She is a patron of art, music, and a friend of hard work.

TRAGIC SECRET UNSOLVED

ONLY WOMEN WITH HIM CAN TELL WHY EDWARD NELSON PLUNGED TO DEATH AT PARK, AND THEY ARE MISSING.

Edward Nelson, age 23, a night bartender at the Anaconda saloon, 205 Washington st., was caught in the cable at the scenic railway at Natarorium park yesterday afternoon. The car was on the straightaway track on the first elevation when Nelson was seen to stand up and the next instant plunge off toward the ground. He struck the fence and bounded back onto the track, where the cable caught and wound around his body. He was dead before the machinery could be stopped. It took workmen an hour to disentangle the remains.

There were 2 young women in the car with Nelson. They disappeared immediately after the accident and could not be found. Coroner Witter will hold no inquest, declaring the death accidental. It has been suggested that Nelson committed suicide. Another suggestion is that he attempted in bravado to leap to the ground but struck the fence and bounded back into the cable. It is possible that one of his companions dared him to attempt the leap.

A bottle of whiskey was found on the ground near where the accident occurred, but Nelson was not known to drink to excess and had not been drinking when he left for the park. He was at the saloon in the afternoon and stated that he was going to the park to spend a few hours before going on shift.

Nelson's parents live in Norway. Before coming to Spokane he was employed with a grading crew on the Milwaukee near St. Regis, Mont. He had been bartender at the Anaconda for 6 weeks only. The remains will be held at Buchanan's until his parents can be communicated with.

MACDONALD WILL LET WOMEN SWEAR

Any woman who is willing to swear people (not at them) for money, has the necessary requirements and the state fee of $10, can begin now any time she wants to. Assistant Attorney Macdonald, of this city, has ruled that the law passed by the last legislature admitting women to be notaries public, is constitutional. He has so informed Governor Mead and it is presumed the governor will proceed to appoint women as well as men notaries hereafter.

The bar to women notaries heretofore has been a provision of the constitution prohibiting anyone not a citizen from holding state office. Not being able to vote, it was held that women were not citizens. Macdonald shows that women are permitted to hold the office of school superintendent, and punches other holes in the old mossback theory.

OLDEST TRIPLETS HAVE A BIRTHDAY

(Scripps News Association.) FOND DU LAC, Wis., June 17.—The Windecker triplets, who are said to be the oldest living triplets in the world, have just celebrated their 63d birthday.

The triplets are Sidney Windecker, of Fond du Lac, Wis.; Sylvester, of Byron, Wis., and Sedate, or Mrs. George M. Pier, of Wausau, Wis. They were born in the Empire state and 5 years after that interesting event came with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Windecker, sturdy pioneers, to Wisconsin.

The Windeckers come from a long lived and sturdy stock. Just one week after their advent, Mrs. I. W. Bostwick, their oldest sister, became the mother of twin girls, one of whom, Mrs. Mary Goodell, is living today at Norwalk, O. The triplets thus became uncles and aunts when exceedingly young, and the five babies spent their first days together.

STEVE ADAMS TO TAKE THE STAND

State Will Call Him Tomorrow but Refusal to be Sworn is Expected.

(Scripps News Association.)

BOISE, Idaho, June 17.—As under the Idaho law it is necessary for the defendant in a capital case to be present in court on the date of trial in order to secure a postponement, Orchard was taken to Caldwell today on an early train and arranged before Judge Wood on the charge of murdering Steuenerberg. Orchard's case was not transferred to Boise with those of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone. On stipulation between the attorneys today his case was put over until September. It was rumored that Orchard might plead guilty when arraigned this morning, but nothing out of the ordinary occurred, the proceedings being purely formal.

This leaves the court free to proceed with the Haywood trial and also leaves Orchard, star witness for the state, available for recall. When court reconvenes here

Tuesday morning Steve Adams will be called as a witness by the state. What he will do is a closely guarded secret. It is generally understood that he will refuse to be sworn at all. Adams has made a confession similar to Orchard's and through the latter's influence. This he has repudiated as being forced from him by McParland. The state thereupon tried him for the murder of Fred Tyler and he is now waiting for a second trial, on that charge, the first jury having disagreed.

The first batch of witnesses for the defense in the Haywood trial arrived early today. Most of them are residents of Denver and the Cripple Creek districts. Orchard will resume the stand again tomorrow for the purpose of permitting the defense to introduce witnesses to impeach his testimony and also to open the way for re-direct examination by the state.

The Scrapy Little Jap

Here is a typical Japanese warrior of modern times. Note the perky, egotistical air about him; the unblinking pose of self confidence; also the endurance and hardihood indicated in the solid muscles of his face. There are fully a half million of such warriors already under arms—soldiers and sailors—all of the alike as two peas, and all of them drunk with the wine of conquest, trained in real warfare, and schooled to gladly swap life for a niche in the Shinto valhalla. Nothing but a crushing blow can wake them out of their trance. The United States, to which they were formerly so effusively grateful, and which first conceded their valor and prowess, is not courting the task. It may be that just in time the Japs will look elsewhere for something to snap back and hit them.
