JUSSERAND IS MUCH PLEASSED

WITH HIS VISIT TO YAKIMA

French Ambassador Sees the Irrigated Country and Speaks to French Residents of the Moxee.

"It is better, far better" said Ambassador Jusserand of France, addressing the French Canadian settlers of the Moxee at the hall at the Moxee church last night, "to live in a country where you pay one tax a year and raise four or five crops, than it is to live in a country where you pay four or five taxes and raise but one crop, and some years none at all. It may be that some of you older people, feeling that you are in comfortable circumstances, have had the thought that you will sell out and return to the place of your nativity. It is better far better to remain in this country, among people of refinement and intelligence, where prosperity reigns and where progress is the watchword. For every one here who thinks of returning to the fatherland there are in Europe thousands who dream of being able to make their home, some day in this great United States."

Meeting in the Moxee.

Cyrille Lamoreaux was the chairman of the meeting at the Moxee school house which was the most important, in fact the only, function in which M. and Madame Jusserand participated while here. In an address which greatly impressed the ambassador by its French scholarship, he introduced the visitor who addressed the 200 people assembled in a very prettily decorated hall in a most happy manner. He told them he was impressed with their self-reliance, their intelligence, their industry as he had seen it in viewing their orchard tracts and their ranches; he was impressed with their intelligence, their constancy and their individuality as indicated in their gathering together, as speakers of the French language, in a community, to carry out their own ideas of this best development. While they were aliens by birth in this country they were American born and at home on this continent. They were descended however from citizens of France, a sturdy lot who had come to this continent, as they themselves had come to this coast, as pioneers, and their traditions were and always would be those of the land of their forefathers.

Mothers and Babies.

Speaking of the Moxee gathering afterwards M. Jusserand declared that it contained many features which had impressed him. Not least among them were the happy mothers and the little babies, some of them very little, he said, and indicated with his hands how long, or rather short, he thought them to be. Madame Jusserand also enjoyed the gathering and made it informal by moving from group to group and engaging in conversation with the mothers or fondling the children.

Georges LeBlissonere of Summit View made an interesting address in response to an appeal from M. Jusserand who declared that while he delighted to give pleasure and was willing to talk, he delighted also in taking pleasure and would gladly listen to the talk, of someone else. He would be delighted, he said, to hear from some practical farmer his experiences in making a home in this country. It was in reply to this request that Mr. LeBlissonere made his address which was most interesting.

Visitor Is Impressed.
To the Herald M. Jusserand at his car declared himself as greatly pleased with his trip in the afternoon. "You know" he said, "that companions are tedious and I will institute none. I have been surprised, however, and impressed, deeply impressed, with the manner in which your people here have utilized the water they have taken from the rivers by means of canals and from the ground by means of artesian wells and devoted it to their purposes. I have seen other irrigated sections. I do not know that I have seen any other which gave such an idea of successful manipulation by its developers as this. I wish your city all prosperity."

To J. B. Dazet, with whom he talked in the French language for some minutes Mr. Jusserand declared himself as greatly delighted with the American nation. "It is a fine nation of splendid people" he said when Mr. Dazet told him that he was a naturalized citizen and you have done right to identify your interests with those of the country you have adopted." But when Mr. Dazet said that despite a residence of 38 years in this country there remained in his heart a love for LaBelle France M. Jusserand seized his hand and shook it warmly.

Thought for Leisure Moments.
To the party which had accompanied him throughout his stay in this city M. Jusserand in his car just before his train pulled out from this city said that the things he had seen would furnish thought for his leisure moments for a lifetime. He would like to study in greater detail various phases of the life which had been presented to him. In entertaining his party he said, "Let us have a toast. We ought to have a hundred toasts because of our association today and the things we have seen" He then proposed a toast to Yakima and the Moxee.

Upon the arrival of the French ambassador in this city at 4:10 p. m. he was at once taken by automobile through the Selah, over the Wenas into the Naches, and by way of Fruitvale up over the Nob Hill country. He declared himself as greatly interested with the evidences of activity and prosperity on every hand. In the party were: M. and Madame Jusserand, General Passenger Agent Cleland of the Northern Pacific Railroad, C. J. Blanchard and Walter Granger of the Reclamation Service; George Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Horsley, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Miller, and J. B. Maher.

To Mr. Granger the visitors expressed themselves as most pleased with their stay here at any stop they have made on their trip. It is the first time they have been west of the Missoula river and the magnitude, wealth and activity of the country have greatly impressed them.

