AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS.

Newsy letters contributed by The HERALD's valued corps of correspondents.

James Day has gone back to his old home in North Dakota to settle up some business affairs.

A. W. McKinney has moved his family to Sunnyside for two months, so that his sister-in-law, Mrs. Fay Lattin, can have her little boy treated for spinal trouble.

Mrs. Wallace and daughter, Rose, were in North Yakima Thursday.

Commencing Oct. 2 the rural mail will start from Belma at 10 a. m. o'clock instead of 7 a. m., so that the morning mail will go out. The route will be extended to Section 8.

Kiona.

School opens next Monday.

C. B. Hough came over from North Yakima Saturday night and spent Sunday with his uncle, Dr. W. J. Hough.

Waitsburg, where they will attend the academy during the coming year.

Hop picking began Monday at the hop yards ten miles below town. Several of our young folks are enrolled as hop pickers.

Mr. Evans' new hophouse is finished and he will begin picking this week.

Miss Birdie Nordike and friend arrived Thursday from Friday Harbor and are visiting Mrs. Chas. Dillon.

The roads on the School Section are in some places almost impassable, owing to the waste water being permitted to run into the streets. It is a pity that the law regulating waste water is not strictly enforced and some of those guilty of deliberately breaking the law are not made to suffer the consequences. Good roads are an impossibility as long as the present lax system is tolerated by those in authority.

Mrs. Jas. Dickson of Seattle is visiting her friend, Mrs. Geo. Grist, for a few weeks.

Mr. A. Gurley of Fruitvale met with a serious loss Saturday. On going out to work Saturday morning his hired man discovered that some enemy had cut one-third of his hops off from the roots. This was a very mean trick and it is to be hoped that the guilty party will be caught and put where he belongs, but the worst is surely their own for whoever is guilty of the deed.
