HELP WANTED.
 "Seven" shorthand—Touch typing. Ten pupils wanted to give exhibitions after one month's training. Good writers do double work and receive treble wages than the other sort. The one or two finger operators are not worth their salt, nor will a good office have them. Pay each lesson, stop when you like. Business men and women with three lessons can make their private notes in shorthand, and costs but $9. Reporters completed within two months. If you haven't the money, we will take your note for payment for full course, $45; cash, $35. Call for two minutes free lesson, then write any word. It isn't a school or class. You come for 10 minute lessons when you like; so easy, so convenient. Our eldest pupil is 82, the youngest 13. 3 Lincoln street, Spokane.

BUSIEST BIG CANAL ON EARTH AT "SOO"---TRAFFIC 30,000,000 TONS

CELEBRATION AT SAULT STE. MARIE TO COMMEMORATE THE BEGINNING OF NAVIGATION BETWEEN LAKES SUPERIOR AND HURON 50 YEARS AGO—THE DEVELOPMENT FROM A SMALL CANAL—AN EXPENDITURE OF $12,000,000 WHICH HAS RESULTED IN GREAT RICHES TO MANY.

A BIRDS EYE VIEW OF THE GREAT CANAL LOCKS AT SAULT STE. MARIE.

SAULT STE. MARIE, July 28.—Fifty years ago navigation between Lakes Superior and Huron was made possible by the construction of a canal around the falls in St. Mary's river. It is now the highway for more ship traffic than any other canal on earth.
 The fiftieth anniversary of this important event is to be observed in the first week of August, with a celebration of international importance. Men whose names are known the length and breadth of the continent will attend. Among them will be vessel owners, mine owners and capitalists, many of whom have great fortunes that were made possible by the canal. There will be engineers and a host of others interested in the waterway. Visitors to the number of 10,000 are expected. Charles T. Harvey, who supervised the construction of the first canal, will be here. The visitors will be sheltered in the big summer resort hotels and the homes of residents of this city.
 Congress and the state of Michigan have given recognition to this celebration by appropriating money for it. Congress gave $10,000, Michigan $15,000 and $25,000 was raised by the people of this section.
 Hon. Peter White of Marquette is at the head of the commission having charge of the celebration. He is an owner of iron mines and steamship lines.
 An important feature of the affair will be the unveiling of a bronze monument designed by St. Gaudens. The program includes the dedication and unveiling of this new monument of the state militia, and a reception to Governor Warner on the first day, with a grand pyrotechnic display in the evening, a marine parade, speeches by Vice President Fairbanks, Senator Burrows, Peter White and others on the second day, to be followed by another display of fireworks in the evening. Both fireworks displays will be shown from an elevation on the outermost pier in full view of the American shore of the river, where a grandstand large enough to seat thousands of people has been erected.

Facts About the Canal.
 Originally freight and passengers were transported around the falls over a portage nearly three miles in length. The first ship canal, constructed by Michigan in consideration of a government land grant of 750,000 acres, was completed June 4, 1855. It was a little over a mile in length and cost $1,000,000. The year before the canal was built 12,600 tons of freight passed over the portage. The year after the canal was opened showed a tonnage of 106,394. Since that time the annual increase has been about 29 per cent. During the season of 1924 the freight that passed through the canal amounted to 31,546,106 tons.
 The first canal served from 1855 to 1881, when the Weitzel lock was built to accommodate the larger vessels of that period. It was made 515 feet in length and is still in use.
 Between 1887 and 1895 the Poe lock was built on the site of the old state lock. It is 800 feet in length and has a chamber 100 feet in width from end to end.
 The canal since 1892 has been deepened to 25 feet. The Poe lock will accommodate vessels drawing 21 feet of water. The canal varies in width from 300 to 1000 feet, and is more than one and a half miles in length. The cost of the canal and locks since 1855 has been as follows:
 State locks and canal of 1855 ..... $ 1,000,000
 Weitzel lock ..... 1,000,000
 Poe lock ..... 3,000,000
 Widening and deepening of canal ..... 3,000,000
 Improving the channel through lower courses of St. Mary's river ..... 4,000,000
 Total ..... $12,000,000
Some Other Facts of Interest.
 Hydraulic power from Lake Superior is used in operating the locks. A pressure of 200 pounds per square inch is secured in the machinery on the Poe lock.
 The Poe lock can be filled or emptied in seven minutes. The Weitzel lock is smaller, but requires as much time to operate.
 Before 1881, when the old lock was controlled by the state of Michigan, a toll of 65 cents a ton was imposed to cover repairs and expenses of operating, but since the locks have been operated by the federal government there has been no charge.
 Nearly 100 men are employed by the government in charge of the canal and the parks or government grounds along the water front.
 The total operating expenses for 1924 were $93,248.
 Government engineers are making plans for another widening of the canal and a new lock, the total cost of which will be about $11,000,000.

