CARNIVAL COMPANY ADVERTISES UNDER MISREPRESENTATIONS-- FORRESTERS HAVE NOTHING TO DO WITH AFFAIR--BOYD IN PARADE

Under the guise of a fraternal society benefit the Arnold Carnival company is to be allowed to show in this city from August 15 to 20 without the payment of 1 cent to the city for a license because it lets our Frank and the council ride in two-horse carriages in the parade.

Foresters in case the carnival company did not pay its debts. A letter was read from Tacoma in which it was stated that the company did not pay its debts there, and there was fear expressed that in case they did not pay their bills here the creditors would fall back upon the order.

King is the whole thing. King stated that he was practically the committee in charge of all arrangements. "The other members on the committee are merely nominal," said King.

What the outcome will be is a matter of conjecture. If the lodges in the city can prevent the company from using the name of the order it will be done. Today there is some talk among the members of filing injunction proceedings and thus undo anything that has been done up to the present.

P. A. KLEN COMMITS SUICIDE

P. A. Klein, the German who lost a large part of his savings in the fire on Howard street, Saturday night, committed suicide this morning at the home of his niece, Mrs. Skillman.

Dr. G. A. Rohrer was called, but when he arrived at 6 o'clock he found the patient sinking and in an unconscious condition. He was able to give no assistance.

The matter was reported to the coroner. A post mortem examination will be held. Dr. Smith, the coroner, stated that the symptoms were similar to those in a case of strychnine poisoning, but that he was not sure whether Klein had taken the drug or not.

where he repaired surveyors' instruments. For a number of years he was considered one of the best civil and mining engineers in the country. He retired some time ago and has since lived quietly in this city, keeping in touch with his old profession by repairing the instruments of the younger men.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO HAVE A NEW HOME

The board of trustees of the chamber of commerce met in a special meeting yesterday afternoon and adopted plans for their new quarters which are to be located in the Hotel Spokane. The room formerly occupied by the Spokane Amateur Athletic club was chosen.

plans and the program is made for one trip or the other. If it is decided to return by the Northern Pacific, the party will start Thursday, September 25, at 6:20. They will go direct to North Yakima, where they will arrive about 1:25 p. m.

The rooms when completed will cost $1000. It is not the intention of the board to make all the improvements at present. A committee consisting of F. E. Goodall, E. F. C. Van Dassel and F. B. Wright was appointed to let the contract and take the work in charge.

Among the unions now being discussed in this country are the Cumberland Presbyterians with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America; the Reformed Dutch church with the Presbyterian Church South, and the Associated Synod of the South with the United Presbyterian church.

MAY DELAY CHURCH UNION WILL BE A GREAT FAIR

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Fears are expressed by leading Presbyterian divines of this and other cities that the decision just handed down by the house of lords in the Free Church of Scotland case may militate against the carrying out of plans for the union of various denominations in this country, plans which were expected to culminate successfully in the near future.

"There have been no concessions sold for privileges at the Interstate fair as yet," said Manager Cosgrove this morning. "We have received a number of applications and will take action on them some time next week. We desire all applications to be in early next week so that we can look over the field and pick out the best offers."

PACKERS REFUSE TO CONFER WITH EMPLOYEES

CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—The strike situation took on a more peaceful appearance this morning when C. W. Foster, for the retail butchers and grocers' committee, called on Thomas Connors of the Armour company and arranged a joint session with the packers and labor men together with the peace committee.

negro strike breaker opened fire on a crowd of unionists and scattered them. He was chased by the police, but escaped. An informal meeting of the members of the retail butchers and grocers' committee is being held this afternoon. Judging from utterances the packers' mediators have little prospect of accomplishing anything in the way of a settlement.

It was practically agreed at a secret conference of the packers this morning not to open negotiations with the striking employes. Late this afternoon the packers meet representatives of the retail grocers and meat dealers' association. It is stated the packers will inform the retailers that while they would be willing under other circumstances to consider a proposition from such a source, the time has gone by for temporizing with the strikers and then can not further confer with the butchers and teamsters.
