RAIN KILLS GAME: SCORE 2-2

RYAN AND BROOKS VS. HALL AND BYRNES

With the raindrops still pattering down at the end of the half-hour wait, the teams and fans adjourned to "fight again some other day"—or, to get down from the poetical, to resume the fan fest tomorrow.

The score was a tie—two to two.

In spite of "wind and weather" the game started on time. "Tis ladies' day, and they brought their overcoats with 'em. It was almost breezy enough for furs in June. There was no other cause for excitement before round one of the game.

At about twenty minutes to 4 o'clock the rain descended, and the Indians had to cease playing at the start of their half of the third inning.

The big crowd in the bleachers got free tickets to the grandstand. Thus they are about the only ones who profited by the downpour, saving two bits. Their brothers, who paid four bits, looked a trifle glum as the crowd sat down beside them.

THIRD INNING.
Tacoma..... 1
Spokane..... 0
Tacoma—Bassie doubled to right center; was sacrificed to third by Mott. He then scored on Rockenfield's sacrifice fly to Davis. Davis singled to center and stole second. Hartman out on grounder, Cartwright to Nordyke.

SECOND INNING.
Tacoma..... 1
Spokane..... 2
Jansing tripled to right center. Coleman died on a grounder to first. Jansing scored on Brooks' error. Byrnes and Hall both out. Davis singled to center; sacrificed to second by Nordyke. Cartwright walked. Davis retired at third, Hall to Jansing, on Brooks' grounder to pitcher. Ryan doubled to left field, scoring Cartwright and Brooks. Netzel safe on fielder's choice, an unsuccessful attempt being made by Rockenfield to throw Ryan out at third. Cooney out Rockenfield to Mott.

THIRD INNING.
Tacoma..... 0
Tacoma—Bassie singled over second. Mott sacrificed him to second. Rockenfield popped a fly to Netzel. Stevens drove a liner to Nordyke.

AFTER THREE MARRIAGES, SHE IS TO WED LOVER OF HER YOUTH

(By United Press Leased Wire)
LOS ANGELES, June 16.—Mrs. Mary G. Lee, three times married and as many times left alone, is enroute today on the steamship Governor for San Diego, where upon her arrival, she will again become a bride.

This time she will marry her first love, Frederick D. Black, to whom she plighted her troth 24 years ago at Walla Walla, and with whom she afterwards had a disagreement which annulled the engagement.

Since that time Mrs. Lee has been led to the altar three times, and her last husband, according to her story, did not treat her with the love and affection required in the marriage contract.

WIVES AND MOTHERS PROTEST

Sullivan's Performances Do Not Shield Families From Gambling Evil.

SPOKANE, June 15, 1910.—Editor The Press: I see in the paper that you have called attention of the police to the gambling on North Monroe street. I wish to thank you for it, as I have had a hard time to keep my son from playing there. He has told me that there are two places where gambling is going on four times a week. He said that in the place they close up the front of the store at 12 o'clock and go into the back room, where they play all night. A raffleoff is taken by the house. A policeman has been noticed watching the boys play pitch, and he would turn back when they paid the money wagered. I hope that you will put a stop to this, and oblige
A MOTHER.

Since The Press began its exposure of the open conditions in gambling permitted, with the knowledge of the police, the wives and mothers of the city who have felt the harmful effects of this practice have begun to talk. The above letter is a sample appeal to The Press, referring to the gambling dens on North Monroe street. The North Monroe street games are small compared with the big ones in the downtown cigar stores.

That there is favoritism in the police control of the gambling situation can easily be shown. The other day someone started a small game in the rear of the Montana club on Riverside avenue, which is owned by newcomers in Spokane. The game had not been run over three or four nights before an order

FLOODS IN EUROPE DO BIG DAMAGE

(By United Press Leased Wire)
BELGRADE, June 16.—Twenty towns were inundated in the Moravia river valley, and it is the belief of King Peter, who personally is conducting the relief work, that 200 to 400 persons were drowned. Thousands of residents of the valley are marooned on roofs. The flood is the worst the Moravia valley has suffered in many years.

FIVE TOWNS SUBMERGED.
BERNE, Switzerland, June 16.—The towns of Zurich, Airdorf, Lucerne, Staz and Aurau are partially submerged by flood waters today. Several landslides have occurred in the vicinity of Lucerne. It is known today that 11 persons, mostly children, were killed when a factory building at Airdorf collapsed.

