EVERETT ACTIVITIES

The Social Science Study Class had a crowded session last Sunday afternoon in the Forum. The desire for scientific knowledge among the workers is on the increase. Get in on the course now.

Another successful card party was held Friday evening. The first prize winners were Comrades Mrs. Buhl and Wilford Dougherty. The winners of the booby prizes were Comrades Evelyn Bonnie and W. E. Goodman. Refreshments were served. Games start at 8.30 sharp next Friday.

Comrades Chris Solie and Frank Hebert made eleven card tables a short time ago so there is lots of room if you want to swell the crowd at the card parties.

Everybody seemed to enjoy the program put on by the Davis Family last Sunday. It was, in fact, a rare treat.

The Lyceum Course, consisting of Comrades Kirkpatrick, Walker and Seidel, will be held in the Everett theatre on the dates mentioned elsewhere.

A professor from the University of Washington will speak in the Forum Sunday evening, March 5. Admission free.

The Norwegian Socialists recently endorsed, by cable, Representative Meyer London's resolution calling upon President Wilson to convene a congress of neutral nations to offer mediation to the nations at war.

NEWSPAPER REPORTS ARE GREAT

Almost without exception the newspaper reports of the K.-W.-S. lectures are great. Column after column of first class stuff from the lectures and about them appear in almost every place. At Schenectady there were nearly three full columns about the Walker lecture. And it was hot shot in every line. At Traverse City the papers wrote up the lectures both before and after, giving much space to each. The Lansing, Mich., Press had nearly two full columns of Seidel's lecture.

Have you ordered leaflets from the state office yet? Every community should have these leaflets distributed. The state office will send 300 leaflets of each kind (4) for $1.00. Order at once—leaflets are ready.

SNOHOMISH COUNTY NEWS AND NOTES

Carl Ulonska, Sec.-Treas.

LOCAL SECRETARIES NOTICE

After March 1st all Snohomish county secretaries are requested to send all dues stamp orders and monthly reports direct to the state office. The new plan of county autonomy goes into effect on that date.

MARYSVILLE ORGANIZED AGAIN

Thrice was Caesar offered the crown and thrice did he refuse, but Marysville Socialists are different, for after having two local charters issued each of which was allowed to lapse, the Marysville comrades say they are going to keep their third one. Comrades Jay Olinger and Carl Ulonska "Forded" over to Marysville last Friday evening and organized Marysville's third local. Comrade H. Bornstein was elected secretary-organizer for the time being.

LEST WE FORGET

A few locals have not yet sent their county committeemen credentials to this office. Locals are asked to do so at once. Convention will be held in Everett April 16. Plan on having your local represented.

COUNTY CAMPAIGN BEGINS

Three big Lockwood meetings will be held throughout the county in Marysville, Snohomish and Mukilteo as our opening gun in the county campaign. The dates are as follows: Snohomish, Saturday, March 25; Marysville, Monday, March 27, and Mukilteo, Wednesday, March 29. These meetings will be conducted under the auspices of the county office. Several locals in the county are also arranging dates for the Lockwood-Kat-terfeld lectures.

EVERYBODY SUCCUMBS!

MRS. LOCKWOOD BREAKS ALL OPPOSITION

Mrs. G. H. Lockwood's lecture last Sunday on "Socialism, the Hope of the World," was exceptional. We have never heard (not even from Debs) a more scathing denunciation of the crimes of the master class. Her description of the heroic sacrifices of striking miners, and of the heartbreaking sorrows of their wives and children was vivid and pathetic. Her scorn for the dullness of the workers in voting for their masters instead of for themselves was keen and relentless, although it was relieved by several sallies of southern humor. Mrs. Lockwood will be very welcome should she come back to Spokane.—The Spokane Socialist.

Mr. Brandeis says that his name is pronounced with the accent on the last syllable, which is sounded "ice."

This seems to remove him from the wet to the dry column.—Chicago Daily News.

QUAKER DRUG AND BOOK STORE

This Everett concern is of wide and extensive trade character, which, implied by its name, furnishes superior supplies of drug material besides an assortment of the last books. The store is located at 1503 Hewitt Ave., and is conducted under the proprietorship of Mr. W. G. Shepard, an experienced and qualified druggist. The compounding of prescriptions is a specialty with the Quaker Drug Store, besides the maintenance of every trade feature embraced in the conduct of a drug store. These features necessarily embrace courteous attention to every need and want of Mr. Shepard's patrons, the number of whom are constantly on the increase, evidencing the high popularity of the establishment.

THE LLOYD COMPANY

The industrial and manufacturing activities of Everett and the county in general are largely promoted through the supplies of the Lloyd Company, which in a large sense of the word are appreciated by extensive trade with the firm, which is located at the corner of Hewitt and Grand Avenues. These supplies consist of mill, logging and marine, embracing brass and iron valves, fittings, brass goods, belting, packing, hose, asbestos goods, oils and grease, pulleys, pumps, steam specialties and "Red Seal" boiler compound. The Lloyd Company has always shown a fair and consistent attitude toward the cause represented by labor, and therefore should receive recognition in trade matters whenever and wherever it is possible to extend it. The concern is of home industry, origin, and deserves promotion also for that good and valid reason.
