

LIKE DOG YARNS?--WELL, HERE'S WHERE YOU BARK UP THE RIGHT TREE!

RICHFIELD, N. J., June 8.—Trying to pluck a wild flower on the bank of the Morris canal, Robt. Webster, 12, fell into the stream. He was unable to swim and would have drowned but for his collie dog, Duke.

The dog leaped into the water and seized the child by the collar of his coat. The boy managed to turn and throw his arm around the collie's back, and in that manner was dragged by Duke to safety.

GAME DOCK SPURS TO DEATH TERRIER "SICKED" ON HENS GREAT NOTCH, N. J., June 8.—A party of five persons passing through here in an automobile noticed a flock of more than 100 chickens in the yard surrounding the farmhouse of Hiram Van Tassel. The farmer's son, Edward, was sitting on a stump near by.

The automobile stopped and Edward heard somebody say "Sick 'em, Jim!" and a fox terrier jumped out of the machine and made for the fowls, breaking the legs of several and chasing the others about. But when the terrier started for two game roosters he made a mistake. He snapped at one of them and the other rooster jumped on his back and drove its spurs through the dog's hide.

Young Van Tassel had protested against having the dog "sicked" on the chickens, but the automobile party only laughed at him. When he saw the game roosters put up a fight he said nothing and watched. The automobilists were prevented from seeing this by the hedge. The fight lasted 15 minutes, at the end of which time the terrier had been spurred so many times that it bled to death. The automobilists did not laugh when young Van Tassel took the dog's carcass and threw it in the machine.

WAGS OFF END OF HIS TAIL. HARRISBURG, Pa., June 8.—Nig, the Harrisburg public dog mascot, somehow always seems to keep in the limelight. His latest stunt was the loss of the tip of his tail. The aged canine's bones have become brittle, and in wagging a welcome to Chief George the dog banged his tail against a door and lost the tip.

FOXES KILL THE PURSUING DOGS. POTTSVILLE, Pa., June 8.—Driven to bay by two valuable hunting dogs belonging to Jas. Dowling, a pack of five foxes succeeded in killing their pursuers and the thrilling encounter was witnessed.

at a distance by a number of people.

IMPOUNDED DOGS FOR FISH FOOD.

VANCOUVER, Wash., June 8.—Hereafter dogs impounded by license tags and caught by the dog catcher, will be hustled off to Hood River, Ore., and fed to the fishes at a private hatchery there. The pelts will be preserved and sold to dealers.

SOMEBODY SWITCHED DOGS ON A STATEN ISLAND FANCIER.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Alex. Minto, a dog fancier of Chelsea, Staten Island, called his wife the other morning to look at a beautiful collie that he had brought home late the other night from Cartaret in a crate. Mrs. Minto was glad to help open the crate, being as fond of fine dogs as her husband. When they pried off the lid they saw inside a scrappy black and tan that was blind and had lost its tail.

Minto went back to Cartaret looking for the stranger from whom he made his purchase, but couldn't find him.

THEATERS

ORPHEUM—"The Ballet of Light," which is the feature on the bill at the Orpheum this week, is one of the most gorgeous spectacles ever seen on the Orpheum stage and the seven beautiful girls, pupils of La Lote Fuller, are grace personified. Tomorrow afternoon has been set aside by Manager Muller for the "peanut matinee," especially for the youngsters.

Heading the bill next week will be found three of the greatest billiard players in the country, Harry P. Cline, Calvin W. Demarest and Albert G. Cutler. They have an act which will serve to introduce them both as billiardists and as actors. Fanny Rice with her mimic stage, Marion Murray in "The Prima Donna's Honeymoon," and Signor Travato, a famous and eccentric violinist, will also be prominent on the bill.

PANTAGES—"The Three Dreamers," a comedy singing and talking act in which is introduced the familiar slum character, "The Dope Fiend," is one of those comedy acts sent out from our Chicago agent, that is a laughing hit.

WASHINGTON—The Four Rio Brothers, who give a gymnastic exhibition at the Washington this week, have one of the best acts of the kind on the road. The act all the way through is strictly high class, and gives evidence of long and careful training.

THE KAISERIN VICTORIA, WHICH WILL BRING TEDDY HOME.

tion Union soldiers who marched up Pennsylvania avenue in Washington after the war.

Every prominent fraternal lodge in the country, various lodges of Italians, Germans and other foreign-Americans, clubs, societies, bands—almost every unit of the many associations into which American people gather, will be represented in the parade. They will come from every part of the country.

In Battery park, where Mayor Gaynor, on a raised platform, will welcome Roosevelt in view of hundreds of thousands of persons, an area will be roped off for 3000 individuals. These 3000 favored ones, within the inclosure, will include senators, congressmen, financial leaders and men who are so prominent that their names appear almost daily in the public prints. They will form about as exclusive a little crowd as has ever been gathered in this country. On the platform, where only 200 of the very biggest of the big can be accommodated, will be seen the faces of diplomats and men of worldwide renown. Colonel Roosevelt is expected to make a short speech and then he will enter a carriage for the parade. Mayor Gaynor will ride with him.

One thousand mounted policemen will head the parade, with the police band.

The rough riders will escort Roosevelt. Three hundred of them will hold this place of honor. Charles E. Hunter of Oklahoma will lead them. There will be Captain Cosby, who was almost killed at San Juan, and "Fightin' Parson" Rev. Henry Brown, and Ben. H. Colbert of Tishomingo, and Marshal Chris Madden of Guthrie, together with Lon Muxlow, constable of Guthrie, and Dave Hadden. John H. Abernathy, who kills wolves with his hands, and Abernathy's two sons, who are now riding horseback from Guthrie to New York for the ceremony, will also probably be in line, though they are not rough riders. Sloan Simpson, who was a veteran in the civil war, but lied to the enlisting officers in Montana when he wanted to join the rough riders, saying he was 45, when he was 59, will also be present and riding. Many of the rough riders don't want to take any chances on "city horses" and will bring their own causers. In view of the fact that many of these ponies have never before seen a city, the chances are that there will be some real rough riding.

◆ THERE WILL BE DOINGS FOR MRS. ROOSEVELT MISS ETHEL ALSO ◆ No one knows what part Kermit Roosevelt will have in the ceremonies of welcome to his father, but his mother and sister Ethel will be guests of Mrs. Donald McLean and the Daughters of the American Revolution, of which Mrs. McLean is president, at a luncheon at Sherry's. From the windows Mrs. Roosevelt and Ethel will be able to see the parade.