EIGHTY DROWN
BUDAPEST, June 16.—Eighty persons were drowned when the Neva river overflowed its banks, according to news received here today. The property loss was enormous.

150 DROWN.
BERLIN, June 16.—The river Ammer is falling today and the water in the Oberammergau district is receding, making rescue and relief work easier. It is believed that 150 persons were drowned in the Ahr valley, where the flood was most severe.

INVENTORS OF THIS NEW AEROPLANE HOPE TO SMASH ALL SPEED RECORDS WITH IT ON TRIAL

BURGESS SEA-TEE IN HERRING-BURGESS AEROPLANE.

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., June 9.—An aeroplane which is expected to break all speed records and which has, the inventors claim, very effectively evaded the Wright patents, has just been completed here by W. Starling Burgess, millionaire yacht designer, and A. M. Herring, former partner of Glenn Curtiss. The Wright patent depends upon the "warping wings" as a means for holding equilibrium.

This newest machine designed to conquer the air has a series of fins overhead, by means of which it is kept from tipping. It is this fact that is intended to avoid the Wright monopoly.

"These fins are an entirely new thing," Mr. Burgess says, "and are not used on any other machine. I expect they will correct many of the worst evils of flying. We will make straight flights at first not attempting any turns until later."

The curves are different from the Herring-Curtiss machine, and the angles of the wings steeper, which will allow the machine to rise easier. It will lift going at the rate of 26 miles an hour. Other machines will not rise under 37 miles an hour. The wings are of strong silk treated with celluloid, and are air and gas tight.

The fins are arranged on top of the framework, four near the center and two on each end. They are shaped like a leg of mutton sail and are believed to be a great improvement over all other devices to prevent tipping.

Another distinctive feature is the use of skids or runners, instead of wheels, for making a rise into the air from the ground. There are three of these, shaped like skis and they have steel shoes like a sled.

The machine complete weighs 408 pounds, and is built of laminated spruce. It is 26 feet eight inches wide and 29 feet long. The control is by the right hand and right foot, and steering is done by a horizontal wheel with the left hand. It has a four-cylinder 25-horsepower engine, capable of developing 30-horsepower. The radiator is an especially light type.

A NEW DANGER FOR THE LOAN SHARKS

If the Statute Doesn't Get Them the Common Law Will.

(Special to The Press)
PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—Loan agencies are disorderly houses. Gambling houses, wine rooms, loan agencies—they all come under the same heading of public evils.

The prosecuting attorney of Philadelphia has not been fully established.

Judge F. A. Brey, who directed a jury to bring in a verdict against a loan agent on the charge of running a disorderly house. "The verdict was directed because we knew that it would be necessary for a higher court to establish the charge of the district attorney. But I spoke my opinion to the jury in telling them what verdict to reach."

If the court of appeals sustains this court the lives of the loan sharks will be made miserable by the police.

Any loan agent who charges a higher rate than six per cent for loans will be liable to arrest by any policeman at any time. His office may be raided at any moment and he will find himself in the same position as the keeper of evil resorts of other kinds.

Samuel P. Rotan, the district attorney, who brought the charge of keeping disorderly houses, told how he arrived at his conclusion.

"As we investigated the loan shark evil we found case after case

SAM P. ROTAN.

Philadelphia has taken this stand in a fight against the loan evil, and the district criminal court has ruled that the offices of loan sharks are disorderly places, and that their proprietors may be arrested and sentenced to jail and their places raided just as the police would raid a "redlight."

NEW ORLEANS USED FIGHT ARGUMENT

Only Way to Get Exposition Was to Cut Out Fight.

(By United Press.)
SACRAMENTO, June 16.—Governor Gillett stopped the big fight to save the Panama-Pacific exposition to San Francisco.

New Orleans, the other claimant, was making capital out of the "Paris of America" conditions already existing at San Francisco, and the added weight of the big fight to this argument precluded the success of San Francisco, in the governor's opinion.

July 4, 1910, was sacrificed to the entire summer of 1915. This was the unvarnished gossip about the capital today after the world of sport and finance and moving pictures had been shocked by the news of Governor Gillett directing Attorney General Webb to stop the mill or prosecute all participants. The governor has been heartily at work in an

RENO MINISTERS NOW GET BUSY

(By United Press Leased Wire.)
RENO, Nev., June 16.—A meeting of ministers of Reno today passed resolutions protesting against holding the Jeffries-Johnson fight. The ministers took this action at a special meeting. The resolutions recited all the objections raised by ministerial bodies in other cities.

