JAPANESE WERE SEVERELY DEFEATED AT PORT ARTHUR

CHEFOO, Oct. 3.—The Russians estimate the total Japanese loss in the four days' fighting at Port Arthur from September 19 to 22 at 20,000 men. An official report from General Stoessel says the fighting was of an extremely severe character. After the retirement of the Japanese General Stoessel issued the following proclamation: "Glory, thanks to God. Glory to our garrison. Glory to Illmanschaff and Pogorsky, they are heroes. Thanks to our valiant volunteers, who routed the enemy from the trenches and, destroying them, permitted the repulse of the enemy. Praise be to God." The report of the fight referred to was the attack on High Hill, which had been captured by the Japanese. Stoessel called for volunteers. Soldiers and officers carried hand grenades and attacked the Japanese temporary fortifications and drove the enemy from all the positions. Several mines were exploded during the battle, causing severe losses.

The first southbound train over the reconstructed railway left yesterday, carrying 490 Japanese wounded, 100 sick and 33 wounded Russian prisoners. They are en route to Japan. They are practically the last of the Japanese wounded at Liao Yang. RUSSIAN WARSHIP SIGHTED. (Scripps News Association.) SHANGHAI, Oct. 3.—A Russian warship, supposed to be the Bayan, is reported anchored off Gutzeless island in Hanchau bay. Two tugs have gone to bring her to Shanghai. RAILROAD REPAIRED. (Scripps News Association.) ROME, Oct. 3.—A message from Liao Yang says the Japanese have repaired the railway and are running trains direct to Field Marshal Oyama's headquarters and reinforcing his troops. This is facilitating the forwarding of supplies. By next week the Japanese army at Yental will have reached its full complement. AMMUNITION PLENTIFUL. (Scripps News Association.) ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 3.—News from Port Arthur states that ammunition is plentiful. Clothing is lacking, but store cloth is being made into garments by women. The sanitary conditions are good. There are now 20 trained nurses for every 1000 sick and wounded. There are but 100 women and children not belonging to the military forces in town. As the effluvia from the dead left on the field has been blowing into town the Russians have forced the Chinese to collect the bodies and throw them into the sea. ALL WOMEN LEAVE. (Scripps News Association.) ROME, Oct. 3.—A telegram from Chefoo asserts that General Stoessel has ordered all women and children from Port Arthur except nurses. They will leave in order that food and water, which are scarce, may last longer. JAPS MARCHING. (Scripps News Association.) ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 3.—General Sakharoff reports that the Japanese vanguard has been strengthened and has reached a point 25 versts southeast of Mukden. There has been no serious engagements during the movement.

sain in an interview this morning said: "The war will continue a long time. The nation must be determined to achieve success and make the necessary sacrifices. It is hoped that we may be able to secure greater economy with a greater efficiency in the local administration. A meeting of the governors of the provinces will be held tomorrow. RUSSIAN RETREATED. (Scripps News Association.) ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 3.—General Mischenko's cavalry, with 22 guns, October 1, attacked Kuroki's left flank and after severe fighting the Russians retired. Their casualties were two officers and seven men killed and wounded. Kuropatkin reports casualties from September 6 to 21 inclusive at eight officers and 400 men killed and wounded. WAR WILL LAST LONG TIME. (Scripps News Association.) TOKIO, Oct. 3.—Premier Katur-

PAYNE IS BETTER

(Scripps News Association.) WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—After a sinking spell which continued from 3 to 7 o'clock Secretary Payne rallied somewhat, but the danger of death is said to be imminent and there is only the slightest hope that he will survive the day. A consultation is being held. The president called at the Payne apartments at 10 o'clock and upon leaving announced to the newspaper men that the secretary's condition was considerably improved. Dr. LaGruder said if Payne maintained his present condition for 24 hours he would have strong hopes of pulling him through.

ABOUT WESTSIDE "DISAFFECTION"

State Senator Herman D. Crow returned to Spokane this morning after having made the trip across the state with Senators Fairbanks and Dooliver and party. Regarding the reports of disaffection which are being industriously spread abroad by the Turner monopoly organs of this city, Senator Crow made this statement: "The sound country is overwhelmingly for Mead. The only serious pretensions to any disaffection on the west side is the claim on account of the Turner shooters that Turner will get a big vote in Pierce county. The best informed republicans there say that Mead will carry the county by a large majority. "The way this report gets out is that George Stevenson has three or four windy fellows hired at so much per day to stand around the Donnelly hotel and make boasts as to the great things being done for Turner, and transients passing through Tacoma who do not know the character of the men thereby get a false impression. "The fact is that those fellows are utterly irresponsible, without character or political knowledge. They say what George Stevenson hires them to say. There is no doubt that Mead will carry the west side by an overwhelming majority." Tday 'nsole -Gmb bm bm bm bmbb

