

The Best Advertised
 The Most Patronized
 The Least Criticised
 The Most Eulogized * ARE THE *
Pianos and Organs
 WE SELL.

Our list of splendidly made, perfectly toned and cheaply sold instruments comprises the best manufactured in this country. These goods are backed by our reputation and our cash. Hence you are safe in buying with the guarantee we give. Our method of square dealing, coupled with low prices and easy terms, is what makes our business thrive. Come in and see our line, including many varieties of small instruments and musical novelties.

100 Men
 Wanted

To ride the Old Reliable
"MONARCH."
 They are considered the BEST WHEEL now in use, and have "solid comfort" written all over them.

We have them in different grades at different prices. * * *

See Them.

The Wiley B. Allen Co.,

PORTLAND, OREGON

CLAUDE BRIGGS, Gen. Agent,

NORTH YAKIMA, WASH.

REPORTORIAL SHORTSTOPS

What is Going on Daily of Interest to All Our People.

MISCELLANEOUS NEWS NOTES

Items of Personal and Local Mention Put Into Condensed Form for "The Herald's" Busy Readers.

We want your produce. KINSEY & Co.

Irving Bounds has returned from Tacoma on a visit to his parents.

Folger's Best brands of teas and coffees stand the test. KINSEY & Co.

Miss Maude Lindsey, of North Yakima, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Focht, at Roslyn.

Mrs. J. Montgomery and Miss A. B. Jungst of this city were registered at The Butler, Seattle, Saturday.

See the Planet Jr. Universal cultivator for orchards and hops. The finest tool out. Yakima Hardware Co., agents.

Rev. Sam Jones is expected in Spokane this summer. Why cannot Yakima have this wonder of evangelists here also?

Fred R. Reed was in town Sunday shaking hands with his hosts of friends. He left for his mining operations in Boise, Idaho, at night.

Men's, youth's and children's fine clothing. We have very much improved our clothing line and now show the most elegant spring suits to be found in the city. Coffin Bros. 11-1f

A large number of settlers are going into Yakima county this spring. The reason for this is plain. Yakima farm lands are in demand because they are well watered.—Kittitas Localizer.

Alex. Miller, of the North Yakima Mills, was at Portland last week looking after the shipment of flour to China. The freight rate from Yakima to the coast is the same to Seattle, Tacoma or Portland.—Ranch and Range.

The Farm Journal has nearly two million readers each issue; it is putting in a new press that will print 200 copies a minute; it is the best farm paper in America, and it pleases the women folks all to pieces. We have made a special arrangement by which we are able to send the Farm Journal five years to every subscriber of THE HERALD who immediately pays all arrearages and a year in advance; also to all new subscribers who pay $1.25.

Deputy Revenue Collector Nichols returned home last week from an extended trip in the eastern and northern parts of the state. He has run across many former Yakimites, among them D. H. Carv, who is located at Northport; Jerry Rochford, now a mining promoter at Spokane; Lou Arnold, who is building an immense hotel at Davenport; and Morris Harris who is at present clerk in his brother Isaac's hostelry at Davenport.

The Prosser Record, Vol. VIII, No. 1, is at hand. W. A. Maxwell, the publisher, is a practical printer with much experience in newspaper work and THE HERALD trusts his new venture will prove profitable. Mr. Maxwell promises to maintain an independent journal and have an eye single to the upbuilding of Prosser.

Dr. Heg, holding the position of brigade surgeon with the rank of major in the regular army, has requested Postmaster Sperry to forward his Yakima mail to Cienfuegos, Cuba, where he is now stationed.

J. T. Harsell, formerly publisher of the Epigram, was in the city Saturday, shaking hands with his old time friends. Mr. Harsell is now located at Ritzville and has a lucrative position in one of the county offices.

Canton Clipper Plows, Harrows and Discs are made for use. Good honest goods at honest prices. The Yakima Hardware Company sell them.

Wm McMillan returned from Yakima last week to assume management of Fawcett Bros.' branch store in this city.—Ellensburg Dawn.

Chas. VanBuskirk, is at work in North Yakima for H. J. Snively. He will remain about ten days longer.—Ellensburg Dawn.

Garden tools of all kinds at the Yakima Hardware Co.

Col. Walker, of Zillah, was in the city on Saturday.

Some new and beautiful things in the line of silk shirt waists at The Wonder. They must be seen to be appreciated. 10

Lincoln Dille returned Saturday from an official visit to the tunnel on the Great Northern. There was fifteen feet of snow there.

Judge R. O. Dunbar of the supreme court was in Yakima several days, recently, looking after his ranch on the the Ahtanum.

Walter Reed spent last Sunday in Cle Elum. He reports that a considerable mining boom is on in that rich region and predicts a prosperous season there.

The creditors and all others interested in the estate of J. H. Thomas in bankruptcy are requested to meet at the office of Col. Taggard on the 8th day of April.

Frank English, locally known as "Butch," was held on Friday by Commissioner Howlett to the grand jury of the federal court, at Spokane for selling liquor to Indians.

The Christian church of North Yakima held appropriate services last Sunday in memory of Ralph Van Buskirk who was killed in the battle at Manila recently. Yakima people have shown the proper spirit in honoring the memory of so noble a son.—Roslyn Miner.

The following certificates to Yakima teachers have been issued by State Supt. Brown: Applications, 10. Certificates issued—Second grade, 4; third grade, 3; total, 7. Those receiving certificates are: Mae Conrad, J. Chalmers, Alice Druse, J. Dempsey, Maude Knuppenburg, Albertine Rodman, F. A. Stahl.

A. Elliott and little son, living in the Moxee, are recovering from a severe attack of the grip, under the treatment of Dr. Gunn. Mr. Elliott was confined to his bed for weeks.

Gilt Edge canned goods at Kinsey's they are the best.

The ladies of the Christian church are beginning to make arrangements for a rose carnival to be given some time in June.

Wm. Lewis, of Loomis, was in the city on Saturday last, and on Sunday was the guest of his old friend, D. J. Wynkoop of the Ahtanum. Mr. Lewis will be remembered by many as an ex-sheriff of this county, in the old territorial days when Yakima and Kittitas counties were one. At that time he made his home on the Wenas.

New wall paper and more coming. Grass & Metcalf.

MULHOLLEN & LEMON,
 GROCERS.

We aim (and we hit the mark) to keep the finest stock of Fancy and Staple Groceries in North Yakima. Choice bottled and canned goods a specialty. * * * Free delivery.

MULHOLLEN & LEMON,
 GROCERS.

SOMETHING NEW!

Beautiful gun metal, sterling silver, gray and rose colored—oxidized—enameled

Sash and Belt Buckles

Skirt Pins, Shirt Waist Pins, Beauty Pins and Cyrano Guards. The very latest styles in Spring jewelry, and everything else in an

Up-to-Now Jewelry Store.

Ladies it is no trouble to show goods. Prices very low at.....

First Street

KEENE'S

Yakima's
 Expert
 Watchmaker