MANY MATTERS OF LOCAL MOMENT

Local Items Regarding Miscellaneous Events Which Have Transpired in and About North Yakima During the Past Week.

Judge C. B. Graves is in the city to close up his judicial business.

Died, Sunday, Jan. 31, of diphtheria, infant daughter of John France of the Wenas.

Will Fulkerson, who is now stationed at Toppenish as night operator, spent Sunday in the city.

John Ralph, local manager of the telephone exchange, returned from his visit to Colfax on Monday.

N. Hartung has declined to qualify as city councilman from the 3d ward and the vacancy will be filled by appointment.

Vado Lillie removed to the Guillard house on Monday to remain until he recovers from the effect of his late surgical operation. He is able to move about with the aid of crutches.

Alex Brandenburg returned on Tuesday from his ranch near Prosser. He reports the roads in a horrible condition and says he was a day and a half in making the trip to this city.

The county commissioner-elect from Prosser is a man of considerable weight. He tips the scales at the 240 pound notch and the largest chair in the court house has been dusted off for his use.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Catron is making arrangements for a trip to St. Paul, Chicago, Kansas City and New York. He expects to leave in a week or ten days and will be gone about a month and a half.

The new county auditor will have a large-sized job greeting him upon taking his office. A deed of all the Northern Pacific lands in the county to the reorganized company will have to be recorded, the fees for which, it is estimated, will amount to $236.

John B. Fogarty, of Ellensburg, was a Yakima visitor yesterday. He says the trial of Thomas Johnson for the killing of William Donahue in the Peshastin mines has been set for next Tuesday and it will be a hardy contested case as both sides are preparing for a strong fight.

W. E. Lawrence, secretary of the Moxee company is an applicant for the office of agent of the Yakima Indians and has a petition in circulation for the signatures of those who approve of his candidacy. Mr. Samuel Chappell of this city, Chas. Uhlman of Tacoma, and Jay Lynch of Dayton, are the other known candidates.

G. A. Bailey and Mrs. Ollie Stark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. Harper, of Pasco, were married at the residence of the bride's cousin, Mrs. A. E. Wright, on Monday evening, Jan. 4. Rev. Utz officiated. The wedding was of a quiet character, only relatives and one or two intimate friends being present. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey have furnished rooms in the Howlett building where they have gone to housekeeping.

It is announced that the Northern Pacific is preparing to issue deeds where final payments have been made on lands, and to make credit on accounts where money had been paid in to the land department and not accounted for by the late assistant land commissioner, Paul Schultz, whose delinquencies in this direction amounted to about $170,000. Several tracts of land in Yakima county have been tied up on this account.

Three versatile tourists visited this city last week and entertained patrons of the various saloons with music, boxing and feats of strength. They left this point for Ellensburg where a purse of $100 was made up for a fight between the strongest and most scientific of the tourists and a local heavy weight. It came off at the armory before a large crowd and is said to have been a good battle. The stranger was twice knocked down but finally put the Ellensburger to sleep and walked off with the money.

Dr. N. G. Blalock, of Walla Walla, says the foggy weather of the last three weeks has been the salvation of the fruit trees. Many trees that were thought to be ruined by the severe cold weather of November are now coming out all right. In many cases the trees were apparently dead and the bark had broken open, but under this favorable weather, the bark has again grown to the trees and become green. If this weather has been specially ordered for the good of our fruit trees, Dr. Blalock says, it could not have been better filled the bill. With the exception of the peach buds, the fruit prospects are good.

On New Year's eve friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. Chandler, of the school section, to the number of thirty-five, gathered at their residence and proceeded to make themselves at home and enjoy a most pleasant evening. Their coming, while a complete surprise, was none the less welcome, the occasion being especially appropriate as it was the 31st anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Chandler. After a merry evening and a splendid supper the entire party went to the residence of Spencer Jacobs, the newly made benedict, and attended their friendship with a serene, although some who listened to it said it sounded more like a charivari than anything else. The next day Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs responded by throwing their house open and inviting their friends to a sumptuous dinner.

