

Thanksgiving

"He enjoys much who is thankful for little
A grateful mind is both a great and happy mind."

—SECKER.

As a fitting tribute to the day and date
we offer the following toast:

Here's to the popular bird of prey,
The martyr of Thanksgiving Day;
Here's to the STAR of renown,
Known in every nearby burg and town;
Here's to those (who, by wearing) have learned the worth
Of the best clothing on earth—
Bought of the Star Clothing Co.

The chief magistrate of our great and glorious nation has designated Thursday, November 24th, as a day of feast and thanks. The occasion affords us the opportunity and pleasure of thanking you for your manifestation of loyalty to our clothing store, the appreciation of which has been made apparent through our constant endeavor to please and satisfy.

We pledge ourselves to continue along these lines, to maintain steadfastly the high standard of our lines, and to otherwise render you such service as will merit your thanks and unrestricted confidence.

THROUGHOUT THE COUNTY

Cowiche.

Miss Ada Jackson is visiting at the home of Isaac Davis.

Roy Bird of Natchez was a Cowiche visitor last week.

John French and family are moving to the Altatum.

Methodist Episcopal services will be held at the school house Sunday evening, Nov. 27.

Jay Elliott has returned from the Chelan country where he has been looking after some cattle.

Ole Elliott, who has been attending business college in North Yakima, is visiting his parents in Cowiche.

Mrs. Kemple of the North Fork has been assigned to the asylum for insanity. Three small children are left at home and are reported to be in a pitiable condition.

Selah.

Mrs. Dimmick was under the weather last Sunday and Monday.

D. E. Coffeen, the N. P. agent at this place, expects his wife this week.

The dance last Friday night was an enjoyable affair. Wilson & Flint furnished the music.

Ray Caylin, who has been attending school in town, is unable to attend on account of sickness.

J. N. Moore was a business visitor out here last week trying to interest some of the young people in music.

Frank Stevens has purchased the Rodell farm, formerly known as the Backer place. The store is located on one corner of it.

A shadow social was held at the school house last Wednesday night. Baskets of lunch for two were sold. The proceeds will be used for a library.

Several of our enterprising ranchers turned out and gave the road to the station some much needed repairs. This particular piece of road has been in a deplorable condition ever since last fall.

Belma.

Will McKay has built a nice two-room cottage on his 20-acre ranch.

A strong camp of the Modern Woodmen has been organized at Mabton.

Earl Day has gone back to Towner, North Dakota, to stay with his sister.

George McKay has been sick the past few days with pneumonia fever, but is improving.

Miss Jennie Killian arrived from Salt Lake City, Utah, to make an extended visit with her parents.

Rev. O. W. Forbes of Portland, Ore., and Rev. George C. Giffen are holding a week's meeting at the school house.

Paul Killian returned home from Zillah last week, where he had been plastering a large dwelling for Henry Kielsmeier.

School Section.

Mrs. Bert Jones of Everett is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Grist.

Willie Forbis and Orville Dorsett left Tuesday for Prosser. They will hunt geese in that vicinity.

Charlie Dillon, Jerry Wheeler, Mart and Joe Palmer, left last Saturday for Horse Heaven on a goose hunting expedition.

John Dorsett has received an acetylene gas plant, which will furnish gas for illuminating his new residence, which is nearing completion.

Miss Lottie Bekker, our school teacher who was compelled to close the school for four weeks on account of an attack of typhoid, has recovered sufficiently to open school again on Monday morning.

Sunnyside.

O. J. Harrison was a Tacoma visitor last week.

The Dunkards held their yearly meeting on Saturday evening.

Charles Frye of Seattle was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wenner on Sunday.

Lew A. Johnson & Co. have employed Frank Rodman as their plumber and tinner.

Hon. Walter N. Granger and Geo. P. Eaton were Sunnyside visitors Thursday.

Ed S. Miller of Beatrice, Neb., visited his parents, Elder S. H. Miller and Mrs. Miller last week.

Mrs. L. J. Pentecost left for her home in Tacoma on Saturday after a two weeks' visit with Mrs. W. H. Cline.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Greene left on Saturday for St. Louis and eastern points to be absent until the middle of January.

C. A. Matthews, general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific was a visitor at his farm on Sunday.

Mrs. A. S. Takey entertained at dinner on Tuesday Rev. A. C. Winthing and Mr. and Mrs. B. Seachard.

N. J. Carpenter came down from North Yakima to assist in Henderson's drug store while Mr. Henderson is away on his annual hunt.

Mrs. D. O. Gardner and her daughter returned from a five weeks' trip to the Sound where they went for the benefit of Mrs. Gardner's health.

The little house occupied by G. F. Hardin was burned on Thursday and most of the contents. It is thought the fire was started by some little boys.

