CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 24, 1907.

KAUFFMAN AS A DEPUTY TO FRANK

Active policing of the reclamation camps has started with the appointment of Jack Kauffman, former poll tax collector, to the position of deputy health officer. It will have all powers of the county health officer under the supervision of that officer, Dr. Philip Frank. The appointment was made by the commissioners and Dr. Frank, and Kauffman's duties will be the policing of the reclamation camps on the Tieton in the interests of the county. The city is authorized to police the camps as well for protection of the water supply an dit is probable that officers will be appointed by the municipal body for that purpose.

The sewage conditions for the next two weeks will be investigated by W. J. Roberts, sanitary engineer, and he will report at the adjourned meeting of the state board of health in Seattle at the conclusion of that time. This will be a criterion for the entire state. The conditions of Cedar river at Seattle are largely similar to the conditions here and this inspection of Mr. Roberts is of vital interest to this city as well as to the entire state of Washington.

In the matter of the reclamation service camps above the city the government is doing all in its power to make the conditions better and reclamation officers asked for the appointment of a deputy health officer to police the camps.

Money Burns in Her Home.

TOPPENISH, Wash., July 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—The dwelling house of Wilbur Spencer one mile west of Toppenish burned to the ground this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer had been to North Yakima and had arrived in sight of their home when they discovered it was on fire. The loss of the house and contents was $2,000, with no insurance. Little children and matches were the cause.

In her excitement Mrs. Spencer dropped and had burned up $100 in currency.

Nagler Whiskered; Clerk Grabs Cane

Frank X. Nagler and Ed Merwin returned Thursday evening from their trip to the Swauk country, where they have interests in several gold properties. Mr. Nagler is the genial cigar manufacturer of this city and conducts a retail and wholesale establishment on Yakima avenue. On arriving in town he hid him to his place of business asked for a cigar and walked into the back room. Mr. Wilson, the clerk, followed him, armed with a cane, and wanted to know what business he had there. Mr. Nagler answered with a laugh (such a one as only Nagler has) and was immediately recognized. Wilson says it was the whiskers, but Frank says Wilson's eyesight is failing.

Look Over County.

H. G. Heckman and J. D. Smith, capitalist friends of Harry McSpadden from his old home at Clark, S. D. spent Tuesday and Wednesday looking over the valley with the view to purchasing homes here. The gentlemen seemed to be well pleased with the country and spoke very favorably of this section. They have spent five weeks in the west and say they have not seen any place that looked as prosperous or promised as much to the investor as the Yakima valley. They left a good sized list of names of progressive settlers with the request that they be sent literature.

EDWARDS CAPTURES BERRY AFTER CHASE

After evading officers of several counties for about three days, once nearly being killed by a bullet from Sheriff Edwards' revolver, and traveling about 80 miles in 36 hours, Richard Berry, who escaped from the county jail here, in company with Peter Leslie, last Thursday morning, was captured by Deputy Sheriff F. B. Simpson near Golden-dale Saturday afternoon.

Sheriff Edwards fired at the escaped criminal at Toppenish Thursday night, while Berry was endeavoring to make his way through Toppenish on a freight train in company with Leslie. After Berry jumped from the car and made his getaway Sheriff Edwards got a posse together and a thorough search of the train, but nothing of either of the men could be found.

He continued searching in the neighborhood of the railroad track for several hours during Friday morning, after which Lew Parton, Jim Lindsey, Jim Hunter and Ed Tittle of Toppenish were deputized. After a short rest the men started on a systematic search of the vicinity near Toppenish, taking up the entire day in the work. Every possible place where the criminals might have secreted themselves was gone over. The search continued until late in the evening, when the men returned to Toppenish.

Later in the evening Sheriff Edwards got a clue that Berry had gone towards White Bluffs, and shortly after midnight, accompanied by Lew Parton, he left Toppenish in a rig to make a thorough search of that country. He was notified late Saturday afternoon that Berry had been captured, and in the evening he returned to this city.

Sheriff Edwards sent to Glendale last evening for Berry, and he will be brought here sometime today. Deputy Sheriff Joe Liggett and Charles Bruhn returned Saturday from Toppenish, after a number of hours of hard work.

Sheriff McNeil of Benton county was in Toppenish for two days assisting in the search. Friday night he drove to Mabton for the purpose of heading the men off there if possible. In Wapato the escape of the men was known by a few. Berry is well known all over this section of the country. He has herded sheep for nearly every stock owner in this section, having been here for a number of years. He is well known in Toppenish, having been in a number of small fights while living there a couple of years ago.

No clue as to the direction which Leslie took after jumping from the freight has as yet been obtained by Sheriff Edwards, but a close watch is being maintained all along the line. It is very probable that he got through the line which was guarding along the track at Toppenish. Sheriff Edwards feels confident, however, that it will not be long, if Leslie is in this part of the state, until he is captured.

JONES RECEIVES A STATE WIDE SUPPORT

Congressman Wesley L. Jones is very optimistic over his candidacy to the United States. It is greatly encouraged by the many promises of support which have been received since he announced himself formally. When asked if he had received many promises of support he said: "Yes, I am receiving very strong letters every day from every county in the state. They are all the same way and to the effect that my election is assured," states the congressman. "One thing is certain, even if I lose I win. To receive so many warm letters of friendship and commendation is worth more than the United States senatorship."

