THE YAKIMA HERALD.

THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 1900.

NORTH YAKIMA AND VICINITY

H. H. Schott left on a business trip to Portland Saturday.

C. B. Hopkins, of Spokane, was a Yakima visitor Sunday.

A. D. Sloan left on Sunday for Seattle to spend the Fourth of July.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Flint have gone to their fruit ranch at Parker to spend the summer.

Arthur Hale and family, of this county are visiting friends and relatives in Goldendale.

The first sweet corn of the season was brought to the market on Saturday last by A. W. Speyers of Knob Hill.

Toppenish now has a barber shop. Dolph Gaunt, who arrived there last week from Goldendale is the proprietor.

W. Highfill will be at Bickleton on the 10th and at Prosser on the 12th to purchase horses for government use in the Philippines.

W. D. Richardson, the traveling representative of the Tacoma Ledger spent Saturday and Sunday among friends in North Yakima.

Diphtheria has again made its appearance in the Bickleton neighborhood. The oldest son of Joseph Hooker died on the 21st of June from this disease.

Mr. Johnson, the newly appointed U. S. marshal of Alaska, passed through the city on Saturday on his way from Washington, D. C., to enter upon his duties.

Alex Carlson and family left for Tacoma Sunday for a visit of a month. Mr. Carlson's position at Lund's is being temporarily filled by Fred Hahn of Ellensburg.

The steamer Ohio, on which Mrs. M. L. Courter is a passenger, has arrived at Nome but will be held in quarantine for thirty days owing to the breaking out of smallpox.

Henry Allison, of Klickitat county, who has recently been engaged here in brick laying has gone to his home for the purpose of selling his ranch and locating in Yakima.

Spratt and Turner, of Yakima, have secured the contract for an artesian well on land owned by John P. Clerf, nine miles east of Ellensburg. They are to bore to a depth of 1250 feet if flowing water is not sooner obtained, and work was started this week.

A drummer's car is a novel feature in railroading but one of them was side tracked in Yakima on Saturday last. A number of drummers in different lines of business banded together and stocked the car, which is provided with drawers for the holding of their samples and counters for their display.

Robert Fraker, accompanied by his wife, father and sister, returned from Medical Lake on Friday. He was taken to the hospital where he is receiving every attention. It is understood that his brother-in-law, W. L. Furniss, of Pendleton, will make provision for his declining days.

The Hop Exchange saloon has again changed hands Mr. Finerman having sold to Peter Sandberg who owns the Owl, Standard, White Front and one or other saloons in Tacoma. Mr. Sandberg's brother has been placed in charge of the Yakima property. Mr. Finerman returned to Tacoma on Sunday. He says Yakima is too slow for him but he failed to realize that during his short stay here there wasn't time for the moss and barnacles to get rubbed from his person.

John E. Mackison expects to leave about the middle of July for the Klondike country to join his brother, R. J. Mackison, who is located at Grand Forks, at the junction of the Eldorado and French Gulch, where he has a prosperous saloon business and is interested in some rich claims. "Jimmy," as his friends know him, always was a money maker, and if he has ceased to be a plunger there is no question but he will come back with his nest well feathered.

Rev. Rosine M. Edwards, the new principal of Woodcock Academy is spending the summer in Spokane and preparing for next year's work. Miss Edwards will have charge of the Latin and History classes, Prof. Woodcock will continue in the Science department as before, and other teachers are to be secured. Miss Edwards is already corresponding in reference to an instructor in Mathematics and German and a teacher of music will be continued as usual, the new piano being a great help in this department.

Joe Boez, a former citizen of Yakima, who was the manager of T. M. Vance's hop yard in the early days, passed through the city Saturday on his way to Dawson.

J. Mailloux arrived last week from Crookston, Minn., and has become associated with his brother Fred in the grocery business.

John G. Boyle has been placed on the pension roll to the extent of $8 per month, likewise Mrs. Marcia A. Gardnier.

Mrs. Watson, mother of Mrs. A. F. Snelling, arrived here on Saturday from Orting to spend the summer.

Joe Haywood and wife left on Saturday for Buckley where they expect to locate.

Col. E. E. Wager, of Ellensburg was a Yakima visitor on Friday last.

Born, North Yakima, June 28, to Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Janek, a son.

Linen, Crash and summer suits cheap at Coffin Bros.

Household Hints.

A cup of milk added to the water with which an oilcloth or oiled floor is to be washed gives them a luster like new.

The application of a bit of soap on the point of a lead pencil to a creaky hinge will cure its stiffness and silence its complaints.

Ink spots can frequently be removed from white fabrics by rubbing common tallow on them, put aside for a day or two, and then wash as usual.

A piece of lemon bound on a corn, changed for a fresh piece every day for three days, is said to loosen the corn so that it may be easily removed.

Mull's Pioneer Cure will strain the poison and filth from your system. Accumulation of months or years lodged therein is what causes ill health. You'll never enjoy life as you should until you get rid of this poisonous matter. Nature demands a house-cleaning. Renovate your Liver and Blood with Mull's Pioneer Cure for Liver and Blood, not a cure all. Four tablets each day, and soon vigor and health will course through your veins as in a new-born babe. It renews life in a manner before unheard of. A dollar draft in every $1.00 box; cash if remedy fails. 25c and $1.00. For sale by Taft & Taft and W. J. Roaf.

She Didn't Want Much.

He—A maid must not expect such lovers as she finds in books. Few men are paragons.

She—Oh! I should not expect a paragon. I should be satisfied with a lover, young, handsome, brave, noble and unselfish.

A KILLER THAT SAVES—Mull's Lightning Pain Killer kills any ache or pain, internal or external, instantly. Absolutely pure. 25c and 50c. For sale by Taft & Taft and W. J. Roaf.

"I reckon we'd better get up some agitation on de subject," said Mr. Erastus Pinkley. "What's de subject?" inquired Mr. Aluminum Thompson. "Dese yere eclipses. Wenever dar's an eclipse dey tells me all de chickens goes to roos' right in de middle er de day. An' if dat's de case les' hab mo' eclipses. I's tired o' dis waitin' roun' till 1 and 2 o'clock in de mawnin'."

Our.... Groceries

Please those who want the BEST.

Other grocers have groceries, but it is a question whether they have the purest. Groceries are oftentimes adulterated. Pure food is essential to good health. We stake our reputation on the fact that our lines of fancy groceries and canned goods are as choice as money can buy. They cost you very little more than adulterated goods.
