

CATS BEATEN AT HOME

"Me-e-ow!" (hisses from the bleachers). The Champions are open to prosecution by the humane society for cruelty to cats. They sneaked out of the bushes over at Aberdeen and mistreated those black cats something scandalous—defeated 'em 6 to 2.

Gilligan, the champion chastiser of that "Champion" chastising bunch, bewildered the Cats at bat and helped to skin 'em in their attempts to sneak home. He gave them six hits, alright—enough to win under ordinary circumstances, but they were so scattered all along the furry route of that game that it didn't help them much in making runs. Pernoll, the Black Cat pitcher, was lambasted for even safeties just when the champs needed to hit him.

BUSY DAYS FOR TYLER

Joe C. Tyler, who won the Inland Empire tennis championship here a week ago in the tourney on the Country club courts, leaves today for Vancouver, where he is to compete for honors in the international tourney, opening there the latter part of the week. Following this meet, he will go to Tacoma to participate in the northwest tourney.

ENOUGH OF HENSLING

There was no juicy Colt meat for the Tigers in that game yesterday. On the contrary, the Colts sneaked it over on them like 6 to 2. Hensling was in the box for Tacoma, but was hit effectively 10 times and was released to the Vernon team in the Coast league immediately after the game.

ANIMAL SHOW IS HERE

Spokane is to again enjoy a visit from Gentry Bros.' show, the pioneer, and now the largest exclusively trained animal show in the world. Friday and Saturday the tents will be pitched back of the courthouse and performances will be given afternoon and evening.

THE LADIES WERE DEEPLY INTERESTED

marred the pleasure when a poor, poor fan, out in the bleachers, went down before a foul tip off Capron's bat. His right cheek bone was stove in and he was carried off the grounds by the base ball players on an improvised stretcher.

Tacoma	35	57	.380

It was ladies' day, too, but such a gory game was never seen—it was shocking, simply shocking. The way the home team won it, however, was "just lovely."

Poor Jack Burnett set out to be the hero of another day and was just getting under way when he slid into second under Bennett like a jackpine under a bridge and split his hand on the spikes beneath the bag. He was out, too—that hurt him the worst. The injury put him out of the game and under a physician's care. Dad Brown took his place.

Many a sympathetic sigh and moan emanated from that crowd of fair fans when poor Jack, with his injured left, was led off to a physician, and they had scarcely recovered from the little shock that

"IF SILVER SAYS SO IT'S SO"

Our First Semi-Annual Clearance Sale Is Now in Full Blast

The crowds are coming—buying—and going away satisfied and delighted with their purchases. How could they be otherwise when they know we are new here and have not a lot of odds and ends nor a lot of undesirable stuff bought for a "special sale." What we offer you at CUT PRICES is the pick of brand new seasonable merchandise—the kind on which we are building a splendid business—the kind we are not afraid to say with every sale—satisfaction or your money back.

Here is another fact we want to fix firmly in your mind—don't think because we are located on Front and Bernard streets that it's not worth your time to look us up. We will surprise you, as we have hundreds of others, with the fine appearance of the store, the size of the stock, the excellent quality and assortments, the courteous treatment you will receive, the uniform low prices on reliable goods and only ONE PRICE TO EVERYBODY.

REMEMBER, EVERY PIECE OF SUMMER MERCHANDISE IN THE ENTIRE STOCK GOES AT A CUT PRICE—Profits are a thing of the past—we must have clean tables and shelves for the new fall stock.
