The Hon. Lionel Tollemache tells in the Spectator of a young woman who had the effrontery to say to him:

"I want to know, master, what you think of God."

"I am more concerned to know what God thinks of me," was Jowett's felicitous reply.

The Waiter Knew 'Em.

A downtown restaurant was in the turmoil of the busy dinner hour. Care-worn business men rushed in and swallowed a lunch as though millions depended on their haste. Waiters balanced steaming platters on the tips of their little fingers with the ease of Japanese jugglers, and everything seemed confusion. Yet there was a certain degree of discipline among the waiters and they seemed to know their customers and their usual choice of dishes. For instance, when a pair of lantern-jawed actors without an engagement entered, the waiter that listened to the order yelled to the cook: "Two soups and a Ham-omelet!"—Detroit Free Press.

Town Farthest Removed From Sea.

Kuldja, which is said to be the center of Asia, is claimed to be the farthest removed town from the sea in the world. This town, which formed part of the ancient kingdom of Dzungaria, is between 1,800 and 1,900 miles from the sea. Kuldja is the point from which numerous races have migrated to the low and arid steppes of the Aralo Caspian depression, and the still more distant and better favored regions of the west. On the fertile banks of the Ili and Irtysh, the migrating hordes lingered for a time, loth, as it were, to venture out into the unknown plain before them, stretching far away into sandy deserts that separate Europe from Asia, until a new tide of popular migration forced them at last to strike their tents and depart westward from their mountainous halting ground.

Babies

Hush! Don't you hear your baby cry? Babies often grow peevish, fretful, restless and feel bad, poor little things, without being able to tell you why. How much the little innocents suffer, unable to tell the cause of their distress! It is almost always some trouble in their little insides, sour curd on the stomach, indigestion, wind-colic, bowel complaints, that start the ills of childhood. CASCARETS make mother's milk mildly purgative, and increase the flow of milk in nursing mothers. Mamma takes a Cascaret, baby gets the benefit.

In this way, Cascarets afford the only safe laxative for babes in arms.
