

A MILLION-DOLLAR VISIT TO A STARVING PEOPLE

PRINCE AND PRINCESS OF WALES WILL GO IN A BOUDOIR BATTLESHIP TO "JOLLY" FAMINE HAUNTED INDIA—SIX MONTHS IN THE LAND OF THE RAJAHS AT GREAT EXPENSE—ROYAL LADY A POOR SAILOR SO A MAN-O-WAR IS UPOLSTERED FOR HER.

Special Correspondence of The Press.
LONDON, Oct. 7.—At a cost of at least $1,000,000 to the British taxpayers, the prince and princess of Wales will leave England this month for India to spend half a year in having a truly royal good so, at great expense, the Renown, which has been built for steadiness in a rough sea, has been fitted up as a huge steel yacht. In the admiral's quarters of the vessel, upholsterers for the past three months have padded and quilted the iron cells into a series of boudoirs, reception rooms and sleeping rooms.

Sleep Next to Armor.
The officers' quarters on the warship have been commandeered to make further private rooms for the royal suite, and the officers during the voyage will have to rest content with accommodations in the gun houses of the warship's huge rifles. The rifles have been removed to provide improvised bed rooms and bay on November 9, and will be received in full state by the new viceroy, Lord Minto, and probably by Lord and Lady Curzon.

The prince and princess and their army of attendants will make by railway journey 11,000 miles and will see every city of prominence in the dependency. Two trains will be filled with members of the party and a third will carry their baggage.
Splendid Entertainments.
At Calcutta, the capital of India, the royal travelers will make the greatest efforts at entertaining of their tour. All the hotel room in the city has been taken. At Delhi 50,000 Indian troops, under Lord poles and jumping the tracks to pass the time, when I happened to notice that about 12 Bills were present. So right there we founded the Bill club. There was one other fellow in the crowd, but his name was Sam, and we had to pass him up.

"What I want now is a motto and a device for our club, and any one named Bill may send in suggestions."
Colonel Thompson is a typical southerner, active, rugged and hearty in manner. He was mayor of Excelsior Springs once. He and three other charter members of the Bill club are bankers.

DR. OLDS WEDS MISS BERGMAN

Miss Jennie Odell Bergman was married last night to Dr. W. H. Olds at the residence of Mr. Olds, 1833 Dean avenue. Rev. J. M. Allen read the service. They will go to San Francisco for a visit of a month and will then return and make their home at 1833 Dean.
Dr. Olds has lived in the city for a number of years and is well known here. Miss Bergman has been employed in the millinery department of the Palace store.

SUPERINTENDENT BRYAN ANSWERS SECRETARY THOMAS

R. B. Bryan, state superintendent of schools, has written a letter to E. A. Thomas, secretary of the Spokane school board, criticizing Mr. Thomas severely for the statement Thomas made that Bryan had lost the Spokane school district several thousand dollars by the failure of the district to receive state funds for students in attendance at private schools within this district.
At the time of the publication of the letter written by Mr. Thomas Mr. Bryan was sick in bed and was unable to answer it.
He now sends a stinging reply, calling Thomas a coward and placing the blame entirely on that official's shoulders.

BOAK, OF WOODMEN VISITS SPOKANE

I. I. Boak, head consul of the Woodmen of the World, is expected in the city tomorrow and will be a guest of Camp No. 99 Sunday and Monday. He will leave for Colville on Tuesday, where he will deliver a public address, and return to Spokane on Wednesday. Mr. Boak will be given a ride over the city on Monday evening at the Hotel Spokane.

UNIVERSITY CLUB

The permanent organization of the new University club will be affected at a meeting to be held October 21 at 8 p. m. in the federal courtrooms.
The club met on October 2 and adopted the constitution. All university men who received invitations to the initial meeting are invited to become charter members.

LOVERS OF CLEAN SPORT APPLAUD DEAN LEWIS.

MARSHALL REYNOLDS.
The action of Dean Lewis in refusing to allow Marshall Reynolds, captain of the Pennsylvania football eleven, to take a post-graduate course in the school on the ground that there is no such course in the Pennsylvania law school, will be applauded by all lovers of clean athletics. Reynolds' attempt to play on this year's eleven was a mere evasion. He had graduated, and his attempt to return under an alleged post-graduate course is little short of attempted professionalism. Reynolds will be missed from the Pennsy squad, as he is a star full-back and one of the best punters on the gridiron today.

USED FOR PNEUMONIA.
Dr. C. J. Bishop of Agnow, Mich., says: "I have used Foley's Kidney and Urinary Tract Remedy in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." Refuse substitutes. Sold by Chas. McNab, 402 Riverside avenue.

WOULD HAVE LABOR UNIONS CO-OPERATE WITH FARMERS

RECOGNITION OF ITS LABEL MAY BE ASKED BY THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF EQUITY, WHICH ORGANIZES FOR SECURING BETTER CROP PRICES—WORKINGMEN WOULD BE PROTECTED, THE PROMOTERS SAY.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 7.—Will organized labor and the farmers ever be able to get together and absolutely control alike the pay of all workingmen and the cost of their daily bread? With its principle of "business system for the control of farm business," the American Society of Equity claims to be blazing the way.
Although organized but three years ago in this city, where its headquarters have always been, the society numbers thousands of members all over the country. The society now proposes to seek affiliation with the American Federation of Labor, and at the society's national convention to be held here October 23 an overture will likely be made.