THE BOY ARTISTS WHO MODEL IN SAND

TAVIANA'S ART.

"To make a living, miss," answered the negro.
 The Italian loves the work for art's sake. How can he help it with a line of artists and art Italy built of him? The negro boy works because he loves animals and finds both support and pleasure from reproducing them.
 "I work to support my mother," said the negro, presently. "He's an orphan," nodding toward the Italian.
 I turned, under the work of the Italian I read "Achilles and Hector."
 "I'll get her earlier tomorrow," said the negro. "He's got the best place. More of the swells walk that way."
 "The swells?" I asked.
 "Yes; them from the hotel. They throw us the dimes."
 Each morning these artists that build in sand vie with each other to reach the beach early to get the better place. Each morning both try to produce something more beautiful, more original, more interesting than the work of yesterday. They have learned that upon their improvement depends their increased incomes.
 Their expressive eyes light up with gladness when the showers of dimes and nickels prove their successes. The eyes are shadowed with disappointment when a day goes wrong.

 At night the waves beat out the work of the skillful hands.
 "They are wonderfully gifted," said a voice at my elbow.
 "They are, indeed," I replied.
 "We want to help them both," the speaker continued. "They must be schooled and trained in this line; both of them have great talent. We are planning now for their education. They know nothing of it."
 Involuntarily my hand sought my purse. "Here is a little to help you good a cause."

PASSES UP MILLIONS TO STAY ON STAGE

PRETTY ANTOINETTE PERRY DEFIES GRANDPAP MILLIONAIRE HALL, OF COLORADO—THINKS GOD GAVE HER TALENT FOR FOOTLIGHTS

MISS ANTOINETTE PERRY.
 CHICAGO, July 28.—"I would rather be a second Maud Fay than own all the riches in the world,"—Statement of 17-year-old Antoinette Perry, member of Mrs. Templeton's "Telegram" company, playing at Powers' theater, Chicago.
 And, just as a slight indication that she means what she says, Miss Perry, by her decision to stay on the stage, relinquished all interest in her grandfather's estate valued at $8,000,000.
 He had told her that if she went on the stage he would disinherit her and her mother, Mrs. Edna Hall Perry, well known club woman of Denver, Col. They are the only heirs.
 "I think that God when He put us on earth gave each some talent that we were expected to improve," she said yesterday. "I feel that God has given me an especial talent for acting; and, much as I would like to please my grandfather, I can not give up the stage."
 Miss Perry is decidedly pretty. Not only that, but she has a "man-

BROTHER BUTCHERS BROTHER IN BLOODY BAR ROOM BROTHEL

TOLEDO, O., July 28.—There was a bloody brotherly cutting affair out in the Lagrange street Polish settlement, last night, in which a man was hacked, disfigured and nearly sliced to pieces and murdered by his brother.
 John Garwocki was the victim. His brother Peter slashed him again and again with a simple pocket knife that did awful execution. The brothers live in the same house at 3141 Warsaw street.
 One slash of the knife cut John Garwocki's nose completely off. Another deep gash along the neck down into the shoulder, and within a few inches of the jugular vein. There are other cuts across the face and back of the head, but on top of the head the injuries are particularly bad. One slash right after another, and the knife was driven down into the top of the unconscious man's head by the powerful arm of his brother.

 The trouble started in a saloon at the corner of Warsaw and Everett streets. It continued on the street in front of the saloon, and the argument developed into a free-for-all Polish fight. The two Garwocki brothers were opposed, and the whole battle finally culminated in their brotherly struggle.
