

ROYAL Baking Powder

Made from pure cream of tartar.

Safeguards the food against alum.

Alum baking powders are the greatest menaces to health of the present day.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

THROUGHOUT THE COUNTY

YAKIMA CITY.

Courtwright Bros. are busy breaking horses.

Fruit Inspector George H. Jacobs is in town on official duties.

Rev. Campbell and wife paid the New Town a visit on Tuesday.

C. H. Bartlett is selling off his ranch below town in five and ten acre tracts.

Lee Osborne is canvassing Yakima City for "Campaigning in the Philippines."

The public schools celebrated Washington's birthday by appropriate exercises.

The M. E. church gave an interesting missionary service on Sunday evening which was well attended and a liberal collection obtained for this worthy cause.

Rev. Richardson of the Christian church is conducting a series of successful meetings. Rev. Crockett of North Yakima assisted by preaching on Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

TAMPICO.

Miss Shannafelt visited friends on the Ahtanum last week.

Charles Marks and wife spent Thursday evening with our dancers.

The masquerade was well attended and all report a very enjoyable time.

School is drawing to a close, there being but three more weeks to the term.

Mr. Stephenson spent a few days at his home on the Ahtanum, returning Sunday.

Mr. Ritter, formerly of Moxee, will move into the house lately vacated by Mr. Waters.

Mr. Coffin was up last week looking for suitable lambing quarters for his big flock of sheep.

Miss Livingood and brother were visitors for a couple of days with Commissioner Eglin's family.

Quite a number of our residents assembled at the home of Andrew Slavin last Sunday, where Father Greve, of North Yakima conducted services. These meetings were formerly held at the Catholic mission a few miles below here, but owing to a little opposition the building cannot at present be used.

SUNNYSIDE.

The father and mother of S. J. and Wm. Harrison arrived on Sunday and will make their home with their son, William.

Frank Petrie's house is nearing completion.

William Harrison lost a valuable horse last week.

Hon. H. D. Jory was at North Yakima last week.

Mrs. Bicknell is at North Yakima taking treatment.

Miss Maude Dickson is home to spend her vacation.

Will Crofton has returned from his visit to Centerville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stobie, sr., went to Yakima on Sunday.

The farmers are all busy preparing their ground for seeding.

Mrs. H. D. Jory is recovering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Michael Reber has the finest lot of Wyandotte chickens in the county.

Mrs. Ide, the postmistress at Outlook, was a Sunnyside visitor on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stobie, jr., were the guests of their parents on Sunday last.

A. F. Stowe who has been on the sick list for the past week, is able to be out again.

A number of our young people attended the dance at Zillah on Friday night and report a good time.

Mr. Casebeer is visiting with the family of S. H. Miller. He will probably remain for some time.

Mr. Corbett of North Yakima is building a five-room house for Mr. Higgins on his farm north of town.

John L. Stevens of St. Paul spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Young at their home, Valley View.

Dr. J. R. Harvey and Clayton Gordon have made incubators and expect to raise a thousand chickens each.

The many friends of Mrs. R. D. Young will be pleased to learn that she is improving at this writing.

H. A. Walker shipped five loads of cattle on Monday that Stobie & Mathison had been feeding for Frye & Bruhn of Seattle.

The books for the Sunday School have arrived and there will be choir practice at the home of Mrs. W. H. Cline on Tuesday and Friday evenings.

PARKER.

Albert Draggoo is on the sick list.

Mrs. James Ferris is quite ill again.

George Mellis spent a few days in Horse Heaven last week.

A fine large new clock was placed in the school house Monday.

Charles Scott is building himself a house on Henry Bicknell's place.

The Misses Batties gave a surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds a week ago Monday.

Mr. Newton, who came from Chehalis county a few weeks ago has purchased a part of Henry Bicknell's ranch.

Most of the Parker dancers attended the fancy dress ball given at Zillah on the 23d. All report a fine time.

The organ for the school house will not arrive here before March 10 or 12, as the Parker people have to have an organ made to order.

The Parker lyceum still holds the interest of the people. Subject for last week was "Resolved, that public grazing land should be leased." The negative side won the debate. The subject for March 2 is "Resolved, that whatever is, is right."

SCHOOL SECTION.

Grandma Dillon is on the sick list this week.

George Evens is very ill with pneumonia.

Born, to Mrs. John Dorsett, a son, on Friday morning, February 24th.

Several of the school sectionites have joined the Royal Tribe of Joseph.

Little Jimmie Saunders has been very ill with pneumonia, but is now out of danger.

Edgar Evans gave a very pleasant party to a few of his friends on Wednesday evening.

The people on the School section rural delivery route are sorry to lose the services of Carrier Francis Weddle. Mr. Weddle has been most efficient and obliging and the best wishes of all his former patrons go with him in whatever his future occupation may be.

AHTANUM.

Mrs. Seward is on the sick list.

Mrs. Dawson, who has been quite ill, is reported as improving.