"One of the endorsements that I prize most highly is that of the Bolo club of Spokane. I have just been advised through its president and secretary that this club has pledged to me its unanimous and enthusiastic support. It is a non-partisan political organization composed of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines of the Spanish-American and the Philippine insurrection. There are about four hundred members in Spokane county. They are all young men, active, energetic and enthusiastic. Their support means splendid and active work. They have a splendid organization. They will do things."

"Jones Popular Everywhere."

W. E. Miller, traveling salesman for the H. M. Richmond Paper company of Seattle, one of the largest firms on the Coast, was in North Yakima yesterday. "Jones' Popularity is increasing," declares Mr. Miller. "His announcement was met with pleasure by the large number of people on the coast. Jones is popular everywhere."

PLACES IN MOXEE CLOSED BY ADAMS

Two places where cream is separated were closed in the Moxee Saturday by Deputy State Inspector Will H. Adams of Spokane, representing L. Davies, state dairy and food inspector. Leaving this city at 5 o'clock in the morning and returning at 5 at night, the deputy state inspector inspected 32 places, being compelled to close the two mentioned.

Nine gallons of cream were destroyed. People conducting the places closed were told of the penalty and they pleaded ignorance of the law, but promised to change the conditions and now evidently realize they must keep the places clean.

Last night Inspector Adams discovered that the meat market he had ordered to be cleaned was in perfect condition as a result and on this trip has discovered all of the markets to be in excellent condition.

THE AUTOMATIC NOISLESS GATE

A large number of people have been greatly admiring the new gates on the Northern Pacific at Yakima avenue. These gates were ordered by the city council many, many moons ago.

The gates have many good points. Among them might be mentioned the fact that they never interfered with traffic, that no team has ever been known to be caught between the gates, that one of the gates has never fallen down and broken a horse's back.

The gates are very slightly—in fact they are strictly out of sight. The extreme rapidity with which the railroad company has installed this improvement has taken away the breath of the general public and has caused much comment.

These gates are strictly automatic and so far have worked without the assistance of anyone in particular. In operation they are perfectly noiseless and require no oiling.

In fact they are in every respect as efficient as any gates which have yet been installed by the Yakima Valley Transportation company or by the North Coast railroad at their Yakima avenue crossings.

There is still some doubt as to what color the gates will be painted. Such a perfect piece of mechanism, left out in the rain unpainted, must of a certainty be put on the bum in short order and the people at large are demanding that these gates be given a coat of paint. With this addition the gates no doubt would be unparalleled.

And last but not least—all who pass the crossing at Yakima avenue are safe—that is, from the gates.

The following letter from Harry Humphrey tells something of the shoot and the camp where it was pulled off:
Camp Hamilton, Washington State Rifle Range, July 18, '07.

Dear Lew Bolles:—It was 6:30 Saturday evening before we pulled out of Seattle and from Tacoma to Murry we had to take an open car and almost froze. It was about 11 when we reached Murry and there we pitched tents and camped for the night. In the morning we finished our journey and made camp, etc., in the afternoon. The shoot started Monday morning at 200 slow. On account of no telephones we postponed 600 until about 3 o'clock. Skirmish was shot Tuesday morning and 200 rapid and some of the teams at 800. The balance finished Wednesday morning and 1000 was then taken up. Capt. Curry had some bad luck at 200 rapid with his gun and made a bad score. High score at 200 rapid was 49 by the old fellow from Co. H. Hattin had high at 200 with 46, Curry and myself at 600 with 46, Ralston at skirmish with 74, Capt. Inglis of Co. D at 800 with 47, and Darlington at 1000 with 40 points.

It has been cold here but not like at Camp Casey. The range has been changed and is in good condition. They have eleven targets and room for nine skirmish, which are just 50 yards in front of the pits. The gun rest is in position at 1000 to do its duty. Iverson so far has been shooting poor. Berger, Potter or Brunt are not trying this year. Bruno is working in the bank and could not get off. Potter is going to get married. Berger is on the staff, but could not leave his work. Our bunch is doing well and from dope sheet you will see how we are making a "walkaway" of it. Burnhardt started home Tuesday morning. He was not feeling well and we were afraid he was coming down with appendicitis, but was not sure.

The conditions at 1000 yards were fierce. One shot I would use one and one-half points left and the next one point right and so forth. The mirage was so bad you could not make out anything through the telescope. Ralston was high man. Hattin second, Pierce third and myself fourth. Co. D had the advantage of us at 1000. They shot while the conditions were good and by the time we were up they were fired. The governor's trophy is ours at last. On the skirmish contest Hattin won first with 147, Yours Truly second 141 points, Berk third with 140 points. One more medal for me. The team is partly picked. Some of them are Curry, Huxtable, Pierce, Humphrey, Berg, Ralston, Hattin, Iverson, Richardson, Johnson, Colburn, Lewellan, Stringer, Moss, Darlington, Ainslee and two or three others. Some of them will have to try out again and as they fall out will be sent home same as before. Yours,
HARRY HUMPHREY.

