BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 2.
Negroes and whites will not be allowed to congregate before the same bulletin boards to watch returns of the Jeffries-Johnson fight Monday. Mayor O'Brien today issued an order instructing the police to keep the whites and negroes separated. He declared that he intended to take no chance of a riot in Birmingham as a result of the Nevada fight.

GREELEY, Col., July 1.—Angered at being separated from two small elephants, two big elephants in the Sells-Floto show charged wildly down the Main street in pursuit of a baker's wagon. The driver, after a mad gallop, scattering bread and pie in every direction, escaped. The elephants, chained together, crashed through a fence and were stopped by a tree.

BIPLANE RACES FAST AUTO; BEATS AUTO BY LONG BLOCK

INDIANAPOLIS, June 21.—The Overland "wind wagon" and a Wright biplane strove for supremacy on the motor speedway during the Indianapolis aviation meet, and officially the biplane won, making the lap of two and one-half miles in 4 minutes and 58 seconds. Going against the wind the wind wagon gained rapidly on the aeroplane, but coming down the stretch with the wind the latter easily outstripped the earth bound flyer and crossed the line a hundred yards ahead of the wind wagon.

The wind wagon didn't really have a fair show. It's easy enough to beat a wind wagon in an aeroplane. You can take the inside of the track and keep it, and furthermore you can cut corners if you feel like it—which no auto wind wagon can do with impunity when the fence is strong.

The owners of the propeller driven auto say that the machine can make 60 miles an hour, but that in the race with the plane it was handicapped by a small propeller, their big propeller having been broken.

HIS TRAINER REVEALED "PLOT"

Had Done Little "Loafing"—Cornell Says Jeff Is in Perfect Condition.

BY ROGER CORNELL, CHIEF TRAINER AT JEFFRIES' CAMP.

(Written for the United Press.)
RENO, July 2.—Contrary to the popular belief, there is nothing incongruous in the statement that Jeffries will be in the best condition of his career when he enters the ring on Monday. There is nothing miraculous in the fact that this trite expression is becoming an actuality.

The reason for doubt was that "retirement" is commonly associated with old age. Jeffries' retirement came when he was only 30 and before his actual physical maturity, which in men of large physique often comes late. This is (Continued on page six.)

RENO, Nev., July 2.—Jack Johnson came into town today and visited the arena, inspecting it thoroughly. After about 10 minutes of examination and trial of the floor, Johnson pronounced the ring the best he ever saw. The only fault he found was with the ropes, which he said were too near the edge of the platform. He suggested nailing three inch strips of lumber on the edge to prevent either fighter from slipping out of the ring.
Johnson is still obstinate about the matter of tossing a coin for corners. He insists that the tossing take place after he and Jeffries enter the ring and not before. Berger is still hopeful of getting the contestants to toss for corners Sunday.
The first big trainload of fight fans arrived from San Francisco today. Trains from the east are late today and a jam is expected Sunday.

LONDON, July 2.—The 100 yard dash for the amateur championship was won by Ramsdell of the University of Pennsylvania today, in the international amateur athletic meet. Ramsdell defeated Walker of South Africa. His time was 10 1-5 seconds.

DOCTOR IMAGINES HE IS KING EDWARD

Imagining that he is a reincarnation of the late King Edward, Dr. Edward Bunton, thus afflicted, was yesterday adjudged insane by a commission in Judge Huneke's department of the superior court and ordered sent to Medical Lake.

Dr. Bunton has lived and had offices in the Hazel block. He was interested in the death of the late King Edward and the accession of King George, and read a great deal on the subject.

Within the last few days he approached a number of his friends and made the remark:
"I am King Edward and will again take my seat on the throne of Great Britain and Ireland. I am not dead, but have merely been resting."
Friends, fearing the doctor might do himself bodily harm in his imaginary effort to be restored to the throne of his mental ancestors, had him taken into custody and sent to Medical Lake for treatment.

WARLIKE TIMES ON MONDAY

Annual Camp of Veterans Opens Monday—Grand Picnic.

With scenes reminding one of the days of '61 to '65, the chasing of the dons across the sunny slopes of Cuba or the pursuit of the Filipinos over the marshes of Luzon, the annual camp of the Spokane County Veterans association will open on the morning of the Fourth.

Every available tent that can be had around the city is being pressed into service, and from the number of calls that are being received from veterans in Spokane and will be needed.

Monday the camp will open with a grand, old-fashioned Fourth of

DOWNFALL OF "STOOL PIGEON"

Charley Burger, driver of a wagon for the Crescent laundry, was a "stool pigeon" for the police.

But that it is meant that the police favored Burger in various ways, in consideration of the fact that he tipped off to them what he saw in his rounds on the wagon or in his haunts after nightfall.

