ORGANIZATION NEWS

THE FIRING LINE

W. F. McCormick, of Everett, took a vacation last week. In his travels he came across the advance guard of Roosevelt's rough riders, and decided to make a coup d'etat. He is unable to explain how he managed it. All we know is that he landed back in camp with thirty-six of T's R. R. and they will now line up with the greatest fighting machine the world has ever known.

Sophus Bonnlvie, of Olympia, brings his flying squadron into action and wires back the joyful news that he gets five to swear allegiance to the red flag. He also orders a bundle of the mental dynamite, for which we are famous, for the Sadler meeting.

Christian Tuttle, of Beach, Whatcom county, moves his heavy artillery to the front and succeeds in dislodging five monuments of ignorance that stand in the way of human progress.

Rufus Wren, of Gold Bar, made a successful raid on Index and brought back four deahards. We have great pleasure in pinning upon his noble breast the Iron Heel.

W. T. J. Millard, of Bellingham, gets the fourth battalion of Dubbittes into an ambush and sends two in as prisoners. We will put them to work clearing cobwebs.

Otto Anderson, of Everett, succeeds in routing Col. Hartley's battalion of blockheads and captures two.

O. B. Spink, of Everett, makes a flank movement and captures the cook of the moose brigade. He intends to starve them into submission.

Le Roy Henry, of Seattle, orders a bundle of fifty of our famous 42-centimeter Northwest Workers.

The Everett Local Union of Electrical Workers orders a whole year's supply of the ammunition that will jar loose the think tanks of many ere another year passes.

Allen Brooks, of Algona, sends in a hurried call for a weekly supply of ten of our get-them guns.

NEW LOCAL ORGANIZED IN SEATTLE

The newly organized "Marx Local" of Seattle, few in numbers but determined and uncompromising in spirit, held its first business meeting Thursday evening, June 24, admitted one new member and nominated officers for the ensuing six months. It was agreed that a large neglected field exists here in rounding up Socialists who have been members of the party before but who through discouragement or dissatisfaction have dropped out. Discussion was had with this aim in view and a committee appointed to work out a series of meetings designed to bring about a revival. While original applications will be welcomed the Local will make special efforts along above lines.

Resolution was adopted denouncing the Seattle Star as unworthy the confidence and support of working people and holding that war is unavoidable under capitalism, and declaring it to be an act of hypocrisy for Woodrow Wilson or anyone else who sup-

TO EVERETT SOCIALISTS

On account of next Sunday coming on the Fourth there will be no distribution of literature. On Sunday, the 11th, we will blanket the city with Bellamy's famous "Parable of the Water Tank."

HERMAN MAKES CONVERTS

Charleston, Wash., June 26, 1915. Editor Washington Socialist: Comrade Herman's street meeting, held in Charleston Wednesday night, June 23, was a big success. Fully 25 or 30 stood for one and three-quarter hours and listened to one of the clearest talks ever heard here. At one time 60 people were listening to him. He gave a short talk Thursday noon at the Bremerton entrance to the navy yard to quite a bunch of men and on Monday evening will give a long talk at the same place. Comrade Herman is well worth any local's effort to date him if only for an outdoor meeting. L. E. A.

HO! FOR OLALLA!

COMRADES OF WASHINGTON—KITSAP COUNTY IN PARTICULAR

Whatever other arrangements you make for July 3, 4, 5, don't forget the First Annual Socialist Encampment of Western Washington at Olalla, on those dates.

It will be your chance of a lifetime to see both state and county executive committee in action, who need your presence, suggestions and advice to plan for next year's presidential campaign.

It will be your best opportunity to hear several of the best speakers that can be procured; to get loaded up with enthusiasm for future work.

Kitsap county Socialists especially should turn out en masse to make it an undreamed of success.

The first of its kind, and our county standing sponsor for it, with prospect of a sufficient profit therefrom to pay our debts that hobble us, and prevent our making the campaign effort we should to carry this county in 1916.

You can certainly get some one to trust that old hen, hog, horse or cow with for three days and you yourself take a brief lay off and get acquainted with your family.

Three more days without your usual salary won't ruin you. It will be a rare relaxation, that might save you a physical collapse later on.

It will be a DIFFERENT Fourth of July from any you've ever seen—one to your heart's desire. No time wasted about our grate and glorious wastepaper. We have had about enough of that dope to salivate us now, but we can meet and greet those whose companionships will be congenial—who prize what we prize and esteem what we esteem. By earnest co-operation we can make a national holiday, just what it ought to be. Let's make it an occasion long to be remembered.

You have had a mental picture of what many comrades look like. This is your chance to measure up with them—shoulder to shoulder—feel the thrill of "Hands clasped round the world;" and many minds centered on ushering in the new day already impending on the old.

Living rates will be reasonable, no capitalist skinning graft to the limit. Ideal picnic place.

We get a rebate on every fare paid to crush King capital. Every cent spent yields a fraction for propaganda and campaign work later on.

Sever your suspenders and come. Let us with one accord

"Raise the Scarlet Standard high, Beneath it's shade we'll live and die; 'Tho' towards finch and traitors sneer, We'll keep the Red Flag flying here."

Yours in Revolt,
E. E. MARTIN,
Secy. Kitsap Co. S. P.

Melang's Grocery and Jilg's Delicatessen, 1515 Hewitt.

A letter was formulated to the state executive committee and the county, city central committee requesting to know to what extent and in what manner Section 3, Article 17 of the State Constitution is being observed. The section refers to party supervision of Socialists elected to and now holding political office in this state and providing penalty for disobedience.

A 50 TO 1 CHANCE

Someone out of the first 300 subscribers to the Northwest Worker will win a fifty dollar diamond ring under the following plan:

To every person that purchases a yearly subscription to this paper will be sent a card bearing a number. The numbers will be arranged in the order that the subs are received and after the 300 are sold a box of 300 duplicate numbers will be held by a Socialist named by Local Everett No. 1 and a card will be drawn by a Socialist named by the same Local.

The person holding the same number as that corresponding to the one picked out will be given a beautiful diamond ring that cannot be purchased anywhere in the Northwest for less than fifty dollars.

Send in your dollar right away if you want to have a chance in the winning of the ring.

Those already holding numbered cards that they purchased at the Everett picnic will have the same chance as those that purchase under the above plan.

You can only hold your share of trouble by holding back.

The Socialist party of Italy has been for the past twelve months and is still, unalterably opposed to war. Socialist papers have been suppressed and Socialists shot and jailed in their campaign for peace.
