GOVERNORSHIP NO ASYLUM FOR POLITICAL HACKS

SO JACK SPLAWN TERSELY EXPRESSES HIS IDEAS

Yakima's Grand Old Man Delivers Strong Address to Bryan-Splawn Club Monday Evening.

If elected I will not use the governorship as an asylum for any old political hack.

JACK SPLAWN.
"I believe any man, honest, and with sound business principles, and horse sense, may be governor of this state even if he was brought up in a cow pen," so declared A. J. Splawn, stockman and candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket at a meeting of the Bryan-Splawn club in the court house Monday evening.

"If fortunate enough to be elected governor I will stand for the whole state. I will stand for no men or set of men. My platform is constructed with a square deal for the foundation.
No appointments will be promised to aid my chances if elected.

"It is up to the chief executive to stay with his office, to make it his one pride during the term of office and if the people find he has not made good it is up to him to go way back and sit down.

"I fully believe it is to the best interests of the state to elect a Democrat for governor, for the reason affairs will be checked up and the house will be cleaned, and we will know where we stand and why this is the worst tax ridden state in the union and still have such an enormous defect in our finance.

"If we are to believe one-half that has been published in the Republican newspapers regarding the present and former Governor it seems the people can not too quickly elect a strong Democratic governor with whiskers to take the helm until the rotten ship of state is brought into a harbor, the bottom scraped and put in good repair before it is turned over to the old political crew again."

"There will be no new offices or commissions created if I am elected to the governorship. The office will not be used as an asylum for every old political hack who blows that way.

"There will be no system of patronage adopted. I understand this state is laboring under a patronage system which would hamper a state of 10 times its population.

"Gentlemen I assure you if I am elected to this office I will have many thanks for the Bryan-Splawn club, which forced me to make the move for the nomination, and if I am elected I will never disgrace the men who put me in the governor's mansion.

"I stood on the borders of this state and acted as a picket when it was worth a man's scalp to be seen out in the open. I have ridden the range and have watched the pioneers of this country die. I have followed the growth of this state as I would watch the growth of a favorite son and if I am elected to the governor-ship of the state I helped to build I will believe my life has not been lived in vain."

A large number of Democrats listened to Mr. Splawn's address Monday evening. The early part of the meeting was taken up with routine business, while later several of the Democrats spoke. H. J. Snively urged a co-operation of the young men and a study of political questions.

"The entire campaign this year will be on the financial question," he said. "But in this state we are principally interested in the candidacy of Mr. Splawn. I believe the people of this state think he is a second John R. Rogers. He did not come to the state asking for the office but the state came to him."

"I think we ought to accord the man who built up the state the reward of duty well performed."

SNIVELY IS CANDIDATE.
Will Make Race on Democratic Ticket—Had Denied His Intentions of Running.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Aug. 8.— Henry J. Snively, a prominent attorney of North Yakima, today filed his declaration of intention to come before the primaries as candidate for state senator in the fifteenth district.
Snively filed on the Democratic ticket. He has always been prominent in the workings of the Democratic party and at one time was candidate for governor, making one of the strongest runs ever made by a Democratic candidate for that office.

The surprise of the last day for entering the political arena comes in the filing of Hon. Henry J. Snively for the office of state senator in the fifteenth senatorial district, as shown by Olympia dispatches.

This is the question of engrossing interest to the politicians of both parties. That he was likely to file for this nomination has been in the air for several days and it appears that his declaration was put in the hands of the secretary of state at Olympia Saturday with instructions not to file it till further notice from Mr. Snively. The Herald is reliably informed that this notice was not given to the secretary until 5 o'clock Saturday evening, and the Herald only got any information in relation to the matter after receiving its Olympia dispatch. Mr. Snively was then seen at his residence by a Herald reporter and admitted that he would make the race. He said that he felt that when "Jack," referring to A. J. Splawn, Democratic candidate for governor, got over to Olympia as governor that he would be lonesome unless some of the old timers from the cow country were on hand.

There are many who believe, however, that Mr. Snively did not want to make the race and that he would not have made it if Oscar A. Fechter would have made the race on the Republican ticket. It is known that Mr.
Fechter seriously considered the proposition also, all of which leads many to think that the North Coast railroad wants some legislation to aid it in its fight with the Northern Pacific to get into the sound cities.
For no man is nearer the inner councils of this road or more in sympathy with it in its fight with the Northern Pacific than Mr. Fechter, but falling to get Mr. Fechter to run, it seems to have been up to Mr. Snively, the managing attorney of the North Coast railroad in this section, to go into the fight himself.

