snake Stories.

Snakes and fish stories are generally taken with considerable allowance, but here are a couple of the serpent variety that will be new to THE HERALD readers and the truth of which are vouched for by their narrators. The first is told by J. E. Mulligan, who claims that with the assistance of Nels Short, he killed a snake, on the Upper Natchez, that had two heads, one at either end of its body. There have been rumors that such snakes inhabited the locality named, and Mr. Mulligan says that Scott Stevens, who lives some twenty miles up the valley, has killed four of this species.

Dr. Hill is authority for the other story. It dated some years back, while he was a resident of Goldendale, Klickitat county. One day early in the spring a man came to town with the information that some men, who were blasting rock near the Columbia, had unearthed a big den of rattlesnakes. The account was so marvelous that the doctor made one of a party that started to investigate. It was a day's ride distant, but they were well repaid for the trip. They found there had been no exaggeration in the account—for there was a mass of rattlers, all curled and entwined together, "half as large as a billiard ball," as the doctor expressed it. They were in a state of torpor, as is their condition throughout the winter and early spring, and the odor was overpowering and sickening. The men could not continue their work under such conditions, so several plans were considered for the destruction of the pest, but that finally adopted was to roll the huge ball to the bluff and then over into the river. This was done, it requiring the services of the entire party to carry it into execution.

Shaking a Gold Man's Confidence.

Over in Seattle a smart young man, who takes everything including the Post-Intelligencer says for gospel truth, maintained a $20 piece reduced to bullion would still be worth $20. On this asseveration he bet $15, and to prove his claim hammered a $20 gold piece into a lump in which all semblance of money was lost. Then he took the bullion to a manufacturing jeweler, where they buy gold, and after explaining the nature of his wager, asked for a $20 piece in exchange for the gold. The jeweler offered him $9 for it. The smart young man was indignant, but after trying a dozen other jewelers and money lenders he finally disposed of it to the highest bidder for $11.25, being out of pocket just $8.75 in addition to his $15 wager. His silver friends have been giving him the ha ha ever since.

Treasurer Cameron of the state fair commission, left for Walla Walla Tuesday to endeavor to have that section of the country well represented at our big fair both in the way of exhibits and attendance. He returned on Wednesday and leaves on Friday for Seattle on a similar mission.

The young son of Matt Bartholet killed a rattlesnake near the Henton residence one day last week, and another was killed by H. B. Scudder in his door yard. It may be that the populating of the mountain districts with immense bands of sheep has resulted in driving some of the "varmints" in towards civilization.

West Walnut street, which is used more than any avenue leading into the city, is in a deplorable condition and should receive the prompt attention of the city authorities. It is full of rocks and "chuck" holes, while mud puddles frequently cover near the entire width of the road. If the city hasn't the means of doing anything else, it might at least have the boulders raked off.

The Winans brothers, of the Little Dalles, were arrested last week on the charge of contempt of the U. S. court for violating an injunction issued by Judge Hanford regarding the fishing rights of the Yakima Indians. At the hearing, held at Spokane, judgment was given in favor of the Winans' on the grounds that rights secured to the Indians by treaty are subject to state laws, and that under a state law the defendants had purchased the beach lands on which they fished and that all others, including the Indians, were trespassers.

In a recent letter to the manufacturers Mr. W. F. Benjamin, editor of the Spectator, Rushford, N. Y., says: "It may be a pleasure to you to know the high esteem in which Chamberlain's medicines are held by the people of your own state, where they must be best known. An aunt of mine, who resides at Dexter, Iowa, was about to visit me a few years since, and before leaving home wrote me, asking if they were sold here, stating if they were not she would bring a quantity with her, as she did not like to be without them." The mediciner referred to are Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds and croup; Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the side and chest, and Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, for bowel complaints. These medicines have been in constant use in Iowa for almost a quarter of a century. The people have learned that they are articles of great worth and merit, and unequalled by any other. They are for sale here at Janek's Pharmacy.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

A conference of the merchants and ministers was held in the Christian church last night regarding the enforcement of the Sunday closing law during the hop picking season. Prosecuting Attorney Englehart was invited in to propound the legal side of the case and was then called upon to preside. The merchants presented their arguments and told of the trials of business and the loss they would sustain if the trade of the hop pickers was driven away from them. Revs. Salyer, Utz and Hassell spoke and after a long pow-wow they adjourned without accomplishing anything. Rev. Salyer appeared to be the most inflexible of the preachers and it will be remembered that he was the leader of the crusade last year. It is not known what stand the merchants will take but last Sunday one of them notified the Indians that he proposed to keep open on the following Sunday.

