

Deadly Habits. The woman who is addicted to the terrible morphine habit knows that she is rapidly going down the steep hill that leads to death. There are thousands of other women rushing down the same incline, but they do not know it. They find themselves suffering from nervousness, headache, despondency, irritability, and a dozen other symptoms of female troubles. For relief they turn to the many alcoholic stimulants, malt extracts and other "compounds," so widely advertised to cure the ailments of women. These produce a false stimulation, and the sufferer finds herself compelled to take more and more as time passes, and soon becomes an unwitting slave to strong drink. What a weakly woman needs is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which contains not a grain of opium or a single drop of alcohol or other dangerous stimulant. It acts directly upon the womanly organs, stopping drains, restoring displacements and having a wonderfully beneficial effect upon the general health. Suffering women who wish to consult Dr. R. V. Pierce himself can do so by mail, addressing him at Buffalo, N. Y. He makes no charge whatever for advice.

Mrs. Rena Hensel, of Massillon, Stark Co., Ohio, writes: "I had been troubled with chronic constipation and female weakness and doctored with different physicians, none of whom seemed to help me. I saw one of your advertisements, and I thought I would try your medicines. I did so and with good results. Took two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and one of his 'Favorite Prescription' and I can say I am cured of my troubles, thanks to Dr. Pierce and his medicines. They do a world of good to those who give them a good trial."

If you want a book that tells about all woman's diseases, and how to treat them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay postage, and he will mail you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser. For a heavier, handsome cloth-bound, 31 stamps. It is the grandest medical book for popular reading ever written.

JOHN SAWBRIDGE

WHAT PEOPLE SAY.

A Transient Record of Private Opinions Publicly Expressed.

R. H. Harrison—I don't believe all the talk about the alfalfa being winter-killed. I thought some of mine was dead and I went to work and sowed about $50 worth of seed and now I find that sprouts are springing up in places where I supposed the roots were dead.

Lincoln Dilley—The four lots on the corner opposite the old Guillard hotel, on First street, can be purchased from James M. Ashton for $2,000, if taken soon. This would make an admirable site for an armory and opera house.

Jas. R. Coe—It is too bad that North Yakima has not sufficient stage room for first class theatrical companies. The vacant lots on First and Chestnut streets should be purchased by a syndicate for an opera house and armory combined.

W. F. Lyons—Where I am working near Kiona, there are about 100 Japs and 40 Italians. The Italians spend their money freely but the Japs hold on to every dollar. The men are working for the railway company, under the supervision of Roadmaster Scow.

J. B. Current—I am glad to see THE HERALD paying some attention to the mining industries. Gold Hill properties are very valuable and will prove a big bonanza for North Yakima. It was a great mistake to urge appropriations for the state fair and ignore a state road to Gold Hill from North Yakima. This would have benefited the town in a greater degree.

Arthur Coffin—We have leased the lower floor of Switzer's opera house for a wool storage place, it being admirably adapted for that purpose. I think North Yakima is bound to be a wool center. Indeed, the Northern Pacific Railway Company is determined to bring this about. The company has reduced the freight on wool to this city to one dollar from the former rate of five dollars a ton from the lower end of the valley.

H. B. Scudder—The establishment of a beet sugar refinery here by D. C. Corbin is very likely. He has furnished me seed enough to plant an acre and a half and I am distributing it to reliable growers to make a complete test of the adaptability of Yakima soil, which I have no doubt will prove successful.

Miles Cannon—My sister who left here for her home in Wibaux, Montana, writes me that a snow storm and blizzard blowing thirty miles an hour, greeted her arrival home from the sunny vale of Yakima.

Doc Coe—Have you heard from Baltimore? Nine thousand majority is what my old town gives for democracy. It has gone 12,000 republican, but ring rule has caused a land slide which places it solidly in the democratic column.

Fred Mathewson—I would like to see a large stone bank on the opposite corner from the depot with a sign bearing the legend "Commercial Cable." This would give an air of importance to the town attractive to travelers. It is a drawing card.

John Schuler—I recovered from the rheumatism, and in the worst part of the year, after taking three bottles of "Dr." Sam Chappell's rheumatism cure, and I feel like a new man.

John J. Rudkin—It is not generally known that the Olney boys on the reservation are nephews of ex-Attorney General Olney, who is prominently mentioned for the democratic presidential nomination.

Prof. H. E. McBride—In the successful conduct of a newspaper one has not only to be a diplomat, but a politician as well.

Col. Fred Miller—The pops nearly all voted the republican ticket at the recent municipal election in Spokane and, as a democrat, I am in favor of going it alone after this.

Hugh Sinclair—I think the people of North Yakima do not thoroughly understand the new school proposition that they will soon be called to vote upon. Should the question carry it is not the intention of the board to build a $15,000 structure, as many suppose, but simply to put up a substantial brick building, finishing the lower floor until such times as the upper rooms are needed. We can then accommodate all the scholars who make application and the tuition received from outsiders will go a long way toward paying for the building. As a member of the board I am authorized to state that it is our intention to take off sufficient of the gable from the Columbia school to allay all uneasiness there may be as to the safety of that building.

Sam'l Arendt—The reason that railway depots are generally placed on a level with the tracks is for the comfort of travelers. The smoke and cinders from the locomotive passes overhead instead of choking and blinding passengers as they board the cars.

John Sawbridge—It is too bad that we could not have had an appropriation for a state road from North Yakima to Gold Hill. The development of that mining region means more to Yakima than a state fair.

Seattle Canal.

Yakima Jones, congressman-elect, has promised to make the Cedar River water shed a government reserve. He and his colleague have also promised, as is stated in one of the planks of the republican state platform, to have the national government construct a canal from Hood River to the Columbia by the way of Vancouver, Washington, for the benefit of Portland, Oregon. In none of these promises do we see or hear anything of the Seattle canal.

The Seattle canal is only a cry when republican officials are seeking election; after election the canal can be ignored with impunity.—Seattle Review.

Basket Ball on the Ahtanum.

The Ahtanum Basket Ball club played an interesting game Friday afternoon, May 5th. An assembly of about eighty visitors was present. The following are the names of the players and their positions:

No. 1; Color, Pink—Captain, Miss Ethel Shannafelt; goalman, Miss Neita Seward; guards, Misses Ethel Shannafelt, Addie Brooks and Christie Sherman; center, Miss Vera Wiley; field players, Misses Maud Vivian, Ora Griffith and May Cobb.

No. 2; Color, Green—Captain, Miss Etha Henderson; goalman, Miss Hattie Wynkoop; guards, Misses Etha Henderson, Laurel Zirkle and Vina Soerman; center, Miss Edith Day; field players, Misses Annie Brooks, Lizzie Conklin and Annie Wilson.

The first play began at 3:30 p. m. continuing twenty minutes, the "pinks" gaining three and the "greens" four. Time was then called and a rest of ten minutes was taken. The players were called again at 4 o'clock and in the next twenty minutes the "pinks" gained twelve and the "greens" four. Time being called the game ended with the score standing 15 to 8, in favor of the "pinks." The girls played well and showed the efficient training of Miss Dixon.

Benefit of Co. E.

The promenade concert and hop, for the benefit of Company E, First Washington Volunteers, promises to be a gala event. The time set is Friday evening, May 12, at Mason's opera house. The affair is to be under the auspices of the local Red Cross society. The admission to concert and ball, per couple is $1 and ice cream and cake will be served at 15 cents each or 25 cents per couple. Remember, tomorrow night.
