Too Much Meat Eating.

A reading of the beef report may make a lot of Socialists. And a lot more vegetarians.

The report may mean victory for the meat inspection bill in congress. But it means more decided triumph still for the vegetarian diet.

Details of that report would not be nice in this chaste column, which is so universally read aloud to the family at the supper table.

It is a comforting reflection just now that, anyway, we eat too much meat.

Usually it is hard to hold ourselves down to moderation in meat eating. But not now.

Provisionally, as it were, just as the heated season comes on we suddenly find encouragement to let meat a little more alone.

There have been many fine arguments made in behalf of vegetarianism. But the beef report is the best yet.

Luckily, it is not too late to set out some garden stuff.

What keen joy there is in the recollection that the Japs licked the meat eating Russians on a diet of rice!

If Rockefeller hits Monte Carlo the price of gasoline is liable to reach $47 a gallon.

Although the senate passed an anti-immunity bill, there remains the humble beef thorax to avenge in some way.

Hereafter Alfonso will carefully pass a muck rake through all floral designs he receives.

There are 51,146 city office holders in New York. If you don't believe it, look at the deficit.

Anyhow, nobody has said a single harsh word about the breweries.

Local Brevities

Albert Sauter, age 39, died yesterday at 223 Third avenue of heart failure, and the funeral was held at 9:30 o'clock this morning from the undertaking parlors of Smith & Co.

The funeral of Carl A. Nilsson of Eighteenth avenue and Chestnut street, who died yesterday at St. Luke's hospital, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. P. Groschupf officiating.

Traffic has resumed on the O. R. & N. Yesterday all of the line was clear with the exception of the portion between Pendleton and Umatilla. Yesterday and today O. R. & N. trains left and arrived in Spokane on Schedule time.

E. P. Galbraith has resigned from the assessor's office and will devote himself to furthering his candidacy for the nomination for assessor. George Stewart of Cheney, a brother of the present assessor, is the only other candidate for the Republican nomination.

A number of Spokane Christian Scientists left on Monday for Boston, where they will attend the dedication of the $2,500,000 "Mother Church" on Sunday. Among those going to Boston were Mr. and Mrs. George Crane, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Davis, Mrs. F. E. Lucas and Mrs. William Watson.

The Northern Pacific yesterday cut the rate to the Yellowstone National park from $75 to $53.25 for those who will leave Spokane in time to reach Livingston July 17 or 18. A rate of $36.65 is posted for children between the ages of 5 and 10 years. The rate gives tourists five and a half days in the park.

BONDING COMPANY HEAVY LOSERS

The Holley-Mason Hardware company yesterday received $50,000 from the Title Guarantee Trust company for the loss under the bond of the builders of the firm's new building on Railroad avenue and Howard street. The International Concrete company of Seattle started to build the structure, but after they had erected a story they found they had bid too low and later went into bankruptcy. They never paid a premium on the bond.

MEAD INSPECTS INSTITUTIONS

Governor Mead inspected the state institutions at Medical Lake yesterday and expressed himself as well pleased with the present conduct of affairs. He is in Cheney today to deliver an address at the Normal school commencement, and will come to Spokane tomorrow.

THE TROUBLES OF JUNEY THE BRIDE--NO 1.

How pleasant it is, on the return from the church, to run the gantlet of uninvited rubbernecks.

THEY OBJECT TO THE RAISE RALLY 'ROUND THE FLAG, BOYS

A meeting of prominent Riverside avenue property owners and Assessor Dayton H. Stewart was held last night in E. H. Jamieson's office in the Jamieson building. Those present were, E. D. Sanders, William Ziegler, D. H. Dwight, L. B. Whitten Huber Rasher, D. C. Corbin, M. B. Connelly, Dr. J. E. Gandy, George S. Brooke, W. B. Roberts, W. E. Cullen, Edward O'Shea, E. H. Jamieson, D. M. Thompson, James Monaghan and Assessor Stewart.

The property owners object to the plan of the assessor to raise their assessments in line with his proposal to raise the taxation of Spokane $15,000,000.

live on what Americans throw away." You believe it, Percy. We do live on what Europeans would throw away, and we'd throw it away, too, if we knew what we lived on. However, I've always figured that what we don't know don't hurt us, or at least that we don't know now what we don't know hurts us.

LETTERS FROM A SELF-MADE PACKER TO HIS SON.

Paris, June 6, 1906.