There will be service at the Episcopal church on Thanksgiving morning at 11 o'clock. All are most cordially invited to be present.

Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Jones entertained at dinner on Thursday evening Mesdames L. J. Pentecost, R. D. Young and Mr. S. W. H. Cline.

Ira S. Miller came home from Quince, where he is in business, for a visit with his parents and to meet his brother, who is here on a visit from Beatrice, Neb.

Miss Fay Collins of Indiana is here, the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Fisher. She will remain and accompany Mrs. Fisher and children back to their former home in that state.

A. L. Embree and wife lost their 12-year old daughter last Tuesday. The little girl had been ill for the past two weeks. The family have the sympathy of the community in their great bereavement.

George H. Irish and H. A. Webber succeed George F. Barnes as proprietor of the Sunnyside meat market. The new firm will take possession the first of December and will occupy the room in the bank building.

Fairview.

E. C. Pease is on the sick list.

Mr. Ransom is building a new house.

Mr. Spahr is building an addition to his house.

Charles Simpson is having his home near the fair grounds repainted.

John McKay of Puyallup, who recently bought the Buchanan place, is erecting a new house.

J. H. Carstens and family are contemplating a trip back to Nashville, Ill., where they will visit relatives and friends.

Will P. Murphy sold four acres of land near the school house to Christ Schlieff, who has moved upon it. Mr. Schlieff comes from Minnesota.

Percy J. Collins of Portland has sold his 5-acre tract opposite the school house to some Japanese, who are making things look different on it.

One of John McKay's boys came near being killed in a runaway last week. He was saved only by the timely appearance of Mr. Porter, who stopped the horses just in time to save the boy, who was caught on the double trees of the wagon, having fell from the top of the load of slabs.

AHTANUM.

This week brings to mind the pumpkin pies mother used to make; also the roast goose.

Mr. and Mrs. Tompson returned from Klickitat this week, where they had been visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. Burgeron's mother, sister and two brothers arrived from the east last week and intend making their home on the Ahtanum.

Mabel Merritt, who has been sick so long at the hospital, is improving very fast and will be home soon.

Mrs. Smith is convalescing. We hope she will soon be home.

Mr. Daily has purchased a piece of land from Mr. Woodcock, and expects to build before long.

Mrs. Henderson's sale went off well. Some things sold for nearly as much as their original cost.

The oyster supper Friday evening was well attended. With the proceeds—amounting to $13.50—four delegates will be sent to the Christian Endeavor convention, to be held at Ellensburg Nov. 25, 26 and 27, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

NEITHER DILLS NOR DOUST WANTS TO BE MAYOR

Rand will Probably be Chosen—Attorney Cull Declines to Accept Office Again—No Opposition to Brooker for Clerk.

Since last week no new developments in regard to the coming election in this city have come light, and the indications are that the election will be very quiet and that the vote cast will be smaller than it should be in view of the election's importance. The fact that the bond issue for sewer construction purposes is to be voted upon may cause a heavier vote than is expected, however. It is believed that the voters will decide in favor of the bond issue and sewer construction, and it is to be hoped that they will.

The choice for mayor now seems to lie between O. A. Fechter and D. M. Rand. Mr. Fechter appears to be taking but very little interest in the mayoralty question, and, for that matter, so is Mr. Rand. The latter's friends, however, are very active in urging his fitness for the place. I. H. Dills, who has been mentioned for mayor, stated to the Herald this morning that he was not and would not be a candidate, "having troubles enough, as it is." Mr. Doust, who has also been named, positively states that he "don't want anything to do with the mayor's office," and will not be a candidate. A. J. Shaw is proposed by his friends, but the Herald is unadvised in regard to his willingness or unwillingness to become a candidate.

No new candidates have been brought out for the other offices. Mr. Brooker will undoubtedly be re-elected city clerk as he richly deserves to be, and Mr. Donovan will probably succeed himself as city treasurer. Dr. Carver has filled the position of city health officer satisfactorily, and he will in all probability be chosen again.

Much regret has been occasioned by the decision of James O. Cull to again act as city attorney. He has given a great deal more time and attention to the city's business than the small salary connected with the office warrants; his other business has grown to such proportions that to neglect it on account of the city's business would mean an unwarranted sacrifice. No one has as yet been suggested as his successor. The following letter, given out by Mr. Cull this morning, explains his position clearly:

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Nov. 23, '04.
To Mr. Friedlds and the Citizens of North Yakima: In view of the statement made in the Daily Republic on Monday, and the Daily Democrat of this date, to the effect that I am a candidate for re-election to the office of city attorney, I deem it only just to announce that I will, under no circumstances be a candidate for that office for the ensuing term. I find no fault with the statements above referred to, for the reason that I have heretofore stated to several of my friends, who had inquired as to whether I would be a candidate for re-election, that I would accept and appreciate a re-nomination for the office if the people felt like giving it to me, without solicitation on my part; but, for business reasons, I have made up my mind within the last two or three days not to become a candidate.

