BLOOMSBURG, Pa., April 4.—Randall Howell has found out why his pig whistled. He says that he was puzzled over butchering time the hog would invariably start whistling at feeding time, and this brought all the other hogs to a trough; they got to expecting it and the food that followed.

THE STORY OF THE NAMES OF MONTHS

JANUARY—The Roman Janus presided over the beginning of everything, hence the first month of the year was called after him. FEBRUARY—The Roman festival Februs was held on the 15th day of this month in honor of Lupercus, the god of fertility. MARCH—Name from Mars, the Roman god of war. APRIL—Probably derived from Asperite, to open, because spring generally begins and the buds open in this month. MAY—So called from Maia, a feminine divinity worshipped at Rome on the first day of this month. JUNE—Named after Juno, worshipped as the queen of heaven. JULY—Called after Julius Caesar, who was born in this month. AUGUST—Named by the Roman emperor Augustus Caesar, B. C. 30, after himself, as he regarded it a lucky month, being one in which he had won several battles. SEPTEMBER, OCTOBER, NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER—Named from the Latin septem, octo, novem and decem, seven, eight, nine and ten, as they were respectively the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth months of the old Roman year.

ONE OF WORLD'S GREATEST MEN

Following the visit of Roosevelt and Kermit to the quinal, King Emmanuel said: "They were a most interesting pair. I have always looked upon Theodore Roosevelt as one of the greatest men in the world. Today's meeting has only strengthened that impression."
