Table with columns: Team, Won, Lost, P. C. Rows include Seattle, Spokane, Aberdeen, Portland, Vancouver, Tacoma.

Vic Holm did the balloon stunt at Portland yesterday afternoon in the fifth inning, and allowed five Colts to trot across the home plate. It was a bad day for the Indians, every member of the tribe seemed to think that the time had arrived for his summer vacation and was taking a layoff. Score: Spokane 6, Portland 9.

The Indians were there with the big stick also, landing two runs in the fifth and three in the seventh, but the Colts were not to be denied and bunched of their hits at the critical moment saved the day.

NAPS GET HARKNESS, FRECKLES AND ALL

"SPEC" HARKNESS.

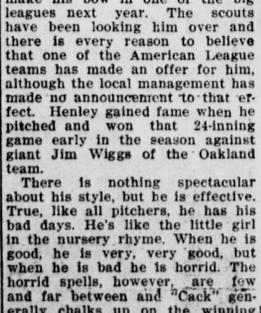

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 2.—"Speck" they call him, and "Speck" he is, as appearance goes, but he's some smear when you place him on the baseball map. Fred Harkness is the way he signs his checks, but the fans know him as just plain "Speck" Harkness, the Portland Coast League team's star pitcher, who has been sold to the Cleveland American league team.

When Harkness makes his appearance in the big brush there will be three things about him to attract attention. The first will be his remarkable collection of freckles, from which he derives his nickname. They range in size from a pinhead to a silver 5-cent piece and are of such a lovely bronze that they would make a Plute turn green with envy.

JACK KAYE, THE BOXER, IS SUSPENDED

Jack Kaye, the star 125-pound boxer of the S. A. A. C., was suspended Saturday night by Boxing instructor Fred Creel for violating training rules. Although the suspension of Kaye is only temporary, it is understood that he will not be allowed to enter the ranks again until he agrees to obey training rules which have been laid down by Boxing Instructor Creel.

AMERICAN SCOUTS AFTER HERO OF 24-INNING GAME

CLARENCE HENLEY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—Clarence "Cack" Henley, the San Francisco Coast League team's elongated twirler, is expected to make his bow in one of the big leagues next year. The scouts have been looking him over and there is every reason to believe that one of the American League teams has made an offer for him, although the local management has made no announcement to that effect.

A GOOD LESSON

The suspension of Jake Kaye, the star 125-pound boxer of the S. A. A. C., by Boxing Instructor Creel Saturday night is a good lesson to the other athletes who will represent the club this year. Although Kaye is one of the best men that Creel has, and he dislikes to suspend him, it became necessary as an example to the other boxers that no violation of training rules will be permitted.

PLANS OF THE FOOTBALL STARS

Although it has been reported by some parties that Harvey Dickey, Wesley Englehorn and Wallace DeWitt, former star football players for the South Central high school, are going to the state college at Pullman this fall, the boys have said, as was previously announced in The Press, that they will not enter Pullman college this year.

Harvey Dickey is not intending to enter college this fall, but will work another year, when he will go to some eastern college. Wesley Englehorn and Wallace DeWitt will enter Princeton college this fall if they pass their examinations satisfactorily, which will be held at the South Central high school next week under the supervision of Principal Henry M. Hart.

TYLER MAY RANK FIRST

According to the report from the coast, Joe C. Tyler, the Spokane tennis champion, will be given rank No. 1 when the annual honor list is made out by the official ranking committee. The only big match that Tyler lost was to Swengers of Victoria, in the international tournament at Seattle. Schwengers will get rank No. 2 by defeating Tyler in the international. Tyler has won five out of the six championship tournaments that he has entered this summer.

SUMMER SNOW FOR THE CATS

The Cats were completely snowed under by the Turks at Seattle yesterday afternoon. In a shutout game Seattle won 12 to 0. The Turks started the fireworks in the first inning, scoring two runs. There were only three innings in which the Turks did not score, and Aberdeen was unable to connect

TIGERS TIE A KNOT

Because Mahon muffed Kellackey's fly at Vancouver yesterday, the Tigers tied a knot in the tail of the Champions and won the game 1 to 0. Hall, doing the slab work for the Tigers, pitched great ball and deserved to win. He was given great support by his team. Manager Utbler of the Tigers has released Conrad and Dashwood for not keeping in condition. Brooks of Vancouver has been signed to catch for Tacoma. Batteries—Tacoma, Brooks and Hall; Vancouver, Sugden and Flannagan.

HOW WE MAY WIN.

Jim Brown, brother of the Indian's manager, has it all doped out for the finish between Seattle and Spokane. He believes that Spokane will take three of the four remaining games with Portland, or the series by four out of seven; six games out of the eight games to be played here with Tacoma and 10 of the 14 games with Vancouver. The Indians will then wind up the season with five out of seven from Portland, crediting the team with 24 out of 33 from today.
