ULONSKA AT BRYANT

BIG CROWD HEARS MESSAGE

Bryant, Wash., June 27, 1915
Editor Washington Socialist, Everett.

Dear Comrade: I am feeling pretty near what you would call proud over the lecture that comrade Ulonska delivered here this afternoon. We had the biggest crowd that we ever had to any meeting in Bryant of any kind.

The lecture was good from start to finish and it was comical to see some of the stand-pat republicans wiggling in their seats from the action of the bitter pills he dealt them. And the Henry Dubbs did not fare any better. However, the Dubbs did not show it so much. We captured two new applicants to be admitted at our next meeting and I got the promise of three more in the near future. Comrade Ulonska surely made a hit here and will be favorably received whenever he may come this way again.

Yours for Socialism,
MIKE KRONHOLM,
Secy. Local Bryant.

SILVANA HEARS A CONVINCING LECTURE

Silvana, July 3, 1915.
Washington Socialist, Everett, Wash.
Comrade Carl Ulonska gave a very good lecture at the Trading Union hall June 28th.

The theme was "Think and Act," and was a stirring impeachment of present conditions.

A good audience was present, more than usual. All were very quiet and seemed to be very enthusiastic. A collection of $5.63 was handed to the speaker. At 10:45 p. m. the crowd departed with the remarks that the evening was well spent.

Yours for Socialism,

PICNIC AT HALL'S LAKE A GREAT SUCCESS

The big Socialist picnic at Hall's lake the Fourth of July was a success in every way. All day long the crowds were on the grounds, roaming the woods, boating or sitting on the veranda in the shade of the big pavilion.

The pavilion was beautifully decorated with red, white and blue bunting and three large American flags, also party emblem banner, evergreens and palm plants. The music by Dewey's orchestra was splendid and well appreciated. All day stages ran to full capacity. Glenn E. Hoover, of Seattle, proved to be a good Independence Day orator as well as an able exponent of Socialism. He spoke in the forenoon.

In the afternoon Carl Ulonska, of Everett, spoke, his subject being "Think and Act." He laid great stress on wars and gave a vivid picture of the European war with its horrors which is a result of capitalism.

After this lecture there was dancing till 12:30, which concluded the day's program.

There were many people praising the fine hard wood floor in Eisen's hall. There were crowds from Edmonds, Richmond and Everett, besides interurban stations along the line.

Besides spreading much propaganda the picnic was a financial success.

Yours for Socialism,
BONNER BARTLETT,
Adv. Manager.

ANOTHER BUDDING ORATOR

Comrade Sophus Bonniwe gave a short talk at Olympia in the place of comrade Sadler, who failed to turn up. This is the second time in two weeks that he has taken the floor and he says he'll make Carl Ulonska look like 30 cents after a while. You had better look after your laurels Carl. Sophus rounded up seven subs at the meeting.

Let's Be "On Time"
From now on the Party Builder will come out each month on the 20th. If anything is not ready by that time it will have to wait till the next month.

TRY A CONTEST

Local Monroe has just concluded a very successful membership contest during which it added over forty new members to its roll. If interest is flagging among the members of your Local, try a contest to liven things up a bit. Divide into two camps, like choosing up for a ball game and see which side can do the most to build up the Local. Next month I'll publish an article by the captain of the winning side in Monroe on just "How They Did It."

EVERETT DISTRIBUTION SUNDAY

There will be a distribution of leaflets in Everett Sunday, July 11th. Call around and get your bundle. If you are not already a distributor now is the time to get in. The city elections are being prepared for and we need your help.