Politicians who heard of Mr. Snively's filing gave a warning to the Republican candidates for senator that none of them need expect a walkaway in this fight. Henry J. Snively has been before the people of this district many times and has always received a majority of their votes and he never was stronger than he is today.

It would certainly be a great sacrifice to Mr. Snively to take the office, as he undoubtedly has one of the most lucrative law practices in the northwest.

OPOSES PRIMARIES.

Declares Selection of Senator by People is Revolutionary Step.

Opposing primaries and local option, Captain J. H. Thomas became a candidate for the Republican nomination for state legislator late Saturday afternoon and refused to sign the pledge committing him to vote for the people's choice for United States senator.

"I consider that the primary law is unconstitutional, bewildering by nature and revolutionary, and I am opposed to it. I will not pledge myself to vote for any man for United States senator. If I am elected I will vote for the man of my choice.

"At present Wesley L. Jones looks like the right man to me. But something might happen to him so as to get him out of the race by the time the legislature meets, if he is the people's choice, and I will be free to vote as I please."

Captain Thomas says that he will prepare a platform in which he will include his views on the local option question, being opposed to such legislation, and also on the matter of primaries. He is the fifth candidate in the field for Republican nomination for legislator, the other four being pledged. The two Democratic candidates are unpledged.

Excellent Health Advice.
Mrs. M. M. Davison, of No. 379 Gifford Ave., San Jose, Cal., says:
"The worth of Electric Bitters as a general family remedy, for headache, biliousness and torpor of the liver and bowels is so pronounced that I am prompted to say a word in its favor, for the benefit of those seeking relief from such afflictions. There is more health for the digestive organs in a bottle of Electric Bitters than in any other remedy I know of."
Sold under guarantee at C. C. Case's drug store. 50c.

JUDGE SNELL ENTERS RACE.

Other Filings of Friday and Saturday —Lists Closed at Midnight Saturday.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Aug. 9.—Judge William H. Snell of Tacoma filed his declaration of intention today to be a candidate for the nomination for the United States senate.

Other important filings today were as follows:
W. E. Cromwell, Tacoma, Republican, auditor; Otis Johnson, Tacoma, Democrat, secretary of state; B. W.

Brown, Tacoma, Democratic congressman of first district.

Friday brought a large number, the following being received:
H. H. Kuller, 217 Twenty-Third avenue, Seattle, democrat, for lieutenant governor.

Edward B. Williamson of Montesano, democrat, for state superintendent of public instruction.

Edward B. Williamson of Prosser, republican, state senator Fifteenth district. Senatorial pledge taken.

James H. McCawley of Dayton, democrat, senator, Eighth district.

Joseph P. Eades of Pasco, democrat, state senator, Eleventh district.

Charles B. Reed of Malaga, republican, state senator, Thirteenth district.

John L. Murray of Friday Harbor, republican, for state treasurer.

The secretary has copies of blank ballot forms, which will be forwarded to county auditors of the various counties to show the legal style and form, and will prepare a certified list of all filings for the point judiciary and senatorial districts. The official ballots to be used in each county are printed as prepared and certified by the county auditors at county expense.

The primary election will see but two tickets in the field, the republican and the democratic, none of the other parties, the prohibition, populists or socialists polling the necessary 10 per cent vote at the last general election necessary to a ticket in the primaries. It is permitted, however, for any party to nominate a ticket by convention, as under the old system, to be held the same day as the primaries.

Form of Ballot.

The forms of the primary ballot, separate for each party, are about twenty-six inches long by nine and a half wide. The upper three-fourths, following the captions and marking instructions, is divided into two columns extending across the bottom, also divided into two columns, the first being supreme court candidates and the other superior court. This judiciary ticket will be duplicated on both the republican and democratic ballots.

For the main portion of the ballot the first column is headed by the congressional ticket, followed by the state ticket. The second column is headed by the legislative ticket, followed by the county ticket, including justice of the peace, constable and precinct committeeman.

Where there are four or more candidates for nomination for the same office on the congressional and state tickets, the line, "Vote for both first and second choice for this office," will appear. This instruction is imperative under the law, and failure to vote for both first and second choice will result in throwing out the vote for that office.

Judge Snell's candidacy is the newest thing politically in the state. Both he and his friends admit that his senatorial boom was only two days old.