Rouel Taylor has leased the Eugene Fulkins place for the season.

L. Sherman has rented his herd of milch cows to his tenant on the Wenas.

Mr. Sheldon is working on a petition praying for the opening up of a road by his place.

The Yeomen are preparing for a basket social to be given in their hall on the evening of March 6th.

The Woodmen of the world are seriously considering a proposition to unite with the North Yakima lodge.

Rev. and Mrs. Dawson entertained the faculty and pupils of Woodcock Academy

Feed of all kinds sold at...

Flour Mill Store,

YAKIMA AV. AND 2D ST.

Whole Corn
Ground Corn
Wheat and Chop Rolled Barley
Bran and Shorts
Oats.

Oil Meal for cows and calves gives wonderful satisfaction.

Ask your grocer for HOME-MADE Yakima Flour.

Yakima Mill Co.

at their home Monday evening. A very pleasant time is reported.

Road work began last Monday with Horatio Crosno as supervisor. With little work we can have the best roads in the county, and doubtless some much needed improvements will be made on the public highways in this vicinity this spring.

The stove in Miss Crosno's room in the Academy fell over one day last week, creating some commotion when it was discovered. The rugs on the floor had been burned, and had it not been for the bucket brigade more serious damage might have resulted.

THE LOCAL ROUND-UP.

Harry Moran was a Tacoma visitor Monday.

E. W. Dooly has sold eighteen horses at $40 each.

Judge Erwin was registered at the Donnelly, Tacoma, Monday.

Doc. Hare of Toppenish was registered at the Yakima on Monday.

Rattlesnake citizens want a postoffice, it being too far to go to Prosser.

Mr. Handy is a newly admitted patient at the hospital, suffering from an abscess.

A. P. Hotaling, the multimillionaire of Frisco who has traded largely here in liquors, is dead.

Tobias Beckner and wife and S. P. Flower of Mabton were registered at the Bartholet Tuesday.

Miss Annie Jackson, who left here a year or more ago to visit friends in Oregon, has married a gentleman by the name of Stewart there.

Mr. Watson, late of the firm of Watson and Manahan, has gone to Mississippi to reside, where his family preceded him some months since.

At the meeting of the A. O. U. W., held Monday evening, Geo. N. Tuesley was elected delegate to the Grand Lodge which convenes in Seattle in April. C. M. Hauser was elected alternate.

Jesse Mull, employed in the tonsorial rooms of Struben & Clemmer was called to Puyallup last week to attend the funeral of his father. He has notified his employers that he will be unable to return.

W. H. Templeman has joined his wife in Iowa. The rest of the family will follow after the schools close in May. Mr. Templeman says he is going to raise corn, hogs and other things in Iowa or Kansas.

E. W. R. Taylor of North Yakima was in town this week and while here sold a half interest in the roller mills to E. Kemp. The mill will undergo extensive improvements and Mr. Kemp will take personal charge. The capacity of the mill will be greatly increased.—Prosser Record.

The Junior League of the M. E. church held a very enjoyable social at Allen's hall last Friday evening. An interesting program was rendered by the little folks assisted by Miss Edith Spain. Coffee and cake was served and a social time enjoyed after the program.

A Washington dispatch to the Seattle Times, dated February 19, states the secretary of the interior has issued an order for sheep on the reserves to be taxed three cents a head. In THE HERALD of November 16 last, James Cunningham, a prominent sheepman, stated in an interview that he was willing to pay the government fifteen cents a head for the season's grazing.

Manager Bosdet will have an attraction at Mason's opera house on March 10 and 11 that will doubtless fill it to the doors. It is Edison's wonderful production of the famous Bavarian Passion Play in living pictures. There are twenty-three of these scenes embracing the whole life of Christ from infancy to the ascension. The company also includes on the evening's program stirring pictures of the Hispano-American war.

The Martha Washington supper given by the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church at Mason's opera house last Thursday evening was well attended, netting the ladies a nice little sum. A short program was rendered later in the evening, consisting of a wand drill by some little girls, a chorus song, and recitations by the Misses Alexander and Ross.

The North Yakima Furniture company have just received a new and complete line of undertaker's goods, consisting of caskets and coffins in all sizes and a full line of trimmings. As soon as their new hearse arrives, which will be in a few days, they will be prepared to meet all demands which may come to them in this line.

Last week Coffin Bros. sold to Malcolm MacLennon about half a train load of mutton sheep, which Mr. MacLennon will take to St. Paul to feed and fatten for the Chicago market. The same firm also sold the Frye-Bruhn Company three car loads of ewes and weathers for the Sound market.

Miss J. L. Potter, who is to have charge of the unique entertainment to be given by grade pupils at Mason's opera house on March 23, is in the city. Miss Potter directed the entertainment recently given by Tacoma pupils, and comes highly recommended.

Mrs. G. W. Cary returned last evening from Portland, where she has been the past two weeks studying the styles in millinery and replenishing her stock. She states there have been some marked changes in styles this year in feminine headgear.

