PLAYS AND PLAYERS IN SPOKANE

"The Clansman," Spokane Three Good Vaudeville Bills

"THE PLAYS THE THING"

ARIZONA JOE AT PANTAGES

For the week of July 4, Manager Walker of the Pantages has secured for his headline act one of the most massive productions in vaudeville today—Arizona Joe, with his eight cowpunchers and three broncos, representing "A Glimpse of Prairie Life." With the act comes the following wild west features: Miss Adele Von Ohl, the champion lady rough rider of the world, late of the Buffalo Bill wild west show; Art Boben, roping expert, who can, as has been proven on many occasions, throw a lariat true to the mark with ease and grace that would make even the old timers sit up and take notice; Broncho Bob, champion bucking horse rider of the world, who issues a challenge to anybody who owns a broncho that is unridable; the famous cowboy quartet, in pastime songs of the prairie; "Kiddie," the fast and furious broncho, and Wampus, the only wild broncho doing an outlaw bucking act on the American stage today.

Maxine and Bobby, with their clever canine assistant, come direct from the London Alhambra, and visiting America for the first time. The manager of our Calgary house says, "Maxine and Bobby have a novelty act well worth seeing. They are acrobats in street clothes, with quiet comedy all through."

Kresko and Fox, "Prattling Pals," will present one of those classically singing and talking acts depending altogether on the cleverness of the performers.

Johnson and Rowland, "The Professor and the Maid," have an amusing skit, the kind which never fails to please.

Thomas and Ryan, originality in singing and dancing, have a good reputation and will in all probability be a big hit on next week's bill.

ARTHUR ROWLAND, IN "THE MAID AND THE PROFESSOR," AT THE PANTAGES.

EVEN CHANCE FOR LIFE.

Mrs. Dias, the woman who was struck with a 10 pound stone Thursday afternoon while attending a party at the home of Archie McLeod at 528 Lincoln street, is reported to have an even chance for her life. According to the guests who were present, the stone must have come from a very heavy blast, as it came crashing through the window with enough force to fell Mrs. Dias and fracture her skull.

DANCING ACT AT ORPHEUM

The biggest and greatest dancing act in vaudeville today, The Four Fords, real brothers and sisters, will headline a strong bill which opens at the Orpheum with the Sunday matinee. This act is a revelation in the matter of dancing. The precision, the artistic way it is presented and the novelty in the steps all recommend it highly. The act jumps to Spokane from Atlantic City, where it was to have appeared all summer, but a disagreement with the management made it possible for the Orpheum to secure the offering.

"The Working of the Third Degree" is the title of an unusually intense dramatic sketch which will be presented by Clay M. Greene and Harrison Armstrong, two playwrights who have an international reputation. A strong company of five appear in the sketch, which deals with the battle of wits between a detective and a rich criminal.

"The Rube Violinist and the Country Maid" might well be the caption of the act of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGreevy. Jack is some fiddler and in his eccentric "rube" makeup furnishes a world of fun. At the same time his wife is not to be overlooked, for she furnishes an abundance of the comedy.

Granville and Rogers, two singing and talking comedians, have an act which is enough different from the ordinary to win the sobriquet of "those Two Odd Fellows" for the actors.

Miss Josie Heather, an English music hall favorite, is another big attraction on the bill. She comes with four brand new songs and all hits which have won fame for her abroad. Dainty and effective costumes are another feature of Miss Heather's act.

A lively and hilarious skit will be presented by Ed Fennel and Lena Tyson, entitled "The Soph and the Freshie." It has musical comedy attachments and is ginger and fun from start to finish. The plot centers about the freshman, who is none other than Miss Tyson in boys' attire and she completely deceives her sweetheart, the sophomore, by the masquerade.

Senors Valentine and Dooley, South American cyclists for all their names, come with a lively and neatly constructed bike act, which has proved a prize winner for them.

Manager Muller announces that all of the bulletins from the Jeffries-Johnson fight will be announced from the Orpheum stage at the Monday matinee for the benefit of the patrons of the theater. The week's bill will be rounded out by the usual first run motion pictures and special overtures by the Orpheum orchestra.

PEOPLE LIKE A MAN WHO DOES HIS DUTY

Constable Broad of Opportunity, large, round faced and beaming with good health and kindly feeling for his fellow man, visited The Press this morning.

He was thankful for the support given in his fight against the speed-crazed autoists of Spokane, and said that the time a man should appreciate his friends is when he is under attack and trouble is flying around in large chunks.

"There is one reward about this thing, the people seem to be pleased when a man is trying to do his duty," said Constable Broad, with a modest expression. "I am not looking for notoriety in this affair, and had not those fellows gotten funny, nothing would have happened. I am simply a plain, every day constable, and run a box factory at Opportunity for a living. I have no fight against any man in the world, but when the people elected me constable and I held up my right hand and swore to enforce the laws I am going to do it, if I have to arrest every owner of an automobile in Spokane."

"This is no idle boast, it is simply a plain statement of fact, from a plain man and they can take it from me that I mean business. I enjoy a fast automobile ride about as well as any one on earth, but when I must gratify my desires in this line, at the danger of maiming or killing human beings, I will first quit the business."

"If the automobile owners of Spokane want to buck this decision they are welcome to go to it. The people of Opportunity, I am glad to say, are standing with me to a man and are ready to go down the line to the finish."

