

LET US BREED RACERS SAYS COL. APPLIGATE

"There is no reason why Washington might not raise race horses, said Colonel W. E. Appligate, the well-known turfman, speaking to the Press today.

"Have you ever tried to raise blue grass out in this country? It is a fine fibered, nourishing grass, easy to raise. They can't grow it in southern California because the sun is too hot and burns it up, but Washington strikes me as an ideal state for race horses. The winters in Washington are not so penetrating as they are in Kentucky. There are few limestone water, if anything harder than the water in Washington."

Colonel Appligate's home is at Lexington, Ky. For 15 years he has been a breeder of running horses at the Oakwood farm, two and one-half miles from Lexington. He is also in the distillery business at Lexington, Davis county, Ky. At his stock farm are 60 to 70 acres, all of good racing families, bred to win. The best stallion the colonel ever had, he says, was "Alfonso," now dead. The colonel is proud of "Bannockburn," one of the famous runners.

Colonel Appligate's racing stable consists of 15 selected runners. In January they will open at Memphis, going to Louisville, Latonia and Chicago. Colonel Appligate thinks well of "Lady Goodrich," a coming 2-year-old. She worked faster and carried more weight, he says, than any of the 2-year-olds at Lexington. He refused $9000 for her.

"Washington might well look into the breeding of race horses," said the colonel. "Breeding is attracting more and more attention and horses are bringing better prices. A good yearling will sell for $5000 to $15,000. Last spring I sold three for $18,000."

The colonel will remain in Spokane for a day or two.

ONDAWA INN WOULD BE A STUDY FOR DICKENS

At the invitation of Captain McClelland a reporter called at the Ondawa Inn today for the purpose of making a few personal observations. A peculiar state of affairs exists.

Sitting at the great horseshoe counter were as motley a gathering as could be got together in any community and the visitor is struck most forcibly with one thing—the greatly diversified classes of people. In one group several nationalities were represented.

As the reporter glanced innocently around he came near having one of those periodic fits introduced by Chief of Police Woydt. A business man, of somewhat ragged look, was busy filling his innermost with the good food provided by the captain. At the man's elbow sat a Chinaman, moving his slender arms like piston rods and with a 32-to-the-minute stroke. Next to the chink sat Happy Hookman up to date, while farther on comfortably storing away the food was a square who might be a century

This Couple Disappeared at Sea

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8.—The steamer Queen arrived from Seattle this morning with two passengers missing. When she left Seattle Mrs. Harry E. Oldt and little child engaged a berth and went aboard. They were seen by Captain Cousins and passengers. The Queen touched at Victoria, but the passengers say Mrs. Oldt was seen on the steamer after leaving that port. A few hours later neither could be found.

Dress for Young Miss.

This practical dress for a young miss is of brown and white check wool and plain cloth or silk revers, with an embroidered or applique design. The dress is further ornamented with gold buttons. The front plait is stitched to the foot; at the sides they are stitched only part way down.

DANGEROUS SURGERY.

Death Follows the Surgeon's Knife—Not the Surgeon's Fault, of Course—He Can't Help It—You Can.

Pyramid Pile Cure Cures Piles Quickly, Painlessly, Without Danger.

People go along for years suffering with piles. They try this and that and the other thing from carrying a buckeye to getting treatment from a physician. They obtain temporary relief, maybe, but they are never quite cured. A little strain in lifting, excessive fatigue, a little constipation or a little diarrhoea and the piles come back.

They don't seem to amount to much, but they banish sleep and appetite. No position is comfortable. There is intense local pain and that dreadful feeling of weight in the perineum.

Maybe in the early stages some of the many salves on sale will afford temporary relief. If the case is of long standing there is only one speedy and sure remedy. It is Pyramid Pile Cure. Even in light cases it is the safest thing to use. Other applications may cure and may not. Pyramid cure is always certain, always reliable, always brings comfort at once. Its prompt use saves months of severe suffering. In extreme cases it will save surgical operations, and their attendant dangers and discomforts. It is better than a knife. Will cure faster, quicker and safer. Thousands have used it. Thousands have been cured by it. The cost is trifling compared with what it does. The price is 50 cents. Most anybody would gladly pay $10 to be rid of piles.

All druggists sell Pyramid Pile Cure. Write Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for their book on Causes and Cure of Piles, which is sent free for the asking.

They Talk of Spokane in London

To the Editor of The Spokane Press: Reading the Jewish World (a London publication) of November 6, I found the following remark about the Reformed Jewish congregation of Spokane: "We are accustomed in that England to talk of the vagaries of American reform. How can we help doing so, when we read such an item of communal intelligence in the American press as this: 'The Temple, Emanuel of Spokane, Wash., was dedicated on Friday evening, Rev. Hoch preached the dedication sermon, and several Christian ministers took part in the services.' In these circumstances it is perhaps not surprising that Jewish halls in America are not too well acquainted with the minutiae of Jewish observance. At the recent holiday services at the Philadelphia House of Refuge for Jewish boys, the boys showed an utter lack of familiarity with Jewish worship, one of them in putting on a Falsh, mistook it for a turban and wrapped it about his head."

But the Jewish World must not forget that Jews and Christians in this country live on different terms to what they do in the eastern parts of Europe.

GARNEGIE'S PARTNER WEDS IN BATTLE ABBEY.

Mr. J. Phipps, one time of Pittsburg, Andrew Carnegie's former partner, was married a short time ago in Battle Abbey, Eng., to Miss Marguerite Grace of New York. Battle Abbey is a famous old pile built on the scene of the battle of Hastings, where William the Conqueror and his Normans utterly routed the Saxons after a pitched battle. Mr. Phipps is many times a millionaire and is making his home in London.
