

YAKIMA PEOPLE

Visited and Visiting

Rev. U. F. Hawk, who was one of the committee appointed by the Methodist congress to attend the Booth funeral, remained over today and will leave for Spokane tonight. Rev. Booth had no closer friend in the conference than Rev. Hawk, to whom his death came as a great shock.—The Dalles Chronicle.

H. C. Mitcham made a business trip to North Yakima recently. . . . Treasurer C. O. Kelso has appointed C. B. McConnell as his deputy, the salary to be paid by the treasurer. Mr. McConnell really lives at North Yakima, but has a farm near Kennewick. He will make a thoroughly competent official.—Kennewick Courier.

George Donald, president of the Yakima National Bank, North Yakima, announces that he has secured the necessary financial backing for the purpose of establishing a system of electric railways connecting that city with the Natchez, Ahtanum and Moxee valleys. Franchises have been applied for, and the company will be incorporated within the next few weeks, preparatory to commencing active operations this fall.—West Coast Trade.

Edward Fournier went to North Yakima Saturday to paint a drop curtain for the Orpheum theater. . . . M. D. Baker and wife and her sister, Miss Eloise Ritenour, expect to leave Saturday night for the mountains for about ten days, going with Mrs. Baker's parents from North Yakima. . . . Carl Vertrees, formerly connected with the North Yakima schools, but who taught last year at Aberdeen, Wash., arrived in town Saturday night and spent a day or two looking over the county seat. He has been employed this year as superintendent of the Kennewick schools, to which a high school, with a three years' course will be added.—Prosper Bulletin.

Mrs. Edward Whitson and daughter of North Yakima are spending the summer in Tacoma, the guests of Mrs. C. E. Clancy. . . . Moncrief Dickson, son of W. H. Dickson of Tacoma, and Miss Helen Smith, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Smith, surprised their relatives and friends in Tacoma by quietly getting married last Saturday at Portland, where Mr. Dickson is assisting John Blaauw in the management of the Tacoma booth. The young couple are well known in Tacoma. The groom is 20 and the bride 19, and they have been sweethearts for years. Mr. Dickson is to take a position at North Yakima following the close of the exposition. The wedding took place at Grace Methodist church in Portland, Rev. Wilson officiating.—Tacoma Ledger.

Miss Nellie Casey went to North Yakima Monday a. m. to attend normal. Miss Nellie will teach next term in the Zillah schools. . . . H. A. Bolles, manager of the St. Paul and Tacoma Lumber company, has a young daughter here from North Yakima keeping house for him. . . . Douglas Holt, the North Yakima tailor, who has been sojourning in this section the past week, done a nice business. Douglas treats his customers right and consequently has a fine trade built up in this neck of the woods. . . . George Donald, president of the Yakima National bank, came down on No. 16 Tuesday evening, returning on No. 15. Mr. Donald was simply taking a little trip to see what he could see. He is a stockholder of the First National bank of Toppensish and has an abiding faith in the town of Toppensish and its future. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snipes gave their last meal at Hotel Staten yesterday at noon. There were numerous and sincere regrets expressed by the many guests who were losing their happy home, for the Staten under the management of the popular couple mentioned has been truly "a home" to many a weary wayfarer, with a most enviable reputation all along the line for setting one of the very best tables between Spokane and the Sound. Mr. and Mrs. Snipes expect to reside in Yakima, where they have purchased the furnishings of the entire second story of the block where the postoffice is located and will conduct a hotel on the European plan. Toppensish loses a most excellent couple. The Review joins their

THE FIRSTBORN.

Why is it that the firstborn child is so often the healthiest of a family of children? The reason seems to suggest itself. As a child follows the mother has less and less vitality; often not enough for herself and none, therefore, for her child.

Expectant mothers who use Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription find that it keeps them in vigorous health. They eat well, sleep well and are not nervous.

When baby comes its advent is practically painless, and the mother is made happy by the birth of a healthy child. If you would be a healthy mother of healthy children use "Favorite Prescription."

"I will be very glad to say a few words for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. P. S. Douglas, of Mansfield, Brown Co., Quebec. "During the first four months when I looked forward to becoming a mother, I suffered very much from nausea and vomiting, and I felt so terribly sick I could scarcely eat or drink anything. I hated all kinds of food. At this time I went to Dr. Pierce, and he told me to get his 'Favorite Prescription' and a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I got a bottle of each, and when I had taken them a few days, I felt much better, and when I had taken hardly three parts of each bottle I felt well and could eat as well as any one, and could do my work without any trouble (I could not do anything before). I feel very thankful to Dr. Pierce for his medicine, and I tell all who tell me they are sick, to get these medicines, or write to Dr. Pierce."

Those who suffer from chronic diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter. All correspondence strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness and sick headache.

legion of friends with best wishes for their future prosperity and happiness.—Toppensish Review.
