

MRS. T. R.'S DEADSHOT COUSIN RUNS INTO A SENATE HOLDUP

GROVE PORTER, TENDERFOOT WHO MADE GOOD.

Special Correspondence to The Press
MUSKOGEE, Okla., March 9.—Grove Porter, an eastern boy, who ran away from exclusive St. Paul's school, Long Island, to become cow puncher, deputy sheriff, ranch boss and United States marshal in Wyoming and Oklahoma, is going to Panama as chief of police, maybe. Out west they say Porter's a good man, with a nerve of steel and good executive ability. But he's a cousin of Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, and there are certain parties at a Washington who confirm treaties and appointments and things who don't like to see a nephew in law of the man they dislike get the $4000 a year job. So they haven't confirmed Porter's appointment to the canal job. Out here regert is heard that Porter is caught in the web of na-of Johnson county, in which he figured conspicuously, and won the deputy marshal's badge. This was the hottest period of Wyoming's history, and Porter served through four years of it as an officer of the law.

When his term expired Porter was offered the foremanship of R. S. Van Tassel's ranch. Van Tassel, a cattle king, owned one of the largest ranches in the state, and Porter's work required nerve, knowledge and capacity for work. The new foreman made good. He resigned four years later to become chief of detectives of Cheyenne to clear out a bunch of bad men who infested the town.

In 1904 Porter moved to Oklahoma, where he was named assistant to J. Blair Schoenfeldt, United States Indian agent. His work carried him among the five Indian nations—the Chickasaws, Creeks, Seminoles, Choctaws and Cherokees. He continued till he was appointed United States marshal for southern part of the territory, covering the country he had learned as an Indian agent.

JOHNNIES FLIRTED AT HER; GETS DAMAGES

BUENOS AYRES, Argentine Republic, March 8.—For being flirted at by South American stage johnnies—$1250. This is what Mamie Stuart, an English actress, has just been awarded by a jury for the damage to her dignity as she came in and went out of the doors of the Casino music hall. It shows the way the laws of Argentine Republic regard the stage. Miss Stuart, a London concert hall favorite, was engaged by Sherek & Braf, agents for the Casino, to sing here during a term of weeks. The contract guaranteed the character of the Casino, and that Miss Stuart should be treated as became a lady. But the agents couldn't keep the Spanish dandies away from the theater entrance, and the suit and its verdict followed.

CELLULOID CUFF SCORCHES FARMER

NORTH YAKIMA, March 9.—The deadly celluloid cuff claimed another victim in S. J. Lowe, a wealthy farmer, who was severely burned about the hand and arm when his cuff exploded while he was starting a fire yesterday in the kitchen stove.

HE RODE ALL AROUND ROOSEVELT

THIS IS THE "DOC" AND ONE OF THE HORSES WITH WHICH HE GALLOPED ALL OVER T. R.'S HORSEBACK RECORD.

Special Correspondence to The Press
SIDNEY, O., March 9.—Dr. J. A. Throckmorton hasn't had any trouble sitting down or lying on his back since the other day, when he everlastingly smashed President Roosevelt's record horseback ride of 98 miles in 18 hours by making 120 miles in 12 hours and 36 minutes. The doctor was an army officer during the civil war, and has been a close personal friend of the horse ever since. He is 60 years old, but as active as a lieutenant just out of West Point. T. H. had snow and pretty good roads, at least near Washington. Dr. Throckmorton had rain and muddy roads all along the line of his route, which was from Sidney to Troy and back three times. He used three horses, his own two thoroughbreds, Kentucky Gray Eagle and Kentucky Black Charger, and Teddy Roosevelt, a neighbor's horse. At the end the horses were in as good condition as the rider. The animal in the picture is Kentucky Gray Eagle.

NEW ENGLANDERS WILL MEET TOMORROW NIGHT

The adjourned annual meeting of the New England club of Spokane will be held tomorrow evening in the assembly room of the chamber of commerce at 8 o'clock, and a large attendance is expected. At the regular meeting on February 27 there was a comparative small attendance because of a storm, and adjournment was taken so as to get the voice of the majority of the members in the selection of new officers for the coming year, several of the officers finding that business requirements precluded the possibility of their accepting a reelection. To facilitate the selection of active workers who will have an opportunity to greet and welcome visiting New Englanders this summer a special nominating committee was appointed, and it has been most assiduous in its work. Several meetings have been held, and a large proportion of the membership has been canvassed, and tonight the committee will meet at 124 Wall street and formulate its report. The committee is also considering desirable changes in the constitution, with a view to in-

A New Store is Going Up
Prices are Coming Down

Cohn Brothers are going to tear down the old store and in its stead build a modern brick structure, which, when completed, will make one of the largest Furniture Stores in the northwest. In order to move the stock and to make room for the builders, we are compelled to slaughter everything in the store. With the exception of a few contract articles, we will sell the entire stock at reductions from 20 to 50 per cent.

WORLD'S RICHEST HIDDEN TREASURE A KING'S FORTUNE

Special Correspondence to The Press
CAPETOWN, S. A., March 9.—The richest hidden treasure known to exist in the world today is believed to be the buried fortune of Lobengula, the famous king of the Matabeles, who ruled two decades ago, until defeated and imprisoned by England. Five men only knew the place where the treasure was deposited, and of them but one remains in the land of the living today, this being John Jacobs, a native miner, who was at one time private secretary to Lobengula, and who has lately returned to Johannesburg, after an expedition in quest of the buried fortune. In 1907 Jacobs entered into nego-ed up the Kahompe river, where they were deserted by the "boys" necessitating a return after traveling over 2000 miles. As to the treasure, the gold is stated to be what the king had collected from his people, the diamonds that the "boys" working at Kimberley fetched home with them, the bars of gold are supposed to be gold stolen from the Rand, and the ivory is what the natives secured in the hunting fields.