BOUND OVER.

Harrison Fails to Secure Bonds for $5,000.

Henry Harrison, who is charged with shooting his wife last Saturday night at the Bartholet hotel, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace J. A. Taggard Friday and bound over to the superior court under $5,000 bonds. Attorney Henry J. Snively appeared for the defendant. He was remanded to jail.

May Locate Stone Factory Here.

Lushton (Nebraska) Hydraulic Stone works, of which C. O. Babcock and L. O. Thoms are proprietors, may locate in North Yakima, at least they are looking for a good site and it is very probable that they will come to this city, as they state that North Yakima may be a most favorable location.

The stone works is engaged in a general business of building blocks, curbing, sidewalks, and brick as well as retail and wholesale cement. The location of such a factory here would no doubt materially assist the city.

Twenty Years Battl'.

"I was a loser in a twenty year battle with chronic piles and malignant sores, until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve; which turned the tide, by curing both, till not a trace remains," writes A. M. MRS. RAGAN GIVEN DAUGHTER BY COURT

Judge Edgar C. Steele of Moscow, Idaho, has granted the prayer of the petitioner, Mrs. Cornelia Ragan, of North Yakima, and issued a temporary writ of habeas corpus and the custody of her 6-year-old daughter, Allene, who was by agreement taken to the home of Deputy Sheriff Lieualten. The writ is returnable the 25th instant.

Allene is coveted by three women, and habeas corpus proceedings have been begun in court in Moscow, Idaho, that may result in unraveling the snarl if Judge Steel is as wise as was Solomon. The mother, Mrs. Cornelia Ragan, claims that because of the death of her husband she was compelled to place the child in a home. The child was in possession of Grace Fleming, who, the complaint charges, is an improper person, in business not sanctioned by law. Grace Fleming is alleged to conduct a place known as "222" in Moscow. Grace Fleming, through her attorney, claims Mrs. Ragan is not a proper person, because also engaged in an improper avocation, according to Miss Fleming's complaint. The grandmother of the child also appears and asks that Allene be given into her care. Mrs. Ragan claims she gave her child into the care of Miss Fleming upon representation that she was a woman of good character.

TYPHOID FEVER IN COUNTY IS SCARCE

With only four cases of typhoid fever in the county the general health of this section of the valley is better than ever before. Last year at this time there were in the neighborhood of twenty cases and considerable difficulty was found in combating the disease.

The sanitary condition of the county is unequalled and with proposed improvements in the sewage systems it is believed there will be but slight difficulty in combating this form of disease in particular. County health officer, Philip Frank, is delighted with the present prospects and considers the health of the county as excellent.

MYSTERY IN THE CASE OF KARL HAU

KARLSHRUE, July 20.—Sensational incidents and mysterious complications are multiplying in the case of Karl Hau, charged with the murder of his mother-in-law, Frau Molter. Soon after the court opened, after a tilt between counsel, Herr Dietz, counsel for Hau, announced he had sent his challenge to Dr. Bleicher, states attorney, in connection with the remarks made by the latter attorney yesterday and that Bleicher had refused to receive the challenge.

Another sensation was the calling of a young man named Lenck by the defense, and Lenck's counsel, Dr. Voegelé. Lencke was a cellmate of Hau. Voegelé swore Lencke told him Hau made important revelations and Lencke while admitting he had some conversations with Hau, refused to testify unless with Hau's permission. This refused, Dietz thereupon moved the court to institute proceedings to compel Lencke to testify. Hau later stated to the court that rather than to see Lenck punished he would admit he returned to the continent to see Olga Molter, his sister-in-law, with whom he was infatuated. She knew nothing of his return and he assumed a disguise to carry out his purpose. He said he telephoned with the sole purpose of getting Frau Molter out of the way, but when he later saw Olga leave the house with her mother he was so disappointed at the frustration of his plan he ran full speed to the station. He heard no shot fired.

It is becoming evident that the defense plans to try to affix the murder upon a man named Weiland, who was in the employ of Molter at the time the murder occurred. Witnesses have testified to several alleged suspicious circumstances connected with this man, who has disappeared since the murder was committed. It is stated that the sympathy of the audience is evidently changing in favor of Hau and much criticism is heard of the conduct of Dr. Bleicher and the presiding judge.

TO ORGANIZE COMPANY.

Yakima City Planning to Have Fire Brigade.

Plans are on foot to organize a fire company in Yakima City. The new fire wagon will be moved into different quarters in a short time and W. L. Gwin, the well known city marshal, is arranging to have the fire brigade organized in a short time. The new fire wagon is capable of throwing a strong stream of water to a great height and will no doubt furnish ample protection for Yakima.

Ankeny Will Be Candidate Again.

PORTLAND, July 18.—A special to the Oregonian from Walla Walla says Senator Ankeny today announced his candidacy for re-election. Senator Ankeny's name is to be submitted to the republican voters of the state under the direct primary law in the November election in 1908.

There have been suggestions from various quarters that Ankeny might become a candidate either before the primary or before the legislature.