SMELTER HURT TREES; ORDERED CLOSED

(By United Press Leased Wire.) REDDING, Cal., July 2.—An order from the United States government that the Bully Hill smelter at Delmar shall close down July 1 was obeyed and 400 employes are idle today. Complaints were made to the federal authorities that the smoke from the smelter damaged fruit trees and crops in the vicinity and an investigation was made by the government. The damage was done to trees and crops in an area of two square miles surrounding the smelter.

Fight Returns at Auditorium

Dan McEnroe, the well known sporting man, has engaged the Auditorium theater for the afternoon of the Fourth. He has leased a special Postal Telegraph wire and will have it run into the theater and the operator will take the returns from the big fight right on the stage.

This will also be the occasion for the first showing in Spokane of the Gans-Nelson battle at Colma, which went 21 rounds. These will interest all fight fans. Pictures showing Jeffries in training will also be shown. Tickets on sale at Smith's cigar store and at the Auditorium. Reserved seats 50c.

SECOND LARGEST PAVING CONTRACT

Bids were opened yesterday on the second largest paving contract ever considered by the board of public works, that of the Cannon Hill district, running from Fourth to Tenth avenues, Monroe street to Hangman creek. Four bids were presented, with a range of nearly $100,000 in the figures. The engineer's estimate on the job is $444,000.

The J. F. Hill Co., recently from Chicago, are the low bidders. Their figures are $438,171, with a maintenance charge of $4972. The Hill company was the successful bidder in the recent Browne's addition letting, involving over half a million dollars.

Mitchell Bros., Spokane, presented the second lowest bid, $443,600, with a maintenance charge of $15,500.

The bids were taken under advisement by the board of public works.

EVERY BONE BROKEN.

(By United Press Leased Wire.) MUNCIE, Ind., July 2.—Search is being made today for the relatives of Ralph Bradley, 24, an aeronaut, who was instantly killed when his parachute failed to open after he had cut loose from his balloon 2400 feet above the earth. The accident occurred near here last evening. Thousands saw the balloonist dashed to earth. Every bone in his body was broken.

Fight Returns at Lakes

Returns from the big fight will be given promptly by Postal Telegraph at Liberty, Coeur d'Alene and Hayden lakes Monday afternoon. Special low rates on all Inland lines: $1 to Coeur d'Alene; $1:35 to Hayden; 60 cents to Liberty. Tickets good July 2, 3, 4 and returning July 5.

PULLMAN MAIDS AT WASHINGTON

Three star acts, and four almost equally celebrated, will be the offering of the Washington theater for the week commencing matinee Sunday, July 3. It is surely a pretentious bill, when such clever artists as Mr. Henry Lee, the American actor; Tim McMahon's Ten Pullman Porter Maids, with Ned (Cork) Norton and Miss Alice Mortlock and her clever supporting company in her new play, "The Other Woman," are on one bill. Lee has just returned from a tour of the world. He will impersonate the great men of the past and present. There will be Mark Twain, Bismarck, Grant and Lee, Pope Leo and Emperor William and many more of those who are interesting to all of us, reproduced with a breathing, speaking likeness; Tim McMahon's little white girls browned up, and his monologist, Mr. Ned Norton, backed up, with the assistance of an electrician or two; scenic and electrical effects, beautiful costumes and tuneful songs that will soon set you whistling and some very nifty dancing that constitutes the big vaudeville success entitled "McMahon's Pullman Girls." The girls are young and pretty and do not mind hiding their beauty under brown cork.

Miss Alice Mortlock is an established favorite here and the fact that she is bringing to us a new tabloid drama will be welcomed. The "Nimble Collegian," George O'Malley, in songs and dances; Lew Hoffman, an expert juggler and eccentric comedian; Musical Irving, in popular and classical selections and mirthful anecdotes; two reels of new animated pictures and the really excellent Washington theater orchestra completes the program.

NORWEGIAN ACTOR TONIGHT.

Anton Sannes, the well known Norwegian actor, will appear at the Masonic Temple tonight in a program of character impersonations and sketches from the best known writers of Norway. Sannes is reputed to be one of the best artists in the country in the interpretation of the old Norwegian characters and his work everywhere has been commended.

HAL JOHNSON, IN "THE MAID AND THE PROFESSOR," AT THE PANTAGES.

"THE WHITE SQUAW."

If you want to see a novel play and have a good laugh, see "The White Squaw" which will be seen on Friday night at the Auditorium.

Neamata, the white squaw, has learned English well enough to read simple words and fairy tales; she, however, has never seen a white woman since she can remember, and when Octavia, her beautiful sister, comes to the wigwam, she thinks her the fairy she has been reading about. There is a neat comedy scene that is screamingly funny. You will also feel sorry for Neamata, when you see what education and social position has done for her sister, while Neamata's training has been by the two Indians, Michabo and Ampata.

THE CLANSMAN AT SPOKANE

Sensational to a degree of fever pitch is "The Clansman," the offering of the Lawrence and Sandusky management at the Spokane theater for the week commencing with Sunday evening's performance.

Thomas Dixon, Jr., author of "The Clansman" and "The Leopard's Spots," is responsible for the dramatic version of both under the title of the former. He is a powerful writer and a finished dramatist and formerly wore the cloth of a minister of the gospel. He knows whereof he writes and instills a rare interest into his work.

The plot is disclosed in the first act which represents a scene in South Carolina just at the time in the nation's history when the freed negro was franchised as a voter even in the face of the fact that there was not one in a hundred who could even read the ballot which he placed in the ballot box and was positively incapable of understanding the purport of a vote.