Get Their Prices.
Secretary M. Wes. Tubbs says: "We have proved in practice that by getting together the farmers can get an equitable price on what they have to sell. We are now securing for the tobacco raisers 2 1/2 times as much for their product as they were receiving three years ago. We issue crop report blanks which the tobacco growers fill out, stating acreage, cost and conditions, and the price desired. From these reports we secure averages and pledge our members not to sell until they can get the average price which is based on equity, but always to sell when they can get that price."
"We have organized the cotton growers and by cooperation with the Southern Cotton Growers' association and the Farmers' Educational and Cooperative union we can now fix an equitable price on raw cotton. The wheat growers are now being rapidly organized. "Of course, there are some farmers who do not sell at the price agreed on. We call them 'dumpers,' because they throw their crops on the market at any price.

To Regulate Middlemen.
"Will not giving the farmer a higher price raise the cost to the laboring man?" you ask me. I answer that it will not, and for this reason:
"The wealth produced by the farmer and the laborer now goes largely to the manipulator, the middleman. For instance, a bushel of wheat sells for $1, but the sack of flour which it makes is sold to the consumer for $1.65. Besides this big profit the middleman has the by-products. Three years ago when tobacco brought the producer only 4 1/2c to 5c a pound, it cost the consumer 30c to 60c. In the light of such facts we say the middleman must be forced to equitable terms or we will do his business ourselves.

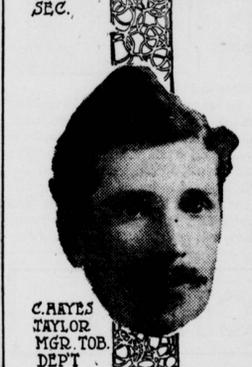

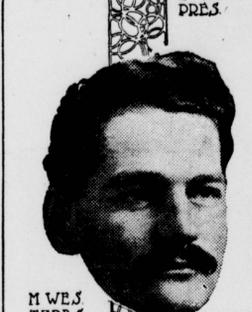

Stores for Consumers.
"We do not mean by this that we shall make other farmer organizations have made of starting cooperative stores among farmers. But cooperative stores among consumers have been and are successful. We shall seek to have the people in the cities, the labor organizations, get together on a cooperative store basis. The farmers can sell to them at an equitable price and the cooperative consumers can share the dividends. This will cut on the middleman. In Arkansas the A. S. of E. is now working extensively in connection with labor organizations and our plan is daily gaining adherents."
A union label has been adopted. That this label will ultimately be recognized by the A. F. of L. in consideration of recognition by the farmers of the labor union labels is one object sought in the proposed affiliation.

DIVORCED PRINCESS MAY BECOME QUEEN

FORMER HUBBY HAS ASCENDED THRONE SINCE SHE ELOPED WITH TUTOR, AND THE PEOPLE WANT HER BACK.

she created a sensation throughout Europe. Later, through efforts of the late King George, a separation was effected and the princess retired to London, where her youngest child, named in the Almanach de Gotha as Princess Anne Monica Pia, was born. Since that time Frederick has obtained a divorce and ascended the throne of Saxony.
There has been a constantly growing sentiment in favor of restoring the princess to her husband. The king's subjects have begged, pleaded and petitioned. Poems and post cards favoring the idea have flooded the kingdom, and the king, who is not held entirely blameless in the matter and who is said to still hold an affection for his former consort, has held frequent consultations with his ministers at which plans for a reconciliation and remarriage have been discussed. It is rumored that very soon, at the end of the period of court mourning for the late King George, the patient princess, who is living in retirement in London, may hear news that will gladden the hearts of the majority of her husband's subjects, who have remained loyal to her through all her distressing experiences.

"BILL" CLUB HAS A BILL GOAT AS MASCOT

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 7.—"Hello, Bill."
The salutation carried from one end of the country to the other by the Elks is to be the passwords to festivities at Excelsior Springs, Mo., December 16, when the Bill club gets together. Colonel Bill Thompson, originator of the club, says: "We're going to make all the Johns, Jameses, Toms and Harrys wish their folks had christened them Bill.

Conn., and a lot of other prominent Bills.
"The original Bill will be there in the place of honor. He is a goat we keep at Excelsior Springs. "Our bills of fare will be printed on bill heads and will lead off with Bill fish and bill tong. We are going to festoon the hall with bills—either $2, $5 and $10 bills, or just receipted bills, bills due, negotiable bills, legislative bills, divorce bills and bills of lading. We are sure to have bills of exceptions, because lots of lawyers named Bill will be there. The sergeant-at-arms will carry a bill hook; bill collectors will be kept out; billiard tables will be at the disposition of the Bills, and if we don't all feel like billionaires before we get through, I'll turn bill poster.

"Any Bill anywhere in the country who wants in can send me a billet-doux and I'll fix him up. No Williams, Wilfreds, Willises and Wills can get in.
"There's the Bill Baker in San Francisco. She wrote me on dainty, perfumed note paper, asking if women were eligible.
"My name is Bill," ran her letter. "Father and mother and all my relatives have called me Bill since they ceased calling me Baby, and I would like to be a member of the Bill club."
"She is an honorary member right now, the only woman in the United States to belong.
"The way the club got started was this: One day a lot of us Excelsior Springs men were waiting for a train. Train was late and we were throwing rocks at the VERY ANNOYING TO SOME PEOPLE.

People that are known to be sickly, are often asked if they are feeling better. Do you feel stronger? Are you gaining flesh? If they are gaining flesh it is one of the sure signs of returning health. People with nervous troubles, loss of flesh, no ambition and always tired, have thin watery blood. The food they eat does not nourish or make blood. If after each meal they would take Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic, their food would be turned into rich, red blood, making solid flesh. The tablets are sold in boxes by druggists for 75c.