Charles B. Simpson, when asked about the condition of the fruit trees said that an improvement was being shown every day. The present weather was most favorable and if there are no sharp or severe cold spells later on, he believes that the trees will come out in a condition far better than anyone had any reason to suppose. When a similar query was put to J. D. Medill his comment was also favorable although he thought that many peach trees were lost. About the bluest man in the county is C. P. Wilcox who claims to have invested $30,000 in his Parker Bottom ranch and believes that most of his trees, which are mainly prunes, are killed. He says he hasn't been to the ranch for some time but is satisfied that he has sustained a heavy loss. Purdy Flint is also taking a pessimistic view of the situation but he has a record in this direction of several years standing which has not been borne out by fact. Frank Wheeler, of Fruitvale, maintains a hopeful feeling and says if anyone had taken the trouble to investigate they would have found that the wood of the fruit trees turned black the previous winter, as well as this, and still the trees were uninjured.

On Thursday last Miss Hazel Doust, the 16 year-old daughter of H. B. Doust, left for Tacoma to enter the Annie Wright seminary for a year's schooling, at least such was the plan arranged by her father. Imagine his surprise, a day or two later, when he learned that she had been married to George C. Mitchell, who is associated in business with Mr. Doust, upon her arrival at Tacoma, where Mr. Mitchell had gone on the previous day. The father says he must have been blind as he never suspected any attachment between the two, but is now convinced that there was a thorough understanding existing and that Mr. Mitchell's trip to the Sound was for that purpose. Mr. Doust is in hopes that his daughter will still secure the year's schooling, account of and his principal regret is on her youth.

Dr. Rosser was called to the Wenas on Saturday to attend the family of John France. Four of the children were down with the diphtheria and the disease had made such headway on the constitution of the youngest that death resulted two days later. Dr. Fletcher also has a case in the family of Isaac Taylor, a neighbor of the France's, the patient being a sixteen-year-old boy. At last accounts the sick people were all improving. No other cases have been reported and there have been no indications of it appearing in this city. At Roslyn the diphtheria is now under control, after a record of five deaths, and it has made no further outbreak at Ellensburg. At the latter point the promising son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Williams fell a victim to the dread disease as did also a son of Druggist Perry.

Patrick Henry Winston, attorney general-elect of the state, will pass through Yakima Friday, bound for Olympia. He will be joined here by T. M. Vance, who will accompany him as far as Ellensburg. Mr. Vance is favorably mentioned as Mr. Winston's assistant but no definite arrangement has been made and may not be. Mr. Vance has been strongly endorsed for the appointment and Mr. Winston has a high appreciation of his legal talents and feels a great personal regard for him, but the exigencies of political life may result in the selection being made from some other section of the state.

E. J. Jaeger, the well known Zillah merchant, was in the city yesterday and says that the opinion prevails in the community in which he resides that the killing of Wright by Goins presents a darker phase than it would had Goins remained and told his story. Wright was not legally on the ranch and he kept constantly annoying Goins until the latter, who is looked upon as being rather weak minded, could stand the goading no longer, and turning upon his tormentor fired the fatal shot.

The club billiard tournament closed last week. It was not especially brilliant in any respect. The rating, as usual in such affairs, proved somewhat unsatisfactory and the highest average made, which captured the third prize, was only 1.76. The 1st prize was awarded to Fred Runyon; second to Wallace Williams, and the 3d to Harry Voorhes.

Robert Imbrie, brother of the late James Imbrie, of the Altamann, and uncle of Wm. Imbrie, of this city, died at Hillsboro, Or., Jan. 5th, aged 65 years. The deceased was a wealthy man owning 1500 acres of land in the vicinity of Hillsboro, and was largely interested in the raising of sheep, cattle and blooded horses.

Arthur Coffin and wife expect to leave in a short time for a tour of six or eight months in Europe. They will first visit California, where they will remain for a few weeks, and then proceed direct to New York and take passage on one of the ocean greyhounds.

C. B. Lillie, formerly a resident of this city, died in the Soldier's Home, Jan. 6th, aged 70 years. The deceased was a veteran of the Mexican war and the war of the rebellion. He leaves three sons, A. E., Charles and Nevada H. Lillie who reside in Yakima.

The pastor of the Christian church will present the following themes next Sunday: Morning, "The Problem of Church Finance;" Evening, "The Companionship of a Personal Saviour."

School Superintendent F. H. Plumb has appointed J. B. Ingram and Mrs. J. H. Needham members of the board of county examiners of applicants for teachers' certificates.

