Brakeman Injured
Marcus Dalley, a Northern Pacific brakeman, fell from a box car at Selah Friday morning and was so badly injured that it was found necessary to remove him to the Tacoma hospital. Dalley, it is said, was climbing down from the top of the car when one of the hand holds gave way, throwing him to the ground. It is believed that he is injured internally. He resides in Pasco.

Return From Auto Trip
Frank Clemmer and family returned Friday from a two weeks auto trip to the Camas Prairie country. Mr. Clemmer says they had the time of their lives, finding the roads everywhere in excellent condition. He had no tire troubles, the carburetor worked without a hitch and the lubricating oil held out till he covered 427 miles. The entire family is several years younger for the outing.

Bickleton Wheat Talk
Heading is in full blast and farmers are rejoicing in an abundance of fine grain. The straw is long, the heads large and the grain generally plump. Many fine samples of grain in the head have been brought to town. Mr. J. C. Nelson left samples at the News office of bluestem and fortyfold the heads of which were over five inches long, and others say they have as good and better.—Bickleton News.

Spuds in Kittitas
Over 150 carloads of potatoes will be produced in the Kittitas valley this year, according to an estimate made by George Nichols, who owns and operates the largest potato warehouse here by count. The Record of Kittitas says the present prices are not expected to be as high this fall, it is generally expected by growers and ranchers. The spuds will sell for at least $10 a ton. This will make the crop valued at $22,500, figuring 15 tons to the carload.

Shoots Priest Rapids
F. J. Potter of Trinidad announces that owing to the decrease in travel the Express will discontinue its regular trips from Trinidad to Beverly. On Monday, the 29th, the Express will start for Portland, shooting Priest rapids and portaging at Callio. Mr. Potter has done a very good business with the little boat until recently, but travel has so decreased that he will discontinue the regular runs at once.—Wenatchee World.

Evaporator Will Be Ready
Charles E. Norton of the Yakima evaporator company said Friday that the plant which he and his associates are equipping for the evaporation of fruit will certainly be ready by the middle of August and will start in at once making the most of the opportunities this season. The equipment Mr. Norton said, has been obtained and will be installed and waiting by the middle of next month and in ample season for the Elberta peach yield.

What Robbins Has Done
Manager Robbins of the Yakima Valley Fruit Growers' Association has tied a stone to the necks of some people and dropped them in the Yakima river. He has proved to the satisfaction of the association and to many others also that the big union and its plan of operation is a success, that it is making money for its members and growing stronger every day. This may be the reason of the kickers. Any how, some of the star kickers against the association over in the other valley should now subside and shut up, unless they can substantiate their statements when trying to bring the association and the men in charge into disrepute.—Hanford Columbian.

Soon to Open Road
Another week, it is expected, will see the completion of the work of the North Yakima & Valley railroad at the crossing of the Yakima river near Parker. It is expected that at or about August 1 it will be possible to use the track on this side of the river and across the bridge, thus giving access to the main track of the Northern Pacific for trains on the Zillah branch of the valley road. As soon as the physical connection is completed and it becomes possible to operate trains across the bridge and to the N. P. main line the service on the Zillah branch will be extended to North Yakima. Superintendent Both says the work is progressing satisfactorily.

Married at Boise
The marriage of Miss Katherine Knote of Gallon, Ohio and Mr. Harry Ansart of North Yakima, took place Wednesday, July 24, at the First Methodist church of Boise, Idaho, only relatives and close friends of the contracting parties witnessing the ceremony. The bride and her mother, Mrs. Mary Knote, were at the time of the marriage, visiting the former's uncle, Mr. Benjamin Miller of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Ansart arrived in North Yakima Friday where they will make their home at 311 South Fourth street. The groom is a member of the firm of Harris and Ansart and is well known here. Mrs. Knote accompanied her son and daughter to North Yakima and after a brief visit here will return to her home in the east going by way of the Canadian Pacific.

Expert at Prosser
Neil Edie last week came down from North Yakima to take charge of the packing for the Yakima Valley Fruit Growers association for the Prosser, district. Mr. Edie's duties will consist entirely of overseeing the packing, not only in the warehouses in this city but in the orchards in the surrounding valley. He will make trips to the different orchards and give the packers instructions regarding their work, thus obviating the necessity of having to repack the fruit after it has been brought to the warehouse. Mr. Edie is an expert in this line of work having had a number of years of experience, part of which was in the orange orchards of California. The association expects to handle at least 50 per cent of the fruit in the valley this season. Next week it will ship from Prosser a mixed car of apples and pears with possibly some peaches.—Prosser Bulletin.

RECORD CATCH OF TROUT Story Comes From Soda Springs That Is Vauched for by Hessey

Soda Springs is fast becoming the mecca for Sunday motorists, so say those who recently returned from the resort. Last Sunday nine motor cycles and 15 automobiles were there and the hotel had 18 guests at dinner.

Some care for the ride and others for the fishing. Among those who got fish were R. E. Hull, Ed. Sickenga and J. W. Hargraves, who made a record catch of cut throat and mountain trout. The score showed that Hull ranked first, with Hargraves second and Sickenga third. This is a true story, for C. D. Hessey told it, and as president of the Yakima County Fish and Game Protection association, Mr. Hessey can tell no lies.
