FREE LEGAL DEPARTMENT OF THE WASHINGTON SOCIALIST

Q.—Please make clear to me, in the columns of the Washington Socialist, or by mail, the legal points of the following situation:

An electric wire on poles in the public road in front of my property was broken by a root thrown when blasting a stump on my property. The Everett Railway, Light and Water Co., leasers from the Puget Sound International Railway and Power Co., of the electric line, sent me a bill for the repairing of the wire, itemized as follows:

|---|
| 3 linemen, 4 1/2 hours each, $4.00 |
| per 9 hours.....$ 6.00 |
| 1 helper, 5 hours, $2.25 per 9 hours..... 1.25 |
| 1 helper, 11 1/2 hours, 28c per hour..... 3.22 |
| 31 lbs. No. 6 D. B. W. P. copper wire..... 6.48 |
| $16.95 |
| Plus 10% for Supt.—use of tools 1.70 |
| $18.65 |

I consider this excessive for the following reasons: I notified them before beginning of my intention to blow stumps, so they could easily locate any trouble I might cause, and a man was sent out in the morning to await any possible injury. I presume his time is included in the bill; also presume the time for all workmen is included from leaving office until reporting back, as the actual work of repairing was done in less than an hour by five men. The tools used were some pliers and some spurs for climbing poles. The ax used was furnished by me.

The wire taken out was carried off by the workmen and its value as junk copper, if of equal weight to the one replacing it as per the bill, would be $3.10.

Must I pay this bill? If so, how can I best proceed to have it lowered? Can a counter bill be presented with any probability of results.

J. M. H.

A.—I don't think you have to pay the bill. However, if it was done "through want of proper care" on your part, then you would be liable to the company for the actual damages sustained. If you had failed to notify the company, and had used such a heavy charge of powder that a reasonable man would not have used such a charge, then you would be liable. Write the company telling them that you had used proper care in the matter, and that you will not pay. If they insist, refer them to your adviser.

EXPERT ESTIMATES COST OF WAR WITH MEXICO AT $2,000,000 EVERY DAY.

Asked for an opinion as to the probable money cost of a war with Mexico, Congressman James Hay, chairman of the military committee of the U. S. house of representatives, answered that this would, of course, depend upon the number of men called out, and this no one knows.

"We have a standing army, the full strength of which is 100,000. The cost of its maintenance, in time of peace, is $100,000,000 a year.

"The military appropriation bill, just passed, carries that amount. In time of war the increased destruction of equipment and other added expense will swell this figure to at least $150,000,000.

"Supposing that the president calls for 250,000 volunteers—the cost of maintenance of this army—pay, subsistence, transportation, animals—will be at least $500,000,000 a year. This makes a total of $650,000,000 a year for an armed land force of 350,000 men—the least number, I suppose, that could be considered for a war with a country of Mexico's size and topography.

"These figures are conservative. I give them as an absolute minimum. The cost of an army of the size named may prove to be a great deal more than I have estimated.

"It may very easily run up to $2,000,000 a day, and there is no telling but that IT MIGHT GO TO A GREAT DEAL HIGHER THAN THAT! And remember, also, that a considerably larger force may be found necessary."

BRUTALITY OF CAPITALIST SCHOOL BOARD.

Shown in Resolutions Adopted at Trafton April 26, 1914.

At a mass meeting of more than a hundred and fifty residents of School District No. 301, Snohomish county, Washington, held at Trafton school house on April 26, 1914, after full discussion the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

In the good year 1913, the present president of the school board of district No. 301 introduced a resolution into a public meeting of the patrons, teachers and directors of this district, declaring that our schools must be free from both political and religious partisanship. It carried unanimously. It is customary where non-partisanship is the rule, to proportion appointments very closely to the vote cast by the several parties, giving the minority a representation about proportioned to the vote it cast—as, for example, in case of election boards, federal and state commissions and the like. Any other scheme of appointing is manifestly partisan and marks an absolute return to the old and discarded spoils system.

Sometimes, in the interest of non-partisanship, the majority has been known to reverse this rule. As an instance, we point with pride to the fact that under the administration of a Socialist majority on the school board the distribution of teachers was much more generous to their opponents; for be it remembered, out of twenty-six teachers employed then only five were Socialists.

Fake "Non-Partisanship."

