LOCAL NOTES

Altogether now and boost for a big Labor Day celebration.

Ask for when you visit a drink emporium. If you don't find it, "23."

Organizer C. O. Young addressed several of the unions while in the city this week.

Representative Campbell is again in Olympia attending the never ending session of the legislature.

Anyone wishing old newspapers free can have them by applying at the Labor Temple reading room.

The Labor Temple directors hold their monthly meeting tonight. A full attendance is desired.

Now is the time to take those country drives. Call up Robbins livery barn for a rig. Both phones 371.

The business agent for the carpenters is doing good work in rounding up the members of that craft. All trades in the building line are in a healthy condition.

Mrs. C. O. Young and son Herbert are in Everett and intend to make this city their future home for a time.

A brand new union-made 5c cigar, called the "Labor Temple," is on sale at the Labor Temple Cigar stand. Ask for it.

The shingle weavers have made it compulsory on every member of their local to attend at least one regular meeting a month.

If you are going to move your furniture or have baggage you want transported, call up Robbins big transfer house. Both phones 371.

Bro. Mike Grant, of the machinists, had the misfortune to lose a finger by amputation made necessary by a serious attack of blood poison.

Call for the label of the Shirt Waist & Laundry Workers on your laundry slip. Keep up a label agitation. It's the only way.

Smokers who like strong tobacco can purchase cigar clippings put up by a local factory, at the Labor Temple cigar stand.

Don't forget to attend the meeting of the central body next Wednesday evening and hear Mr. Kauffman explain the workings of the new majority rule league.

Nothing but union made tobacco at the Labor Temple cigar stand. Try the new union made cigarette tobacco, Gold Flakes.

Next Labor Day is a good time for the plumbers to get revenge on the electricians for the mauling they got in the alleged ball game at Edmonds a year ago.

We carry a full line of union made suits, hats, and gents' furnishings. Also a fine line of summer underwear. Edward Wahl, 1907 Hewitt avenue.

Unfortunately Ringling's circus is in town the same night that Mr. Kauffman is billed to speak to the Trades Council. It is our duty as good citizens to pass the circus up this time, because good government is worth more to us than mere amusement.

Nothing but union made tobacco at the Labor Temple cigar stand. Try the new union made cigarette tobacco, Gold Flakes.

A story appeared in one of the daily papers last week to the effect that several of the telephone girls in the Independent office resigned their positions the night of the fire because they could not stand the abuse and profanity shouted at them over the wires by excited men. The girls are much aggrieved over the statement, as they claim that it is an error inasmuch as everybody was as courteous in their enquiries during the fire as at ordinary times and that none of the girls had resigned nor had any cause to.

MINERS WILL CELEBRATE.

The coal miners of the state are going to pull off a Labor Day celebration in Black Diamond this year that they promise will eclipse anything ever attempted before in Western Washington. The miners have enjoyed a wonderful growth from the standpoint of organization during the past year and will soon be one of the most powerful unions in the state. They have some brainy men in their organization as the delegates to the last Federation convention at Walla Walla can testify. C. O. Young is to be one of the speakers at the Labor Day celebration.

UNION WILL AID CAMPAIGN.

The Associated Billposters of the United States and Canada, in their recent annual convention in Atlanta, Ga., voted to donate $1,200,000 worth of services to the anti-tuberculosis campaign throughout the country. This action is in line with the general policy of organized labor to help stamp out if possible, the pestilence of tuberculosis.

COMING TO THE FRONT.

The Cooks and Waiters union is enjoying quite a boom at the present time due in part to the energy of the new secretary, Bro. Chas. Ernst. At their last meeting twenty applications were acted on and ten initiated. Hereafter they will meet weekly, instead of semi-monthly, and it is confidently expected that interest in the meetings will steadily increase.