On Thursday of last week Mr. Chas. Adams was driving to his home on the Moxee he was accosted by a smooth faced young man who asked for a ride. The request was complied with and in the course of a few minutes the stranger pulled a bottle out of his pocket and asked Mr. Adams to have a drink. That is the last Mr. Adams can remember. He was found by Rev. Stayt and D. E. Lesh lying in the road in an unconscious condition from which he did not rally for a long time. The supposition is that Mr. Adams was drugged and assaulted, for he is now totally deaf, which, his attending physician thinks is the result of a blow on the head. Previous to leaving the city Mr. Adams deposited $1050 in the bank but retained several dollars in his pocket. The silver was missing when he was found.

The law and order league which is enforcing the Sunday law in the cause of morality suggested that the hop pickers work on Sunday and do their trading on some other day. This recalls the story told on a well known fruit grower who was prominent in the crusade last year. He publicly stated, that he would neither work nor let his men work on Sunday but when he found that his peaches were ripening so fast that a delay would cause them to be unmarketable, he not only put his men into the orchard on Sunday but worked from dawn to sundown in hauling his packed fruit to the railway station.

Some people may be opposed to the use, and some to the abuse of whiskey, yet its use is often absolutely necessary, especially for medical purposes. In such cases, the pure, unadulterated stuff is needed—not a doctored, drugged combination—and when the L. W. Harper is used, you get the best results, without any bad effects. Its purity and high standard will be maintained because this firm has an enviable reputation which it means to sustain. It can be had of every reliable dealer in North Yakima, Wash.

Will Freeman returned yesterday from the Swank. He says there are six inches of snow on Table mountain and that the entire Yakima contingent in that district will return home in a few days. Mr. Keith Dunlop will put a few of his men to work in the Brown Bear until the winter closes down.

Miss Aggie Curren was pleasantly surprised last evening by the appearance at her home of a large number of friends who proceeded to celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of her birthday with feasting, games and other forms of merry making.

Don't trifle away time when you have cholera morbus or diarrhoea. Fight them in the beginning with DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure. You don't have to wait for results, they are instantaneous, and it leaves the bowels in healthy condition. North Yakima Drug Store.

It is estimated that there will be about four thousand bales of hops cured in Yakima this year. This is against 12,000 for 1895, and 10,000 for 1894. Growers report a shortage of pickers and some fear frost before they can get their crop picked.

DeWitt's Sarsaparilla is prepared for cleansing the blood from impurities and disease. It does this and more. It builds up and strengthens constitutions impaired by disease. It recommends itself. North Yakima Drug Store.

Henry Teal left last evening for Portland where he will make his future home. A delegation of Elks accompanied him to the train and saw him leave with deep regret and sincere wishes for his prosperity and general welfare.

Dr. O. M. Graves will return from the Swank mines on the 23d inst. and thereafter can be found at his office prepared to give the best of service to those requiring dental work. 35-1

Miss Ina Phillips has declined the position of teacher of the primary department of the city schools and the vacancy was filled by the appointment of Miss Ada Sharples of Oregon.

Guy C. Wallace, while boxing with a friend on Monday evening, sprained a wrist. He is drawing $25 a week in consequence of holding an accident policy.

Ladies should see those silk lined cloaks with the "fly front" at Mrs. Cary's. They are the very latest. 35

THE HERALD for a year can be had for one dollar—if the cash accompanies the order.

Colin C. Carmichael returned this morning from England.

Finest Japan tea only 40c. at Kinsey's.

Born, Sept. 10th to Mr. and Mrs. S. Bergvin, of the Moxee, a daughter.

A. E. Larson has purchased the lumber yard of the White River Lumber Co.

I. P. Englehart returned on Tuesday from Olympia where he had business before the supreme court.

Alfred Sinclair and Harry Coonse returned last night from Chicago and Indianapolis. They report a pleasant trip.

W. L. Steinweg left on Monday for the Swank mines. His duties at the bank are being performed by Mr. A. B. Wyckoff.

The whole system is drained and undetermined by indolent ulcers and open sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, North Yakima Drug Store.

E. W. Dooley was awarded the pool selling privilege for the fair. The program privilege went to Fred Chandler and C. W. Liggett, while Liggett & Walton carried away the candy and peanut privilege of the grand stand.

For cloaks, capes and jackets that are the very latest in styles, you should call at "The Wonder." These garments are all well and handsomely made and will please you. No trouble to show this line, which is the largest ever brought to this city. 35

George Smith, formerly one of the wealthiest citizens of Kittitas county and later the leading wholesale butcher of Seattle, is now an inmate of the penitentiary having been sentenced to 18 months imprisonment for stealing sheep in the Okanogan county.

Fred Parker returned on Sunday from Lake View, Oregon, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Leaming. The Leamings were on their return from Santa Clara, Cal., when they were both taken sick and the services of Mr. Parker were required to bring them home. Mr.