O. A. Fechter will deliver a practical address to the high school literary society at the next regular meeting tomorrow (Friday) afternoon. The address will be along the lines of practical thoughts after school life has ended.

There will be union services at the Episcopal church every Friday evening during the Lenten season. Rev. Condit of the Presbyterian church will preach the first sermon tomorrow (Friday) night.

Miss Lizzie Cameron will arrive here tomorrow from Scotland. She will be accompanied by an older sister, who will be married during her visit here to a British naval officer.

E. M. Reed indulged in the art piscatorial at Nelson's bridge on the Natchez, Tuesday, but the result of his catch is only surmised.

Straw walking hats in Tam effects are all the go this year. Mrs. Cary has a fine assortment, and the prices are very low, too.

Rev. Dent will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday. The Aberdeen congregation peremptorily refused to release him.

Arthur Gage, aged 17, and his brother Roy, aged 13, are in jail charged with stealing a cayuse in Ellensburg.

Judge Davidson opened superior court on Monday and adjourned until the third Monday in April.

A baby boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Arrowsmith yesterday morning. All well.

Communion service at the Baptist church Sunday morning. Evening service at 7:30.

A full line of Agricultural Implements will be carried in stock this year. Coffin Bros. 2-t

Dr. Hickman, a prominent physician of Tacoma was in the city Sunday.

Mrs. Dr. Frank is visiting friends in Buffalo, N. Y.

New York Cash Store....

Bicycles—Rambler and Ideals, G. and J. clincher tires, $30 and $40. The Rambler has been the leading wheel for 21 years. It is worth $50 today. We sell it for $40. Take a look at it.

Shoes—Would you please look over our line—don't buy if you don't want to, but see what we've got, and compare goods and prices. We sell shoes that are honestly made—★☆☆ and John Meir's "All Right" shoes.

We sell the best 6 cord machine cotton at 4c per spool.

Envelopes, 5c per package.
10 Bars Laundry Soap, 25c.
Japanned wash bowl and pitcher, 50c.
Carpet beater, beats 'em all, only 20c.
Black corset—"Sweet Marie"—50c.
Boys' heavy Cheviot Waists, black and white stripe, 25c.
Whitewash Brush, 20c.
Nice large Pencil Tablet, 5c.
Sewing machine oil, 5c.
Milk Pans—3 quart, 5c; 6 quart, 8½c; 8 quart, 10c; 10 quart, 12½c

J. A. ADAMS.

Mason's Opera House, WEDNESDAY, MAR. 7

RICHARDS & PRINGLE'S FAMOUS

Georgia Minstrels.

50-PEOPLE-50
2-BANDS-2

HASSEN BEN ALI
FAMOUS TROUPE OF ARABS.

SPECIAL TRAIN CARS

Gala Street Parade, 2:30

TICKETS ON SALE AT JANECK'S

For Rent—Dairy farm of 80 acres, 3½ miles from town on the Ahtanum; good house and barn. Apply to Mrs. Carpenter, opposite HERALD office. 5-tf

FOR SALE—Five room house, corner C and Seventh streets, lot 70 by 150 deep; planted to large variety of fruit. Price $850—one-half cash; balance in one year. Call at this office. 3-tf

Wanted—To buy men's cast-off clothing. We buy, sell or trade in all kinds of goods. The Big Tent Second Hand Store, Second St., south of Coffin Bros., North Yakima. 47 tf

Those opal portraits at the James Studio are fine. 46

See the new Haviland ware at Greene's. Go to Kleis & Bond's, Yakima avenue, for flour or feed. Prices the very lowest. 6

Ladies suffering should investigate the principles of the Viavi remedies. Office over Ditter & Mechtel's Bakery. 39

LOOK HERE, FARMERS!

Never put off till to-morrow what you ought to do to-day, for you do not know what a day may bring forth, but insure in the

PIONEER MUTUAL INSURANCE ASSOCIATION....

before it is one day too late. Your house may burn to-morrow. See

T. W. CLARK,

at Keck's Store.

Black Minorcas

lay more pounds of eggs in 12 months than any hen on earth. $1 per setting of 13 eggs. Also a few settings of a very fine strain of Buff Rocks—buff to the bone. Eggs $1.50 for 13. I use the old fashioned incubator and brooder—with feathers. It clucks and scratches, and scratches and clucks. Birds for sale after September.

Abner S. Crawford

P. O. Box 164. Ninth St. NORTH YAKIMA, WASH.

Shoes THAT Wear

Your income is of less importance than what you save.

SPECIAL PRICES ON HEAVY FOOTWEAR:

Men's Grain Calf Miller Shoes in 3 different toes, lace and congress, always sold for $2.50, now they go for $2.20
Men's grain Columbia Miller make, $2 Shoe, now only 1.80
Men's grain Creole, Miller make, $1.75 shoe, now they go for 1.55

These are all good solid shoes, every pair warranted. * * *

Schott Shoe Co.

NORTH YAKIMA, WASH.