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio.—A dirigible balloon broke from its moorings here yesterday, and carried with it a 10-year-old boy. When the gas became exhausted it slowly came to earth. The boy crawled to the end of the framework and dropped safely to the ground. Then the balloon soared up again and was lost to view.

READY FOR ROOSEVELT

(By United Press Leased Wire)
NEW YORK, June 16.—Details of the reception to be accorded Roosevelt upon his arrival in New York Saturday were completed today and the committee in charge feels certain there will be no hitch in carrying out the program. The parade and reception ceremonies will be concluded at 11:30 a. m.

Mayor Gaynor will deliver a brief speech of welcome to Roosevelt, who is expected to reply briefly.

Roosevelt will have an escort of Rough Riders and Spanish War Veterans in the march up Fifth avenue, from Eighth to Thirty-sixth streets. Twenty-five thousand members of political organizations will line the avenue and cheer the distinguished leader as he passes.

GUS SAYS TODAY:

"Every time I see a big husky shoot a stray dog I wonder if he's gettin' revenge because his breakfast was on the blink. The weather man has got it doped that it'll be fair tomorrow, but I'm thinkin' it looks 'nabi cloudy!' more like rain."

UTAH'S GOVERNOR IS STANDING PAT

(By United Press Leased Wire)
SALT LAKE, Utah, June 16.—Governor William Spry, in answer to a statement that Tex Rickard is making overtures to bring the Jeffries-Johnson fight to Saltair, near here, said today:

"So far as I am concerned, the fight incident is closed. I see no reason why I should change my mind. There is nothing to make me change my previously announced determination not to permit the fight in Utah."

NEW ORLEANS HASN'T GOT EXPOSITION YET.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The foreign affairs committee of the house this afternoon declined to decide whether the government is to favor New Orleans or San Francisco for the holding of a fair in celebration of the completion of the Panama canal in 1915. The matter will be postponed until the next session of congress.

SEVERE QUAKE

(By United Press Leased Wire.)
CLEVELAND, June 16.—A severe earthquake, probably 3000 miles distant, was recorded on the St. Ignatus seismograph today, and it is the opinion of Father Odenbach, scientist at the institution, that the shock centered in the Iceland region.

The first shock was recorded at 2:49 a. m., and was followed by two others, one at 2:55 and the third at 3 a. m. The last shock was of long duration, ending at 4:15 a. m.

The shocks were of sufficient violence to do tremendous damage if they struck an inhabited district.

HARD TO REFORM WITH THE POLICE ON GIRL'S TRAIL

Mable Smith made an affidavit in the fore part of the fight for police matrons that gave a hard jolt to the police and conditions in the county jail. This incurred the hostility of two powerful forces.

Between all of these forces there seems to be a determined effort to do something to Mable.

Mable was once a wayward girl. She trod the path that led to the depths, but in the fullness of time she saw the error of her way and turned over a new leaf. For the last four months she has led a quiet life as a domestic in a private family and has been straight. Yet the police seem determined that Mable Smith shall not be given an opportunity to make amends for the past or to lead a better life. Reform—it is impossible in Spokane if you incur the ill will of the police.

The Press ventures the information to the police department that any effort to intimidate or oppress the Smith girl will be promptly exposed.

MAN TRIES TO RUSH TO TAFT

Gun Found on Him—Thought to Be Insane—Said Taft Was Looking for Him.

(By United Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 16.—Armed with a 38 caliber revolver, James Stricklen, miner, of Cumberland, Md., attempted to reach President Taft today. He almost succeeded in passing the guards at the president's private office before he was stopped.

Stricklen, who is of prepossessing appearance, entered the building without causing suspicion. He said he had an appointment with the president. The doorkeeper noticed the man's excitement as he was turning the knob on the door of the president's private office and stopped him.

Detective Sergeant Daley immediately placed Stricklen under arrest and he was taken to the police station, where he was held pending an examination into his sanity. He gave his age as 44. He said that President Taft had been advertising for him in West Virginia newspapers and that he went to the White House in response to the advertisement.

It is reported here that he attempted to reach President Roosevelt in the same way two years ago.

SAN DIEGO GETS IN LINE

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 16.—The city council today by a vote of four to one, adopted a resolution refusing to issue any more permits for boxing contests in this city.

The action was taken on account of Governor Gillett's attitude towards the Jeffries-Johnson fight.
