

NEXT WEEK'S OFFERINGS AT SPOKANE'S THEATERS

MARIE CAHILL HERE TONIGHT

At the Auditorium tonight Marie Cahill, who is undoubtedly one of the best comedienne in America, will present her latest musical success, "The Boys and Betty." The new offering, which the Manhattan critics universally praised, is by George V. Hobart, who adapted it from a French farce called "La Papillon" with music by Silvio Hain. On its presentation in New York it was found to be a consistent play, which might have been given without any music

MARIE CAHILL

If so desired, but undoubtedly Hain's tuneful score had much to do with its success. The scenes of "The Boys and Betty" are laid in France and some of the spice of the original has been retained in Mr. Hobart's version. The title is derived from the fact that Betty, the character assumed by the star, is the friend and patron of a group of young and struggling artists, who come to her for advice and help in the vicissitudes that accompany the start of that kind of a career.

"THE MAN OF THE HOUR" AT SPOKANE NEXT WEEK

Managers William A. Brady and Joseph R. Grismer's big production of George Broadhurst's great play, "The Man of the Hour," with a special company, will be the attraction at the Spokane theater all of next week, commencing Sunday night.

"The Man of the Hour" is conceded by critics everywhere to be the best American play ever written. There is not a discordant note in it; every character moves and breathes and lives—a natural life. It is a play for the people who like their heart strings played upon and who cling to the old beliefs about rugged honesty and love for women and home.

At the Orpheum

Seidom's Venus, conceded one of the most artistic offerings in the entire vaudeville field, will top the list of attractions on the bill at the Orpheum which opens with the matinee Sunday afternoon. The act—on its previous appearance at the Orpheum—created a distinct sensation and this year comes with a new list of poses. The Seidoms are the greatest artists in the line of living marble. They represent the flesh the world's famous creations in sculpture, the bare flesh being treated with a coat of enamel which makes the poses appear to be pure Parian marble. Among the specialties which will be represented are "At the Winning Post," "Samson Bound" and "The Fountain."

No less entertaining will be the offering of Toby Claude, the dainty and accomplished comedienne, who made herself famous in "The Chinese Hitman," "Fantasia," "A Knight for a Day" and other musical successes. She has been styled the vest pocket comedienne, and is a little package of fun, wit and life. She has been away from the footlights for several years, but the call of the spotlight could not be withstood.

The Five Mowatts will present one of the most finished club juggling acts ever seen in local vaudeville.

Miss Kate Watson, Gus Cohan and the other comedians will present a one act pastime playlet entitled, "The Hoosier Girl." In this sketch Miss Watson has created a new character which promises to become as distinctive as "Sis Hopkins." The action of the piece takes place in Indiana, and is brisk, interesting and humorous.

Clever character impersonations, novel eccentric dancing and humorous dialogue are to be found in the act of Knight Brothers and Sawtelle, two men and a woman of ability, whose work has received flattering comment in cities where they have appeared.

Lester and Kellett, two high class entertainers who refuse to follow the beaten path of vaudeville, will also be seen next week.

The Carrey Twins, down on the program as "artistic stompers," are entitled to the description according to the press matter which has preceded them. They have a number of fancy stunts which are distinctly new in this section.

Engaged

Merchant—So you want a job as office boy, eh? Any previous experience?

Boy—No, sir. I don't know how to do anything in an office.

Merchant—I guess you won't do.

Boy—I don't even know how to write.

Merchant—Hang up your hat, Catholic Standard and Times.

The Ways of Men.

Many a man who would be unable to find the family bible if he hunted all day would have no difficulty in putting his hand on the corkcreeper, even in the dark.—Chicago Record-Herald.

At the Washington

The bill that will be presented at the Washington commencing with Sunday matinee will surpass anything that has been offered this season. There will be six acts on the bill and each is a star act in the line of work in which it is mentioned. The program will include musical artists, dramatic sketches, singing, dancing, gymnasts and comedy. The bill will be headlined by the Seven Montrose Troupe, who are not only the best acrobatic act in America, but are the top acts of Europe. The act has appeared in both the London and New York Hippodromes as well as the biggest circuses, including Barnum's and Ringling Bros. shows. A comedy creation of the best and one that is bound to please everyone is that given by the Hickman Brothers and Miss Reta Merrill, entitled, "The Detective Detected."

Next on the list comes an act that is receiving a great deal of press notice in vaudeville this season, namely, the presentation by Elsie Harvey and her dancing boys. A feature in the comedy line will be Jim H. Rutherford and company in the laughing college comedy success, entitled, "Half Back Hank." This is a playlet that is brim full of bright and pleasing comedy and is well presented by Jim Rutherford, who is one of the best known comedians in the country, and a clever company.

The artistic number of the bill will be furnished by De Velda and Zeldia in an enigmistic feature, which will include some balancing work that cannot be exceeded anywhere. A comedy oddity that is decidedly out of the ordinary is the feature offered by Joe Brown and Al Lavan, "Nearly a Soldier." The playlet is from the pen of Mr. Brown and is well written. The scene of the comedy is laid in a recruiting station of the United States army.

At the Pantages

In the bill for the coming week, commencing with Sunday matinee, Manager Walker of the Pantages has secured for his headline attraction Blake's untamable mule, "Maud." This act is without a doubt the laughing hit of the vaudeville stage, says the manager and is the only act for which the audience rises in one mass so as to miss none of the fun. Maud will be under a challenge of the manager to contribute $1 a minute to any person that can ride her that long. After witnessing Maud in action, the average reader of the comic supplement will be willing to believe all of Opper's cartoons about the antics of the mischievous beast.

Another big act that is to play in this house will be the William Lloyd Troupe of Sensational Aerialists. This is without a doubt the greatest casting acts in the world, as seen by their closing trick, the most wonderful trick ever accomplished.

DYSPEPSIA, HEARTBURN, GAS AND OTHER DISTRESS ENDED

Nothing will remain undigested, or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapessin occasionally. This powerful digestive and antacid, though as harmless and pleasant as candy, will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat.

Eat what your stomach craves, without the slightest fear of indigestion or that you will be bothered with sour risings, belching, Gas on Stomach, Heartburn, Headaches from stomach, Nausea, Bad Breath, Water Brash or a feeling like you had swallowed a lump of lead, or other disagreeable miseries. Should you be suffering now from any stomach disorder you can get relief within five minutes.

If you will get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapessin you could always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and your meals would taste good, because you would know there would be no indigestion or Sleepless nights or Headache or Stomach misery all the next day; and, besides, you would not need laxatives or liver pills to keep your stomach and bowels clean and fresh.

Pape's Diapessin can be obtained from your druggist, and contains more than sufficient to thoroughly cure the worst case of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. There is nothing better for Gas on the Stomach or sour odors from the stomach or to cure a Stomach Headache.

You couldn't keep a handier or more useful article in the house.