MONEY BUYS PROTECTION

Some weeks ago the people of Spokane read a great deal about a young couple from Montana who ran away from home and came to Spokane. The young man was 19 years of age. The girl's age was 21 years. They were in love and wanted to get married. The boy was not old enough and his parents would not give their consent. They ran away, came to Spokane and tried to get married, but failed. They rented rooms, lived as man and wife and were arrested. They had no MONEY. The low male creatures of lower Howard street thought they saw in the girl another victim for the cribs. They circulated lies in an effort to force her to lead a life of shame. They told that the girl had "rustled beer" in the boxes of the Lobby saloon, which was absolutely untrue and was told for the purpose named. The Review-Chronicle eagerly published their lies to help the macques ruin the girl if possible. The girl had no MONEY with which to buy protection. A. J. Page, a man who lives in a $20,000 house, a prominent business man and a wealthy citizen attempted to assault a poor working woman. The Chronicle-Review said nothing because he had MONEY. The Review-Chronicle are published for the rich, they believe that a poor man should be in jail, AND A POOR WOMAN SHOULD BE DEGRADED TO SATISFY THE ANIMAL NATURE OF MONEY-EYED MEN.

"BABY ORDER" DISREGARDED BY POLICE COMMISSION

Detective Martin Burns reported for duty to Chief Waller this morning, but was informed by the chief that he had no assignment for him. The officer insists that he is not suspended as the mayor has not the authority. Commissioner Handley said today that he would take no action in the matter of Detective Burns' suspension. No charges had been filed and the matter had not been brought to his notice officially. For this reason the board still considers the officer as employed and will disregard the notice of the mayor until such time as formal charges have been filed. He was arrested for vagrancy. He was defended by F. C. Robertson, who nominated George Turner for vice president at the St. Louis convention. Smith is the tenderloin boss. Turner needs the votes. Smith was discharged. The following letters tell a little of the life history of Tom Smith.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 4, 1904.—Martin J. Burns, Esq., City Detective; Police Station, Spokane, Washington. Dear Sir:—"Replying to your letter of the 27th ult., regarding the man Tom Smith, and the woman Emma Smith, I state that they are both well known here. Tom Smith was born and raised in this city; he has been arrested a number of times for vagrancy, disturbing the peace, larceny, etc. The woman came here from San Jose about 13 years ago and for some time lived with Aaron Abbott, she also lived with John Abbott for some time and took his name. Her right name is Stillwell. She has been a prostitute for about 12 years, and took up with Smith about seven years ago. Smith is a gambler, "mac" and thief." Very respectfully, CHAS. ELTON, Chief of Police.

WALLACE, Idaho, Sept. 26, 1904.—Mr. Burns, Spokane, Wash. Dear Sir:—"Yours to hand regarding Tom Smith, he has been here about three or four months, as near as I recollect and in that time he worked about three weeks, he tended bar in the Exchange about a week and tended bar in the Klondyke about two weeks, he ran a Black Jack Game for ten days; the rest of the time he done nothing. He has lived with Emma Smith all the time, they room at room 9, Pacific Annex. I see her most every night going to his room. She closes her crib every night at about 12 o'clock and goes to his room. She told me she would leave him only she was afraid to do so. Some time in July he got drunk and went in the restaurant where she was eating and made her take off her finger rings and take off her watch and take her ear rings out of her ears and give him to raise money on to gamble—so I was told a few days ago, he ran her out of the lodging house and threw a clock at her because she did not set the alarm. I was told she had to go to her crib partly dressed, which is three blocks away. Generally speaking he is no earthly good. I hope you will keep him down there as we can get along without him. Best regards to Bob." Yours truly, J. W. QUINN, Night Patrolman.

Tom Smith is the man who is all right, according to Justice Hinkle. Woydt was fired because he ordered box rustling in "Dutch Jake's" place stopped.