The party will stop at Spokane, Butte, Missoula, St. Paul and at the grave of Garfield on its return east to Washington.

H. K. Goldberg, who has been at Louisville, Ky., at a gathering of the Shriners of the country, returned to North Yakima Tuesday.

L. D. Oviatt and Mrs. Oviatt of Portland, formerly of North Yakima, are in the city and are planning to make their future home here.

HAWAII JAP SEEK REV/GE

WANT INTERNATIONAL "FUSS"

Trying to Arouse Feeling Against United States at Home for Seizure of Jap Newspaper By Force.

HONOLULU, June 15.—Strong efforts are being made by the Japanese strikers to get the Japanese government to make an international incident of the forcible entry into the office of a local Japanese newspaper and the seizure of papers by the sheriff last Friday. The leaders of the strike appealed to Ambassador Takahira at Washington by cable today and demanded an immediate investigation of the alleged violation of treaty rights.

Determined efforts it is said, are being made to secure the influence of the political parties in Japan in the matter and get the influential newspapers of the empire to bring pressure upon the Japanese government to institute an inquiry into the subject of the arrest of the Japanese and the seizure of their papers. Four Japanese editors arrested Saturday were released today and their preliminary hearing was set for June 18. The situation remained practically unchanged today, while the feeling among the Japanese is tense because of the arrest of strike leaders.

Workman Injured.

D. Pollard, a workman employed on the construction of the new vinegar plant on south Second street being constructed by Mortland Bros., fell from a scaffold, lighting on his head, the force of the fall causing him to be unconscious for an hour. Fears are entertained by the attending physicians that Pollard may have sustained serious injury to his skull.

E. J. Wyman and W. L. Lemon are home from Louisville, Ky. All members of the party are highly enthusiastic over their trip.

COMMITTEE'S WORK DONE

REPORT TO GOV. HAY MONDAY

Legislative Committee Investigating Officer's Report Will Be Embodied in Governor's Message.

SEATTLE, June 15.—The report of the legislative investigating committee will be completed here next Monday and forwarded to Governor Hay at Olympia that night, so it may be incorporated as a part of the governor's message at the extra session of the legislature. There will be no more sessions of the committee in Olympia before the legislature convenes. This is the program mapped out by Senator Allen, chairman of the committee. He returned last night to Seattle after a ten days' trip east of the mountains investigating the various state institutions.

In view of the fact that the Cheney normal school was not investigated, the committee decided not to stop off at Ellensburg to visit the normal there. The probing into the affairs at Pullman were not completed and there will be no report on any educational institutions. Allen said the findings of committee will be given out at Olympia by Governor Hay.

PLAY OFF TIE GAME SUNDAY

ELLENSBURG AND TOPPENISH

Col. Payne Trying to Land a Couple of Heavy Hitters to Chase in Runs—Ellensburg Fans Suspicious.

A tie game between Ellensburg and Toppenish, played early in the season will be played off in this city next Sunday, and the result of the game will affect the standing of the clubs in the league race, which just at present is warmed up to fever heat. If Toppenish wins the three teams,

North Yakima, Ellensburg and Toppenish will be bunched, but if Ellensburg wins they will be three games in the lead. Therefore it behooves every soul that wants to see the Tigers land the pennant to be present and root for the reservation town to win.

Payne After Hitters.
The game Sunday showed beyond a shadow of a doubt that the Tigers are no hitters and Manager Payne is skimming around for a couple of stickers to help out his fast fielding bunch. Strings are out for Chas. Mullen a hard hitting first baseman and a young fellow named Jackman who is some sticker. Mullen is working in the King county courthouse at Seattle and Jackman is a switchman working at Pasco.

Ellensburg Suspicious.
The Ellensburg fans, had their suspicions aroused Saturday because one of their players came to this city last Saturday afternoon, and the report became circulated in the Kittitas town that he was trying to sell out to this city and throw the game. The fans were all worked up about the alleged deal and if North Yakima had won Sunday the sports of that village would have yelled their heads off, and cried "robbery." The report justified a long story in their daily paper, and an editorial on "square deals."

MILWAUKEE LINE HAS FINISHED ITS SURVEY

Line Runs Within a Mile of White Bluffs and Hanford, it is Stated and Will Continue to Kennewick.