G. S. Rankin and John B. Catron returned from the Sound on Saturday.

THE NEW CITY COUNCIL

It Organizes, Listens to Mayor Fechter's Address and Elects Officers.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS IN SESSION

The Incoming Board Favors the Funding of Floating Indebtedness—A New Legal Firm Organized—Other Interesting Facts.

The new city officers took their seats on Tuesday night and Mayor Fechter opened the first session of the council with an able address in which he compliments the outgoing administration, and of which the following are the more salient points:

"The success and stability of any government depend upon the reasonableness of its enactments and the cheerful compliance therewith on the part of the governed; in a government of limited jurisdiction, such as we are about to assume, the chief, in fact almost the only cause of discontent is excessive taxation and this has been characteristic of almost every municipality in the state; a tax may cease to be a tax and become a penalty, and as such retards the growth and development of the city, by rendering unprofitable the establishment of new and durable elements to the population. * * * In our case there are certain fixed sums to be raised, which renders it impossible to reduce our tax levy beyond a certain amount, these fixed sums are interest on our bonded indebtedness and the fixed charges of the water and light company; both are matters of contract.

"* * * The bonded indebtedness amounts to $92,000; the interest upon this amount annually to more than one-half of the city's entire revenue derived from taxation, it all the taxes were paid; during our term we will be in no position to reduce this; our outstanding warrants approximately amount to $11,000 of which $2,000 will shortly be redeemed by the treasurer. Every time that a warrant is redeemed, to the face of it must be added interest at the rate of 8 per cent; in former years the average time elapsing between the issuance and redemption of a warrant was about three years; it will thus be seen that nearly one-fourth of original value was added to the payment in each case; this average of time has been greatly reduced in recent years, yet we should bend every energy to the reduction of this amount of current indebtedness, even going so far as to increase the tax levy in order that we reach a cash basis."

Referring to the statement made by the retiring mayor at the last meeting of the old council, Mayor Fechter said the amount of taxes levied since the incorporation of the city, which are delinquent, was appalling; owing to the inefficiency of our revenue laws, the collection of this amount, which, if paid, would place the city on a very solid financial basis, is rendered doubtful. His honor recommended the improvement of defective sidewalks and called attention to the city ditch, which was damaged by high water. He also referred to the need of an arc light on the west side. The matter of the volunteer fire department was considered and recommendations made looking towards its improvement.

Two hundred and thirty-eight ordinances, which are now on the Ordinance book, he thought were too many and advocated the repeal of those which are obnoxious and the strict enforcement of those left on the statute book.

Close attention was paid to the reading of the message which met with the approval not only of the council but of a large number of citizens who had gathered to watch the proceedings. The councilmen present were Messrs. Keck, Taggard, Horsley, Vance, Larson and Janek. Mr. Hartung declining to qualify. J. J. Backer was elected marshal on the first ballot the only other candidate who was considered being James Corran. Ronald Grant was elected policeman; J. P. Schwartz sexton; Frank L. Rodman, city justice; Sidney Arnold, engineer and J. Baker scavenger. S. Mull and Chas. Simpson were candidates for ditch tender but after a couple of ballots without choice being made the election was carried over until the next meeting.

Mayor Fechter appointed the following committees:

- Finance—Horsley, Larson, Janek.
- Police—Janek, Vance.
- Fire and Fire Limits—Vance, Keck, Taggard.
- Streets and Ditches—Keck, Taggard.
- Public Improvements—Larson, Horsley, Vance.
- Cemetery—Larson, Horsley.
- Assessment and Taxation—Janek, Larson, Keck.
- Printing—Taggard, Vance, Horsley.
- Board of Health—Keck, Taggard, Janek.
- A. E. Larson was elected president of the council.

County Commissioners' Proceedings.

The county commissioners have been in session all this week and expect to finish their labors on Saturday when Treasurer Bartholet's report will be ready for consideration. Much labor is required in the preparation of the treasurer's statement and Mr. Bartholet and his deputies are busy as bees, in fact all of the county officers are working into the night closing up their official duties for the incoming officers who take their positions on Monday.

The attention of the commissioners has been given largely to road matters and districts 2 and 4 have been changed. District 16 is also undergoing reconstruction and a new district will probably be created. The bonds of all the officers-elect have been approved with the exception of that of Commissioner Mathews which has been sent back for correction.