Dear Percy:
 No doubt you have heard a great deal of the wastefulness of Americans. Of course, this talk comes from persons who know nothing of the packing houses, because there is no waste in any of them. But I could not help thinking of all that talk as I walked through one of the big markets her this morning. It came back to me and I was impressed with the falsity of it when I saw hanging up in a market stall some of my own hams, put up expressly for the French trade. It was owing to the rigid foreign inspection that we had to send our very best hams to France and in order to tickle the French people and sell the goods we called this brand "Jambon Fume de Liex," which means out of sight smoked hams, or on the level smoked hams, or words to that effect. You've heard people say, "Europeans could other interest that amounts to anything except the packers. They have always said, "Oh, what's the use? We can make the railroad senators look after our affairs. Why go to the expense of electing and keeping several senators? They are too expensive." I'll admit they are expensive, Percy, but they're worth the money in the long run. I suppose the other fellows will rush promptly to the railroads, who will put the screws on their senators, but I'd much rather have my own men at work. They are not so likely to shirk when they know they're directly responsible. It irritates me a little to have a thing like this come up when I am on my vacation, but at that my being away saves me the trouble of hustling around Washington to fix the thing up.

By the way, I wish you would have our attorneys look up the word cravenette and see if it is part of a trade mark. If it is not, and if it can be used by the general public, I wish you would put out a new brand called "Cravennetted Sausage." Wouldn't that be a winner? Advertise it with claims that the cravennetted skin prevents any in-

REVEREND IS SPIRITUALIST

NEW YORK, June 6.—Rev. Minot J. Savage, pastor of the church of the Messiah, voluntarily resigned today because of his belief in the advocacy of spiritualism. Savage has been at Redlands, Cal., since March with his son, Rev. Maximilian Savage, where the resignation was written. Savage never preached spiritualism, but championed it.

A BRIDE, A BULLET AND A BEDROOM WEDDING

A Story of Happiness and Sorrow With Love Only Remaining—Accidental Shooting of Bessie Reagan by David Coldren as They Were Preparing Their House for Future Life.

How would like to be David Coldren?
 That man was happy to the ends of his toes. He had a bride as fair as June and as sweet as a southern peach.

He had a home nest in Philadelphia all done but finishing. There was love on both sides of the house—love of the kind that makes novels sell.
 And the sky was blue and the birds sang only love songs.

CHAPTER II.
 They were up in the new home, fixing things. Sweet Bessie Reagan was arranging furniture and thinking love, and David pulled out a wicked looking gun and said: "Here, Bessie, put this where it will not hurt anybody."
 You never know how those things happen. The gun went off, there was a scream, some smoke, and Bessie was terribly wounded.

CHAPTER III.
 "He never meant to do it. Why Dave loves me," said the girl in the hospital. The doctors looked grave, and Bessie insisted on the wedding proceeding.

to a loving woman, and when the doctor said that she might get well, joy crowded sorrow into the background.

CHAPTER IV.
 Then David was arrested. He was pretty blue. He felt that he had had about as much trouble as most

MRS. ROSENHAUPT IS DEAD

Mrs. Joseph Rosenhaupt died last evening at the residence, 5424 Howard street, after an attack of heart failure. She was taken suddenly ill at the dinner table last night and soon after was removed to the bed. The end came peacefully but suddenly. She has suffered with heart trouble for a long time. She was 61 years of age, a native of Hestia Castle, Germany, and leaves three sons—Harry, Frank and Sidney—all prominent business men of this city. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

THAT ONE WEAK SPOT

Kidney sickness robs the back of all its power and strength. It's hard to lift, to stoop or straighten, and even to get up from a chair.

This indescribable weakness of the back, the endless dull aching that goes with it, are never failing symptoms of kidney complaint. A bad back is nature's signal of distress, a call for help from the kidneys. The aching tells of dangerous congestion that robs the kidneys of their blood filtering power, or painful, wasting inflammation. There is immediate need for Doan's Kidney Pills, to relieve the pain and heal the diseased kidneys, to ward off more fatal and painful disorders.

If you are not sure your kidneys are affected, but do suspect it, try the urine. Set a bottleful aside for 24 hours, and if it then shows a cloudy settling at the bottom, or a sandy sediment, you will know you need Doan's Kidney Pills at once. Neglect of such little troubles as these is what brings on thousands of cases of dropsy, diabetes and fatal Bright's disease.

Healthy kidneys keep you well by keeping the blood pure. Sick kidneys keep you sick by falling to purify the blood. This is because of many forms of rheumatism, neuralgia and gout; of such nervous troubles as headache, irritability, dizzy spells, depression; of palpitation of the heart, stomach troubles, liver complaint; of la grippe, colds, chills; of half the aches and ills of humanity.

Learn to keep the kidneys well. Doan's Kidney Pills will do it for you. Grateful residents of this city testify. Their statement prove it to you.

SPOKANE PROOF.
 W. W. Butler, car cleaner, O. R. & N. R. R., living at 01628 Callist street, Spokane, Wash., says: "I just as heartily endorse Doan's Kidney Pills today as I did 16 months ago, when they relieved me of frequent attacks of backache and annoying irregularity of the kidney secretions. I have never had any recurrence of kidney complaint, and will therefore speak a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills whenever I have an opportunity. This remedy seems to be a sure and permanent cure for kidney troubles and backache."
