ORGANIZATION NEWS

LOCAL ARLINGTON WANTS OTHER LOCALS TO ACT ON RESOLUTION

Arlington, Wash., July 13, 1915.
Monday, July 12, 1915, Arlington Local to the Northwest Worker, Everett, Wash.

RESOLVED, That the American people ought to insist that every word of testimony taken by the national industrial relations commission shall be published in full for general circulation so every one may know what has been brought to light.

Local Arlington kindly asks that this resolution be published in the Northwest Worker, and that all take action immediately and forward their resolution to county secretary of Socialist party, Snohomish.

There are strong powers at work among the ruling class to suppress the industrial relations commission's report, but we want light, and we ask that the county secretary write to our national representative in congress to use his influence toward having the report of the industrial relations commission published in full as aforesaid for the American people's information.

HOMER CASWELL,
Secretary Local Arlington.
B. A. BERTON,
Chairman.

LITTLE DOES BIG WORK

Omak, Wash.
Arthur T. Little, Okanogan county organizer, gave an interesting lecture on "The Real Political Issues" at the Cherokee school house July 10. He is brimming over with energy and will awaken the comrades of the county to a realization of the splendid opportunity they now have to boost for Socialism. W. C. B. RANDOLPH, Sec.

LOCAL MONROE ITEMS

Monroe, Wash., July 17, 1915.
Washington Socialist:

At the meeting last night Local Monroe condemned the motion of Local Everett No. 1, entitled an improved plan of county autonomy. We believe this motion would practically kill county autonomy, and while we are willing to admit that the present plan is not perfect we do not believe in killing it. And then the membership has just voted to keep the present plan and we believe every local in the state should refuse to second this motion if for no other reason than to put a stop to this thing of continually reshaping the same thing and thereby wasting the state office funds. The press committee was instructed to write the Northwest Worker and the Party Builder of this action.

Plans were made for the picnic to be held all day August 1 (Sunday) in Kruse's Grove, one mile from the town of Monroe. We will have games, good music, refreshments, lunch. But the best part will be the speakers we intend securing. Comrade Salter for the forenoon if possible. Then, afternoon, comrade Carrie W. Allen will speak on the Cause and Cure of War. Come to Monroe and have a good time. After the lectures the dance pavilion will be ready for those who care to shake their feet to good music on a fine floor.

Press Com. Local Monroe.

A CORRECTION

Edmonds, Wash., July 19, 1915.
Pub. of "Northwest Worker," Everett, Wash.

Dear Comrade: Will you kindly make a correction in the financial report of the Hall's lake picnic? The amount sent to the "Northwest Worker" was $5.07 instead of $4.07 as you had it incorrectly stated.

Yours for the Revolution,
MARY McNAMARA,
Sec. of Financial Com.

BOX CAR EXCURSIONS

The federal labor authorities have a scheme for relieving the unemployed situation that provides for "box car excursions" to the grain districts, when the railroads are sending empty trains to the west for grain harvest hands will be bundled into box cars destined for points along the road where "hands" are wanted, or what is usually the case, "not wanted."

THE OFFICE SEEKER

A man with a deep and steadfast longing for office will run excitedly around begging everybody he sees to sign his nomination petitions and then, when he finally gets enough signatures, will put on a clean shirt and announce that if the call of duty comes he will not disregard the summons.—Ohio State Journal.

It will be but a short time before every building mechanic in Los Angeles will be carrying a union card.

CAMPAIGN WORK IS HANDICAPPED

Our county (Stevens) is ripe for organization. A three months' campaign, well directed, would increase our membership 400. We were planning such a campaign when the 2-cent raise in dues (per diem fund to pay delegates expenses to state convention) knocked the matter on the head. I am county committeeman, from Local Marcus, and the county committee were about to submit the question of raising dues in the county for organization purposes, when this 2-cent raise took place and the matter had to be dropped. The Snohomish county resolution is well worth considering. Yours for industrial freedom,
JOHN M. POWERS.

CITY COUNCILMAN LIKED REVISED "DECLARATION"

Los Angeles, Cal., 7-12-15.
Comrade Shipley:
For some time some one has been sending me a copy of your paper. Your Declaration of Independence is a masterpiece and I wish to congratulate you on the same.
With best wishes for yourself and your paper I remain, yours,
FRED C. WHEELER.

THREE GREAT EVENTS

The plan for the conducting of the Lyceum course as submitted by the city central committee, was formally approved at the last business meeting of Local No. 1. The plan as outlined provides that the Lyceum committee consist of three comrades, one to represent the Northwest Worker, one the city committee, and one from the county executive committee. The net proceeds are to be divided equally among the three different departments.

As has already been stated, this course, put out by the national office, consists of three speakers: Ryan Walker, of Henry Dubb fame; George R. Kirkpatrick, author of "War—What For?" and Emil Seidel, former mayor of Milwaukee.

It is safe to say that a stronger trio could not have been selected, and the comrades of Everett have shown their usual good judgment in taking the course.

The exact date of their being here has not yet been decided upon, but it is hoped that it will be in time to be a useful propaganda factor in the coming municipal campaign.

BOOMING MILITARISM

Manufacturers of materials used by soldiers have agreed to pay full wages to such of their employees who are members of the militia, while away for summer drills or emergencies of any kind. This is in line with a well defined movement of manufacturers to swell their orders and to have a permanent body of strikebreakers.

WANTED PARTICULARS.

"I am looking out for a porch climber. Can you direct me where to go?"
"Well, sir, until you particularize I don't know whether you want me to direct you to a florist or to a policeman."—Baltimore American.

WHAT TO READ

Communism, Socialism and the Church, by Oscar Ameringer. In the words of its author, "Its purpose is to furnish new weapons to the host of proletarian agitators in shop, field and mine, whose activity and devotion contribute so much to the spread of Socialism among the workers." It is a pamphlet that should be in the hands of every Socialist and can be obtained from the office of the Northwest Worker for 10 cents postpaid. Send 10 cents in stamps today, for a copy of this valuable work.

Doing Us Good and Plenty, by Charles Edward Russell. A book well worth the prize of anybody's money. It is a survey of the conditions under which the working class exist and of the power that is in the hands of the workers to better their conditions. It will be sent to you from this office on receipt of 25 cents.

We should impart to others our courage, and not our despair; our health and ease, and not our disease.—Thoreau.