GREATEST PARADE EVER SEEN IN THIS CITY

With greetings from thousands of enthusiastic followers of the big Interstate fair, surrounded with all the pomp and glory of war, of gorgeous civic display and with wild west features closely crowding the twentieth century as represented by automobiles and handsomely dressed women, the grand parade inaugurating the opening of the greatest fair in the northwest flooded the magnificent streets of Spokane this afternoon. It was a show unexcelled in entertainment and display. Never since the opening day of the first fruit show has there been the enthusiasm displayed, the marshaling of circus features and the grouping of high class attractions for a street exhibition. To the management of the fair and the officers of the parade is due credit for the splendid street entertainment. Grand Marshal Lienthal kept his word and followed his orders to the minute in starting the parade at exactly 1 o'clock. The divisions formed on First avenue west of Cedar and other cross streets: The big feature of the last division was Officer "Bill" Shannon and the first street car ever run in Spokane. "Bill" drove the first car, No. 18, and he has one of the horses, "Old Tom," driven on the first car. With the veteran driver was Former Superintendent Wisom. On "Old Tom" was the inscription: "Old Tom. I pulled the first street car." On the sides of the car were banners announcing that "This used to be the caper, but it don't go now." "Bill" had troubles of his own when the street car company forgot to keep faith with the fair people and allowed their cars to block the streets. The greed of the Washington Water Power company to gather in a few extra nickels came near disgracing the parade and created confusion. Shannon and the "first car" was cut out of the parade at Post street and allowed to remain stalled until sympathizers helped start it over. Then the veteran went ahead with the same old cuss words he had used to truck drivers in the old days. One of the prettiest things of the parade was J. D. Sherwood's cart ahead of the Fourth division. Another pleasing show was the automobile division, commanded by Jack Wilmot and in which there were 11 cars. One of these was driven by Mrs. C. P. Thomas. Marshal Ed Connor looked handsome on a small cayuse, which started to bucking in the parade at Lincoln and Riverside. Then Edward looked real pretty. Most beautiful of the features of the parade was Mrs. C. E. Horton, who rode with an opera stiff hat and an evening dress suit. He was immense. There were 10,000 people on the street and most of them went out to the fair grounds after the parade.

BOODLER CONFESSES

(Scripps News Association.) ST. LOUIS, Oct. 3.—Charles F. Kelly, former speaker of the house of delegates, under conviction for perjury in connection with the boodle cases and whose trial comes up this week today gave out a written confession of the circumstances of his flight to Europe. He declares that "Boos" Butler gave him $800 to flee. An agent of Butler joined him in London and remained with him while he was abroad. He implicates another St. Louisian, whom, he says, visited him at Sault Ste. Marie, while en route to Europe, and give him $100.

He then stepped into the street and committed suicide.

McCarthy is in fine fettle after his go with Mose Lafontise, whom he defeated at Butte for the second time. He is confident of winning from Burrows, who made such a splendid showing against Jack Reilly at the Spokane a month ago.

LIEUT. RANCOURT ARRESTED

Lieutenant L. J. Rancourt, U. S. A., stationed at Ft. Wright, was arrested last night in the tenderloin district. The barest information is given out by the officers at the fort regarding the cause of the arrest. The police were notified yesterday evening to arrest the lieutenant, and it is the first arrest of a regular army officer by the police ever made in Spokane. The order of arrest was telephoned to the police by Adjutant Kurtz Eppley in the name of the commanding officer. Lieutenant Rancourt was locked up in a cell at the city jail until this morning, when Adjutant Eppley arrived and placed him under arrest. From what information was obtainable this morning, Lieutenant Rancourt has been traveling a fast pace and has been living beyond his salary as an army officer. It is stated that he has resorted to fraudulent methods of raising money. He left the fort suddenly and orders were at once issued to capture him. He was a member of the "400" and well liked in society circles.

CHIEF JOSEPH DID NOT LEAD INDIANS AGAINST GEN. HOWARD

(Newspaper Enterprise Association.) NESPFLIM, Wash., via Wilbur, Sept. 28.—At the risk of being numbered among those who are detractors of the dead, I am giving you a story which has been frequently the cause of bitter disputes and intestine strife among those Nez Perces who have been counted as strictly loyal to Chief Joseph and those members of the tribe who fell away from the tree and have gone to other fields or have been tolerated among the closer tillucums of the dead chieftain. Although there has been little said outside of the reservation in regard to this matter, it has been solemnly asserted by many of Chief Joseph's people that for years Joseph has been sailing under false colors as the real war chief of the Nez Perces and the leader of the great raid in 1877. In plainer words, Joseph has been given the credit for planning and leading the great raid and masterly retreat; with having fought and out-generaled General Howard and the United States troops, when some of his men who were in that raid and retreat declare it was Joseph's brother, Looking Glass, who successfully led the Nez Perces in battle and retreating and who, up to his death, two days before the surrender to General Miles, was the actual commander of the Indians. I have met but one white man on the reservation who doubts this tale. He is Henry M. Steele, the former Indian farmer for the government and the man who has assisted Joseph in fighting his diplomatic battles. Not another white man is here, who has a knowledge of the Nez Perces language and who has the confidence of the Indians, that fails to give credence to the statement that to Chief (Continued on page 2.)