A license has been granted to Henry Sedge for a ferry on the Natchez at the mouth of the Rattlesnake; and D. D. Weddie was appointed constable for the Cowychee district.

A Strong Legal Firm.

THE HERALD takes pleasure in announcing that the arrangements were concluded this morning by which Judge Carroll B. Graves and Attorney Ira P. Englehart have entered into partnership under the firm name of Graves & Englehart, with offices in Ellensburg and Yakima. The combination is an unusually strong one and will doubtless prove mutually beneficial. Judge Graves is a gentleman whose high local ability is recognized by all, while Mr. Englehart, although a resident of Yakima for only a few years, has built up a large and constantly growing practice and has been remarkably successful in the courts.

Funding County Indebtedness.

Upon the authority of prominent politicians THE HERALD is justified in stating that the incoming board of county commissioners will submit to the voters a proposition to bond the county and fund the present floating indebtedness, which includes the outstanding warrants, amounting in all to about $90,000. Although as a rule it gives a populist the spasms to even think of a bond still it has been figured out that with the reduction of interest and the discount on the present prices, which the county is compelled to become obligated for supplies, that a saving of about a thousand dollars per month can be made. The limit of indebtedness has already been reached, but there will be no increase through funding and a strong prospect that the saving will permit of the creation of a sinking fund to take up the bonded obligations as they mature.

Hotel Management Changed.

Mrs. N. N. Brown assumed charge of the Hotel Yakima yesterday morning. The change is the result of an agreement reached in the domestic troubles of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, the former preferring a compromise rather than permit the counter-charges set forth in his complaint to be brought up in court. The agreement provided for a division of the property and permitted Mrs. Brown securing a divorce without the appearance of her husband, which was granted by Judge Graves that afternoon.

It is the intention of Mr. Brown to remove to California, where he expects to again engage in the hotel business for which he is qualified in every way. His business relations with the merchants and other citizens of Yakima have been characterized by the strictest integrity and he will leave many friends behind and carry with him their best wishes for his future welfare.

Installations.

The newly elected officers of the A. O. U. W., were installed on Monday night by Past Grand Master Spain. They were J. M. Newman, P. M.; Frank Jordan, M. W.; J. P. McCafferty, foreman; G. E. Parrish, overseer; F. M. Spain recorder; Geo. N. Tuesley, financier and A. S. Paul, receiver.

Clemmons; inner guard, John Satterwhite; outer guard, N. Short.

Yakima Lodge No. 29, I. O. O. F., and Isabella Lodge No. 33, held a joint public installation Tuesday evening in their hall in the Allen building. For the Rebekahs District Deputy Mrs. Al. Churchill conducted the installation ceremonies conferring the honors on the following officers: Mr. Joseph Metzger; vice grand, Miss Minnie Sherwood; treasurer, Mrs. C. A. Dodge; secretary, Mrs. Chas. Bailey. District Deputy P. Frank installed the following officers of the Odd Fellows after delivering an appropriate address: noble grand, Joseph Metzger; vice grand, Fred Hayes; recording secretary, W. J. Roof; permanent secretary, A. S. Dam; treasurer, Chas. Carpenter. The installation ceremonies were followed by a program which included vocal and instrumental music and refreshments.

Representative-elect H. D. Jory and Dr. D. M. Angus left for Olympia on Monday. Mr. Jory spent a couple of days in the city, before leaving, conferring with citizens regarding measures to be introduced, but his pet scheme was the introduction of a bill making warrants of the state, county and city receivable for taxes. His bill has not been drawn up and he is unsettled as to its wording and the details of the provisions but he expects to do something—the good Lord only knows what. Dr. Angus has his "mit" out for anything that may come along.

The sheriff and his deputies have been very active in their search for Goins but at this date have no clue to his whereabouts. He is known to have traveled a distance of sixty or seventy miles and at no time gone without a radius of five miles from his home. It is also known that he visited a store at Mabton and purchased crackers and cheese, but on this diet and in this weather he could hardly live for a week in the open, and unless he has had assistance to get out of the country or is being cared for by some friend, it is entirely probable that he has perished. Goins at one time lived at The Dalles, and the sheriff is of the opinion that it was his intention to make for that point.