The Milwaukee railroad, according to C. A. Day of the White Bluffs Land company, has completed the survey of its line from Beverly through to Hanford and White Bluffs and is now making arrangements for its right of way. It is understood also that contracts have been let for the construction of 66 miles of roadbed. The route of the railroad is not known beyond the point to which its survey has been carried but it is generally understood that it will be carried through to Kennewick where it will reach the territory of the North Coast. In some quarters it is thought that the line will run well down toward Richland and then swing over to Kiona where there will be a junction. The surveyed route of the railroad at White Bluffs and Hanford carries the track a mile back from the piers on the river. Work has been in progress for some time along at the Priest Rapids section and Mr. Day says that some 90 men are engaged in one crew over toward Hanford.

WILL URGE INCOME TAX

SPECIAL MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

President Taft Favors State Recommendation to Congress of Tax on Idle Fortunes.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—President Taft tomorrow will send to congress a message urging the passage of an amendment to the tariff bill imposing a tax on the undistributed earnings of the corporations and the adoption of a resolution submitting to the several states an amendment to the constitution giving congress the power to impose a tax on incomes. This understanding was reached at a session of the cabinet today and was approved by the republican senate leaders who conferred with President Taft. In view of the emphatic stand taken by President Taft a number of the progressive republicans have signified their intention of following his recommendations.

Calhoun Arguments Begun.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—In the Calhoun trial today Alex. King of Atlanta, Ga., finished his argument on behalf of the defendant and was followed by A. A. Moore, the senior counsel for the defense, who will make the final plea for the accused. King's address consumed five hours, leaving two hours of the day, sufficient time for Moore to complete his introduction.

John Cort, owner of the Yakima theatre, is to come to this city to make an investigation of conditions to the end of having the theatre comply with the city ordinance as to protection, etc. The present difficulty is with respect to the heating apparatus.

BIG TRACT FOR HOMESTEADERS

NEAR THE HANFORD PROJECT

Thousands of Acres of Valuable Land Restored for Entry in Territory of Local Land Office.

Government land under the Hanford irrigation project withdrawn from entry at the inception of the irrigation work in that section of the state and not since restored to entry, is to be opened to settlement this fall, the exact date being October 7. Part of the land then to be opened to entry is within the jurisdiction of the North Yakima land office and part is within the jurisdiction of the Walla Walla office. The aggregate is about 35,000 acres. Settlement at this time on the land is strictly forbidden.

Notice Is Sent Here.
Register Saint of the local land office has received a notice signed by Commissioner Bennett of the land office and by Frank Pierce, first assistant secretary of the interior, restoring the land to entry. That notice says that the secretary of the interior has vacated the departmental order of withdrawal so far as it effects the withdrawal for irrigation purposes under the act of June 17, 1902, of land for use in connection with the Yakima project. The land becomes subject to settlement under the public land laws of the United States on and after September 7, 1909.

Government Restrictions.

The land, however, is not subject to entry, filing or selection until October 7, 1909, at the land office in this city. "Warning being expressly given," the notice says, "that no person will be permitted to gain or exercise any right whatever under any settlement or occupation begun after May 23, 1909, and prior to September 7, 1909, all such settlement or occupation being forgiven."

Following is the land, under the jurisdiction of the local office, restored to entry:

Township 13, N. R. 25 E., sections 13 to 18 inclusive.

Township 13, N. R. 26. All of sections 1 to 3, 10 to 18, 20 to 25, inclusive; N ½ SW ¼ section 26; N ½ section 27; N ½ NE ¼, N ½ NW ¼ section 28; N ½ NE ¼, N ½ NW ¼ section 29; NE ¼ NE ¼ section 35; N ½ and SE ¼ section 36.

Township 12, N. R. 27. All sections 1 to 5, inclusive; N ½ NE ¼ SW ¼ SE ¼ section 6; NE ¼, E ½ NW ¼ NW ¼ and NE ¼ SE ¼ section 8; all of sections 9 to 12, inclusive.

Township 13, N. R. 27. W ½ SW ¼ SE ¼ SW ¼ section 5; all of sections 6 and 7; SW ¼ NE ¼, W ½ and SE ¼ section 8; SE ¼ NW ¼, W ½ NW ¼, SW ¼ and SW ¼ SE ¼ section 16; all of section 17 to 21, inclusive; SW ¼ NW ¼, SW ¼ SW ¼ SE ¼ section 22; S ½ NW ¼, SW ¼ and W ½ SE ¼ section 26; all of sections 27 to 35, inclusive. SW ¼ NW ¼ and S ½ section 36.

