KAUFMAN-LANGFORD POSTPONED

Promoter Blot Says He'll Obey Law—Delayed One Week, Anyway.

(By United Press Leased Wire) SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—The Kaufman-Langford prize fight was called off at 11 o'clock this morning by Promoter Louis Blot. Blot issued a statement from the office of Cleveland Dam, his attorney, in which he said that he had been notified by Adjutant General Lauck and Chief of Police Martin that the fight would be forcibly stopped.

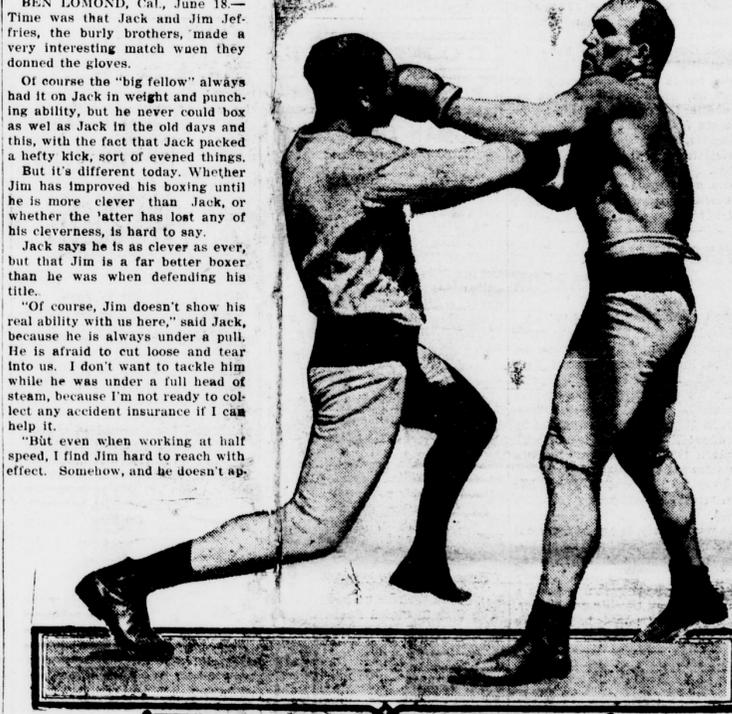

Blot conferred with his attorney for fully an hour before making the announcement that the fight would not be held. Blot stated that it was his desire to obey the law in all respects.

The statement follows: "After a number of conferences between the officers of the Metropolitan club and the attorneys for the said club the club has determined to postpone the boxing exhibition between Kaufman and Langford, which was scheduled to take place this afternoon.

"Mr. Louis Blot, representing the Metropolitan club, and Messrs. Cleveland Dam and George Appel, his attorneys, were informed last night by Adjutant General Lauck that he had been instructed by Governor Gillett to prevent the boxing exhibition between Kaufman and Langford if the Metropolitan club should attempt to stage the same.

"It is the desire of Mr. Blot to obey the law in all respects, and while he feels that the view of Governor Gillett is erroneous, he can not, as a law abiding citizen, defy the mandate of the governor and the chief of police."

BRO. JACK NEVER USED TO STAND FOR ANYTHING LIKE THIS FROM BRO. JIM

BY TIP WRIGHT. BEN LOMOND, Cal., June 18.—Time was that Jack and Jim Jeffries, the burly brothers, made a very interesting match when they donned the gloves.

Of course the "big fellow" always had it on Jack in weight and punching ability, but he never could box as well as Jack in the old days and this, with the fact that Jack packed a hefty kick, sort of evened things. But it's different today. Whether Jim has improved his boxing until he is more clever than Jack, or whether the latter has lost any of his cleverness, is hard to say.

Jack says he is as clever as ever, but that Jim is a far better boxer than he was when defending his title.

"Of course, Jim doesn't show his real ability with us here," said Jack, "because he is always under a pull. He is afraid to cut loose and tear into us. I don't want to tackle him while he was under a full head of steam, because I'm not ready to collect any accident insurance if I can help it.

"But even when working at half speed, I find Jim hard to reach with effect. Somehow, and he doesn't ap-

WHAT ABOUT THIS GIRL?

The district courts of the district of Columbia are engaged in hearing arguments as to whether a girl who has 1-12ths negro blood in her veins is entitled to go to school with white children.

The girl in question has blue eyes and is a perfect blond.

Her great-grandmother was an octroon.

Both sides agree as to the small proportion of negro blood and the question arises whether she should be classed as negro or white.

GREATEST WELCOME

(By United Press Leased Wire) NEW YORK, June 18.—The steamship Kaiserin Auguste Victoria, bearing Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, reached Ambrose channel at 7:05 a. m. today and anchored off Quarantine at 7:45.

As the huge liner passed Ambrose light the warships in the lower bay began to fire the first presidential salute of 21 guns ever accorded a private citizen of the United States.

When the South Carolina began saluting, Roosevelt clasped his hands for joy and cried: "Look at them! Aren't they wonderful and beautiful? Can you blame me for wanting that kind of a navy? This is worth coming all the way from Khartoum to see."

FORTUNE FOR DYING BULLDOG--PITTANCE FOR DYING BABES

Mrs. Hawkins Taylor of Washington has just returned from Europe bringing with her to die, Baron, a large white bulldog, who has been given up by the veterinarians of the continent, some of the most eminent of whom were consulted as to his health. Baron is suffering from elephantiasis and walks with difficulty.

The cost of the attempts made by his mistress to save bulldog Baron's life must have run up into the hundreds of dollars, for we all know the fees of European specialists are high. No doubt thousands of dollars would have been expended by the owner of this pampered canine if only his health might be restored.

Would this Mrs. Hawkins Taylor donate as much toward the saving of the life of some helpless unfortunate child? Would she be willing to donate as much toward brightening the lives and providing the absolute necessities for homeless little children left to the mercy of this big world? No doubt she responded to the yelp of the canine; would she as quickly respond to the cry of the infant whose little heart hungered for the love and attention of a mother's love? Sometimes we feel that it is not so when we look about us and see the hundreds, and even thousands of little wails, blind and crippled who are crowded into the orphan homes all over the country.

and looked out of the window toward the playground where dozens of little boys and girls were romping about.

"Think of the homeless little ones in this world," she continued; "we have 89 in our home. Think what it takes to keep them in clothes and shoes and to provide them with the necessities of life. I don't know what we would do if all women were like Mrs. Taylor, but luckily they are not," she added with a smile.

"Think of the afflicted children