The present board is actuated by absolutely opposite views. It apparently believes that "non-partisanship" means the entire exclusion of one party from participation in the school management. Therefore, under the efficient leadership of the authoress of those magnanimous (?) "non-partisan" resolutions the present school board has acted upon a plain and undisguised determination not to give the minority party any—not even the least—representation upon the faculty of our schools.

To prove this let the facts be submitted.

Sinclair and his wife have both been refused re-employment. Yet their school work, notwithstanding the interruptions which these "non-partisans" forced upon them, has been absolutely successful according to the testimony of their patrons; and even George Lancaster has admitted it both publicly and privately. The excuse in the case of J. E. Sinclair is that he said something about a flag pledge, which pledge was afterward abandoned. What he said was uttered before he came here and while he was not teaching; and the state superintendent ruled that he had a right to say it. But we insist that this excuse is hypocritical and that the real and true reason for his separation from our school by this "non-partisan" board is nothing but his politics; and in proof of this, his wife is also separated from our schools although it does not appear that she EVER said anything to which any member of the board or any patron or any person of any party objects. If one is a Socialist, it is just as fatal to keep quiet as it is to talk.

Five Socialists Victims of the Class Struggle in the Public Schools.

Mrs. Hallberg was victimized by the writer of the "non-partisan" resolutions in a personal interview, although no objectionable word of hers has ever been cited, or can be.

And now, disregarding a practically unanimous petition from the patrons of Trafton school, which certainly certifies their popularity and efficiency, both the McKees, husband and wife, are denied re-employment. No word of theirs is cited as obnoxious, or can be.

We point to the fact that these teachers are acknowledged to be the peers of any for efficiency and successful school work. Moreover, Mrs. Lizzie Jones, county superintendent of this county, is committed in this particular by her recommendation, particularly in the case of Sinclair.

While these five Socialists were denied re-employment, no other Socialists have been employed to take their places or to represent the more than a third of the votes cast at the last election for Socialist candidates.

With these facts before them, can any candid persons doubt the sinister and partisan character of this crusade? Especially involving, as it does, Socialist teachers and none other?

Now in the face and upon the authority of this statement of facts, be it resolved, that we denounce the bitter and brutal partisanship of the school board and brand it for its hypocrisy and sinister rule; but Deposed Teachers All Enjoyed Confidence of the Community.

Resolved, that we profess we are in no way surprised; for "twas ever thus" through all the ages, and 'twill ever be in this wise just as long as the class struggle continues. The masters and their minions never did—they never will—they CANNOT fight fair because a fair fight would only accomplish their own overthrow.

Resolved, that the attitude of the town of Arlington, in so far as it supports this hypocritical and partisan policy, and particularly in the case of the McKees, a policy which is inevitably oppressive toward the rural districts which are members of this consolidated district, shows bad faith and an extremely selfish and ungenerous disposition. Such oppression is not good or conducive to peace and harmony.

Resolved, that we now have no recourse save our own class solidarity and such show of that strength and courage which our union of purpose makes. We recommend a "petition in boots"—a general gathering of the members of our class in this district for the purpose of presenting our grievance to the superintendent and also to the board IF WE CAN EVER CATCH THEM IN SESSION!

Resolved, that in any event we renew our allegiance to the noble cause for which these teachers suffer and extend to them our hearty hands as sympathetic comrades.

THOMAS JENSEN, Committee.

"THIS RESOLUTION MEANS WAR," SAID KENT.

Representative Kent of California is the one member of congress who told the whole truth when he voted against the resolution permitting intervention. What he said is this:

"This man Huerta, who has been branded as a bandit, a traitor, and a murderer by our government, has been asked to make an apology, an apology as head of a responsible nation, and this demand has come to us through a subordinate in the navy. What absurd logic is this that we are called upon to endorse? The man whom we do not recognize as the responsible head of the Mexican government has apologized, the man who committed the offense of arresting American sailors has been punished, and now because, forsooth, a little more gunpowder will not be burned than this particular underling in the navy said ought to be burned, we are declaring war.

"This resolution means war, and nothing short of it. This is not a declaration of peace. This is not a declaration against one man. It is to every man who knows Mexico a declaration of war against the whole people of Mexico, and nothing else, for the moment we put armed forces into Mexico all the forces of radical animosity, all of the old historic struggles will be revived, and we shall find that we shall have to take the country and rule it."