So far as can be gathered two days ago a number of Republicans of the county, nearly all of whom were from Tacoma, according to Judge Snell, urged him to get into the race. When asked relative to these interviews with these men Judge Snell said:

"They gave me to understand that they thought the Republicans of the state were tired of the factional fight that is in progress over the senatorial situation. Both candidates for the senatorship, they declared, were tied up to Seattle interests and Seattle factions, and the state demands a man who is not a factionist and who can represent all the state impartially.
If I make the run I shall let the other two candidates fight it out between them and will make my race on my own merits and independent of any faction. I must make my decision, I realize, within the next 24 hours, and I may file my declaration."

Judge Snell's entering the race brings up some rather peculiar situations. For instance, Congressman Cushman has promised his support to Congressman Jones in the senatorship fight. Now, however, with Snell in the race, Cushman may have to get in line for the Tacoma man or else imperil his Pierce county constituency of support.

NEW SHOP.

City Baths and Tonsorial Parlors to Open.

What is to be known in the future as the City Bath and Barber Shop was opened Saturday under the management of D. E. Thurman and Chas.
Gagnon. The shop is located at No.
6 South First street on the premises formerly occupied by the Lyric theatre. Messrs. Gagnon and Thurman have for the past several years been employed as barbers by Mr. V. Werden and each has quite a following.
In their establishment they have three chairs and two baths and with these equipments will be able to satisfy the most particular person in need of tonsorial treatment.

EAST IS FOR TAFT

JOHN RYERSON TELLS OF POLITICAL TALK

Bryan Has a Following in New York City but None in Other Districts.

"Everything in the east appeared to be for Taft," said Agent John Ryerson of the Northern Pacific railroad Monday in talking about political conditions as he saw them on an extensive tour from which he has just returned.

"I spent a good deal of time in Maine. That is a Republican hot bed and of course is for Taft. So is Massachusetts, where I spent some time, too. In New York there is some Bryan sentiment, as far as the city is concerned, but the up-state people will give the state to the Republicans again.

"As to the other states, I couldn't get a fair idea, although I imagine that Illinois and Minnesota are both for Taft from the talks I had along the line.

"I stopped at the Manhattan hotel in New York City on the same day that Taft was registered there, but I didn't even get a peek at him."

Agent Ryerson reports that business conditions in the eastern states are considerably improved and he is confident that all troubles are passed now as far as finances are concerned.
He spent several months in Portland, Me., New York City, Chicago, Minneapolis, St. Paul and other eastern cities.

TALK ANNEXATION.

Residents Who Favor the Plan to Become Part of North Yakima Will Speak.

Men interested in the proposed annexation of a large district west of the city by a special election on September 1 will hold a meeting in Modern Addition in the near future at which the benefits to be derived by becoming a part of the city will be discussed.

While little opposition has been found in the district to the annexation plan, it is proposed to have the proposition fully and entirely understood. If any person does not desire annexation and wants to give his views at the meeting he will also be given the liberty of the platform.

There are three or four orators in the district who are much interested in the annexation and they will probably be in attendance at the meeting.

Everybody in Zanesville, O., knows Mrs. Mary Lee, of rural route 8. She writes: "My husband, James Lee, firmly believes he owes his life to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery. His lungs were so severely affected that consumption seemed inevitable, when a friend recommended New Discovery. We tried it, and its use has restored him to perfect health." Dr.
King's New Discovery is the King of throat and lung remedies. For coughs and colds it has no equal. The first dose gives relief. Try it! Sold under guarantee at C. C. Case's drug store.
50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

TO SINK WELLS.

James W. Finnegan, Who Owns a Section in Moxee, Arrives in North Yakima.

Mayor James W. Finnegan, declared to be the most popular man of Chadron, Neb., is planning on the sinking of artesian wells on 640 acres of Moxee valley land which he has been holding, for the purpose of irrigation, and has arrived in North Yakima with a party to look over the proposition. He will remain some time.

The other members of the party are Mrs. Finnegan and child, Miss Kavarney of Chadron, Mr. and Mrs.
George W. Trimmer of Hot Springs, S. D., and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McKay of Hot Springs.

Mayor Finnegan was elected to that office by the largest majority ever given a mayor in Nebraska, which his friends say is a certain proof of his popularity. He is a conductor on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad.

Children in Pain never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all baby's who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once. Give it a trial. Sold by D. H. Fry, druggist.

Big Trees in Danger.
SONORA, Aug. 10.—A forest fire which has been raging has reached Southern grove, near the Calaveras big trees. Efforts to check it have been unavailing. So far advices from the scene are that the big trees are in no immediate danger owing to the nature of the ground and the fact that the underbrush is cut out. The burned section is now about 30 miles square but property loss is small. The trees are on swampy ground, which makes fighting easier than elsewhere.