It is altogether probable that at the time the land is open for settlement on the date in September above given there will be a rush such as has been recorded in other parts of the country but never seen here. The automobile and the running horse will then have it out.

BARE HABITS OF MRS. GOULD

ORDEAL FOR SOCIETY LEADER

Former Employee of Gould Home Tell Tales on Former Mistress in Court—Allege Use of Intoxicants.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Torn with anger and the extreme humiliation; flushing with shame, sobbing, and clenching her hands in exasperation Katherine Clemmons Gould sat through a trying ordeal in the supreme court today. It was a day of testimony for the defense during which Howard Gould's attorneys sought to bring out that Mrs. Gould's habits justified him in leaving her. In the event of proving this the defense hopes to undermine the charges of abandonment.

Mrs. Gould yesterday naively told what is required of a woman of fashion in the matter of dress. The witnesses for the defense today recited the indulgence of the same woman of fashion in the matter of alcoholic stimulants, that Mrs. Gould introduced on various occasions, that she called Howard Gould "you little hound"; that she was once apparently under the influence of liquor as to stagger, that her maid brought liquors to her room, that her administration of Castle Gould was erratic and that the clashes were frequent between herself and the manager of the estate and with the carpenters employed about the grounds, that she remained in her room for a period of two weeks during which time she consumed 7 bottles of brandy and other liquors, that she wanted, on one exciting night the doors of the house locked regardless of the fact that Howard Gould was out on the lawn which fact did not appear to appeal to Mrs. Gould as any reason for not closing the front door, were among the statements brought out today as the employees of the Gould estate related on the stand their experiences with their former mistress.

Mrs. Gould's lawyer, Clarence J. Shearn, who had objected strenuously at first to the trend of the testimony but was over ruled and advanced a rather novel argument that even the admitting of his client had been intoxicated, that this should have strengthened rather than weakened the ties between the husband and wife. While most of the testimony was against Mrs. Gould, one witness spoke in her favor. This was Charles H. Davis of Glenocoe, L. I. He testified that in 1902 and 1903 he did considerable work on the Gould estate and saw Mrs. Gould frequently. He had never seen her intoxicated, but at times knew she had been drinking because he could smell her breath.

FIGHTING MEN SHOW SPEED

HEAVYWEIGHTS MAKE TALKS

Jeffries and Johnson Give Boxing Exhibitions in Boston and Pittsburg.

BOSTON, June 15.—Champion Jack Johnson appeared at the regular Tuesday night bouts at the Army Athletic association tonight and boxed three fast rounds with George Myers, his trainer. Johnson was well received and made a speech in which he declared no one had yet covered the $5,000 forfeit he posted on returning from Australia.

PITTSBURG, June 15.—James J. Jeffries received an ovation tonight when he appeared in a six-round bout with Sam Berger, his sparring partner. In a short speech Jeffries declared he could not add anything to what had been said in the papers, but that when the time comes he would deliver the goods. Jeffries appeared to have lost a great deal of weight but is still heavy. He is extremely fast on his feet and quick with his hands.

EXPLOSION KILLS FOUR

PROPERTY LOSS HALF MILLION

Power House Boiler Explodes With Fatal Results—Denver in Darkness for Two Hours.

DENVER, June 15.—Four are known to be dead, three probably fatally injured and six seriously injured and three missing as a result of the explosion of a 200-ton boiler in the power house of the Denver Gas and Electric company tonight. The accident cut off the lights and for more than two hours the city was in darkness. So great was the force of the explosion that the boiler was thrown 800 feet into the air and houses in the vicinity were rocked on their foundations. The property loss is estimated at between a quarter and a half million dollars.

SERVICE YOU GET FREE

Do you realize that a considerable part of the service rendered by a bank to its customers is without cost to them?

First there is protection. This bank charges you nothing for guarding your money from loss by fire, theft or carelessness, although it has cost us a lot of money to provide the proper safeguards.

Then there is the handling of your checks.

AS ONE OF OUR DEPOSITORS

It costs you nothing to have the great benefits of a checking account. The bank is at considerable expense to maintain a force of skilled clerks to handle accounts and to provide the necessary supplies and equipment. Moreover, we assume all risk of loss by forgery. If someone else signs your name to a check and we pay it, the loss is ours, not yours.

There are many other free services this bank gives its customers, but think of these two especially today and remember this, if you haven't a checking account you are depriving yourself of one of the greatest safety devices in business.