I wish to assure my friends of my high appreciation of the honor already paid me by their efforts, and for the many kindly expressions in my behalf looking toward a re-nomination.
Very Respectfully,
JAMES O. CULL.

Indian Woman Murdered.

Emma Parker, a young Indian woman who is quite well known, was foully murdered at a drunken orgie held by a lot of Indians and a few white men on the reservation near Toppenish on Monday night, Nov. 14, and Wilson Teo has been arrested and charged with the crime. He will be given a hearing as soon as the state secures or locates some of the men who are wanted for witnesses and some of whom may come in for a share of the blame for the girl's death.

The first news of the crime was brought to the city last Wednesday evening by old Indian. He told the officers that following a dance and general good time at the place stated, some trouble had arisen between the girl and some Indians. He did not know the particulars, but said that the girl had been instantly killed by a bullet fired into her head at close range, and that the body had been buried to conceal the crime.

Coroner Frank went down and had the body exhumed and the investigating resulted in such strongly incriminating evidence against Teo that he is now in the custody of the sheriff charged with the crime.

Madame Alishma, palmist and clairvoyant, who has gained for herself an enviable reputation in her line, is in the city, and will no doubt become a resident.

There will be a ragtime social at the Woodmen Hall Friday evening, November 25, given by the M. B. A. There will be games and refreshments all for one time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gilmore delightfully entertained the young people of Fairview last Saturday night. Card playing and dancing were the chief amusements. Supper was served by the hostess.

E. F. Blaine of the Washington Irrigation company is in the lower part of the county investigating the conditions and looking over the situation with regard to extending the big ditch to cover the state lands.

Miss Lucy Howell and Miss Myrtle Phillips departed last Saturday for Mabton, where they will take charge of departments in the new school. Miss Howell is to be principal.

"Strings, and Other Things" is the taking title of Rev. Rose's morning sermon next Sunday. It will be an illustrated sermon of special interest to boys and girls. The evening sermon will be on the subject of Temperance in recognition of the World's Temperance Sunday. Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

213 Yakima Ave.

Injured in a Runaway.

William Maywalt's team and buggy, himself and his aged wife, his daughter, Mrs. Mary Sheets and her three little children were mixed up in a runaway on Front street this afternoon at 3:30. The team was scared by a passing train and soon got beyond the control of Mrs. Sheets, who was driving. The lines broke at a critical moment, leaving the frightened horses free to run as they pleased.

They ran down Front street to G, onto which they attempted to turn. The buggy was upset and all the occupants thrown out, the older ones falling on the children. Mrs. Sheets was the worst injured, but a superficial examination disclosed no broken bones. She was unconscious for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Maywalt and the children were all cut and bruised, but not seriously injured. The buggy was pretty badly wrecked. All the parties live in the Selah valley.

Have Reason to be Thankful.

Dr. W. R. Stanley and Miss Etta L. Bickford will be married tomorrow evening at the bride's Nob Hill residence.

Miss Bessie May Lee and Everett H. Cleveland will be married at the home of the bride's parents this evening.

Miss Jessie Morrison and Dick Hauser will be wedded in this city tomorrow.

Miss Winnie Chapman and William Beantrow will be married tomorrow evening at the residence of the bride's parents on Capital Hill.

John Yount, who is suffering from a mental disease described by the insanity experts as melancholia, was adjudged insane last Sunday afternoon, and was taken Sunday night to the asylum at Medical Lake by Sheriff Gilman. He lived in the lower end of the county and in the vicinity of Sunnyside for some time.

In another column will be found the advertisement of the Kent Feed Co., makers of the celebrated Magic Stock Food, for which F. A. Morgan is the local agent. The company had an attractive display at the state fair this year, and the product is being used by large numbers of Yakima stockmen, who find it all it is represented to be.

Last Tuesday Mayor O. A. Fechter was elected managing director of the Yakima Valley Bank, the action being taken by the directors in regular session. Mr. Fechter recently became a director through the purchase of the stock formerly held by Senator Walter J. Reed, and was elected managing director to meet the requirements of the increased business of the institution. Mr. Fechter states that the change will cause no alteration in his plans relative to other enterprises with which he is identified. He still retains his stock in the Yakima Commercial Company, but will turn the management of this company over to L. V. Janek, who is actively associated with him therein.

HORSE SENSE.

If they were allowed to pick out their own feed, there would be fewer sick horses. There would also be less veterinary calls to pay for and medicines to buy.

MORE HORSE SENSE

is displayed by the man who buys the best feed than by he who buys the poorest. Our customers' horses all look well and work willingly. That's a fact worth a little hard thinking.