Burger's weakness was gambling. He would start a poker game on

SIX NEGROES KILLED; RIOT

(By United Press Leased Wire)
MENDENHALL, Miss., July 2.—Having killed six negroes in a race riot which began last evening, a mob resumed its attack on the negro settlement here today. A negro named Skiffer was riddled with bullets and slain. The negroes living here have fled and the mob is hunting them.

The trouble started Sunday when Bushby, a white man, went to the cabin of a negro named Brady to collect $2 which he said the negro owed him. Brady and Buckley quarreled and a fight ensued in which Buckley was killed. Brady and other negroes fled, pursued by a mob of white men. The negroes were found in Skiffer's cabin near Harrisville. They were huddled together in fear. All were dragged from the cabin by the infuriated mob.

MAKES TOUR FOR GOOD GOVERNMENT

R. B. MARTIN, who will leave tomorrow for a five weeks' speaking tour in the south and south central parts of the state in behalf of good government, township organization and equal suffrage. Mr. Martin will give a month to Spokane county at the close of the campaign.

Births of five girls and four boys were recorded yesterday.

MENTAL PHOTOS--NO. 1

D. W. VINCENT
Cashier Old National Bank

Yesterday The Press announced a series of "mental photographs" of well known local people. Here is Mental Photo No. 1.

BY PARA DALTON.

D. W. Vincent, cashier of the Old National Bank—Mr. Vincent stood the test and below you will see his photograph.

Mr. Vincent is a broadminded, broad character, evenly balanced man. Above all other traits in men he admires positiveness, and in women he admires fidelity. The most detestable trait in the character of man is weakness. In the fair sex he dislikes the trait which is expressed in gossip, the saying of little things which they do not realize is harmful until all is over an dthe offense is committed.

In the evening, when the banking hours are over, Mr. Vincent seeks recreation in outdoor sports. He likes all outdoor games, and although he claims he isn't an expert at any, he would rather be in the game than to be a looker on. Baseball and tennis are his favorite games. If he wishes to spend a quiet evening indoors he plays bridge whist. As a mental developer he thinks it is splendid.

Mr. Vincent is satisfied to be a Spokane banker, but if he were not himself he would rather be Theodore Roosevelt than any other man on the globe.

What is his idea of happiness? According to his view, happiness comes through the ability to enjoy all things and to temperate in all things.

If he were stranded on an island as Robinson Crusoe, he would part last with the works of Shakespeare. He has, however, several favorite authors. He finds inspiration in Shakespeare, Kipling, Henry Van Dyke and Gilbert Parker.

What sort of beauty, blonde or brunette, does he prefer? He has no preference, but judges beauty by the character and expression of the face rather than by the color of the hair.

The mottoes which guide Mr. Vincent in his successful career

POLITICAL FUR WILL FLY SOON

Poindexter Due Tomorrow—First Guns of Campaign Will Get Into Action.

With the return of Judge Poindexter things promise to liven up in the senatorial fight. The Spokane congressman is expected back from Washington Sunday or Monday morning.

For the first week or so he will give his time to Spokane headquarters, planning the campaign and conferring with friends, and will then strike out for the camp of the enemy, on the west side. The fur will surely fly when Judge Poindexter gets into the fight right. The opposition is vulnerable in many points and there will be no openings left but what the Poindexter boys will go under the hide.

The big event of the coming week will be the Poindexter banquet Thursday night at the Masonic temple. The Poindexter campaign will be formally launched at that time, and some of the staunch supporters of the progressive movement are expected from outside the county.

"GARN, YOU MUFF!" CRIED BABE IN EASY BILLINGSGATE TO MAMMA SHE DIDN'T KNOW

MRS. ROSE WILD AND DAUGHTER VICTORIA.

NEW YORK, July 2.—On the floor of the immigrants' detention room at Ellis Island sat three year old Victoria Wild, who had just been brought to America on the steamer Majestic by Mr. and Mrs. Stokes, Salvation Army workers.

Victoria was playing with a teddy bear in her mother's arms when she heard the words "Garn, you muff!" cried, "Baby! My baby!" she cried. She had not seen Victoria for two years. Victoria looked up at the finally (Continued on Page Six.)

MAX BALTHASER SAYS IT'S JEFF IN 25 ROUNDS

BY MAX BALTHASER.

RENO, Nev., July 2.—In my opinion James J. Jeffries will win his battle with Jack Johnson Monday within 25 rounds. I base this prediction upon the wonderful form into which he has worked himself. I believe he is as good, if not better than when he fought Corbett seven years ago. His speed and strength are all that could be desired. It is not necessary to touch upon his gameness.

I am bearing in mind in making this expression, that, in Johnson, Jeffries meets the most dangerous man in his career. Giving Johnson due credit for the possession of many wonderful fighting qualities, in Jeffries he is meeting a giant almost superhuman, and if he succeeds in beating the white man he must be hailed as the most remarkable pugilist of all time.
